C. DAILY MINUTES

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 2019

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF CLERGY MEMBERS – 10:00 A.M.

CLERGY SESSION CONVENES: In compliance with ¶¶ 605.7 of the Book of Discipline (2016), Bishop Paul L. Leeland convened an executive session of the clergy members of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at 10 a.m. on Thursday, June 20, 2019, in George R. Stuart Auditorium, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. The Bishop introduced Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, pianist/organist, Atlanta, Georgia and Keith Wilson, conference musician, vocalist, Ben Hill UMC, Atlanta, Georgian who led the singing of hymn 140 (UMH), Great Is Thy Faithfulness. Bishop Leeland presented a meditation using II Timothy 1:8-14 and offered an opening prayer. Bishop Leeland welcomed those in attendance and noted that 2019 marked the 51st year of The United Methodist Church and the 235th year of the Methodist Church in The United States. He referenced ¶¶ 605.7 and ¶¶ 369.5 of the Book of Discipline (2016) for the purpose and business of the executive session of the clergy and the sole eligibility of clergy members in full connection to vote.

PERMISSION TO BE PRESENT: At the request of Bishop Leeland, the clergy members in full connection approved that the conference musicians, identified guests, lay members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and local pastors be allowed to be present during the executive session.

BUSINESS QUESTION 17: Bishop Leeland asked the District Superintendents to stand and supplied the proposed response for business question 17 in regard to the character of the eight District Superintendents. Then each of the District Superintendents affirmed the character of the clergy serving in their districts and business question 17 was approved.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT: After expressing appreciation to members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and affirming the work of the members, Bishop Leeland introduced Rev. Donald Jenkins, Saint Paul (Winston-Salem, YV) chairperson. Rev. Jenkins presented the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry and noted that the responsibility of the board is to guide, clarify, equip, and credential God's call to ministry for those seeking ordination and those already serving as clergy in the annual conference. He thanked the Bishop and the Cabinet.

ELECTION OF PROVISIONAL MEMBERS: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, director of ministerial services and conference secretary, introduced and moved the election of three persons as provisional deacons and four persons as provisional elders in response to Business Question 28, and they were elected. In response to Business Question 31, the Rev. Ingram introduced two persons who have had their ordination recognized from another Christian denomination and moved their election as provisional members and it was approved. (See Section V, Business of the Annual Conference, in the 2019 Journal)

ELECTION OF FULL CONNECTION MEMBERS: The Rev. Ingram introduced and moved the election of one person as a deacon in full connection and 15 persons as elders in full connection in response to Business Question 32. Following Bishop Leeland's inquiry of asking the traditional and historic questions and admonitions from the Book of Discipline (2016) and the ordinands' responses with the prescribed responses, they were elected and greeted warmly by the clergy. The same persons just elected were approved for ordination as deacons or as elders in response to Business Questions 33 and 34. The Rev. Ingram provided responses to Business Questions 38 and 39. In the instance of Business Question 38, those received by transfer from other annual conferences of The United Methodist Church; and, Question 39, one who was received in full connection from another denomination. Approval was given. (See Section V, Business of the Annual Conference, in the 2019 Journal).

ELECTRONIC BALLOTING TUTORIAL: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, gave information about the process of electronic balloting to elect the delegates to the 2020 General Conference and 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. In order to facilitate the process, the wi-fi in Stuart Auditorium will not be available during the elections; it is requested that cell phones and hotspots be turned off during balloting. After today the clergy sections for balloting will be in sections 1-5 and the laity sections for balloting will be in sections 6-10 of Stuart Auditorium. Voting for election of delegates will use an electronic handset. Ten clergy will be elected to serve as delegates to the 2020 session of the General Conference and 10 additional clergy will be elected to serve as delegates to the 2020 session of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, along with three reserve delegates. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast will be needed for election. On the first ballot for delegates to General Conference the list with corresponding voting numbers of all eligible clergy is printed in the Supplement, pages 20 through 32. Thirty seconds, or a longer period at the discretion of the Bishop, will be provided to enter the voting number of each person during a ballot. On the second and subsequent ballots a new roster for voting will be provided of the top 100 persons receiving votes. On the first ballot the names of persons receiving 10 or more votes will be read. After the second ballot those persons receiving 20 or more votes will be read. On all subsequent ballots those persons receiving 30 or more votes will be read.

After the first ballot the process to write-in a name for election is as follows: You must stand in place, relinquish the handheld device to the teller, receive a write-in ballot and vote for all the names to be elected on that ballot.

In the event that there is a technical difficulty with the handheld device during any ballot you must stand and receive a write-in ballot from the teller. After the ballot is closed you may go to the help desk and have the handheld device checked.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES: The conference secretary made the following enabling motions pertaining to the election of delegates to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional conferences, and they were approved:

Many of the regulations which govern our delegate elections are set forth in the 2016 Book of Discipline or in our conference rules; however, in order that we may properly carry out the balloting process, the following motion is necessary:

1. That the voting bar of the clergy session be set to include the Stuart Auditorium; and, that the voting bar of the laity session be set to include sections 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10. The bar will be set for the rest of the annual conference during the organizational session.

2. That all ballots in this election be cast using the electronic handsets that were distributed at registration. Write-in votes may be cast by relinquishing one's handset to a teller and requesting a written ballot. Conference member should write the names of all persons for that ballot on the paper ballot provided; provided.

3. That, following the counting of the first clergy ballot, a new voting roster for clergy be prepared, listing in alphabetical order the names and voting numbers of the 100 persons who received the highest number of votes on the first ballot; provided, however, that in the case of a tie which would result in the listing of more than 100 names, the listing cease with the names of those who received the number of votes immediately ahead of the position at which the tie occurred.

4. That a voting number be assigned to any person receiving at least twenty-five write-in votes on any ballot.

5. That the schedule for ballot reporting and taking ballots provided in the approved conference program be followed until the full number of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional conferences has been elected. Balloting must be completed by Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

6. That at least one of the chief tellers and one additional teller each from the laity and clergy be present in the rehearsal room as the results are being tabulated and produced.

7. That, following the ballot on which the final delegate from each order is elected to the Jurisdictional Conference, another ballot be taken and the three persons receiving the highest number of votes on that ballot be declared elected as reserve delegates from that order to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

8. That the travel and per-diem expenses of attending the 2020 General Conference be paid by the annual conference for the first two Jurisdictional Conference delegates elected from each order, in accordance with General Conference provisions for principal delegates.

9. That the travel and per-diem expenses of attending the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference be paid by the annual conference for all reserve delegates from this conference to that body, in accordance with Jurisdictional Conference provisions for principal delegates.

10. That the tellers named on page 18 of the Supplement be elected.

The Rev. Ingram extended her thanks to all the tellers just elected to serve.

PRACTICE USING THE HANDHELD ELECTRONIC VOTING DEVICE: The Rev. Ingram guided the clergy through several operational exercises using the handheld device, including using the yes and no keys.

QUESTIONS: The Rev. Dawn Hand, District Superintendent (Pittsburg District, Western Pennsylvania Conference) asked a question. The Rev. Paul McClure, Oak Hill (Morganton, CV District) made a comment. Bishop Leeland responded in each instance.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: The Rev. Kim Ingram continued the presentation of the required business questions 18-30, 35-37, and 40-47; and in each instance where a vote was required, they were approved.

REPORT OF THE TECHNICIAN: The technician in charge of the electronic balloting devices reported that the failures from the test ballots were due to user error and the need for additional time between selections. The Bishop ruled that the time for each selection during a ballot would be increased to one minute. A final practice ballot was taken.

FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: Following prayer by Rev. David C. Hockett, District Superintendent (ME District) the first clergy ballot for 10 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made necessary announcements.

RECESS: Following prayer by Bishop Leeland the executive session of the clergy recessed at 11:52 a.m.

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF CLERGY MEMBERS RECONVENES – 1:30 P.M.

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE CLERGY RECONVENES: The executive session of clergy members reconvened at 1:30 p.m. with singing of hymn 368 (UMH), My Hope Is Built.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: The Rev. Ann L. Duncan, secretary for the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented the responses for business questions 49-81; and in each instance where a vote was required the response was approved with the necessary majority. In response to business question 48, the Rev. Duncan requested the clergy to stand as she read the names of the members of the annual conference who had died since the last session and Bishop Leeland offered prayer. All of the business questions, considered as part of the executive session of the clergy, were approved as a whole.

TREASURY SERVICES: The Rev. Dr. R. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services, reported that Health Perks, a free virtual care service, and HealthMap were introduced earlier in 2019. He announced that the conference was changing the health network from Primary Physicians to Cigna Health Care Providers. Healthgram will continue to provide the administration for the clergy health benefits. This fall there will be an open enrollment for life insurance, major and accidental coverage with expanded options.

WORD OF GREETING: The Rev. Dr. Ken J. Walden, 16th President and Dean, brought greetings from Gammon Theological Seminary. Dr. Walden noted that the school was founded in 1883, has a long history of providing African-American higher education, and is known as the "school of the prophets," speaking truth to power. He thanked the conference for its prayers and financial support.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM: Rev. Kim Ingram introduced Rev. J. Daniel Hester, chairperson, and Rev. Kari L. Howard, vice-chairperson, who presented a report for the leadership development team. The goal of LEAD is to increase the capacity of ministry professionals and lay leadership to improve performance, accomplish changes in the local church, set and achieve significant goals, and inspire the congregation through preaching. Rev. Hester reviewed the fall offerings for the three preaching cohorts, developing servant leaders, and strategies to navigate change. In addition a fall spiritual renewal offering will be announced later. Hester noted that leadership development podcasts will begin in September. Rev. Howard announced clergy financial planning sessions in Asheville, Charlotte, High Point, and Statesville. The cost for the five-hour session is on a sliding scale. For more information and registration go online to www.LEADwncc.org or www.wnccumc.org. Rev. Ingram announced an initiative called The Space Between, which offers tools and resources for leaders in the midst of divisions in the denomination, churches, and communities.

BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD: Rev. Joseph M. Westfall, St. Luke's (Hickory, CV District) president, presented the report. The mission of the brotherhood/sisterhood is to reach out with compassion and care to bereaved families at the loss of a clergy member of the annual conference. Rev. Westfall introduced Rev. Roland T. Barnhardt, executive director, who noted that he makes immediate contact with the family upon learning of a member's death and presents them a benefit check. Rev. Barnhardt reported a decline in membership and the need to address the amount of assessments to maintain benefits. Rev. Westfall introduced Rev. H. Donnell FitzJefferies, St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP District) as the incoming president for the Brotherhood/Sisterhood.

FLOURISH: The Rev. Laura H. Auten, Uwharrie district superintendent, announced the creation of Flourish. In compliance with the requirement of The Book of Discipline (2016) for clergy assessment and review every 8 years, Flourish will be designed to assist clergy to review, renew and retool one's ministry.

RECESS: The executive session of the clergy recessed at 2:25 p.m.

RECONVENES: The executive session of the clergy reconvened at 2:40 p.m. with the singing of hymn 369 (UMH) Blessed Assurance.

REPORT OF FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the first General Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 606; necessary to elect, 304. The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram received 339 votes and was declared elected as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference. The listing of the top 100 vote getters was distributed.

SECOND GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: The second clergy ballot for 9 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

FRESH EXPRESSION: Rev. Daniel L. Pezet, II, conference director of church development, announced that every church would be provided access to Mission Insite Reports and that micro grants of $250.00 are available for congregations to develop fresh expression projects. Rev. Luke S. Edwards, coordinator, reported that since the challenge issued at last annual conference, 89 Fresh Expressions have been launched. Many of those fresh expression launches were for "dinner churches" (literally inviting people to gather around the dinner table to enjoy a free meal and have fellowship). In several instances churches with average worship attendance under 100 had doubled worship attendance with the start of a dinner church. The report concluded with a video about fresh expression and dinner churches.

ORDER OF DEACONS: Rev. Gloria G. Hughes, chairperson, presented the report of the order of deacons and announced that the order would meet September 12th in Asheville where deacons will learn more about Fresh Expressions and visit Haw Creek Commons. Participants will be led by Rev. Luke Edwards.

ORDER OF ELDERS: Rev. Paul B. Thompson, chairperson, presented the report of the order of elders and announced there would be a gathering of the order in November, 2019. He spoke of the value of the orders and fellowship; and, the nature of clergy working together. He expressed appreciation for deacons and local pastors, who along with elders, provide leadership in the conference.

FELLOWSHIP OF LOCAL PASTORS AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS: Rev. Sue Anne Morris, chairperson, presented the report. She celebrated the passion and service of local pastors, announced that the fellowship would convene its annual meeting Friday, June 21, 2019, and noted that this year's mentoring theme would be Back to Wesleyan Basics and would use the book Being United Methodist in the Bible Belt written by Rev. Belton Joyner.

REPORT OF SECOND GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the second General Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 727; necessary to elect, 365. The Rev. Amy L. Coles received 444 votes, Rev. Jeremy I. Troxler received 437 votes, Rev. James C. Howell III received 408 votes, Rev. In-Yong Lee received 385 votes, and Rev. Ashley Crowder Stanley received 366 votes and were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

PRIVILEGE MATTER: The Rev. Dawn M. Hand, requested that she no longer be considered for election as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

THIRD GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: The third clergy ballot for 4 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

INTENTIONAL GROWTH CENTER: Rev. Claude Kayler, new chief ministry officer, presented the report noting that the intentional growth center provides continuing education, leadership training and life-long learning experiences for the Southeastern Jurisdiction. He highlighted that the center provided training for intentional interim specialists to assist churches in transition and that since 2002 over 600 ministry specialists had been trained. A thousand youth have attended confirmation retreats. He listed several events scheduled for summer 2019 including "Creating a Discipleship Pathway" and "Time Management for Christian Leaders."

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY: Philip D. Wingeier-Rayo, newly hired academic dean and lay delegate from the Metro District, presented the report. He noted several new faculty hires, Rev. Lorena Parrish, associate professor of urban ministries and director of community engagement institute, and Rev. Anna Petrin, associate professor of worship and chapel elder. There are several new doctor of ministry tracks which include foreign travel. The Lily Foundation has awarded the school 2.2 million dollars to study changes in the religious work force. He reported on additional scholarships available for students.

REPORT OF THIRD GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the third General Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 729; necessary to elect, 366. The Rev. Shelly F. Webb received 396 votes and was declared elected as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

FOURTH GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: The fourth clergy ballot for 3 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

STORIES OF FAITH: Rev. Amy L. Coles, assistant to the bishop, highlighted the stories printed in the Stories of Faith that was distributed to the delegates showcasing examples of who we are in the Western North Carolina Conference. The opening story is about Riley Howell, a member of First (Waynesville, SM District) and student at the University of North Carolina Charlotte. Riley was killed by an on campus shooter as he tackled the assailant, protecting other students in the classroom.

REPORT OF THE FOURTH GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the fourth General Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 712; necessary to elect, 357. The Rev. E. Carter Ellis received 418 votes and the Rev. Darryl D. Dayson II received 378 votes and they were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Rev. Anthony (Andy) E. Lambert, Oak Ridge (Oak Ridge, NP District) withdrew his name from consideration for election.

FIFTH GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: The fifth clergy ballot for 1 delegate to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

GENERAL BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRY: Dana Lyles on behalf of the General Board of Global Ministry announced that 2019 marked the bicentennial of the mission movement of the Methodist church. A video showcasing that history and the current mission of GBGM was presented.

REPORT OF THE FIFTH GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the fifth General Conference clergy ballot as follows: valid, 726; necessary to elect, 364. There was no election.

SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: The sixth clergy ballot for 1 delegate to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

REPORT OF THE SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOT FOR CLERGY: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the sixth General Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 709; necessary to elect, 355. The Rev. Joshua H. Sherfey received 430 votes and was declared elected as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

ADJOURNMENT: Following prayer by Bishop Leeland the executive session of the clergy members adjourned at 4:30 p.m.

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 2019

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OPENS WITH LAITY SESSION – 8:30 A.M.

LAITY SESSION CONVENES: The laity session convened at 8:30 a.m. in Stuart Auditorium with Jarvis Wilson and Keith Wilson, conference musicians, leading the singing of hymn 140 (UMH) Great Is Thy Faithfulness. Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader, opened with prayer. Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, outlined the procedure for voting for delegates and the use of the electronic voting devices. In order to facilitate the process, the wi-fi in Stuart Auditorium will not be available during the elections; it is requested that cell phones and hotspots be turned off during balloting. The laity sections for balloting will be in sections 5-10 of Stuart Auditorium. Voting for election of delegates will use an electronic handset. Ten laity will be elected to serve as delegates to the 2020 session of the General Conference and 10 additional laity will be elected to serve as delegates to the 2020 session of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, along with three reserve delegates. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast will be needed for election. On the first ballot for delegates to General Conference the list with corresponding voting numbers of those persons willing to be elected are printed in the Supplement on page 19. One minute will be provided to enter the voting number of each person during a ballot. On the first ballot the names of persons receiving ten or more votes will be read. After the second ballot those persons receiving 20 or more votes will be read. On all subsequent ballots those persons receiving 30 or more votes will be read.

In order to write-in a name on the first or any subsequent ballot the process to write-in a name for election is as follows: You must stand in place, relinquish the handheld device to the teller, receive a write-in ballot and vote for all the names to be elected on that ballot.

In the event that there is a technical difficulty with the handheld device during any ballot you must stand and receive a write-in ballot from the teller. After the ballot is closed you may go to the help desk and have the handheld device checked.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES: The conference secretary made the following enabling motions pertaining to the election of delegates to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional conferences, and they were approved:

Many of the regulations which govern our delegate elections are set forth in the 2016 Book of Discipline or in our conference rules; however, in order that we may properly carry out the balloting process, the following motion is necessary:

1. That the voting bar of the clergy session be set to include the Stuart Auditorium; and, that the voting bar of the laity session be set to include sections 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10. The bar will be set for the rest of the annual conference during the organizational session.

2. That all ballots in this election be cast using the electronic handsets that were distributed at registration. Write-in votes may be cast by relinquishing one's handset to a teller and requesting a written ballot. Conference member should write the names of all persons for that ballot on the paper ballot provided.

3. That, following the counting of the first clergy ballot, a new voting roster for clergy be prepared, listing in alphabetical order the names and voting numbers of the 100 persons who received the highest number of votes on the first ballot; provided, however, that in the case of a tie which would result in the listing of more than 100 names, the listing cease with the names of those who received the number of votes immediately ahead of the position at which the tie occurred.

4. That a voting number be assigned to any person receiving at least twenty-five write-in votes on any ballot.

5. That the schedule for ballot reporting and taking ballots provided in the approved conference program be followed until the full number of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional conferences has been elected. Balloting must be completed by Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

6. That at least one of the chief tellers and one additional teller each from the laity and clergy be present in the rehearsal room as the results are being tabulated and produced.

7. That, following the ballot on which the final delegate from each order is elected to the Jurisdictional Conference, another ballot be taken and the three persons receiving the highest number of votes on that ballot be declared elected as reserve delegates from that order to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

8. That the travel and per-diem expenses of attending the 2020 General Conference be paid by the annual conference for the first two Jurisdictional Conference delegates elected from each order, in accordance with General Conference provisions for principal delegates.

9. That the travel and per-diem expenses of attending the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference be paid by the annual conference for all reserve delegates from this conference to that body, in accordance with Jurisdictional Conference provisions for principal delegates.

10. That the tellers named on page 18 of the Supplement be elected.

PRACTICE USING THE HANDHELD ELECTRONIC VOTING DEVICE: Rev. Ingram guided the laity through several operational exercises using the handheld device.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Ingram announced that lay members had received unsolicited messages. These messages did not come from the conference and were not approved. It is unknown at this time how contact was able to be made to the recipients. In addition Drew Nix who had offered himself for election as a lay delegate is no longer eligible since he was approved as a local pastor at the Thursday executive session of the clergy.

OPENING REMARKS: Bishop Paul L. Leeland made opening remarks asking the lay delegates to have patience in using the electronic voting devices, to not use their other device's hot spots, and to reduce the use of write-in ballots.

FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Following a prayer from Bishop Leeland, the first laity ballot for 10 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

REPORT OF TASK FORCE ON CERTIFIED LAY MINISTRY: Kylie Rose Frye presented the report of the task force on certified lay ministry using a video presentation of Dr. Tiffany Little's testimony of call and Ms. Frye shared the training to become a certified lay minister. Ms. Frye recognized the other persons who are certified lay ministers in the conference: Augustus M. (Bud) Black, James Thomas Bridges, Kenneth C. (Kenny) Bumgarner, and Donald Eugene Meadows. Ms. Frye urged the laity to investigate, explore, and cultivate the resources available to develop and enhance their gifts and skills for ministry.

