ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A SUBPOENA

Pursuant to III S.C. § 521 of the Student Code, the Student Supreme Court of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill hereby orders Matt Wohlford to amend his complaint such that Defendants' motion requesting electronic communication is unnecessary or to alternatively submit to Defendants and the Court copies of (a). All electronic communication (email, instant message transcripts, Facebook messages, cell phone text messages, etc.) pertaining to the interest meeting held by the Plaintiff at the Campus Y; including but, not limited to:

- Initial invitation to attend the meeting;
- Communications with the members of campus media;
- Communications with Plaintiff's campaign staff;
- Postings on message boards, blogs, social networking sites (e.g. Facebook, MySapce, Twitter);

(b). All materials passed out, shared, and/or displayed during the interest meeting held by the Plaintiff at the Campus Y.

Plaintiff is ordered to amend his complaint and serve a copy on the Defendant and file a copy with this court by noon on November 10, 2008. Failure to comply with this order to amend the complaint or to adequately amend the complaint so that it resolves the Court's concerns will result in Plaintiff being required to comply with the original subpoena provided by the Defendant. Done this day November 9, 2008 at 10:17 p.m.