GRACIOUS ACCOUNTABLILITY GROUPS: Ron Ballard, Central (Asheville, BR District) reported on the impact of forming multiple gracious accountability groups in the local church. FRESH EXPRESSION: Rev. Daniel L. Pezet, II, conference director of church development, and Rev. Luke S. Edwards, coordinator for Fresh Expressions, provided an update on the challenge issued at the 2018 session of annual conference. Eighty-nine Fresh Expressions have been launched. Many of those expressions have been "dinner churches" (literally inviting people to gather around the dinner table to enjoy a free meal, have fellowship, and worship). Rev. Pezet and Rev. Edwards announced that 25 grants for $2500 are now available for a church to make an application with which to start a "dinner church." Twenty grants for $1000 are now available for application by churches with an existing dinner church. The report concluded with a video about fresh expression and dinner churches and the challenge for every congregation to do something to make a witness.

REPORT OF FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Following the singing of one stanza of hymn 368 (UMH) My Hope Is Built, Bishop Leeland announced the results of the first General Conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 969; necessary to elect, 486. Jennifer P. Davis received 489 votes and was declared elected as a delegate to 2020 General Conference.

POINT OF INFORMATION: Dick Davidson, Weddington (Weddington, ME District) asked a question and the Bishop responded.

SECOND GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: The second laity ballot for 9 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 10:20 a.m.

OPENING WORSHIP AND HOLY COMMUNION – 11:00 A.M.

The Rev. Susan Suarez Webster, led the call to worship, speaking the leader line in Spanish. Through a videoed interview, the Rev. Michael A. and Kellie Carr; and, Jennifer P. Davis offered their testimonies of faith: "Living In and Through the Storms." Rev. and Mrs. Carr talked about their infant daughter, Hannah's death. Ms. Davis spoke about the completed suicide of her son, Sean. They all shared how they saw and experienced God through the storm. Following the processional hymn 110 (UMH), A Mighty Fortress, Rev. Diron Chloe, Rev. Amy Burton, Rev. Rob Hutchinson, and Rev. Pat Dixon offered prayers of the people. After singing hymn 473 (UMH*), Lead Me Lord*, Rev. Jessica Ligon Dayson read the scripture from Genesis 11:31-12:5b. After an introduction by Bishop Paul L. Leeland, Bishop Ruben Saenz, Jr., resident bishop of the Great Plains Conference, preached the message, The Long View. Bishop Saenz proclaimed that like Abraham and Sarah we will need the long view of God and God's kingdom. A long view of the holy work that is beyond our efforts, that is beyond our life, and that is beyond our vision. God's promises call us to trust and to obey, to not quit, and to not settle halfway as we journey toward a future with hope as friends of God, in the grace of Christ, and by the power of the Holy Spirit. The offering will go toward disaster response efforts in the North Carolina and Alabama-West Florida Annual Conferences in which individuals and churches suffered extensive damage from 2018 hurricanes Florence and Michael. In addition to the conference musicians, Jarvis Wilson and Keith Wilson, the music was led by members of The Conference Choir, under the direction of Rev. Carrie Wright and accompanist, Rev. Rhonda Smith. The Choir presented an anthem, O God Our Help in Ages Past and an offertory, Psalm 139. Bishop Leeland, Bishop Saenz, and assisted by Rev. Gloria Hughes, led the congregation in a prayer of confession and pardon and Great Thanksgiving. Bishop Leeland celebrated the sacrament of Holy Communion with the assistance of deacons in full connection, district superintendents, and conference staff. After the prayer following communion, the singing of the hymn 467 (UMH), Trust and Obey, and benediction by Bishop Leeland, worship concluded, and the conference recessed at 12:30 p.m.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE CONVENES – 2:00 P.M.

CONFERENCE CONVENES: With Bishop Paul L. Leeland, resident bishop of the Charlotte Area, presiding, the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church convened in the George R. Stuart Auditorium at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on June 21, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.

CALL TO ORDER: Following the singing of hymn 553 (UMH), And Are We Yet Alive, Bishop Leeland offered an opening prayer and called the 51st session of the annual conference to order at 2:00 p.m.

WELCOME TO LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY: Bishop Leeland introduced Ken Howle, executive director of Lake Junaluska, who welcomed the members of the annual conference to Lake Junaluska and presented his report. The mission of Lake Junaluska is to be a place of Christian hospitality, where lives are transformed through renewal of mind, soul and body. Next year the assembly celebrates 106 years. Stuart Auditorium is the oldest structure at Lake Junaluska. He noted many of the improvements throughout the entire grounds: street paving, recreational improvements, and preservation of Shackford Hall. Lake Junaluska connects more youth to Christ than anywhere else in the United Methodist church. Over 10,000 youth are coming to these grounds with the potential to double that number in the upcoming years. Next year, there will be a full renovation of the dining hall on the west end of the campus that serves as the youth dining hall. It will have an expansive deck and a hang-out area and will overlook the lake. Mr. Howle thanked the conference for its leadership and generosity to revitalize the bridge over the dam.

VOTING BAR: Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, moved and the conference approved that the voting bar, or legal limits, of the conference be set to include all of Stuart Auditorium, and that those voting should be seated within the bar unless other instructions are given in the case of a full house.

EXPLANATION OF THE RED, YELLOW, AND GREEN CARDS: Rev. Ingram explained the colored cards provided at registration. The use of the cards will assist Bishop Leeland to preside when members wish to be recognized to speak from the floor. To speak for an issue the conference member should lift the green card. In order to speak against a business item the member should raise the red card. If someone wishes to ask a question or raise a point of order, they will signal with the yellow card.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that the conference program as printed on pages six and seven of the Supplement to the Program and Reports booklet, subject to necessary daily adjustments, constitute the official agenda of the 2019 conference session.

REPORTS OF BOARD AND AGENCIES: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that the reports of the conference boards and agencies as published in the Program and Reports booklet and the Supplement be ordered to record, insofar as they do not require conference action and provided that conference agencies be permitted to file late reports and/or corrections no later than June 30, 2019.

GREETINGS TO THOSE MEMBERS ABSENT: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that any action concerning conference members unable to attend because of illness or other family emergency be given directly to the conference secretary, and that the secretary write these absent members expressing the greetings and prayer concern of the conference.

SECRETARIAL STAFF: The conference secretary nominated the following persons as members of the conference secretarial staff for the 2019 session, and they were elected: Marsha Patton and the Rev. A. Owen Peeler, associate secretaries; the Rev. Kathy M. McAbee, George Eubanks, and Mike Penninger, Assistant Secretaries; and the Rev. Dr. Charles D. White, Jr. (Denny) as conference secretary emeritus.

CONSENT CALENDAR MOTION: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, reported that the list of petitions for the consent calendar is found on page 33 of the Supplement. The Rev. Ingram moved that the consent calendar, PETITIONS 3-16 be adopted as printed, and it was approved. (The listing of petitions can be found in Section IX and additionally in Section VIII.)

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Bishop Leeland shared several pastoral concerns. The Rev. C.B. Barr, Jr. who is 91, will celebrate his 72nd wedding anniversary tomorrow. He served for 49 years in the annual conference, is now under hospice care and unable to attend. On Monday lightning struck Smith Grove UMC (YV District) and the resulting fire damaged the building. Members of the church prepared food and fed the firefighters on the scene. The church had recently made a contribution to the United Methodist Foundation for its building fund. The foundation offered to return the money to help with the current emergency. Bishop Leeland noted the death of the father of Rev. Ricky Mitchell. Bishop Leeland offered a prayer of thanksgiving and intercession for these pastoral concerns. Bishop Leeland quoted Erasmus, a church leader of the 1500's, who spoke a word of hope that the church and he might be made better. In that vein Bishop Leeland reflected on the 2019 special session of General Conference in the hope that the United Methodist Church and her members, in spite of differences and a shaken confidence of faith, might worship and work together. As annual conference begins he saw signs of hope in the new pastors to be licensed, commissioned and ordained, the continued ministry of the clergy, the election of delegates to the 2020 General Conference and 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, the 89 Fresh Expression ministries begun during the past year; and, the investment from the United Methodist Foundation to support lay leadership development. He confessed his own struggles but exhorted the members of annual conference to make the mission of the church the first priority and make God the center of life and discipleship. He found encouragement not only in the words of Erasmus but also the prayer of Hezekiah in II Chronicles chapter 30, "May the Lord who is good pardon every one, who sets their heart on seeking God, even if they are not clean."

REPORT OF CLERGY DELEGATES ELECTED TO THE 2020 GENERAL CONFERENCE: Bishop Leeland named the clergy who are elected to the 2020 General Conference as follows: Kimberly T. Ingram, Amy L. Coles, Jeremy I. Troxler, James C. Howell, In Yong Lee, Ashley Crowder Stanley, Shelly F. Webb, E. Carter Ellis, Darryl D. Dayson, II, and Joshua H. Sherfey.

REPORT OF LAITY DELEGATES ELECTED TO THE 2020 GENERAL CONFERENCE: In preparation for the reading of the second General Conference laity ballot Bishop Leeland named the lay delegate already elected as Jennifer P. Davis.

REPORT OF PFEIFFER UNIVERSITY: Dr. Scott Bullard, president, presented the report for Pfeiffer University. As the new president of the university Dr. Bullard is meeting with faculty and trustees, and becoming familiar with the school. He told stories about two recent graduates: Alissa, who was serving as a summer camp counselor and will be attending Princeton Seminary in the fall; and, Jeremiah, who, as a freshman, was considered an at-risk student but graduated with the highest academic record in this year's graduates with a degree in nursing. The school is awaiting news as to whether it will be approved to award doctoral degrees.

REPORT OF THE SECOND GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the second general conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 897; necessary to elect, 450. Amy Johnson received 498 votes, Gregory (Greg) Huffman received 463 votes and Lynne Gilbert received 456 votes; and, they were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

THIRD GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: The third General Conference laity ballot for 6 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

REPORT OF METHODIST COLLEGE: Dr. Stanley T. Wearden, new president, presented the report. Dr. Wearden is proud that Methodist College in Fayetteville is part of the Wesleyan tradition of scholarship and spiritual development. The school seeks to produce moral agents of the future, who think clearly and critically, communicate well, and take ethics into their decision making.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made necessary announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 3:00 p.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY – 3:30 P.M.
RECOGNITION OF RETIRING CLERGY AND SPOUSES

Thirty-nine clergy were recognized on the event of their retirement. The Rev. Nancy Miller Campbell spoke on behalf of the retirees. The Rev. Joel Richard Simpson spoke in response on behalf of the 2019 class in full connection. Mike Watson, president of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits; the Rev. Kennette Lawrence Thomas, a member of the 2019 class in full connection; Bishop Paul L. Leeland; Dale Bryant, benefits administrator; Rev. R. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services; Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, also participated. Rev. Michelle Chappell and Rev. Juston Smith presented special music. CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 4:15 p.m.

FIRST JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: Following prayer by JaCynthia Bailey, Mount Zion (Cornelius, ME District), the first Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot for 10 delegates to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference was taken.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: The conference secretary moved the adoption of the report of the committee on nominations for 2016-2020 ad interim, and the nominees were elected. The elections are found in Section II of the Journal.

CONFERENCE RULES AND PLAN OF ORGANIZATION: Dr. Jonathan LeMaster-Smith, Oak Hill (Morganton, CV District), member of the committee on organization and rules, moved the adoption of the Conference Rules and Plan of Organization, as amended and they were approved, printed in the Supplement, pages 70-79 and found in Section VII of the Journal. The first changes were in Part I Section A. Membership, number 1. items a. and b. Under item a. the deletion removes an unnecessary phrase to pastoral charges of the conference. Any local pastor under appointment is considered sufficient. In the same section under item b., the word eligible is added to the phrase as they are eligible clergy members. This includes reference in item a. to the definition of eligible clergy. In the same section, the guidelines and term limits for lay members of the annual conference has been removed. In number 2 of Part I, Section A, the reference to a committee on nominations has been removed and the word elect has been changed to select. This change reflects actual practice of selecting at large delegates from the respective districts. Along with this, the deadline for substitution and for substitution certification has been removed. Changes can be accepted just before the conference begins. The next proposed changes were in Part I, Section B. Officers. In number 4 the phrase and the Conference Benefits Officer is added to the description of the DAS for director of administrative services to bring the rules in line with practice. In the same section, number 7 has been removed, as a coordinator of calendar is no longer elected. These responsibilities are delegated to the petition's committee. In Part I, Section C. Conference Organization, number 1. Committee on Nominations, item b. changes the word shall to the word may and adds the phrase or equivalent structure. The additional changes in this item removes the phrase who shall be secretary and adds the phrase and others who could include. The phrase district president of United Methodist Youth is deleted and a youth is added. The remaining deletions and changes in item b. brings the rules and organization in line with practice. In item c. of Section C, number 1 the phrase receive and review the nominations from the district committees and shall then is deleted as it is not our present process. The word annual is added for clarification. In item d Section C, number 1 the phrasing is altered to reflect removal of district to districts, as well as add stipulations for the nominations, while not precluding nomination from the floor of annual conference as allowed by The Book of *Discipline. In item f. of Section C, number 1 the phrase and the Committee on Conference Staff Relations is removed and the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules and the Petitions Committee is added. Additionally in item f. the word agency is changed to entity. A new item h. has been added to reflect the disciplinary requirement that members of general church boards and agencies serve with a conference equivalent as ex-officio which further enhances Section C. number 2, Connectible Table. In Part I Section C. number 2. Connectional Table the phrase the Conference Staff Relations Committee is removed and the Council on Camp and Retreat Ministries is added to further enhance our connection with conference camps and retreat ministries. The assistant to the bishop is added as a member of the Connectional Table. In Part I Section C. number 3 a new item b is created establishing a Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry as follows: This council shall be constituted quadrennially and be composed of eight to twelve members. Special attention will be given to the election of persons knowledgeable and passionate in the areas of camp, retreat and outdoor ministry, non-profit board experience, and business management. The council will promote all existing WNCCUMC camp and retreat centers. This includes camp facilitated and cooperative ministry with the local church, districts, and conference. The council is responsible for establishing, implementing, and maintaining financial oversight of the Camp and Retreat Ministry Endowment fund. The Council will submit a yearly request to the Annual Conference for financial support on behalf of the camp and retreat centers. The Council will be a source for support in non-profit board development, will encourage and support sustainable best practices for all current camp and retreat centers, and maintain positive relationship with each of the camps and their staff and board of directors. The Conference Coordinator of Camp and Retreat Ministries shall be an ex-officio member without vote. In Part 1 Section C. number 4. Boards items a. b. c. makes changes to the ex-officio members without vote. On the Board of Trustees, the bishop, the assistant to the bishop and a cabinet representative is added. The Associate Director of Ministerial Services is added to the Board of Ordained Ministry. On the Board of Laity one district superintendent is added as an ex-officio member without vote. One district superintendent named by the cabinet is added to the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. In Part I, Section C. number 4 item e. is changed from the Council on Campus Ministry to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. The number of members is reduced from sixteen to twelve and the requirement of two campus ministers as ex-officio members is removed. Only the Associate Director of Ministerial Services shall be an ex-officio member without vote. In Part 1, Section C. number 5. Ministry Teams in items a., b., c., and d. adds to the last sentence without vote to the conference staff person affiliated with these teams to coincide with the present practices and to align with other conference entities. In Part I, Section C. number 5, item d. Justice and Reconciliation Team has requested additional changes for entities relating to it: creating Ministries of Creation Care led by a Conference Earthkeeper; changing Intereligious Concerns to Relationships; adding Peace with Justice Ministries, and the ministries and connection to the North Carolina Council of Churches are part of this Team. In Part I Section C. number 6. Administrative Commissions changes are made in item a. Commission on Archives and History to clarify the purpose and plan for the commission by adding the disciplinary paragraph notation; and, making the conference archivist an ex-officio member without vote. In number 6, item c. Commission on Equitable Compensation adds one district superintendent as an ex-officio member without vote. In Part I Section C. number 7. Committees two additional committees are added to the plan of organization to reflect current practices and provide the description of the duties for those committees. The new item b. Petitions Committee is constituted as follows: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially in order to do the following: (a) receive and review petitions to the Annual Conference; (b) prepare a calendar of petitions for each plenary session; and, (c) ensure that all petitions are in front of the conference until adjournment. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary shall be an ex-officio member without vote. The new item c. Conference Committee on Organization and Rules is constituted as follows: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be the primary steward of the Western North Carolina Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. Their work shall include the following: receive and review proposed changes and/or additions to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order to keep them in compliance with The Book of Discipline. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary, resident bishop, and director of connectional ministries shall be ex-officio member without vote. The following changes are in Part I Section E relating to Districts, District Conferences, and District Councils. In Part I Section E., number 2 denotes the appropriate paragraph in The Book of Discipline and simplifies the membership of a District Conference to be the lay and clergy delegates to the annual conference for the current calendar year. Part I Section E, number 3. is deleted because this is not the current practice and not the purview of the districts. Part I Section E, number 4, simplifies the description of district lay leader and allows districts to decide how they are selected. The office of associate district lay leader is removed. Part I Section E, number 5 alters language to remove the program ministries council and allows more freedom for districts to organize themselves. All district organizational teams formed are required to reflect the diversity of the district. Part I Section E, number 6 removes language relating to district treasurers and other officers which is no longer the current practice. In Part II Section C. Business Procedures, Rule 8. Petitions replaces the conference secretary with the newly created petitions committee. In Part II Section C, Rule 15 Consent Calendar now reflects the responsibility of the petition committee.)

David Rigby, Mt. Tabor (Winston-Salem, YV District) asked several questions and the conference secretary responded in each instance.

REPORT OF THIRD GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the third General Conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 838; necessary to elect, 420. There was no election.

FOURTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: The fourth General Conference laity ballot for 6 delegates to the 2020 General Conference was taken.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAITY: Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and president of the Board of Laity, presented the report. Ms. Wood recalled that the mission of the board of laity is to model, assess, and advocate for the laity to fulfill the conference mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The values that have informed the board are diversity, inclusivity, partnership, and connectivity. She updated the work of the four focus areas of the board. In the area of accountability 80% of the congregations have at least one accountability group and there are trained mentors in every district. A second focus is developing leadership, particularly certified lay ministers, but also other training opportunities for equipping the laity to mature in faith, disciple others and transform the church, community and world in measurable ways. Communications remains a priority, providing cross district communications about available training and resources. There is new laity page on the conference website, plus a Facebook presence. Finally, she encouraged persons to volunteer to serve on the board of laity.

REPORT OF INNOVATIONS MINISTRIES TASK FORCE: Rev. B. Parker Haynes, Rev. Louis Timberlake, and Rev. Shannon M. LeMaster-Smith presented the design thinking for church innovation. The innovation task force invites persons and congregations to open their minds to new possibilities for ministries; to try new things; to imagine what is possible beyond things we have tried before. The point of such openness and imagining is to consider ones gifts to use for the glory of God and for being creative on how one can reach out to people who are in need, whether that be the hungry, the poor, the brokenhearted. Innovation is an opportunity to learn more about God and God's calling; and, offers new ways to show God's love to people around us and the world that we serve. Because the world is constantly changing and churning, the church seeks to connect with people; to be innovative in order to identify trends, notice threats, and look for new opportunities ahead. A video presented examples of creative innovations which included outdoor worship, good neighbor parties, community feeding, and pop-up worship. As an incentive to members, the presenters encouraged them to complete the innovation bingo card and submit it to be part of a drawing for a $500.00 grant.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 5:35 p.m.

CONFERENCE PLENARY – EVENING TEACHING SESSION – 7:30 P.M.

REPORT OF FIRST JURISDICTIONAL CLERGY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the first Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot as follows: Valid, 344; necessary to elect, 173. Rev. David C. Hockett received 258 votes, Rev. Sally W. Queen received 220 votes, Rev. Samuel A. Moore received 215 votes, Rev. Veranita G. Alvord received 207 votes, Rev. Uiyeon Kim received 204 votes, Rev. Lory Beth T. Huffman received 201 votes, Rev. Elizabeth O. Coppedge-Henley received 199 votes, Rev. Stephanie M. Hand received 185 votes, Rev. Julia S. Trantham received 175 votes, and Rev. Sara L. Belles received 173 votes; and, they were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

POINT OF ORDER: A clergy delegate raised a point of order regarding the reading of the rest of the first Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot and the Bishop responded.

SECOND JURISDICTIONAL CLERGY BALLOT: The second Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot was taken for three reserve delegates to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference was taken.

QUESTION: A clergy delegate asked a question about the first Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot and Bishop Leeland responded.

REPORT OF FOURTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the fourth General Conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 861; necessary to elect, 432. Emma Austin received 512 votes, Havaleh Havelka received 462 votes, Shannon Sherfey received 453 votes; and, they were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

FIFTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: The fifth General Conference laity ballot was taken for three delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

TEACHING SESSION: Bishop Paul Leeland introduced Bishop Janice Riggle Huie, leadership formation for the Texas Methodist Foundation. Bishop Huie focused her teaching session on leadership and that a different kind of leader is needed in a world that has changed and is changing. The paradigm for leadership is no longer so much about change per se but leading the midst of change. The context for leadership is affected by convergent and divergent views. Convergence tends to see questions and answers as the same for all. Convergence tends to understand problem solving and authority from the top down. Divergence, influenced by the development and spread of social media, views the world in a more individualize way and sees authority from the bottom up. Questions and answers are not the same for everyone and depend on context and circumstances. Most current church leadership operates within a convergent model. The culture at large has moved into a more divergent stage. The task for leadership is leading in this "liminal" season; this threshold season between the ending of one way of viewing issues, people and relationship and a different way that has not yet begun.

REPORT OF SECOND JURISDICTIONALCONFERENCE CLERGY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the second Jurisdictional Conference clergy ballot as follows: Rev. John S. Boggs, Rev. Lynda L. Ferguson, and Rev. Benjamin G. Carson having received the highest number of votes were declared elected as reserve delegates to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, thus completing the clergy delegation.

REPORT OF FIFTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the fifth General Conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 630; necessary to elect, 316. Helen Ryde received 342 votes and Lynette Whitaker received 328 votes; and, they were declared elected as delegates to the 2020 General Conference.

SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: The sixth General Conference laity ballot was taken for 1 delegate.

TEACHING SESSION CONTINUED: Bishop Huie continued her presentation of leading in a culture of change. In the spirit of John Wesley leadership involves holding the convergent and divergent views together. Leadership involves listening to God and the neighbor. What is the difference you are trying to make? Who are your neighbors now? What story in scripture most describes your congregation now? Move beyond problem solving alone. Be steady in purpose in focusing on God's kingdom but flexible in strategy.

REPORT OF SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the sixth General Conference laity ballot as follows: Valid, 657; necessary to elect, 330. Linda Linfors received 339 votes; and, she was declared elected as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Bishop Leeland listed the names of the laity delegates elected to the 2020 General Conference and reminded all delegates to keep their electronic voting device after the remaining delegates are elected. Rev Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made additional announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 9:26 p.m.

The Rev. Dr. Kinken presented the proposed 2020 CONFERENCE BUDGET, moved its adoption and it was approved.

The Rev. Dr. Kinken introduced the Rev. Dr. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services, who presented his annual report to the annual conference. Dr. King gave thanks for the strong support by the churches to connectional giving to make ministry happen in spectacular, even miraculous ways.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTESS: Bob Wilhoit, chairperson, presented the report. He reviewed the investment of the Jesse Spencer Bell fund and the disbursements to the designated beneficiaries which totaled $10,848.98. He reported that the new Conference Center had been consecrated and been awarded gold medal status as an energy efficient facility. Property management and brokerage services have been transferred from A. Anthony Corp. and Foundry Commercial to Wesley Community Development. Vehicle leasing will continue for the Bishop, district superintendents and some conference staff. He continued to admonish and encourage churches to look at liability and property insurance coverage, especially in regard to sexual misconduct. Mr. Tom Jordan, president United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, presented a check from the foundation to support the conference center.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS: Michael Watson, president, presented the report and moved adoption of PETITION 2, PART a: PENSION PROGRAMS AND POLICIES, and the petition was adopted.

Mr. Watson presented and moved adoption of PETITION 2, PART b: HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM AND POLICIES and the petition was adopted.

Dave Mildenberg, Dilworth (Charlotte, ME District) asked a question and Rev. King responded.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 10:35 a.m.

WORSHIP SERVICE – CELEBRATION OF LIFE SERVICE – 11:00 A.M.

Rev. Wesley Hall, Jr. read Psalm 46 and Rev. Rebekah Ralph read John 11:17-27. The Rev. Angela A. Pleasants, district superintendent, Catawba Valley District, preached the sermon entitled, "Resurrection Life." In her message Rev. Pleasants reflected that we pray to God in our finite being, but we have to understand, though we are finite, we are praying to an infinite God of eternity. We have to learn instead of trying to bring God into our finite being we need to step over into the infinite eternal God. When we confess Christ as Savior the Holy Spirit comes into us and this gives us hope, gives us resurrection power. Yes we grieve, yes we mourn, yes we have triggers that bring both sorrow and joy about the one loved and lost, but we have something greater, a resurrection life not just for the future but in the present. Kathi Graham and Leisa Stamey played the bagpipes for the recessional. Bishop Paul L. Leeland; Keith Wilson, conference musician, vocalist; Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, pianist/organist; and members of the 2019 class elected to full connection assisted in the service. Crossflame from St. Luke's, (Hickory, CV District) provided special music. During the Naming of the Saints, the lives of 32 clergy and diaconal ministers were remembered and celebrated, as well as the spouses of 42 clergy and diaconal ministers who died in the year.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAITY (CONTINUED): Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and president of the board of laity, continued the report of the board of laity.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN: Julia Willis, president, presented the report, emphasizing the theme of the national conference, "The Power of Bold." March 23, 2019 marked the 150th anniversary of Methodist women organized for mission efforts. The vision of UMW is to see beyond our own front doors, beyond our own communities, to a world that doesn't have the resources that we have. UMW advocates for women and children who don't have a voice or are on the margins. We help local school backpack programs and lunch buddies, support UMAR, childcare facilities, food banks, clothing closets, crochet bed rolls for the homeless. United Methodist Women have a legacy of global mission projects, digging wells to provide clean drinking water, building clinics with staff and medicine to heal and eradicate diseases, teaching farming and safe meal preparation skills, funding micro businesses for small business enterprises. These are sustainable projects that keep on giving. Currently there are 20,784 members in 661 local units. Total designated mission giving amounted to $689,797.00. Additional designated giving totaled $71,920.00. Giving for college scholarships amounted to $20,850. Hands on projects amounted to over $100,881.50. This year $75,000.00 was added to the Legacy Fund bringing the four-year total to $251,000.

YOUTH MINISTRIES: Ashlee Hand, president of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, presented the report on the theme, "Transformation". She introduced the new adult coordinator for the council, Rev. Shannon M. LeMaster-Smith, First (Newton, CV District). Ms. Hand highlighted the two main events of the year, SpiritUs and IgniteUs. 800 youth attended SpiritUs at Fort Caswell in Oak Island, N.C. with the theme, "SpiritUs: Keeping the Streak Alive. The service project packed medical bags for Sole Hope. IgniteUs held at Camp Tekoa for middle school students focused on the theme, "Mountain Movers."

UNITED METHODIST MEN: William Waddell, president, presented the annual report. UMM strives to help men grow in Christ so others may know Christ. Mr. Waddell highlighted the work of the organization. Support of Scouting remains a strong focus. The United Methodist Church is the largest supporting denomination of Scouting in the USA. A second area of focus is the Upper Room Prayer Line. In 2018 WNCC was the number one contributor to the Living Prayer Center. The conference UMM encourages the efforts of second career pastors, providing ministerial scholarships for students. The organization continues to encourage and deploy disaster response teams and building teams. He announced the conference UMM are partnering with Kingdom Man Ministries of the Catawba Valley District to present on October 12, 2019 an event called "Kingdom Man" to be held at the Hickory Convention Center in Hickory. The organization continues its efforts against domestic violence and announced a week of prayer against domestic violence, August 4th – 10th. The report concluded with a video of the efforts United Methodist Men are making to address and respond to domestic violence.

MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM: Brian Mateer, chairperson, presented the report. The mission engagement team exists to equip the local church to be in the mission of God by focusing on connecting, collaborating, and engaging in local, regional, and global ministry. He highlighted that the former Cole Memorial United Methodist Church was developed into a mission resource center, warehousing thousands of UMCOR cleaning buckets and other supplies, and becoming a centralized hub for volunteer outreach, in partnership with the campus ministry at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. The MET operation team launched a mission cohort pilot project in January 2019. The goal is to move local church missions from relief efforts to empowerment models. Recruitment for the first mission cohort will begin later this year with an official start date in early 2020. An additional project is a literacy effort for pre-schools in Haiti in partnership with the Smoky Mountain District.

CHURCH VITALITY TEAM: Rev. Kent C. Smith, Salem (Weaverville, BR District) and Rev. Daniel L. Pezet, II, director of church development, reported for the vitality team. Five new church starts have launched this year: Hope Fellowship (BR District), The Place (ME District), The Foundry (YV District), Gastonia Mission (CV District), The Bridge (SM District). Four additional new faith communities are anticipated later this year. He noted that 89 Fresh Expression have been created this conference year. One of the most successful models for fresh expressions is dinner churches and the goal is for 20 additional dinner churches. Dinner churches are designed for folks gathered around the table to share the stories that matter most and to connect. The report concluded with a video highlighting the testimony of churches which had begun dinner churches.

DENMAN AWARDS: Rev. Luke S. Edwards, Boone (Boone, AP District) and Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and president of the Foundation for Evangelism, introduced the 2019 Denman Awards. The Denman Award is presented in each annual conference for exceptional ministry of evangelism, inviting people into a life-transforming relationship with Jesus Christ. The award can honor one youth, clergy, and lay person. Ann Hoover, First (Asheboro, UW District) presented the 2019 Harry Denman Clergy Award to Rev. Lynda L. Ferguson, First (Asheboro, UW District). Rev. Charles W. Wilson, II, Matthews (Matthews, ME District) presented the 2019 Harry Denman Laity Award to Laurie Little, Matthews (Matthews, ME District). Lewis McClain, Rock Hill (Mount Holly, CV District) and Lee Rice presented the 2019 Harry Denman Youth Award to Torey Haynes, Rock Hill (Mount Holly, CV District).

JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM: Pam Shoffner, chairperson, began the report. With assistance from Renee Hayes, team member, Ms. Shoffner presented Betty Jo Hardy, representative to the North Carolina Council of Churches, a plaque recognizing her service on the governing board of the NC Council of Churches. Ms. Shoffner updated the work of Olivia Navarrow on her Sparrow Project. Last year 1,820 pounds of fresh produce was distributed to two food pantries. Rev. Ray S. McKinnon, co-vice chairperson and coordinator for peace with justice ministries, highlighted the area of peace with justice ministries, especially the projects of St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP District). This year in August will mark the 400th anniversary of the first slaves brought from Angola to Fort Monroe in Jamestown, VA. Ms. Shoffner completed the report with a tribute to the late Rev. Dr. James W. Ferree for his life-time of advocacy for social justice, racial justice and equality for us all. The 2020 Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration will be January 18, 2020 hosted by St. Paul church (Winston-Salem, YV District). Clara Ester, retired deaconess and one who walked with Dr. King, will be the keynote speaker.

ONE MATTERS AWARD: Rev. Michael F. Bailey, YV District superintendent, presented the 2019 "One Matters" award to Rev. Oscar C. Pilson, pastor, on behalf of St. Paul (Kernersville, YV District). The recognition was created in 2015 by the UM Discipleship Ministries with the purpose of lifting up churches, which in recent years moved from zero baptisms and professions of faith into positive numbers. The award gives a $1,000.00 gift to the church for further discipleship making efforts.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM: Rev. J. Daniel Hester, chairperson, Rev. Kari L. Howard, vice chairperson, and Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, director of ministerial services, shared the report with the help of additional testimonies from the floor from participants of various leadership development programs and initiatives. Testimonies were provided by Rev. Leslee L. Wray, New Mount Tabor (Richfield, UW District) on the preaching cohorts, Rev. Mark M. Norman Vickers, Bethpage (Kannapolis, ME District) about a workshop on navigating change, Jesse Ennis on leadership podcasts and Cindy Thompson on "The Space Between." "The Space Between" will be a series of training offerings designed to empower clergy to host civil discourse conversations in their churches around various issues and points of view dividing the church.

POINT OF ORDER: Rev. Keith Turman, First (Waynesville, SM District) moved to extend the time to complete the business of the annual conference, and the motion was adopted.

REPORT OF FIFTH JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE LAITY BALLOT: Bishop Leeland announced the results of the fifth Jurisdictional Conference laity ballot as follows: Timothy (Tim) Kincaid, Coley Hooker, and Wade Loftin having received the highest number of votes were declared elected as reserve delegates to the 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, thus completing the laity delegation.

PETITION 22: OPPOSITION TO THE TRADITIONAL PLAN: Sue Jones presented the petition.

Mary Z. Longstreth, Central (Asheville, BR District) spoke in favor of the petition.

Coley Hooker, St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP District) spoke against the petition.

Rev. Ashley Crowder Stanley, Mills River (Mills River, SM District) moved a substitute motion, which was seconded; and, spoke in favor. The petition follows:

Endorsing the Commitments of UMC Next and Supporting Full Inclusion of All People

WHEREAS, more than 600 laity and clergy leaders from every Annual Conference in the United States met May 20-22, 2019 at the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas for an event entitled UMC Next. The event's purpose was to explore faithful responses to the Traditional Plan that was adopted by the 2019 special session of General Conference.

WHEREAS, John Wesley's first rule for early Methodists was to do no harm and the enactment of the Traditional Plan continues and amplifies harm already done by the church to LBGTQIA+ United Methodists and their families.

WHEREAS, in our baptismal vows we promise to "resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves."

WHEREAS, there was a clear consensus from those in attendance at the UMC Next event about the four commitments essential to the future of the United Methodist Church.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Western North Carolina Conference (WNCC) formally aspires to the statement and four commitments of UMC Next:

"We believe these commitments are essential to a hope-filled future for the global Methodist movement as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world:"

1. We long to be passionate followers of Jesus Christ, committed to a Wesleyan vision of Christianity, anchored in scripture and informed by tradition, experience and reason as we live a life of personal piety and social holiness.
2. We commit to resist evil, injustice and oppression in all forms and toward all people and build a church which affirms the full participation of all ages, nations, races, classes, cultures, gender identities, sexual orientations, and abilities.
3. We reject the Traditional Plan approved at General Conference 2019 as inconsistent with the gospel of Jesus Christ and will resist its implementation.
4. We will work to eliminate discriminatory language and the restriction and penalties in The Book of Discipline regarding LGBTQ persons. We affirm the sacred worth of LGBTQ persons, celebrate their gifts, and commit to being in ministry together.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge local United Methodist congregations of the Western North Carolina Conference to ensure that LGBTQIA+ persons are welcomed and included in the membership and leadership of the local churches, to encourage members of the local congregations to be inclusive of all people and to have an open dialogue about the actions of the 2019 General Conference, the Traditional Plan, and these four commitments.

Submitted by: The Western North Carolina Annual Conference representatives to UMC Next:

Lynette Whitaker, laity, Winston Salem, NC
Carter Ellis, clergy, Greensboro, NC
Kasey Kelly, laity, Waynesville, NC
Darryl Dayson, clergy, Asheville, NC
Uiyeon Kim, clergy, Charlotte, NC
Joy Moss, clergy, Asheville, NC
Mary Brown, clergy, Andrews, NC
Keith Turman, clergy, Waynesville, NC
Josh Noblitt, clergy, Atlanta, GA.
Lory Beth Huffman, clergy, Boone, NC
Ashley Crowder Stanley, clergy, Asheville, NC

Rev. Clifford W. Wall, Clarksbury (Harmony, AP District) spoke against the substitute petition.

Albertina McGirt, St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP District) asked a question and Helen Ryde responded.

James Lee, Oak Ridge (Oak Ridge, NP District) raised a point of order and Bishop Leeland responded.

Ken Bowden, Bethel (Franklin, SM District) asked a question and Rev. Stanley Crowder responded.

Rev. Richard E. LeBaube, Bethesda (Lexington, YV District) asked a question and Bishop Leeland responded.

Rev. Mandy N. Jones, Forest Hill (Concord, ME District) moved to suspend the rules in order to end debate and to call the question to make the substitute petition the main petition. The motion to suspend the rules was seconded and approved.

A vote to call the question and make the substitute petition of the main motion was taken and the substitute motion was made the main motion.

Dwayne Mims, St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP District) spoke against the petition.

Rev. Nathan D. Finsel, Trinity (Kannapolis, ME District) asked a question and Bishop Leeland answered with an explanation of suspension of the rules, calling the question, and voting to make the substitute petition the main petition.

Jennifer Lineberry, Pleasant Grove (Thomasville, YV District) asked a question and Rev. Crowder Stanley responded.

Paul Ervin, Long's Chapel (Lake Junaluska, SM District) asked a question and Bishop Leeland answered.

Jeff Hodge, Mill Grove (Indian Trail, ME District) asked a question and Rev. Uiyeon Kim, Myers Park (Charlotte, ME District) responded.

Robin Uhl, College Place (Greensboro, NP District) gave an additional answer.

Rev. Ray S. McKinnon, South Tryon Community Mission (Charlotte, ME District) called the question on the petition and it was approved.

The substitute, now main motion, was adopted.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made concluding announcements, thanking all the persons who have assisted in the 2019 Annual Conference. June 19-21, 2020 are the dates the next session of the annual conference.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 6:35 p.m.

WORSHIP SERVICE – THE ORDERING OF MINISTRY – 7:30 P.M.

Following gathering music and the processional hymn 577 (UMH), God of Grace and God of Glory, Bishop Paul Leeland led the responsive greeting and prayer; and, the act of remembering our baptism and common ministry. Bishop Leeland introduced Bishop J. Michael Lowry, Central Texas Conference, Fort Worth Episcopal area, who will bring the evening proclamation. Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader, Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Coppedge-Henley, vice-chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, director of ministerial services presented to the Bishop those to be licensed, commissioned, and ordained. Rev. Sue Anne Morris, chairperson of the fellowship of local pastors and associate members, read the names of those to be licensed as local pastors. Rev. Donald Jenkins, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, read the names of those to be commissioned as provisional members, ordained as deacon and ordained as elders. Following a song of celebration, Follow You Anywhere, presented by the Modern Worship Team of Long's Chapel (Lake Junaluska, SM District), Rev. Sherise Lindsay led the prayer for illumination and read the Old Testament lesson from Isaiah 40:27-31. Bishop Lowery read the Gospel Lesson from Matthew 28:16-20 and delivered the sermon entitled, No Other Way. Bishop Lowry focused on Jesus' commission to the disciples and other witnesses following his resurrection and ascension. In the midst of human crisis and trauma, in our personal life, with our families, in the institutional church, and in the world, Jesus alone is the ultimate ruler of your life. His preferences hold sway over our desires and passions. He's the one who rescues and saves. All who are baptized, but especially those being ordered in ministry, are committing to be servants of this good news. Rev. Joseph Kim led the Apostles' Creed and hymn 467 (UMH), Trust and Obey was sung. Bishop Leeland examined all the candidates to be licensed, commissioned and ordained. Following further questions by Bishop Leeland, the 41 candidates to be licensed as local pastors were authorized by the Bishop and recognized by Rev. Dr. David Greene, licensing school coordinator. Bishop Leeland examined the 9 candidates to be commissioned and then commissioned each candidate assisted by Bishops Charlene Kammerer, Ken Carter, Lawrence McCleskey, and Michael Lowry. Rev. Jenkins presented a cross and Rev. Ingram presented a certificate to the newly commissioned members. Bishop Leeland examined the candidate and then ordained her as a deacon, assisted by the other bishops and clergy. The deacon received a stole from Bishop Leeland and presented a certificate of ordination from Dr. Coppedge-Henley. Bishop Leeland examined those to be ordained elders and with the assistance of the other Bishops and elders ordained 15 candidates to the order of elder. Each new elder received a stole and their credentials. Following a prayer of thanksgiving and the recessional hymn 648 (UMH), God, the Spirit, Guide and Guardian, Rev. Kennette Thomas, newly ordained deacon, pronounced the dismissal with blessing.

A SERVICE OF THE WORD, AND THE FIXING OF APPOINTMENTS - 10 A.M.

Bishop Paul L. Leeland, taking his text from Matthew 28:16-20, preached the sermon entitled, "The Joy of Full Surrender." Bishop Leeland proclaimed that Jesus commands his followers to repent, take up the cross, follow him, pray for one's enemies, to forgive, and to love God and the neighbor. Disciples are challenged to abandon themselves into the providence of God and gladly obey because God in Christ Jesus first loved each human being. We are called to be prophets. As prophets we are to point out the wrong doings we see in our society. But more than speaking "truth to power," we are called to see where the word of God and the words of Jesus intersect with our culture and context with the mission to bring a ministry of reconciliation. This is the joy of full surrender. Forgive us, we pray, free us for joyful obedience, for Jesus Christ our Lord. St. Mark's Choir and Musicians (Charlotte ME District) provided special music. Bo Taylor, director, Museum of the Cherokee Indians, Diane Harper, Mallalieu-Jones (Mount Airy, (YV District), Rev. Dr. Tom Mabry, Shady Grove (Winston-Salem, YV District), Rev. Juston Smith, First (Gastonia, CV District), and Elizabeth Helsabeck, Fairfield (High Point, NP District) served as worship leaders. Jarvis Wilson and Keith Wilson, conference musicians, provided musical direction and accompaniment.

OFFERING: The morning offering was designated for disaster response efforts in the North Carolina and Alabama-West Florida Annual Conferences due to the damage from hurricanes Florence and Michael.

COMMISSIONING OF GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE DELEGATES: Bishop Leeland led the congregation in a prayer of commissioning and sending forth for those clergy and laity who were elected delegates to represent the Western North Carolina Annual Conference to the 2020 General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences.

FIXING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: Bishop Paul L. Leeland officially fixed the clergy appointments for the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church for the ensuing year.

CHARGE AND COVENANT PRAYER: Bishop Leeland charged the licensed, commissioned, consecrated, and ordained clergy to go where they are sent and called to serve. He charged the laity, including deaconesses and diaconal ministers, to live and serve in God's world and to receive and support the clergy appointed to their churches

ADJOURNMENT: The Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church adjourned sine die at 11:18 a.m.

PART II. PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.7)?
The character and conference relations of all clergy members have been reviewed by the Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry, and those clergy found to be in good standing are approved for annual appointment. Any clergy whose character or conference relations are in question are being reviewed by appropriate bodies as defined by the Discipline.

18. Who constitute:

a) The Administrative Review Committee (¶636)? (v) Randy Harry, Saxon Scarborough, Carol Williams-Gilbert; Alternates: Kirk Hatherly, Clyde Penry

b) The Conference Relations Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (¶635.1d)? Matthew Burton, Mike Carr, Dennis Carroll, Alfonza Everett, Lory Beth Huffman, Lori Wilson

c) The Committee on Investigation (¶2703) Clergy: Morris Brown, Donnell FitzJefferies, Naomi King, Charlotte Brendel; Laity: Jesse Caldwell, Torry Pinter, Ann Ballard; Clergy Alternates: Gary Royals, Paul Milton, Patricia Pegram; Laity Alternates: Margaret Cox, Ray McKesson, Sally Kirby Turner; Diaconal Ministers: Mark Christy, Michael Dougherty, Sandra McGarrah.

19. Who are the certified candidates (¶¶ 310, 313, 314) (NOTE: Everyone who wants to become an LP, PE, or PD must first become a certified candidate.)

a) Who are currently certified as candidates for ordained or licensed ministry?

(Note: Once a candidate is appointed as FL or PL, they are no longer listed as a certified candidate (except the first year they are appointed when they would need to be listed in 19 and in 20 or 21). Students appointed as Local Pastors (par.318.3) are the only people who are allowed to be listed as a candidate in one conference while being listed as an LP in a different conference. Par.318.3 stipulates that students appointed as local pastors can serve in either a full or part-time capacity.)

57. What is the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference:

NOTES:

(1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.

(2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:
¶344.1a, c: the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.
¶344.1b: the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
¶344.1d: the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

(3) Report those in extension ministry in one category only.

(4) See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.

(5) Those approved to serve as local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.

VII. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

PART I. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church as contained in sections IX and X (¶¶ 601-672) of The Book of Discipline (2016), the following plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference are hereby established.

A. MEMBERSHIP

1. a. All clergy of the conference in full connection and provisional and associate membership, and all local pastors under full-time (¶ 318.1) or part-time (¶ 318.2) appointment;
   b. One lay member from every pastoral charge of the conference, elected as provided in ¶ 32 of the Discipline; provided, that each pastoral charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment shall be entitled to as many lay members of the conference as there are eligible clergy members appointed to that charge (see 1.a.);
   c. The diaconal ministers of the conference;
   d. The active deaconesses under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the conference;
   e. The conference president of United Methodist Women;
   f. The conference president of United Methodist Men;
   g. The conference lay leader;
   h. The conference president of United Methodist Youth;
   i. The chairperson of the conference college student organization;
   j. The district lay leader from each district;
   k. The president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization;
   l. The conference director of lay servant ministries.
   m. The conference secretary of global ministries (if lay).
   n. Two young persons between the ages of twelve and seventeen and one young person between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district, elected by the district Program Ministries Council or equivalent structure; and,
   o. Such additional lay members as may be necessary to equalize the lay and clergy membership of the conference, as provided below, based on the clergy membership as of July 1 of the previous year.

2. The district shall select from its district additional lay members so that the total number of lay members equals the total number of clergy members. The additional number of lay members from each district shall be determined in an equitable and proportional manner by the conference secretary based upon membership as recorded in the most recent conference Journal. Alternates to such additional lay members may be chosen at the discretion of the district superintendent and district lay leader and may be seated in place of such members who are unable to be present.

3. The completed registration process shall constitute the official membership roll of the annual conference.

4. A quorum for the transaction of business in any annual conference session shall be the number of registered conference members present and voting.

B. OFFICERS

1. The Presiding Officer: The presiding officer of the conference shall be the resident bishop.

2. Conference Secretary: The secretary of the conference shall be elected quadrennially by the conference at the annual session of the conference following each General Conference on nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations and shall assume full responsibility of the office upon adjournment of the annual session at which he/she is elected, provided that the outgoing secretary shall be responsible for editing and publishing the journal of that session. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the bishop, after consultation with the district superintendents, shall appoint a person to act until the next annual session, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. Upon nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations, the conference may elect a conference secretary-designate for a term which the conference shall determine.

3. Associate and Assistant Secretaries: Upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall annually elect an associate secretary and a sufficient number of assistant secretaries to handle the work of the conference.

4. Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services: At the first session of the conference following the General Conference, a conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be elected by the conference for the quadrennium upon nomination by the conference Council on Finance and Administration. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the Council on Finance and Administration shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the conference, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. The DAS shall include the responsibility of the conference statistician and the Conference Benefits Officer.

5. Conference Chancellor: Upon nomination by the bishop, the conference may annually elect a layperson who is a member in good standing of one of the local churches of the conference, or a clergyperson who is a member of the annual conference, and who is a member of the bar of the state of North Carolina as conference chancellor to serve as legal advisor to the bishop and to the conference.
6. Conference Parliamentarian: A conference parliamentarian may be appointed annually by the bishop after consultation with the district superintendents.
7. Conference Director of Connectional Ministries: The conference director of connectional ministries shall function as a communication link between the conference and general church agencies, give leadership in the implementation of ¶ 608 of the Discipline, and relate to directors of connectional ministries in annual conferences throughout the connection.
8. Conference Lay Leader: The conference lay leader shall be elected for a four-year term by the conference upon nomination by the Board of Laity. No person shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms in this office. A vacancy in this office during the quadrennium shall be filled by the Board of Laity, which shall name a new lay leader for the remainder of the quadrennium, subject to confirmation at the following annual session of the conference.

C. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

1. Committees on Nominations:
   a. For the purpose of nominations to the conference entities, there shall be a conference Committee on Nominations, composed of the bishop, who shall be chairperson; the conference secretary, who shall be secretary; the district superintendents; the director of connectional ministries; the assistant to the bishop; the conference lay leader; the conference president of United Methodist Men; the conference president of United Methodist Women; the chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; a lay leader from each district and two laywomen and two laymen to ensure diversity, elected quadrennially by the conference upon nomination by this committee. Unless otherwise provided herein or by The Discipline, all members of conference entities prescribed herein shall be elected by the annual conference upon nomination by the conference Committee on Nominations.
   b. There may be in each district a district Committee on Nominations or equivalent structure, composed of the district superintendent, who shall be chairperson; the district lay leader; and others who could include: the district president of United Methodist Men; the district president of United Methodist Women; a youth; two pastors who have served in the district for at least two years, named by the district superintendent; and two laywomen and two laymen who have been members of The United Methodist Church for at least four years. This committee may prepare nominations from the district for consideration by the conference Committee on Nominations and shall care for other necessary nominations within the district and for action by the conference.
   c. The conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate the conference entities to be elected by the annual conference unless otherwise specified herein. Quadrennial nominations shall be submitted to the conference secretary and shall be printed prior to annual conference.
   d. The districts and the conference Committee on Nominations shall take care that each of the various constituencies of the conference, is represented throughout the organizational life of the conference insofar as possible. Persons shall be selected for nomination based upon their demonstrated or expressed desire, interest, concern, and/or involvement in the organization of the conference. The foregoing shall not preclude nominations from the floor of the conference at the time of the election (as allowed by The Book of Discipline).
   e. Unless otherwise provided by The Discipline, the Connectional Table shall act to fill any vacancies on any of the conference entities which shall arise in the interim. Persons so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election of the members of the agencies involved.
   f. Terms of Service: Except as hereinafter provided, no person shall serve simultaneously on more than one of the quadrennial or term election agencies of the conference, except in cases of ex-officio membership, nor for more than eight consecutive years on any one such agency, except in cases of ex-officio membership; provided, however, in the case of membership on a quadrennial agency, that, unless prohibited by The Discipline, a person elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less shall be eligible to serve for a maximum of eight consecutive additional years on the same agency, and a person elected to fill an unexpired term of more than two years shall be eligible for a maximum of four consecutive additional years on the same agency. The Committee on Episcopacy, the Committee on Nominations, the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules, and the Petitions Committee shall not be included in the prohibition of simultaneous service. If a member of said agencies is appointed to the district superintendency, his or her agency membership shall terminate, unless the membership be ex officio, and any vacancy thus created shall be filled as heretofore set out. If a member of a conference entity is absent from two consecutive regular meetings of the entity without a reason acceptable to the entity, his or her membership thereon shall cease, and he or she shall be so notified. Such a vacancy shall be filled as heretofore set out.
   g. Convening for Organization: The terms of service of the members of quadrennial or term agencies of the conference shall begin July 1. Each agency will organize at an event convened by the bishop and scheduled as soon as possible following the adjournment of the annual conference session at which they were elected.
   h. Members of general church boards and agencies will be ex-officio members (with vote) of the conference entity to which the general board or agency most closely aligns, or as indicated in The Book of Discipline.

2. Connectional Table: This team shall be constituted quadrennially. The purpose of the Connectional Table is to connect the ministry and resources of the Annual Conference in order to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that, lives and communities are transformed by the power of God. The Connectional Table shall consist of the chairpersons of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Board of Trustees, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Leadership Development Team, the Church Vitality Team, the Justice and Reconciliation Team, the Mission Engagement Team, the Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry, and the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the presidents of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the director of church development, the president of the United Methodist Foundation, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the director of ministerial services/ conference secretary, the director of communications, the director of connectional ministries, the resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a district superintendent. The director of connectional ministries and the conference lay leader shall serve as co-chairpersons. Additional members may be nominated and elected to ensure diversity and inclusiveness. One young adult clergy person shall be a member.

3. Councils:
   a. Conference Council on Finance and Administration: There shall be constituted quadrennially a conference Council on Finance and Administration as provided in ¶ 611 and following of The Book of Discipline. The resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, and one district superintendent named by the cabinet shall be ex-officio members without vote.
   b. Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry: This council shall be constituted quadrennially and be composed of eight to twelve members. Special attention will be given to the election of persons knowledgeable and passionate in the areas of camp, retreat, and outdoor ministry, non-profit board experience, and business management. The council will promote all existing WNCCUMC camp and retreat centers. This includes camp facilities and cooperative ministry with the local church, districts, and conference. The council is responsible for establishing, implementing, and maintaining financial oversight of the Camp and Retreat Ministry Endowment fund. The Council will submit a yearly request to the Annual Conference for financial support on behalf of the camp and retreat centers. The council will be a source for support in non-profit board development, will encourage and support sustainable best practices for all current camp and retreat centers, and maintain positive relationships with each of the camps and their staff and board of directors. The Conference Coordinator of Camp and Retreat Ministry shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

4. Boards:
   a. Board of Trustees: An incorporated conference Board of Trustees shall be constituted annually as provided in ¶ 2512 of The Discipline. The conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a cabinet representative shall be ex-officio members without vote.
   b. Board of Ordained Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of forty-five elders in full connection, including one district superintendent named by the bishop; nine deacons in full connection; fifteen lay persons, and the conference lay leader; and, at least four associate members or local pastors who have completed the Course of Study; elected as provided in ¶ 635 of the Discipline. The director and associate director of ministerial services shall be ex-officio members without vote.
   c. Board of Laity: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the conference lay leader, who shall be president; the president of conference United Methodist Men; the president of conference United Methodist Women; the vice-chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; the district lay leaders; the conference prayer advocate; twelve lay persons elected to ensure that the total membership of the council is representative of the various constituencies of the conference; and other persons deemed by the board as necessary to its work. The board shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in achieving the mission of the church, and enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision-making process of the conference, the districts, and the local churches. One district superintendent shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
   d. Board of Pension and Health Benefits: As specified in ¶ 639 of the Discipline, an incorporated Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve members, arranged in two classes. The treasurer of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., shall be an ex-officio member, without vote. One district superintendent named by the cabinet and the conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be ex-officio members without vote. As a sub-committee within its structure, the board shall quadrennially appoint a Health Benefits Committee, composed of such members of the board and other persons as the board may determine.
   e. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially in fulfillment of the portions of ¶ 634 of the Discipline pertaining to campus ministry and shall be composed of twelve members, nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the conference, with special attention being given to the election of persons knowledgeable in the areas of campus ministry, finance, marketing, and management. The associate director of ministerial services, shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

5. Ministry Teams: There shall be constituted quadrennially four Ministry Teams of the Annual Conference:
   a. A Church Vitality Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will provide vision for and oversee the structures, processes and resources needed, to help existing church leaders know and practice vitality; help potential planting partners in finding, assessing and equipping leaders for new church development; assess effectiveness of current resources; learn and share best practices; and, coordinate funding for vitality and development projects. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. One member will be chosen by each District Church Vitality Team, resulting in 8 members. Other team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

b. A Justice and Reconciliation Team consisting of 12-15 persons. This team will promote excellence and fruitfulness in congregational life and ecclesial structures that reflect the full diversity of the reign of God; works of justice bringing reform to social, ecclesial, and civic structures and institutions; and, participation of all the people of God in realizing the vision of following Jesus, making disciples and transforming the world. Included in the membership will be conveners of the following groups, named by the nominating committee: Religion and Race, the Status and Role of Women, African American Ministries, Asian American Ministries, Native American Ministries, Hispanic/Latino Ministries, and Ministries of Creation Care led by a Conference Earth-keeper. Each of these groups will be convened within 30 days of the organizational meeting by gathering persons with a passion for the ministry involved. The Justice and Reconciliation Team shall have a task force that will review the Ethnic Local Church Concerns grants. The work of Church and Society and Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships, Peace with Justice Ministries, and the ministries and connection to the NC Council of Churches are a part of this team. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

c. A Leadership Development Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The purpose of leadership development is "To grow the capacity of leaders to Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World." The task is to help shape a culture where life-long growth and development are expected to promote and support life-long fruitful ministries. The team will promote leadership excellence among congregational ministers (both clergy and lay professionals). It will also champion the development of the future leaders of the church with special emphasis on youth and young adults. Finally, it will encourage congregational ministers in the development of leadership among the laity within the congregation. The team will network with those entities in the conference who share in its purpose. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

d. A Mission Engagement Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will engage and actively facilitate the connection of congregations and disciples to service in their local communities and the world at large. They will work to encourage general church mission efforts and emphases, provide appropriate avenues for training of mission leaders, and promote and foster abiding relationships with mission projects and mission workers throughout the world. This will include the traditional work areas of Disaster Response Ministry, the Mission Response Center, Volunteers in Mission Building Teams, and other historically related ministries. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for extending the mission witness of the conference. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

6. Administrative Commissions:

a. Commission on Archives and History: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially (¶ 641) and shall be composed of twelve members at large, the conference secretary, and the president or designated representative of the executive committee of the Conference Historical Society. The conference archivist shall be an ex-officio member without vote. Its membership shall not be subject to the limitations on terms of service set forth above.

b. Commission on Communications: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve elected members at large, up to five additional members selected by the commission for expertise in the areas of communication and technology. It shall function as a service agency for the entire conference in the area of communication and interpretation. The conference director of communications shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

c. Commission on Equitable Compensation: As specified in ¶ 625 of The Discipline, this commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of fourteen persons, plus one district superintendent, named by the cabinet. The fourteen elected members shall consist of seven lay persons and seven clergy persons, including at least one lay person and one clergy person from charges of fewer than two hundred members which are receiving equitable compensation funds at the time of the election of commission members. The assistant to the bishop and one district superintendent shall be ex-officio members without vote.

7. Committees:
   a. Committee on Conference Staff Relations: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the bishop; the assistant to the bishop, the conference lay leader; the president of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; and the following members at-large: two ordained elders, one deacon in full connection, and three lay persons. The director of human resources shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee, without vote. The chairperson shall be elected by the committee from among the at-large members. The committee shall support and provide oversight to the work of the human resources department within the annual conference.
   b. Petitions Committee: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially in order to do the following: (a) receive and review petitions to the annual conference; (b) prepare a calendar of petitions for each plenary session; and, (c) ensure that all petitions are in front of the conference until adjournment. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
   c. Conference Committee on Organization and Rules: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be the primary steward of the Western North Carolina Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. Its work shall include the following: receive and review proposed changes and/or additions to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and report to the annual conference recommended changes to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order to keep them in compliance with The Book of Discipline. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary, resident bishop, and director of connectional ministries shall be ex-officio members without vote.
   d. The following committees shall be constituted as required by The Book of Discipline: Committee on Episcopacy (¶637), Episcopal Residence Committee (¶638), Committees on Investigation (¶2703), Administrative Review Committee (¶636), and Joint Committee on Medical Leave (¶652).

D. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The conference secretary shall be the editor of the conference journal, assisted by the conference statistician in the publication of statistical data.
2. The journal shall be edited in keeping with the Discipline and other regulations of the General Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference under the direction of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
3. The annual journal shall contain the proceedings of the most recent conference session and the statistical tables for the calendar year preceding that session.
4. In the event that the plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the conference are published apart from the journal, this document shall be considered part of the journal.
5. In view of the obvious difficulties and inequities involved in singling out one or more persons worthy of special recognition, the journal shall not be dedicated to the memory or honor of any person.

E. DISTRICTS, DISTRICT CONFERENCES, AND DISTRICT COUNCILS

1. There shall be a total of eight districts in this annual conference, the boundaries of which shall be determined by the bishop after consultation with the cabinet.
2. At the discretion of the district superintendent, a District Conference may be held in each district (according to Chapter 4, Section X, ¶658ff of The 2016 Book of Discipline.) The membership of a District Conference shall consist of the lay and clergy members of the district of the Annual Conference session of the current calendar year.
3. The district lay leaders shall be selected by the district for a four-year term and confirmed by the annual conference. No person shall serve as a district lay leader for more than two consecutive terms.
4. District organization for missional purposes and impact: Each district may organize leadership teams that carry out the strategy and mission of the district within its context. Each team will reflect the diversity of the district.
5. The district Board of Church Location and Building (¶2519), the district Board of Trustees (¶2518), the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry (¶666), and the Committee on District Superintendency (¶669) shall be organized in each district as provided for in The Book of Discipline.

F. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. Lay and clergy members as designated by The Book of Discipline shall be eligible to vote and to be elected as a delegate.
2. Those voting must vote within the voting bar of the conference and at the time specified by the presiding officer for that ballot. Ballots shall be cast only in the manner provided and designated by the conference.
3. Vote counting procedures shall be the responsibility of the conference secretary, assisted by tellers duly elected by the conference from among the lay members and the ordained ministerial members in full connection upon nomination by the district superintendents. In addition, upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall elect two chief lay tellers from among the lay members of the conference and two chief ordained ministerial tellers from among the ordained ministerial members of the conference in full connection.
4. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast shall be required for election.
5. The results of the ballots shall be announced by the presiding officer as follows:
   a. First Ballot for General Conference Delegates and First Ballot for Jurisdictional Conference Delegates: The names of all persons receiving ten or more votes shall be announced, with the total vote for each, in descending order.

b. Second Ballots: The names of all persons receiving twenty or more votes shall be announced.
c. Third and All Subsequent Ballots: The names of all persons receiving thirty or more votes shall be announced.

NOTE: A person's name not being announced because his or her vote total was less than the number necessary for announcement does not mean that the person is necessarily ineligible for election.

6. Individual ballots shall be valid only when cast for the prescribed number of eligible persons to be elected on each ballot and cast in the manner provided for and designated by the conference. Inclusion of the name of a person already elected, the name of an ineligible person, or an illegible name shall invalidate that entire individual ballot. Adjudication of illegibility shall be the responsibility of the chief tellers.

PART II. RULES OF ORDER

A. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Rule 1. Authority of the Chairperson: The resident bishop or the presiding officer designated by the bishop to preside in the bishop's temporary absence shall be the chairperson of the conference. The chairperson shall decide points of order raised by the members and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members as the chairperson deems necessary to conform to these rules of order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the conference by any member without debate, except that the chairperson and the appellant, in that order, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the chairperson. When any member raises a point of order, the member shall cite, by number, the rule alleged to have been violated. The chairperson shall have the right to recess a session of the conference at any time in the chairperson's discretion and to reconvene at such a time as the chairperson shall announce, with only members, authorized personnel, and authorized guests permitted to attend such a session following recess.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS:

Rule 2. Frequency and Length of Speeches: No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, and no longer than three minutes unless the member's time shall be extended by the conference, except as provided in Rule 24. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the conference at any time and for any period of duration. The provisions of this rule shall likewise apply to the asking of a question or questions by an individual and to answers to that individual by the person or agency to whom the questions are directed.

Rule 3. Total Time for Debate on an Individual Proposal: When a proposal is to be presented as the main motion for debate, the conference may, by majority vote upon motion by any member, set a time limit for the total debate on that question, including any amendments or other secondary motions related thereto, provided that such limitation shall not be construed to conflict with Rule 2 or Rule 24. If such a limitation is set, the chairperson may direct the coordinator of calendar to allocate the total time among speakers for and against the question by such means as the coordinator deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of Rule 2, and provided that the previous question may be ordered at any time as specified in Rule 20.

Rule 4. Voting Bar of the Conference: At the organizational session of the conference, the voting bar of the plenary sessions of the conference shall be set by vote of the members. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the conference shall be entitled to vote.

Rule 5. Voting Procedure: Voting shall be by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chairperson or by the conference. At the discretion of the chairperson, a count vote may be taken. A count vote may also be ordered at the call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and be counted. The count shall be made by tellers appointed by the conference secretary and shall include the votes of members in the portions of the voting bar separate from the main assembly. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been ordered, unless the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report of the tellers on a count vote.

Rule 6. Division of Question: Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the member indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If there is objection, the chairperson shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

C. BUSINESS PROCEDURE:

Rule 7. Organizational Session: The opening or organizational session of the conference shall include at least the following:

a. Roll call of conference members (see Part I.A.3).
b. Setting of the voting bar (see Rule 4).
c. Adoption of conference agenda.
d. Report of Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
e. Ordering to record of reports of boards and agencies not requiring conference action.
f. Election of associate and assistant secretaries and associate and assistant statisticians.
g. Election of coordinator of calendar (if warranted).
h. Announcement of necessary revisions of printed reports and recommendations.

Rule 8. Petitions: Petitions may be made to the conference by conference entities; the cabinet; lay and clergy members of the conference; councils, boards, and committees of the districts of the conference; and councils, boards, committees, and professing members of local churches of the conference. Each petition must be submitted to the conference secretary in writing, preferably by electronic means, by a date determined and announced by the conference secretary prior to the convening of the conference; must be signed by the maker(s) thereof (understood to mean the chairperson and secretary in the case of a petitioning group); and must contain information sufficient to validate the source (church or charge name, district, address, email address, etc.). Any petition containing personal references or dealing in personalities may be returned to the originator(s) with an explanation. The petitions committee shall review all petitions and assign a number and give a subject title to each petition prior to its publication.

Rule 9. Pre-Conference Publications:

a. Booklet of *Program and Reports: All annual reports and petitions of conference entities shall be submitted in writing, preferably by electronic means, to the conference secretary by a designated date prior to the convening of the conference. Under the direction of the secretary, this publication shall be made available electronically for print.
b. Supplement: A Supplement to the booklet of Program and Reports shall be distributed to the members of the conference at the time of registration of members.

Rule 10. Referral of Matters with Financial Implications: All petitions and motions requesting a special offering or financial appeal or otherwise having financial implications for conference funds shall be referred to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which shall offer its recommendations concerning the matter prior to action by the annual conference.

Rule 11. Consideration of Business Items: All petitions and other motions, including proposed amendments to the plan of organization and rules of order, printed and distributed in accordance with Rule 9, subject to correction of grammatical and editorial errors, shall be the property of the conference at the time of the opening of the conference without formal reading and shall be in order for consideration at any time thereafter.

Rule 12. Availability of Conference Actions: No later than ten days after the adjournment of the annual session, the conference secretary shall provide copies of all resolutions, proposals, and recommendations acted upon by the conference to the bishop, the conference director of connectional ministries, and the conference director of communications.

Rule 13. Special Study Reports: Special study reports ordered by a previous annual session shall be presented directly to the organizational session of the conference for such disposition as the conference may make, including referral if the conference so chooses.

Rule 14. Distribution of Unofficial Material: No leaflet, brochure, questionnaire, or other material shall be distributed on the floor of the conference or in the registration area except by prior approval of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting or by the order of the conference.

Rule 15. Consent Calendar: All petitions from conference entities printed in the booklet of Program and Reports, with the exception of the proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration concerning conference funds and financial policies, and upon recommendation of the petitions committee, shall constitute the consent calendar and shall be so designated in that booklet. At the request of any member, the conference may, by majority vote, lift any item from the consent calendar for consideration in plenary session. All items not lifted from the consent calendar shall be acted upon at one time in plenary session at such time as the chairperson shall direct. The proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration related to conference funds and financial policies, petitions which have been lifted from the consent calendar, and other petitions conforming to Rule 8 shall be presented for conference action in plenary session.

Rule 16. Undebatable Motions: The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference finally.
b. To suspend the rules.
c. To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 24.
d. To take from the table.
e. To call for the previous question.
f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
h. To call for the order of the day.

Rule 17. Precedence of Secondary Motions: If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be in the following order:

a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn, which motion is subject to amendment or may be laid on the table.
b. To adjourn.
c. To take recess.
d. To lay on the table.
e. To order the previous question.
f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
g. To postpone to a given time.
h. To commit or refer.
i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
j. To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 18. Referring Reports: The conference may refer any report, recommendation, or resolution, or any part thereof, which is before the conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 19. Consideration of Substitutes: A substitute motion may be offered for any report, recommendation, or resolution under consideration. The conference shall then first perfect the original, and then perfect the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report, recommendation, or resolution.

Rule 20. Previous Question: When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending), the member shall indicate to what he or she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If the member does not so indicate, it shall apply only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption.

Rule 21. When Motion to Limit or Stop Debate Not in Order: When the conference is considering a petition or other motion, no member, immediately after discussing the pending question and before relinquishing the floor, shall make a motion which, if adopted, would limit or stop debate.

Rule 22. Reconsideration: A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated (Rule 16).

Rule 23. Calendar: The conference secretary, in consultation with the coordinator of calendar, shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, reports, and other business items as recommended by the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and adopted by the conference as its agenda.

Rule 24. Speakers For and Against: Except for undebatable motions, a question under consideration shall not be adopted until the presiding officer has given opportunity for at least two speeches for and two speeches against said proposal, alternately, so long as any member desires to speak on the other side thereof, provided that the right is claimed before the person presenting the proposal is recognized to close debate. After three speeches for and three speeches against the motion, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the vote on the motion shall then be taken; provided, however, that the person presenting the proposal shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right to close debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of two minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the matter under consideration.

Rule 25. Consideration of Agenda Items: Items on the agenda of the conference shall be taken up on the day scheduled. Any calendar items for a certain day that are not received on that day or are not completed before adjournment shall not take precedence over calendar items for the day to which said item or items have been postponed. After the calendar items for that day have been completed, postponed calendar items shall be considered.

Rule 26. Motion to Adjourn: The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate and shall always be in order, except:

a. When a member has the floor.
b. When a question is actually being put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
c. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost and no business or debate has intervened.
e. When a motion to fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the conference.

Rule 27. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Connectional Table shall be empowered to complete any unfinished or emergent business of the Annual Conference that does not violate The Book of Discipline (2016), Judicial Council rulings, and/or Robert's Rules of Order.

D. AUTHORITY, SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING:

Rule 28. Authority: The plan of organization and rules of order of the annual session of the conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order of the preceding annual session until and unless they have been amended or modified by the action of the annual conference.

Rule 29. Suspension: The operation of any of the provisions of these rules of order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference, except as may otherwise be provided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 30. Amendments: The plan of organization and rules of order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference, provided that the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and has been presented to the conference in writing or, if from a source other than this committee, has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee. As identified in the Plan of Organization (E1), the number of districts may not be amended later than the second morning of the annual session. Changes and amendments printed in the booklet of Program and Reports shall be in order for consideration by the conference at any time during the annual session, provided that notice of such shall have been given in writing to the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting prior to the opening of conference (see Rule 11). Otherwise, no proposed change or amendment shall be submitted to vote until and unless one day has elapsed from the initial presentation to the conference.

Rule 31. Supplemental Authority: In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by the plan of organization and rules of order, the conference shall be governed in its actions by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

VIII. REPORTS

A. COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) is "to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference" (¶ 612.1, 2016 Discipline). CFA takes this directive seriously.

CFA seeks to wisely discern available and potential resources that match with the vision and implementation of ministry. It is the council's deepest hope to ensure funds and other resources are available for the Western North Carolina Conference to achieve its mission. As the current president of CFA, the Rev. Dr. Glenn Kinken, has said many times, "We are a council of possibilities, not a committee that always says NO."

CFA believes that apportionments are solid pathways to tangible connectionalism. By joining together resources, our collective bonding achieves far more than we could ever accomplish alone. Yet, CFA acknowledges that local congregations are engaged in vibrant ministries in their communities. CFA therefore takes seriously the challenge to balance the needs of the local congregations and the needs of the annual conference.

Rather than regurgitate what your apportionment funds are realizing, CFA simply invites you to further explore and keenly discern what all the teams, committees, boards, agencies, institutions, and organizations are doing in Book of Programs and Reports.

It almost goes without saying that CFA urges every local church to support the fair share askings by paying 100% of its funds apportioned. It commends those churches in the conference who fully supported the connectional ministry of the church in 2018, sometimes at great sacrifice. In 2018, 80% of all congregations in the conference paid 100% of the total amount apportioned. Imagine if all congregations paid 100% of the apportioned funds, what a great fulfillment of the Lord's Commission to which Christ calls us.

If local congregations follow the dictates of The Book of Discipline, the expectation is that each congregation pay 100% of the total monies apportioned through the district, conference, jurisdiction, and general church. Pastors and lay members of the Annual Conference are to interpret and promote 100% payment of apportionments. The Conference Treasurer's office produces promotional material each year to assist in this effort. Anyone may visit the WNCC website (www.wnccumc.org/administration) and review apportionment allocations, payments, and descriptions of each of the funds. In the average congregation in the conference, based on 2018 statistical data, the total apportionment payment is about 8.4% of the total income from church members and friends. Congregations retain 91.6% of monies contributed. In using the biblical language of the tithe, apportionments come close but they do not represent a full 10% of the budgets of congregations.

To these ends, CFA commends to the Annual Conference the 2020 budget, which is focused on accomplishing the vision of the Conference with the ultimate focus of developing vital churches. At a total of $16,271,284, the 2020 conference apportioned budget represents an increase of 0.65%. The degree to which the CFA accomplishes this goal depends upon local churches' support of the conference budget. Receipts on all funds for 2018 were $14,298,933, or 88.23% of the total apportioned, a very slight decrease of 0.04% over 2017 receipts.

Even with the minimal increase in the 2020 conference budget, the CFA is confident that it will be able to provide for growth in the ministries of the Conference. This budget represents the best efforts of the conference staff and ministry teams of the Western North Carolina Conference as a funding ministry plan to achieve the goal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our world.

Proposal: 2020 Conference Funds and Financial Policies

(Petition 1) Approved June 22, 2019

The Council on Finance and Administration proposes:

1. That each of the funds described in the section of this report headed "Conference Funds for 2020" be approved and that the traditional decimal formula be used in determining the apportionments for 2020 for each chartered church/charge for these funds. (New church starts will participate in the apportionments in a "phasing" period):

   District Operations Fund
   Equitable Compensation Fund
   Medical Leave Benefit Supplement Conference Support Fund
   Mission and Ministry Fund
   District Mission Engagement Fund
   District Benevolence Grants Fund
   District Church Vitality Fund
   Africa University Fund
   Black College Fund
   Episcopal Fund
   General Administration Fund
   Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
   Jurisdictional Administration Fund
   Ministerial Education Fund
   World Service Fund

   The decimal formula shall be based on the average of the amounts paid by each mission or chartered church/charge during 2016, 2017, and 2018 on the following items:

   Items from Table Two of the Year-end Statistical Reports
   Total Conference Apportioned Funds Paid (29a)
   Pastor(s) Pension Premiums (39)
   Pastor(s) Health Insurance Premiums (40)
   Salaries, Housing, Utilities, Travel, and Other Cash Allowances Paid to Pastor and Associate(s) (41-44)
   Compensation of All Other Church Employees & Diaconal Ministers (45)
   Local Church Expenses for Program (46)
   Other Local Church Operating Expenses (47)

2. That the following policy be approved and observed:
   At the beginning of the calendar year, the Council on Finance and Administration shall determine which portions of the Conference Support Fund and the Mission and Ministry Fund are "fixed costs" (salaries, benefits, etc.) and shall thus be authorized to be paid at 100% of the approved budget. The District Operations Fund will be funded at 100% of the approved budget. On the basis of prior year receipts to these funds, CFA shall then determine a percentage of the approved budget to be authorized for expenditure in the remaining items of each budget, so that expenditures shall not exceed income.
   a. Each church is expected to support all funds at 100% of the apportioned amount. (¶ 247.14 of The 2016 Book of Discipline)
   b. The churches are requested to make payments thereon aggregately, with the understanding that the conference treasurer will allocate such payments according to the appropriate percentage due the fund according to the Conference Budget.
3. That an Unrestricted Fund Balance Account be maintained by the annual conference at a goal level of 30% of the current total of the Conference Funds and that any undesignated interest income plus unused balances in budget accounts be transferred to the undesignated fund balance at the end of the fiscal year.
4. That all apportioned funds, pension and health benefits costs, both receipts and disbursements, be managed through the office of the conference treasurer and that all districts, boards, agencies, committees, and commissions use the conference treasurer as fiscal agent.
5. That the group medical insurance plan be continued and that all churches be required to participate, based on the eligibility requirements of the plan, through the payment of premiums to the office of the conference treasurer.
6. That local churches should be aware that, for apportioned funds for bishops (Episcopal Fund), district superintendents (District Operations), and the Equitable Compensation Fund, the church has an obligation to observe the rule of proportional payment (¶¶ 622 and 639.4, 2016 Discipline), and that ¶ 639.4(c) be observed by the statistician in reporting these apportionments. The rule of proportional payment requires that each local church/charge makes payments for these apportioned funds in the same proportion as payment for the support for the clergy appointed to the charge, i.e., if a church pays their clergy on a monthly basis, then these apportioned funds are to be submitted monthly.
7. That, for 2012 and beyond, the Conference Staff Relations Committee (CSRC) set the salary and benefits (including clergy housing allowances) for district superintendents, and district and conference staff within the approved total salary budget. The salary of the District Superintendents for 2020, as recommended by CSRC, is to be set at $113,618.

8. That the amount of compensation designated as housing allowance for ordained staff members and district superintendents be set by an annual resolution of the conference Council on Finance and Administration after consideration of a statement of amounts to be used during the year.
9. That church-related travel expenses of all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions; conference and district staff; and local church clergy be paid by voucher on a mileage basis at the amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service. This will be considered as a church-related business item and will not be factored into any compensation package by the Cabinet.
10. That the governing boards of:

    Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
    Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
    Givens Estates United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
    Crossnore, Inc.
    UMAR Services, Inc.
    The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.
    Methodist Youth Camp of Western NC Conference, Inc. (Camp Tekoa)
    Guilrock United Methodist Camp, Inc.
    Mount Shepherd Retreat Center
    Bennett College for Women
    Brevard College
    Greensboro College
    High Point University
    Pfeiffer University
    Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood
    Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society
    Sanctuary Counseling Group, Charlotte
    Chrysalis Counseling Center, Greensboro
    Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc.
    NETworX
    New Faith Communities Fund, Board of Congregational Development
    Campus Ministries to include: Appalachian State University, UNC-Asheville, NC A&T, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro, Western Carolina University, Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving funds from churches, individuals, and other sources (but not from conference-wide offerings except as indicated in the list which follows) in keeping with The Book of Discipline; no capital campaigns be approved for 2020; and that the following, and only the following, conference-wide offerings be approved for 2020:

    Human Relations Day ..... General Conference
    UMAR Sunday ..... Annual Conference
    UMCOR Sunday ..... General Conference
    Native American Awareness ..... General Conference
    Medical Mission Teams ..... Annual Conference
    Mother's Day (Aldersgate, Arbor Acres, Givens) ..... Annual Conference
    Disciple Bible Outreach ..... Annual Conference
    Project AGAPE ..... Annual Conference
    Peace with Justice ..... General Conference
    Children's Home Sunday ..... Annual Conference
    World Communion ..... General Conference
    United Methodist Student Day ..... General Conference
11. That clergy be reimbursed for moving expenses in the following manner, effective upon adjournment of the 2019 conference session:

    a. IN-CONFERENCE MOVES: The conference shall pay a moving allowance, plus $2.50 per mile, one way, on those moves which are required from one appointment to a new appointment. If an appointment requires a move from one parsonage/home into another parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $500. If the appointment does not require a move from a parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $150.

    b. MOVES INTO THE CONFERENCE: The conference shall pay on the same basis as in item 11a above. The moving allowance will apply to the number of miles on the most direct route traveled from the conference boundary to the pastoral appointment.

    c. MOVING AT RETIREMENT: Retiring clergy, surviving spouses of active clergy who died during the year, and clergy who go on medical leave during the year shall receive a moving allowance of $750, plus $2.50 per mile, from the pastoral appointment to the retirement residence or the conference boundary. A retiree who moves to a parsonage and serves a pastorate in retirement is eligible for an in-conference moving allowance upon approval of the district superintendent.

d. MOVES OUT OF THE CONFERENCE (moving to another conference, withdrawing from conference membership, leave of absence, or not receiving an appointment, etc.): No allowance will be paid.

e. SABBATICAL LEAVE: No allowance is granted when the leave begins; however, an allowance will be given when the leave is completed and the clergy person is again available for appointment by the bishop. The amount will be consistent with items 11a and 11b above.

f. In many instances, the moving allowance will not cover the total expense of the move. This reimbursement is given to help with the over-the-road cost of the move. Each church/charge receiving a new pastor is strongly urged to pay any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the new pastor as a result of the move. The district superintendent will negotiate the request with the church/charge well in advance of moving day.

g. The district superintendent is asked to make a very special appeal for each church/charge to be especially sensitive to both parsonage families during this stressful time. The appeal should include assistance with meals, packing, unpacking, loading, an d unloading where helpful and appropriate for the parsonage family.

h. Due to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, clergy should continue to be aware of the provisions of moving reimbursements that may impact their tax situation and are urged to consult with their tax advisor

12. That the president, vice-president, and secretary of the conference Council on Finance and Administration, the chairperson of the Audit Review Committee, the conference treasurer-director of administrative services, a Cabinet representative, and one lay member of the CFA constitute the executive committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration. The principal duties of the Executive Committee include: annual review, compensation and benefits of the Conference Treasurer, and review and recommendation to CFA all Statements of Relationship for ministries relating to the Conference.
13. That the Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to appoint a conference auditor.
14. That each local church make a very special effort to undergird the meal, transportation, and lodging expenses of annual conference members attending annual conference by adding a minimum of $100 to the church budget for each lay and clergy delegate. The district superintendents are asked to encourage such support at each charge conference.
15. That conference funds not be permitted to carry over unspent funds from one conference year to another unless specifically authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Agencies receiving funds from sources other than apportioned funds, such as fee-based events, may carry over such unspent funds into the next year.
16. That 3:00 P.M., Tuesday, January 7, 2020, be the cutoff time by which all payments from local churches must be in the office of the conference treasurer in order to be applied to the 2019 year.
17. That each conference board, agency, or institution receiving or disbursing funds not managed by the conference treasurer maintain adequate financial records and prepare and submit annual audit reports to the conference treasurer and the conference Council on Finance and Administration. All treasurers should be properly bonded.
18. That the conference fiscal year begins on January 1, 2020, and ends on December 31, 2020.
19. That the conference Council on Finance and Administration be responsible for designating depositories for conference funds.

P. Glenn Kinken III, President
R. Mark King, Treasurer

B. CONFERENCE MINISTRIES

1. CONNECTIONAL TABLE

PURPOSE: The Connectional Table (CT) is to connect the ministry and resources of the Annual Conference to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that lives and communities are transformed by the power of God (from the Plan of Organization and Rule of Order and Procedure of WNCC). The CT is the governing body for the conference between the Annual Conference gatherings.

If the CT fulfills its mission, ministry in the WNCC—relevant, vibrant, and diverse, reflecting the faces of all God's people across WNC—will develop faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that lives and communities are transformed by the power of God.

The CT established a 2016–2020 Quadrennial Goal to implement a consistent budgeting process that engages all ministries of the WNCC.

In 2019, the CT continued to work with CFA and the WNCC to refine the budget process to meet its goal in 2020. The leadership group for 2018–2019 explored using The United Methodist Church Connectional Table model of the Logic Model approach to gather evidence of ministry success.

In 2020, the CT will focus on developing a budget and investing the funds received for ministries that transform the WNCC in order to "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform Lives and Communities." The CT will know that it is successful when the budget compiled within the parameters provided by CFA is a conference ministry budget rather than a ministry-delineated, siloed budget. The members of the conference will invest in one another and the communities the conference serves.

An implementation team has been named to lead the 2020 process. This team has accepted the responsibility to keep the CT on schedule and focused on its values; it will also monitor progress toward reaching the goal that a conference-wide budget reflecting what the conference values and imagines is in place by March 2020.

Caroline Wood and Jane Boatwright Wood, Co-Chairpersons

2. CHURCH VITALITY TEAM

The Church Vitality Team had three major areas of focus this conference year: New Church Starts, Fresh Expressions of Church, and the Transformation Journey.

The Church Vitality Team continues to hone the conference church planting system as the team seeks to launch more new church starts with greater opportunities for success. It is a pleasure to report that five new faith communities have launched this conference year and that the team expects five more churches to be launched this year. The church starts that have begun during this conference year are:

Hope Fellowship, Appalachian District
The Place, Metro District
The Foundry, Yadkin Valley District
Gastonia Mission, Catawba Valley District
The Bridge, Smoky Mountain District

Two previous church starts ended this conference year: Reactivate, Metro District, and Connecting Road, Metro District.

During last year's annual conference, the Church Vitality Team invited all churches to consider launching Fresh Expressions of Church and offered micro grants of $500 to help churches get started. The response was overwhelming, and as of this writing, 86 new Fresh Expressions have been created this conference year, leading to a total of 126 Fresh Expressions in the Western North Carolina Conference. This success is due in large part to the leadership of the Rev. Luke Edwards, who serves as the Fresh Expression Coordinator.

In addition to planting new faith communities, the Church Vitality Team is also helping to strengthen existing congregations with a new initiative called Transformation Journey (formerly known as the Nehemiah Project during its pilot phase last year). The Transformation Journey is a three-year process of partnering with congregations to discern and live into God's future for the church. Sixteen churches have been invited to participate in the Transformation Journey this year. Churches that participate in the Transformation Journey will receive up to five recommendations for their church's future. More than 75 guides have been trained in this process and are prepared to partner with churches to help them fulfill their recommendations. The Rev. Dr. Nancy Rankin is the Transformation Journey Coordinator, and she is providing excellent leadership to this ministry initiative.

The Church Vitality Team encourages members and friends of the Western North Carolina Conference to continue to pray for our New Church Start Pastors, Fresh Expressions, and the churches embarking on the Transformation Journey.

Mike Fongemy, Chairperson
Dan Pezet, Director of Church Development

3. JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM

The WNCC Justice and Reconciliation Team (J&R) Team functions in various ways with the 11 entities within this framework to include the ministries of:

Social justice—Church and Society
Environmental creation care—Earthkeepers
Peace with justice
Matters of religion and race (CORR)
The ministries of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW), as well as supporting the North Carolina Council of Churches (NC COC) and some of the work of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR)

This framework also includes ethnic caucus ministries of:

Native Americans
African Americans
Hispanic/Latino Americans
Asian Americans

The J&R team continues to be strengthened as it works closely together sharing funding and resources while endeavoring to make whole the WNCC. It also seeks other collaborative partnerships with the United Methodist Women Social Action, United Methodist Men, United Methodist Youth, Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Board of Laity.

The team has been working over the past year more fully developing the Ministry Action Plan (MAP) with supporting MAP(s) from each entity of the Team.

Its vision: Empowered by Christ, the Justice and Reconciliation Team exists to repair that which has been broken. Its mission is to listen, evaluate, initiate, advocate, train, educate, offer grants, and celebrate through acts of God's love so that the whole church reflects the diversity of each community with an intentional effort to include all constituencies with respect and equity also being inclusive of the work of environmental and social concerns. Its core and aspirational values are to practice genuine listening, mindfulness, encouraging others to lean into discomfort, serving as a catalyst for equity in change by compassionate acts, practicing inclusive language with humility and discipline, speaking and receiving wholeness through Christ. Its near-term objective/top-level goal: The Justice and Reconciliation Team will work to build the voice, influence, access, resources, and spirit among caucuses and conveners so that the WNCC will reflect the diverse body of Christ.

Native American Ministries: Convener Joel Locklear lifts up The Native American Summer Conference at Lake Junaluska, sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM), beginning June 28–30, with the theme "Our Journey: Who we are, where we've been, and where we're going." The keynote speaker is Dr. Robin Gary Cummings, Chancellor, UNC Pembroke, and the Bible Study leader is Dr. David Lowry.

Health and Education Leaders Kayron Maynor and Dr. Reginald Oxendine will join the leadership of the Summer Conference, and the Mobile Medical Unit (Goshen Medical Center), a Federally Qualified Health Center, will be on-site the Saturday of the Conference in the Lambuth Inn parking lot with a licensed medical provider and support staff providing primary and urgent care services. ALL are invited to participate in this educational and enriching experience at Lake Junaluska.

African American Ministries: Convener the Rev. Ronnie Roseboro continues to move forward with the Vision of Strengthening the black churches in the conference through leadership development, revitalization and Christian/spiritual formation. The Mission is to use resources to train clergy and laity in the African-American context of what it means to be a vital church in the community and world to make disciples for the transformation of the world. A number of strategies include cohorts among all Ethnic Caucuses and Anglos that foster working relationships by holding multicultural activities and events, which teach and require engagement of cultures to promote inclusiveness within congregations.

Western North Carolina was represented by eight members in Atlanta, Ga., for the 52nd National Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR) General Meeting held April 3–6, with the theme "BMCR: Reset to the Future." This event included a panel discussion, worship, bible studies, workshops, fellowship, a gospel music extravaganza, seminary breakfasts and luncheons, as well as presentations by Ebony Bishops.

Clergy were supported to attend the Carolinas Black Clergy Leadership Retreat sponsored by the Annual Conferences of Western North Carolina, North Carolina, and South Carolina, May 20–24, with the theme "Navigating the Changing Landscape: A Fearless Dialogue – Prepared to Lead?" The retreat provided an opportunity to get away to a quiet place to be renewed, reconnected, refreshed, and refocused with praise, worship, learning, and retraining, using practical tools to help leadership teams begin where they are and work toward becoming healthy, vital, and moving to growth, even in a time of chaos and uncertainty.

A group of clergy and laity travelled to Atlanta, Ga., October 18–20, 2018, for the SEJ-BMCR Annual Meeting with the theme "An Epistle to the Black Church: The Black Paper!" undergirded by Psalm 137:4. This event included a Town Hall-style setting with a panel led by Bishop Woodie White, the Rev. Dr. Zan Holmes, and the Rev. Dr. William "Bobbie" McClain, followed by an insightful Q&A session.

The J&R Team supported BMCR youth to SEJ-Harambee held June 27–30, 2018, at Rust College, Holly Springs, Miss. With the theme "Won't He Do it?" undergirded by 1 Thessalonians 5:24. The Rev. Dr. Otto Harris, pastor of St. Mark's UMC, Charlotte, N.C., served as the plenary speaker. This conference helps youth develop their spiritual, leadership, and interpersonal skills as they build meaningful relationships with God and each other, and explore the meaning of pulling together and working together in Christian love, hence the name of the conference: Harambee. Attendees also learn how to bridge the gap from generation to generation. WNC-BMCR Youth again claimed the award for the highest number of attendees.

Hispanic Latino Committee: Conveners the Rev. Susan Suarez-Webster and the Rev. Frank Ramos have continued to lead this caucus with regular meetings throughout the year to include worship and fellowship with the Vision "We are a united and diverse community that experiences God's transformation through embracing our neighbors." Values are "mutuality, commitment, love, hope, and empowerment" with the Mission being "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." A pastors' retreat for pastors serving the Hispanic/Latino Community was held April 29-May 1, at the Trinity Center in Pine Knoll Shores, NC, with the theme "Reflecting Together on Faith-Rooted Organizing" undergirded by Ephesians 2:10. The retreat leader was the Rev. Dr. Alexia Salvatierra, founder of the Faith-Rooted Organizing UnNetwork. Duke Divinity Hispanic House of Studies, the Western North Carolina Conference, and the North Carolina Conference sponsor this Sumérgete (Submerge oneself) Retreat.

Asian American Ministries: May Vang continues as convener. The regularly scheduled meetings include clergy and laity, Koreans, Hmong, Cambodians, African Americans, and Caucasians. At its fall 2018 meeting, this ministry area continued work on the Ministry Action Plan (MAP) with the Vision "to become a community that sees all the people," and a near-term objective "to have a more vital presence in the WNCC." The goals between spring 2019 and spring 2020 are "to Bridge, Build and to Become," with specific strategies for each component of the goals. This ministry area will join in with the North Carolina Conference for the 2019 Summer Asian Convocation July 16-19, 2019, to be held at Trinity Center in Salter Path, N.C. The keynote speaker is the Rev. Dr. Elaine Heath (Former Dean of Duke Divinity School) with the theme "Missional Leadership & Spirituality in the Context of Cross-Cultural and Cross-Racial Ministry."

Commission on the Status and Role of Women: This ministry area, led by convener Polly Pearson, continued having regular meetings through the year and developing its Ministry Action Plan (MAP) with the Mission "to work alongside the General COSROW advocating for full participation in the total life of The United Methodist Church, by helping the church to recognize every person – clergy and lay, women and men, adults and children – as full and equal parts of God's human family." It believes that a fully-engaged and empowered membership is vital to The United Methodist Church's mission to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Commission on Religion and Race: Convener the Rev. Dr. Emmanuel Boakye-Yiadom, serving the first half of this conference year, organized the planning team for the 2019 WNCC Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration. Through a collaborative effort of J&R Team members along with Hank Dozier, Pamela Shoffner, and members of WNC Black Methodists for Church Renewal, the theme selected was "Living Into The Dream: All of Gods' Children!" with the highlighted scripture 1 John 4:7–11 shared in the different languages of the ethnicities represented. The celebration was held at University City UMC, with more than 300 in attendance. Thought-provoking videos with vintage footage of some of Dr. King's most poignant speeches invited vigorous table discussions and action challenges. Youth involved in these table discussions and their reporting out of the groups gave special significance to the activities of the day. The keynote address by Bill Curry, inspirational speaker, author, and retired NFL Coach, connected with listeners and left a profound impression. Music was offered by the Livingstone College Gospel Choir and the Greensboro Korean UMC choir. The offering for this event benefited the disaster relief from the 2018 hurricanes in the Gateway District, North Carolina Conference UMC, the Rev. Kenneth Locklear, District Superintendent. The next celebration is scheduled to be held at St. Paul UMC in Winston-Salem, N.C., on January 18, 2020, with the keynote speaker, Clara Esther, retired UMW Deaconess.

Environmental Concerns and Efforts: Convener and WNCC-Earthkeeper, the Rev. Jonathan Brake, continues to partner with UMW District Social Action Coordinators in several districts to offer Climate Justice Workshops. Creation care is an essential part of discipleship as Christians. Earthkeepers are keenly aware of the ecological challenges in the world today and feel called to be part of a movement to transform the world. Jonathan beautifully weaves scripture Hosea 4:1–3, Matthew 7:12; 22:37–39 and Wesley's Three Simple Rules into his presentation. He also offers many resources and opportunities for congregations to rediscover their call to tend the garden and become more loving. WNCC has three UMC Earthkeepers: Jonathan Brake in Reidsville, Jonathan Lemas in Morganton, and Kim Richmond in Winston-Salem. You may contact Jonathan at creationcarewncc@gmail.com.

Providing Support: The J&R Team gave financial support to the following, in addition to what has already been mentioned above:

- Hinton Rural Life Center to assist with Mental Heath First Aid Training for Church Leaders to Erase the Stigma and Encourage Compassion;
- Brookstown UMC to provide assistance for construction materials for three phases of the Bill Bloxham Tiny House Build to offer sanctuary for displaced people who also need low-cost food;
- The Fresh Expressions component of ministry to faithfully respond to homelessness in the neighborhood;
- Central UMC to help provide assistance for dual language early childhood education to the community of East Charlotte for the inaugural school year 2018–2019, beginning to serve children at the Children of the World Learning Center;
- Forest Hills UMC–Concord, NC, to assist with childcare for events and necessary workshop supplies, giving women a place to gain confidence by entering into a safe place of support;
- Opportunity House Mission to provide a means of reconciling homeless and other marginalized groups with the established church for the continued work through Narrow Gate ministry;
- Boundless Impact to provide assistance through the General Board of Church and Society (GBCS) Ethnic Local Church Grant to expand training with racial equity and justice work through the TRUTH Café program which creates spaces for dialogue and deep listening, developing cultural humility and relationships and more.

- The J&R Team gives yearly financial support to the North Carolina Council of Churches (NC COC), which is a statewide ecumenical organization promoting Christian unity and working towards a more just society with the motto "Strength in Unity, Peace through Justice." The Council enables denominations, congregations, and people of faith to individually and collectively impact the state on issues such as economic justice and development, human well-being, equality, compassion, and peace, following the example and mission of Jesus Christ. NC COC addresses social justice issues through a faith lens, some of which include: public education, immigration and the Sanctuary Coalition, the Opioid Crisis, North Carolina Interfaith Power and Light (NCIPL), and PHW. The WNCC continues to be a major judicatory member of the NC COC since its beginning in 1935.

Dismantling Racism Task Force: The Spirit-led goal of the Dismantling Racism Task Force of the J&R Team is to dismantle racism within the Western North Carolina Conference. This is vital and necessary. The J&R Team, along with task forces, will continue to continue to work toward developing a plan and proposal for mandatory anti-racism training for the Western North Carolina Conference. In the wake of the 2019 special session of the General Conference, the team recognizes that the Church is deeply broken and hurting on multiple levels. The complete ramifications of the 2019 General Conference are not yet fully understood, and as such the team deems it prudent to delay implementation of such a multi-year conference initiative. It decided to postpone bringing the legislation for mandatory training on racism for a later year. As children of the radically inclusive and loving king, the team is called to love one another as he loved us, and to work and live together in unity. The team stands with the WHOLE church, as we face this challenging time together in the name of our savior, Jesus Christ. The J&R Team is grateful for the work of the Dismantling Racism Task Force over the past two years under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. In Yong Lee.

Christian Community Development Association: The J&R Team Co-Vice Chairperson, the Rev. Brandon Wrencher, helped to lead a Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) planning retreat in the spring of 2018 held at Mt. Shepherd Retreat Center. All studies show that by 2040 ethnic minorities will comprise the majority of the US population. The J&R Team seeks to amplify this reality through a concerted effort toward organizing and promoting the missional ministry of under-resourced, ethnic minority, and ethnically diverse congregations and communities. Of the many models of such missional ministry, it believes that CCDA is a valuable partner that could help begin to fill this gap within the WNCC. For the past 25 years, CCDA and 1,000 associated organizations have been pursuing a common vision to see under-resourced communities holistically restored with Christians and the local church fully engaged in the process of transformation. In pursuing this vision, Christian Community Development practitioners have distilled the philosophy into eight Key Components. John Perkins, African American missionary, civil rights icon, and founder of CCDA, articulated the "three R's" of Christian community development: relocation, reconciliation, and redistribution. Since Perkins' early strategy, CCDA has added to these: local/indigenous leadership development, empowerment, holistic approach, church-based, and listening to the community.

In Loving Memory: The team said farewell this year to a giant of a forerunner in the person of the Rev. Dr. James W. Ferree, who led by example in the advocacy areas of much of this work for 46 years in the WNCC and prior to that in the Central (Black) Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church. Dr. Ferree was deeply committed to the cause of Christian unity, social justice, and peace. As his eulogist, the Rev. Donald Jenkins, shared at his service of death and resurrection, "the voice of Dr. Ferree may be stilled but never silenced." The team will continue to be grateful and guided by exemplary service.

Pamela Shoffner, Chairperson

4. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Society lives in a whitewater-paced world of change, and the Leadership Development Team (LDT) itself is not immune to change. This past year the LDT has redirected and refocused many of the team's efforts around four key effectiveness measures for pastoral leadership. Effective leaders focus on developing, coaching, and mentoring to enable lay leadership to improve performance. Effective leaders influence the actions and behaviors of others to accomplish changes in the local church. Effective leaders propel the local church to set and achieve significant goals through effective leadership. Effective leaders inspire the congregation through preaching. The LDT offers multiple opportunities for professional church leaders, lay and clergy, to grow in these specific areas.

The LDT also keeps spiritual formation at the forefront of the team's efforts to increase leadership capacity. Twice a year the LDT offers a menu of spiritual formation and retreat offerings. Participants of these specific programs are eligible for grant money to cover most of the cost.

Finding out about LDT offerings is easy. A complete list of current offerings is available on the WNCC web site, wnccumc.org. Click on the "Ministries" drop down menu, and select "Leadership Development." Leaders can also get a daily dose of inspiration, best practices, and new ideas from the Facebook page, "Western North Carolina Conference Leadership Development." Clergy and leaders across the conference also receive the monthly newsletter, eLEAD. The newsletter is centered around a theme and carries writing from many WNCC leaders.

What does it look like when the LDT is effective? When this team imagines answers to that question, several images come to mind: a leader making a tough but necessary decision; a leader setting a vision, building alignment, and managing change attendant to that vision; a leader enlisting and motivating others to perform tasks in a local church; a leader stating a clear and inspiring vision of the gospel; a leader adapting to change, and helping bring others along; a leader learning a new skill or competency as a result of a rapidly changing context for ministry; a leader in prayer.

Readers of this report have a 99.9 percent chance of being a leader themselves. Join us in spreading the word about these offerings. Envision, plan, and take steps to develop one's own leadership capacity. Ask United Methodist sisters and brothers what they are doing to develop their leadership skills. Finally, stay in touch with the LDT. The LDT craves feedback (as do all good leaders).

Dan Hester, Chairperson

5. MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM

The WNCC Mission Engagement Team exists to equip the local church to be in the mission of God focusing on communication, resourcing, and collaboration.

In October 2018, Project AGAPE, a collaborative effort of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences and the Armenian Apostolic Church, celebrated 25 years of mission partnership. Serving the Kashatagh region, it is the sole humanitarian aid partnership licensed by the Republic of Artsakh (Nagorno-Karabakh) government. Long-standing, multi-layered conflict prevents any other humanitarian group from working with the people of this area, who struggle with this way of life. In more than two decades of ministry, Project AGAPE has shared the love of Christ by continuing early projects and adopting new efforts for and with the people of Armenia and Artsakh, as this ministry serves those in Kashatagh and in border villages.

The Committee on Relief is the humanitarian relief and development arm of the Western North Carolina Conference, relating directly to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM). Its mission is to alleviate human suffering and advance hope through humanitarian relief, sustainable development, and global missions. The Committee on Relief is comprised of three units:

Humanitarian Relief (also known as Disaster Response). This unit responds to disasters within and beyond conference boundaries through Early Response Teams that assist communities affected by natural disasters. A total of $805,000 was collected by WNCC churches with a total of $808,000 being dispersed.

Missions Operations offers preparedness and volunteer mission training, provides essential relief supplies through the Mission Response Center located in Terrell, and supports the long-term mission and sustainable development operations throughout the conference.

Global Missions equips the conference for global mission that alleviates human suffering.

During this past year, several communities in the conference were affected by tornadoes, floods, mud-slides, and the remnants of Hurricanes Florence and Michael. As a result, the Incident Command Team collaborated with each district and Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster. Furthermore, the former Cole Memorial United Methodist Church was developed into a mission resource center, warehousing thousands of UMCOR cleaning buckets and other supplies, as well as becoming a centralized hub for volunteer outreach to Eastern North Carolina, in partnership with the campus ministry at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Grants from the Committee on Relief aided Western North Carolina Conference volunteers throughout the southeast and in Puerto Rico. A number of volunteer teams were sent to assist the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico (MCPR) to rebuild after Hurricane Maria. Working alongside the Puerto Rico Methodist Church for relationship development through the rebuilding of homes and churches, teams sought to offer themselves sacrificially under the direction of United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) and the local church.

Currently the Western North Carolina Conference has Mission Connection Teams for Haiti, Guatemala, Puerto Rico and Armenia. WNCC churches already serving in a particular county or location are connected for the purpose of collaboration, communication and resourcing. Mission Connection Teams place emphasis on multiple local churches working together alongside native in-country partners to accomplish goals and tasks of the host culture.

A Mission Cohort pilot was launched in January 2019 for the purpose of shifting the missional imagination of the WNCC churches. A design team of mission leaders from across the conference have been meeting, planning, and dreaming for two years to prepare the curriculum, resources, best practices and spiritual formation components of the cohort. Recruitment for the first mission cohort will begin late summer and early fall 2019 with an official start date in early 2020.

6. COUNCIL ON CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRY

The goal of the conference Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry (CCRM) is to support, encourage, and resource the four camps of the Western North Carolina Conference. This year has brought small shifts that bring a new impact for the council as they support the camps in growing in their ministry of being sustainable, vital partners with the local churches. The shifts have included new members, more formal policies, and establishing the endowment fund that has come from the sale of several camp properties.

With the CCRM gaining recognition as a formal council of the Western North Carolina Conference, the conference nomination committee was able to nominate new members. The council welcomed four new members to serve alongside the current members. It already has been a fruitful addition as these members bring different experiences, connections, and passion for outdoor ministry.

An endowment fund has been established from the proceeds of three camp properties sold throughout the last year. The endowment fund is managed by the council members and the Conference Coordinator of Camp and Retreat Ministry. The earnings from the endowment fund each year will be used for camper scholarships, camp director continuing education aid, to help with camp initiatives throughout the year, and to provide training and workshops for the camp board of directors, among other things.

With these shifts, policies and procedures have had to be developed and clarified. The council now has clear policies and procedures for the camps to follow regarding funding requests for camp initiatives and camper scholarships. The council itself is also gaining clarity and moving towards organized classes and term limits.

The CCRM continues to work to help the camps live into their commitment to be places of sustainable and vital ministry. The CCRM also continues to be grateful for the support of the WNCC United Methodist Churches and the local churches.

Camp Directors' Reports

Camp GuilRock

Camp GuilRock has continued to expand its day camp programming. Under the leadership of their new Director Eric Hearn, they are beginning the process of developing top tier programming not only for the campers but for the summer staff as well. The continued relationships with people and groups of all different backgrounds and denominations have allowed them to develop relationships that continue to introduce new and diverse groups to Christian camping. With these relationships, the camp director hopes to continue to raise the usage rate for the property and keep on the plan of being sustainable long term.

Eric Hearn, Camp Director

Camp Tekoa

The summer of 2018 is now complete, and together the camp celebrates the hearts touched by God's love, the lives changed through God's grace, and the thousands challenged to go out into the world and continue to share the light of Christ.

Highlights:

- 2018 summer camp enrollment: 2,401 campers for Camp Tekoa. Forty-nine campers for Tekoa Foothills (2017 Total numbers: 2,436)
- New construction projects completed in 2018: Forty-foot climbing tower with four routes. New maintenance facility/adventure storage (40x60). Lakeside Lodge at Tekoa Foothills is now open and ready for rental groups. The Lakeside Lodge project was started by Camp Loy White before Tekoa started managing the property. One of Tekoa's top priorities, after acquiring the camp, was to invest and complete the construction on Lakeside Lodge. Tekoa invested $175,000 to finish the project.
- Tekoa Foothills: The mission camp, overnight camp, and day camp were all successful. It was beautiful to hear the positive feedback from all the groups that participated in Tekoa's first mission camp. It is even more affirming to know that more groups are interested in signing up for 2019. Several of the children who attended both the overnight and day camp had never been to camp before so it was a blessing to see all of them enjoying summer camp for the first time. All of the summer rental groups were pleased with the accommodations and staff hospitality
- In 2019, Tekoa will seek to employ a full-time director for Tekoa Foothills
- Camp Tekoa will celebrate seventy years of camp and retreat ministry in 2019! A 70th Anniversary weekend is scheduled for the weekend of September 13-15, 2019 along with 7K Trail Face and an Adventure Fun run for kids
- Tekoa continues to welcome the NOMADS (Nomads on a Mission Active in Divine Service – NOMADS provide volunteer labor for United Methodist organizations). In 2018, the nomads completed the following projects: new fence along the lake-front area, new storage loft in the maintenance building, cleaned and polished the wood panel walls in Laurel Lodge, and built new doors for the supply closets
- Assistant Director, John Isley, shares about one camper's transformative experience:
  The final week of camp was awesome! It had been a challenging summer. But on the last day of camp, Thomas (a Family Group Leader) came up to me and asked about one of his campers being baptized. Gabe said he had, "found God at the campfire." The pastors of the week talked it through with the child and contacted the father for permission. He was excited and supportive. So after all of the campers left, the summer camp staff joined around the lake for a Service of Baptism, and Gabe professed his faith publicly. Then everyone sang his favorite camp song "If You Love Jesus! Nah, Nah, Nah Nah Nah…" and all of the staff jumped into the lake with Gabe to celebrate! This moment illustrates the unique place of ministry that Camp Tekoa holds. A camper who had not experienced much church life found God in this sacred space. Pastors who were serving with at the camp participated in the baptism. The staff surrounded this child with love and grace and jumped into the waters with him. It is a moment forever crystallized in the soul, and the staff is so thankful that God worked through this place to change Gabe's life!

Camper Gabe is just one of many personal examples of how God works through Camp Tekoa to make a difference in the life of a child.

James Johnson, Executive Director

Mount Shepherd Retreat Center

The ministry of Mount Shepherd is gaining momentum in 2019. The center has completed a strategic planning process, has enhanced staff capacity, and has set a new exciting course for the ministry.

The center is celebrating past ministry, and how God has been at work. The year 2018 saw an all-time high in utilization, including a 50 percent increase from the previous year. Thanks to generous gifts and faithful stewardship, Mount Shepherd experienced its best fiscal year in recent memory. The center welcomed a brand new ministry, Jovenes Para Cristo, a multicultural camp. The aim is to bring the ministry to Latino students in the community.

And still the best is yet to come. In 2020 Mount Shepherd will be experiencing a relaunch, with a new vision, a new mission statement and brand new programming offerings.

A full-time program director, Christina Gibbs, has been hired. Christina is receiving the Master of Divinity degree this year, and has extensive work in camps, youth ministry and adventure programming. In addition to staff enhancement, the board of directors continues to flourish. The center has expanded the on-site offerings with a brand new climbing wall, zip line and leap of faith. The ministry also invested in critical repairs to existing equipment. In the first part of 2019, the center is still experiencing significant growth.

Mount Shepherd is grateful for the ongoing support of the annual conference. The partnerships with the churches of WNCC are cherished, and the center looks forward to faithful ministry for years to come.

Josh Britton, Executive Director

C. CONFERENCE RESOURCE CENTER

The WNCC Resource Center is proud to be a free lending library for all churches in the Western North Carolina Conference. The mission of the Resource Center is to provide a deep well of engaging, relevant books and media supporting the mission of the local church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Resource Center continues to purchase new, quality resources recommended by staff, pastors and laity for use by churches and individuals for the education, leadership training, and spiritual formation of children, youth and adults. The Resource Center's two 24-foot canvas labyrinths continue to be used often, especially during Lent.

As of January 2019, the Resource Center boasts 6,766 resources on its shelves, including books, DVDs, worship aids, Vacation Bible school starter kits, stewardship campaign programs, Stephen Ministry support, and curriculum for all ages and stages of life. New in 2018 is a partnership with The Youth Cartel. Contact the Resource Center for the promo code to receive FREE digital resources from The Youth Cartel.

Pastors and lay people alike can turn for help and guidance in selecting resources. Resource Center staff and volunteers are happy to recommend resources to meet specific needs. Stop by the Resource Center display during annual conference to set up a free patron account, update contact information, browse the catalog, and reserve resources today! Following annual conference, contact the Resource Center at resourcecenter@wnccumc.org or 704-535-2260.

Resource Center materials are managed and supported by Surpass, a system used in public schools and libraries. The online catalog, http://wncc.mysurpass.net, is open to all for browsing, but you must have a patron account to make reservations. The Surpass app for smart devices, Library Trek, makes the catalog even more accessible. Finally, be sure to "like" the Resource Center's Facebook page, https://www.facebook.com/wnccresourcecenter, for seasonal recommendations and to stay up to date on the newest resources as they are catalogued.

1.b. BENNETT COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Bennett College is eternally grateful for the continuous and generous support of the UMC through your prayers, presence, connectional opportunities, and donations that undergird its ability to provide its students with a holistic educational experience that positively impacts their families and communities. "God is not unjust; He will not forget your work and the love you have shown Him as you have helped His people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10).

During the #standwithBennett Campaign, the Chaplain's Office developed a prayer calendar and coordinated the Bennett College Clergy Alumnae Prayer Connection to lead its sisters in weekly intercessory prayer on behalf of the institution. It continues to intercede for Bennett on a monthly basis. Also, the chaplain has had the occasion to offer prayers during campus and community gatherings, alumnae meetings, and for students, faculty, and staff as individuals and in groups.

The Campus Life Office established themed living-learning communities (LLCs). In partnership with the Faith Without Fear LLC, the Interfaith Dialogue Project provided a series of programs for student, faculty, and staff engagement. Events included:

- An initial interest meeting;
- Faces of Faith, Culture, and Tradition student-led conversation;
- A community service project, in partnership with a local congregation, that seeks to address the needs of homeless neighbors through winter clothing distribution, children's activities, community resources, and a meal;
- Sister's Table Interfaith Dinner and Dialogue;
- Participation in the NCCJ (National Conference on Community and Justice) Interfaith Tour and Discussion; and
- The Interfaith Open Mic and Meal.

Connectional opportunities: The Black College Fund selected United Methodist students to participate as Lina McCord Ambassadors and Interns. UMC Social Justice Interns will be serving in North Carolina and California. This scholarship program supports students in their efforts to offer support to various agencies within the local community and beyond. Local UMW hosted a scholarship information session with students and worked with Institutional Advancement to assemble luminaries for the candlelight concert.

Spirit of David Dance Ministry enjoyed multiple opportunities to minister during the academic year. The ministry planned a worship service featuring the Bennett College Choir and Pastor Shauntae Smith '08 as the preacher; over 100 persons attended. Pastor Smith also preached for the #standwithBennett Praise and Worship Celebration, a service of thanksgiving to God for touching the hearts of over 14,000 donors.

The Greensboro Pulpit Forum, a coalition of local ministers, led a fund-raiser during the Bennett College Choir's annual candlelight concert in which the dance ministry participated (https://youtu.be/6SpXJ9fvDrs).

Additional ministry opportunities for Spirit of David included The Sisterhood Soiree recruitment event organized by the Office of Admissions and the SGA-sponsored Ebony Soul Gospel Explosion showcasing Jessica Reedy, 2009 first runner-up for BET's "Sunday Best" gospel singing competition.

Belles of Harmony Gospel Choir and Student Christian Fellowship (SCF) collaborated to present the "Black History Month Celebration: A Selfless Fight" that featured dance, open mic, song, and dramatic performance. SCF also coordinated weekly prayer for the campus and our regular worship services. "S.I.S.—Sisters in the Spirit" was a worship experience designed to give students exploring the call to the preaching ministry the opportunity to exercise their gifts.

The weekly Academic Cultural Enrichment Series (ACES) presented 25 programs with an average participation of 182 students. The Series is structured for student development; they have regular occasions to enhance their cultural, social, intellectual, and spiritual growth through ACES.

The highlighted events were organized in addition to weekly Bible study, pastoral counseling for the campus community, small groups activities, and presence on the campus.

The Chaplain's Office is thankful for the outpouring of God's Spirit, which continues to sustain Bennett College, and it looks forward to the unfolding of God's plans for its future. It thanks the UMC for your ongoing support. Thank you for standing with Bennett!

Natalie V. McLean, Chaplain

Brevard College is a four-year, experiential liberal arts college founded in 1853, and is the oldest college in Western North Carolina. The college is home to students from 30 states and eight foreign countries.

Brevard College's mission states, "Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action."

At Brevard College, education is much more than memorizing answers on a test. Faculty connect knowledge to direct experience, purposefully and intentionally. This experiential teaching and learning philosophy, led by expert faculty in small classrooms, develop students' ability to think, work in groups, reflect upon what they have learned, and then apply their knowledge to real world problems. Faculty cultivate marketable skills such as collaboration, problem solving, teamwork, and conflict resolution, to name a few. Students graduate Brevard College with more than a transcript and diploma. They graduate with an experiential resume full of undergraduate research they have conducted, real-world problems they have addressed, and in-class projects they have completed.

Brevard College is affordable. Students from North Carolina receive a Half-Tuition Scholarship when they receive offers of admission. The average cost for Brevard College for the Fall 2017-Spring 2018 academic year was $12,500 for an on-campus student.

Brevard has 18 NCAA DIII sports teams and 3 non-NCAA teams including competitive cheerleading, rock climbing, and cycling.

David C. Joyce, President

2.b. BREVARD COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The past year in spiritual and religious life at Brevard College was phenomenal, filled with profound experiences of engagement, discovery, and learning.

At the beginning of the academic year, Brevard College's Office of Spiritual and Religious Life invited leaders from the Muslim, Jewish, and Jain faith traditions to stand with the campus minister to offer a blessing during the college's first gathering of the year. Each leader gracefully shared their blessing in the language spoken by the original adherents of their faith traditions. It was a powerful moment of interfaith engagement, and the first time, according to many college stakeholders, that an interfaith blessing was given during the Brevard College convocation.

The following are among many inspiring moments in the college year:

Prayers Offered:
- 37 prayers shared during meetings, athletic events, or general Brevard College events
- 122 prayers shared with students, faculty, and staff
- Three prayers shared during Brevard City Council meetings

Visitations:
- Seven hospital visits
- 209 total office visits
- 19 Brevard College classes and athletic meeting visits

Counseling:
- 102 students
- 42 staff
- 21 faculty

Programs:
- 156 attended a showing and discussion on the documentary 13th. Event cosponsored with the Center for Spiritual Wisdom
- 43 students attended an Interfaith House of Worship Tour
- 109 total students have attended a weekly faith reflection group
- 26 students have expressed interest in a Religious Leader Program for aspiring religious leaders

Speaking Engagements:
- 28 sermon invitations outside of the campus
- Seven invitations to speak for a Brevard College class
- Five presentations at civic organizations
- Speaker for the Martin Luther King Jr. celebration at a local church

Courses Taught:
- Hebrew Bible / Old Testament (Fall 2018)
- New Testament (Spring 2019)

Social Justice Conversations:
- Wrote three open letters (in response to mass shootings of a mosque, synagogue, and church)
- Invited to speak at a prayer vigil for peace

Graduate School Aspirations:
- 4 students have shared their interest in attending seminary or some form of theological education upon graduating from Brevard College

Brevard College ministry remains exciting and God continues to be gracious.

Sharad Creasman, College Minister

3.b. GREENSBORO COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The Greensboro College Religious Life office actively supports the spiritual life and faith development of students, faculty, and staff. Central to the life of the college is a weekly chapel service on Thursdays led by students, with music provided by the chapel band and gospel choir. This weekly service includes a variety of preachers from the campus and community.

Each week there are a variety of small groups, Bible studies, and structured times for prayer. A weekly Bible study is also provided for faculty and staff. In conjunction with the Wesley-Luther campus ministry at UNC-G, a Sunday night worship service for college students is provided in the area. The Religious Life office continues to collaborate with the Wesley-Luther Campus Ministry, Catholic Campus Ministry, Episcopal Campus Ministry, Ukirk (Presbyterian) Campus Ministry, and Hillel Campus Ministry in Greensboro. Methodist students have the ability to attend the weekly gatherings with these ministries.

As a recipient of the Young Clergy Initiative from the General Board of Higher Education and ministry, Greensboro College Religious Life has implemented an internship program to help students discern their call to ministry. Students have the experience of being an intern at local United Methodist and Lutheran Congregations to learn about ministry and ways in which they can serve the church as lay leaders and ordained clergy. Students also have the opportunity to attend a conference.

In December, Greensboro College held the 54th annual Festival of Lessons and Carols in its Finch Chapel. This spring the 56th annual Ward Lecture on Christian education was held with speaker Dr. John Fea, from Messiah College, who presented a talk on "The Evangelical Road to Donald Trump." In April the college also hosted the 11th Annual Schleunes Lecture on the Holocaust and Genocide with Barry Trachtenberg from Wake Forest as the speaker. The public is invited to attend any of these events and the website is the best place to find upcoming dates: www.greensboro.edu.

Greensboro College is also excited to be in the first year of its new Master of Arts program in Theology, Culture, and Ethics.

The Religious Life office also provides service opportunities on campus and in the community. It works closely with the Boys and Girls Club of Greensboro, providing events on its campus for their members each semester. It also sponsors an Alternative Spring Break trip. Students also sustain and support a community garden on campus to feed the hungry in the community.

In the fall Greensboro College announced its tuition realignment. For the coming year, it realigned tuition so that it is now $18,500 before financial aid and scholarships. This makes Greensboro College affordable and accessible to more students to receive an education rooted in the United Methodist tradition of joining together "knowledge and vital piety." The Religious Life office does this through its classes, chapel services, lectures, and community service events so that its students might be faithful and informed citizens of the world.

4.B. HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Chapel and Religious Life Highlights:

- Interfaith Vigil for Pittsburgh. The Interfaith Leaders, with the leadership of Hillel, the Jewish student group, led a solemn yet beautiful vigil for the shooting at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh this past fall. This interfaith leadership witnessed to the solidarity of the interfaith community to support and be in solidarity with one another in good and in sorrowful moments.
- MLK Day Worship Service. The 2019 Martin Luther King Jr Worship Service on January 21st in Hayworth Chapel was once again a huge success. The guest preacher was the Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III, Senior Pastor at Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago. He was recently recognized by Baylor University as one of the "12 Most Effective Preachers in the English-Speaking World."
- Holocaust Remembrance Day Speaker. Hosted by the Jewish Life Office, Hank Brodt, Holocaust survivor, told his story of perseverance, loss, survival, and hope to a standing-room-only audience in Hayworth Fine Arts.
- Social Entrepreneurship: Angel Tree Project. The Board of Stewards with the help of the wider High Point University community supported 151 children this year through the Salvation Army Angel Tree project. This is one-fourth of the High Point children the Salvation Army supports through the Angel Tree project. The students make a considerable impact for the betterment of the High Point community.
- Leslie's House. Because of the faithful work of the Board of Stewards, an anonymous donor has committed a matching gift of $6,000 to the Board of Stewards spring philanthropy project. They are raising potentially $12,000 for West End Ministries to hire a cook for the women of Leslie's House.
- 6th Annual Black Heritage Service. Chapel and Religious Life partnered with the historic black organizations and the Office of Multicultural Affairs on campus to host this service to celebrate Black History Month. Brittani Hunt was the guest speaker for this service.

Upcoming Highlights:

- Hayworth Chapel Renovation. This past fall David Hayworth and his foundation committed to making a $500,000 gift to High Point University to renovate Hayworth Chapel. This renovation marries together the tradition of that space with a vision for the future. The vision is at once traditional and forward looking, providing Hayworth Chapel the state-of-the-art audio, video, and lighting capabilities that will allow for a variety of worship services.
- God in the City. Over Spring Break, the Rev. Andria Williamson (Manager of Chapel Programs) is taking 12 students to New York City for a week-long immersion trip to explore the ways faith communities are serving the most marginalized in the city.
- Jewish Life Flourishing. With the addition of Amy Epstein as Jewish Life Coordinator, Jewish life programming and students have been supported immensely. As of writing this, there are 50 identified Jewish students who have been admitted and have made deposits for fall 2019. There are 188 other identified Jewish students who have been admitted. Ms. Epstein is reaching out to them to inform them of Hillel and Jewish Life programming.
- Interfaith Engagement. Interfaith Dinner Club continues to be a success with more than 20 students gathering monthly to grow in interfaith leadership skills and knowledge, while also engaging in difficult topics to build bridges across religious, cultural, racial, and economic lines. Four interfaith leaders represented High Point University at this year's Ripple Interfaith Conference at Elon University.
- Social Media Outreach and Growth. Online participation with streamed and recorded Weekly Chapel continues to grow. Weekly Chapel sees more than 500 people engage online each week. The most participation was for the opening service this academic year with 2,500 unique viewers. See HPUChapel on the following sites:

5. PFEIFFER UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT'S REPORT AND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The biggest news out of Pfeiffer this year is the ground-breaking for the University's Graduate Health Science facility in downtown Albemarle. The building will house the upcoming graduate programs in Physician Assistant Studies and Occupational Therapy. Construction will be complete in June 2020.

Demographic Information

Pfeiffer topped its own record with an even larger entering class in Fall 2018 with 366 new undergraduate students. That was 36 more than in Fall 2017, which was the largest entering class in more than 30 years. The entering class was 42.7 percent male and 57.2 percent female; 32.3 percent Baptist, 36.3 percent Unaffiliated and 12.1 percent United Methodist; 82.4 percent came from North Carolina; 59.6 percent were white, 38.6 percent were members of minority populations; and 17 students were from other countries. In the Fall of 2019, Pfeiffer will begin its Global Sport Management graduate program, and by the 2020 annual conference, two additional graduate programs in Occupational Therapy and Physician Assistant Studies will be underway on the new Albemarle campus.

Across the University

- Several honors were received this year, including: Recognition as a Most Affordable Online Master's in Forensic Accounting program; $4.3 million Teacher Quality Partnership Grant from the United States Department of Education; and receipt of an international honor society charter from Delta Mu Delta for Pfeiffer's business programs.
- Pfeiffer continues its vocational exploration and Pfeiffer Journey programs with the assistance of a NetVUE Program Development Grant. Promoting the idea of vocation as one's call across the university helps Pfeiffer to live into its mission to prepare servant leaders for lifelong learning.
- Pfeiffer's Outreach into its communities continues with programs such as STEM Winter Wonderland, held in cooperation with the Stanly County Family YMCA; the Stanly County Quiz Bowl; the Math 24 Competition; overwhelming opportunities for service; the Montford Park Community Organization; and community mental health outreach by the Pfeiffer Institute Reach. The Francis Center for Servant Leadership and Faith Formation has formed Pfeiffer's first official chapter of Habitat for Humanity, continues its service outreach in the general central park district of North Carolina and continues to provide opportunities for Pfeiffer students to dive deep into societal issues with participation in activities such as the North Carolina Summit on Homelessness and Poverty. More than 650 Pfeiffer faculty, staff and students participated in 76 separate volunteer opportunities with the Francis Center this year, and another 15 opportunities were sponsored by other departments, classes and clubs.
- Pfeiffer is now fully engaged in its move into NCAA Division III athletics, with continued success in the USA South Athletic Conference, which includes competition against seven other United Methodist-related colleges. Because of the transition, Pfeiffer competes in post-season championships in the Eastern College Athletic Conference, where the Indoor Track and Field program brought home national honors, following the national success of Pfeiffer's softball team this past spring. When the transition to NCAA Division III is complete, Pfeiffer will begin playing in the postseason in NCAA tournaments.

Update from the Chaplains Office at Pfeiffer

The Frances Center for Servant Leadership and Faith Formation continues to thrive at Pfeiffer. This design allows students to explore and practice their emerging beliefs and values as well as engage in servant leadership opportunities on campus and in the broader community.

- As an ecumenical community, Pfeiffer Chapel is designed as a sacred space for students to explore and develop their beliefs and values through worship, conversation, and experiential learning. This year, students engaged in traditional, contemporary, and fresh expressions of worship as well as deliberate discussions about their faith within in the context of their local and global communities. Chapels have included: small group discussions on interfaith dialogue, experiential learning that connects the gospel to hunger relief and homelessness, panel discussions on disaster relief, ecumenical guest speakers, and intentional traditional services honoring important events within the liturgical calendar.
- Campus Ministries at Pfeiffer continue to thrive and support students in their spiritual formation. In honor of the college's relationship to The United Methodist Church, many programs are designed specifically for Christian students. This year's programming included: Christians Engaged in Faith Formation, Athletic Ministries at Pfeiffer, CRU, Praise Karaoke & Gospel Choir.
- Beliefs and Values programming continues to grow at Pfeiffer. This initiative welcomes students of all religious and philosophical backgrounds with a goal to build a community based on the principles of mutual respect, understanding, and dialogue. This year the chaplain's office created a monthly interfaith speaker series entitled "Soul Food," inaugurated a student-led Beliefs and Values Council, created and facilitated a religious diversity training for students, faculty, staff and community members and implemented Art and Spirituality programming for students who are spiritual but not religious. Students on the Beliefs and Values Council attended "Ripples," an interfaith conference at Elon University, and began creating and implementing their own, student-led, interfaith programming.
- Dr. Kevin Taylor, along with Rev. Ben Sloan, continue the popular monthly theological round table, Café-chesis, and manages theologycast.org, a podcast that focuses on discussions in theology, academics and pop culture. Tune in for fun, engaging and thoughtful dialogue.

Clergy Health Institute

Pfeiffer continues its work with the Clergy Health Institute, welcoming four female clergy in the 2018 cohort. These female leaders participated in an eight-day retreat on Pfeiffer University's Misenheimer campus where a holistic health approach was provided:

nutrition, cardiovascular health, healthy grocery shopping, exercise sessions, cognitive effects of exercise, bone health, work/life balance, stress management, healthy sleep, spiritual health, leadership development, and art therapy among them. At the three- and six-month follow-up session, all reported positive health outcomes including significant weight loss for some. The 2019 Clergy Health Retreat will welcome both a male and female cohort with space for ten additional clergy to participate. If interested, contact Dr. Dana Martin at dana.martin@pfeiffer.edu.

Youth Theological Institute ... or PFEIFFER YeTI

This Lilly-funded program began Summer 2017 with three cohorts coming together for two weeks for one life-changing experience. Over the past two summers, YeTI has welcomed 33 students into its high school youth theology institutes; 27 students in ongoing or year-long activities (such as mentoring, retreats or workshops); and 33 students in one-time or occasional activities. There are 29 congregations represented by the high school participants; 17 Pfeiffer students involved in the high school youth institute as mentors; seven faculty or staff involved; one seminary involved; and 31 faith-based organizations participating, including mission trips. Participants, mentors and leaders engaged in activities and discussion that served to expand the participants' understanding of ministry and invited them to consider their future in ministry. Immersion experiences took groups to an Intentional Community in Asheville, to study social justice in Washington, D.C., and sports ministry in Charlotte. Registration is now open for YeTI 2019, so spread the word.

Homecoming is set for October 4-5, 2019. Current and former Falcons and those just wanting to experience Pfeiffer are encouraged to attend! Remember #pfeifferishome.

E. BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Formerly: Council on Campus Ministry

The purpose of the WNC Council on Campus Ministry is to empower those responsible for ministry on campus so that students will become "disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." The council seeks to develop, guide, and serve as advocates for campus ministry in the WNCC.

In the last year the Conference Council on Campus Ministries worked diligently to ensure the growth of its seven campus ministries that serve across 12 campuses (not including the conference's five United Methodist colleges and universities, which operate independently from the council). Those campus ministries are Appalachian State Wesley Foundation, UNC-Asheville Wesley Foundation, Western Carolina Wesley Foundation, Wake Forest Wesley Foundation, NC A&T State University Wesley Foundation also known as REAL (Reaching Every Aggie in Love), Wesley-Luther at UNC-Greensboro (an ecumenical campus ministry between the United Methodist Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America), and Niner United at UNC-Charlotte (an ecumenical campus ministry between the United Methodist, Episcopal, Lutheran, and Presbyterian churches). By supporting these ministries with prayer and advocating on their behalf for apportionment funding, a new generation of students is being inspired to "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World."

In the fall, the council facilitated a meeting between Bishop Leeland and the campus ministers to hear the hopes and dreams of the bishop for campus ministry in Western North Carolina. The council also facilitated a meeting with Mark King, Conference Treasurer, to discuss how campus ministers can set up their pension plans with Wespath.

In January, the WNC Council hosted an event called "Listening and Learning: Campus Ministry in 2019 and Beyond." This gathering was designed as a time for members of the Council on Campus Ministry, Campus Ministers, and College Chaplains to learn from one another and to discern the best direction for Campus Ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. The gathering was facilitated by Claire Bowen, a consultant from the North Georgia Conference. During the gathering, participants discussed ways the council and campus ministries could do more to partner together and support one another in their work. The council hopes to have more gatherings like this in the future.

In March, the council hosted training for local campus ministry boards at the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory. At the training Rev. Kim Ingram, Conference Secretary and member of the Western NC General Conference delegation, shared about the action taken by the 2019 General Conference and its potential impact on campus ministry. Susan Cothern, Director of Ministry Services at the United Methodist Foundation, led a workshop on ways campus ministries could reach out and maximize their fund-raising efforts, and Luke Edwards shared about Fresh Expressions and how that can be a model for campus ministry. Members of each local board took the opportunity to meet together in small groups to discuss their learnings and to create a plan of practice to implement what was learned during the training. The Council on Campus Ministry is charged with providing training that will equip local campus ministry boards to support local campus ministers.

Thanks to the generous support of the conference, Campus Ministry is alive and well on campuses in Western North Carolina. The council is committed to its mission and looks forward to what God has in store for the future of campus ministry in WNCC.

Campus Ministry Reports

Appalachian Wesley Foundation

It has been a wonderful and busy year in campus ministry serving the campuses of Appalachian State University and Caldwell Community College - Watauga campus. Highlights for this year include the Fall Break Asheville mission trip, Hurricane Relief mission trip, Spring Break Washington DC mission trip, and the annual beach retreat where the end of the school year and the graduating seniors are celebrated. The foundation is currently renovating parts of the campus ministry facility as the game room is converted into a coffee/study lounge. The foundation looks forward to the fall semester of this year to officially launch a new coffee bar ministry. Even with these renovations, a major accessibility issue with the campus ministry facility exists. Since the foundation does not have a lift or elevator, students who are not able to use the stairs are unable to worship on Wednesday nights since the main worship space is on the second floor. Though the expense for a new lift or elevator is tremendous, the foundation hopes to raise sufficient funds to provide for this need in the near future. The foundation is thankful for all alumni, parents, local churches, and friends for their support of the campus ministry. The foundation is always thankful to serve as a thriving extension ministry of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference and believes that making disciples of Jesus on campus will change the world. Thank you for helping the Appalachian Wesley Foundation live into that God-given conviction year after year!

Brad Farrington, Director

Wesley Foundation at UNC Asheville

Asheville Wesley Foundation is celebrating another academic year of growth and transformation on the campus at UNC Asheville. The 2018-2019 academic year weekly attendance has doubled as well as small groups and outreach opportunities. Students are continually engaged and encouraged in their faith walks as they seek to connect with God, each other, and the world. Since relaunching the ministry in 2015, the ministry is at an established place and part of the student body culture at UNC Asheville. Many students are familiar with the organization and see it as a Christian community that is willing to go deep and to step out in the name of love and justice. Asheville Wesley is known as the campus ministry on campus that is genuinely seeking to be an authentic community that is accepting, affirming and open to all God's children. As the campus ministry continues to grow, the ministry is continually adjusting to help create opportunities for student leadership. Students have been bold in stepping up through serving on the Leadership Team and serving as Student Ministry Interns. As Asheville Wesley prepares itself for a change of leadership in the campus minister position in July, student leadership has been critical in helping maintain identity and stability for the ministry. The incoming campus minister and current campus minister are working on ways to ensure that there is a smooth transition and the ministry will continue growing and impacting UNC Asheville's campus.

Jessica Dayson, Director

Niner United at UNC Charlotte

A common mission unites Cooperative Christian Ministry at UNC Charlotte: to help students discover abundant life in Jesus Christ by equipping them to live faithful lives. UNC Charlotte is the largest and fastest growing university in the Western North Carolina Conference. The Fall 2018 semester officially kicked-off with the opening worship on Sunday, August 19. Over 250 freshmen, plus many other students attended. Continuing through both fall and spring semesters, every Wednesday Holy Eucharist is offered, and on Thursdays, a midday prayer is followed by lunch. Also weekly opportunities were provided for students with service and outreach, including organizing the conference's disaster relief efforts from the Cole Center. Moreover, each week many small groups are provided spiritual growth and faith formation. The 2018-2019 was dedicated to immersing everyone in the Gospel of Mark with a year-long series called Trust this Good News. Also, for both spring and fall, a monthly program for the campus community called Live Kind was established bringing in a distinguished keynote speaker each month. Additionally, Niner United continues the partnership with the Lilly Endowment as part of the prestigious Campus Ministry Theological Exploration of Vocation Initiative. In March, for spring break, 54 UNC Charlotte students and six non-student advisors went to Puerto Rico for Hurricane Maria relief. In May, 22 UNC Charlotte students and eight non-students traveled to the Holy Land. By the end of the year, the ministry had successfully reached 2,354 Class of 2022 students; 1,096 Class of 2021 students; 1,201 Class of 2020 students; and 223 Class of 2019 students. This year $175,000 beyond apportionments was raised to support the dynamic and comprehensive student ministry. In February, the campus ministry awarded William Pfischner, M.D., the Loy Witherspoon Distinguished Service Award.

Steve Cheyney, Director

Wesley Foundation at East Market at North Carolina A&T State University

WFEM is the Wesley Foundation to North Carolina A&T State University. Over the past year WFEM has started three discipleship opportunities that have reached an average of 38 people on a regular basis to fulfill the mission of making disciples of Christ. Additionally, a worship team regularly worships with Metropolitan (Greensboro). There have been two new student-led worship services. WFEM is continuing its relationship with Metropolitan (Greensboro) and developing more relationships with the faculty and staff of NC A&T State University.

Diron Chloe, Director

Wesley-Luther at UNC Greensboro

Each year our Wesley-Luther students gather together for a Thanksgiving meal to cook, eat, and make sure that everyone connected to the program experiences a real family celebration of God's goodness. This year, 143 students came together for the meal. More than 20 students pitched in to cook deep fried turkey, ham, vegan casserole, green beans, corn, corn bread, rolls, fresh strawberry salad, and a host of pies and cakes. Some of those students cooked more than 12 hours to make the event come together, and the meal reflected the diversity of the campus. Many of the students in attendance struggle with regular access to food and are regular users of UNCG's Spartan Open Pantry, which Wesley-Luther created and operates, or are participants in weekly meals on Monday and Wednesday. Others are part of weekly worship, devotions, or Bible studies. Still others work in the community gardens or with other weekly service events. An incredible variety of people could be seen around the tables and throughout the room. Several tables had conversations entirely in ASL. The Dean of Students attended, remarking on how broad a section of the student body was present, and how radically welcoming the students were to one another. One student neighbor who has been a long-time user of the pantry said, "It is things like this that remind me that God is still a part of my life." The hundred hours of work that students put in to make that meal happen, and the thousands of hours of service Wesley-Luther students undertake to build these bridges, is still somehow less impressive than their ability to welcome so openly and with so much love. The greatest Gospel moments are sometimes in the simplest things, when the students lift hearts and hands to cook and share a table with a radically diverse group of people and are reminded that God is still at work in their lives and that the greatest thanksgiving for grace can be made by slowing down, laughing, eating wonderful food, and truly seeing the Christ in another.

Andrew Mails, Director

Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University

The Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University is grateful for all the support it received from the Western NC Conference, the Smoky Mountain District, local churches, its board of directors, and all the friends and alumni. This academic year the ministry helped college students connect with each other and the world around them in many ways. Students spend time with each other daily at the ministry and at Cullowhee United Methodist Church. They participated in thousands of hours of service work over the year including splitting and delivering over one hundred loads of firewood to local residents and delivering meals weekly via the Department on Aging Meals on Wheels program. Students also planned and implemented the 10th Annual Wesley Haunted House which raised over $2,500 for mission work (in Fayetteville this May) and reached out to over 600 college students and local residents. Each week during the school year the student worship team and Wesley staff plan and hold worship for college students. Wesley staff help college students learn how to plan and give a sermon almost every week of the school year. They also provide opportunities for small group participation, worship, fellowship, and study with Cullowhee UMC members. The Wesley Foundation at WCU staff planned their first ever student trip to the Holy Land which took place in May 2018. There were three staff, six students, three alumni, and eight Cullowhee UMC church members who attended. This academic year Wesley staff started planning their next trip for December 2020. Next year the staff plans to increase their focus on in-depth student leader development, board development and student involvement, increased intentional student outreach, and student worship training. All of this would not be possible without the generous grant from the WNCC, the Smoky Mountain District, friends and alumni of the Wesley Foundation, and their own fund-raising efforts.

Jay Hinton, Director

Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation

The Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation has had another great year of ministry. Primarily serving this past year on the campuses of Wake Forest University and Salem College, it has held weekly large group fellowship meetings where a free dinner, worship, preaching, prayer circle, and fellowship occur. At Wake Forest, student-led Bible studies take place weekly; the director and the Wesley intern (from Wake Forest University's Divinity School) led the weekly Bible study at Salem College. Wake Forest Wesley has also had four spiritual retreats, social outings, intramural teams, and a very meaningful spring break mission trip in the Florida Keys doing Hurricane Irma relief under the auspices of the Disaster Relief Agency of the Florida Conference. The director meets regularly with over 30 students a week for mentoring sessions and "crisis" meetings as needed. One new emphasis this year was the WF Wesley's outreach efforts at home football games; water bottles were printed with a Scripture verse and the Wesley logo to give out to all people who passed by the tent at the home football games. This outreach is important primarily to assist students who might need water for various reasons and, secondarily, to promote the presence of the Wesley Foundation. The foundation also made a point to reach out to the Muslim Student Association in sympathy after the recent horrific attack on Muslim communities in New Zealand. Fund-raising is also a very important part of the Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation's ongoing work; with the Conference supplying about 60 percent of its budgetary needs, fund-raising from parents, alumni, and local churches is very important. Additionally, the graduated Wesley student who has been traveling the world on her gap year has been accepted at Duke Divinity School (and a host of other schools).

1. ALDERSGATE UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, INC.

Aldersgate's mission, "We honor elders and are committed to creating and fostering diverse, caring communities where everyone has a voice and value," is the solid bulwark for its vision, to "... strive to give the elders we serve their best possible day, each day, by creating fulfilling life experiences while partnering with others to form vibrant communities." Together, these drive the strategic planning process, aligning closely to Aldersgate's core values of living in faith, practicing stewardship, serving with compassion, striving for excellence, respecting independence, embracing diversity and inclusion, and building meaningful connections.

Priority initiatives include:

- build and sustain Independent Living occupancy to 95%;
- establish home care off-campus;
- continue implementation of person-directed care initiatives;
- develop master site plan;
- increase philanthropy;
- touch the lives of more people through the Aldersgate mission;
- fulfill standards of excellence to maintain Eagle and CARF accreditations;
- evaluate/establish corporate structure to ensure Aldersgate UMRC, Inc. and other entities are operating most effectively from legal, financial, and missional perspectives;
- continue diversity and inclusion journey;
- evaluate integrate and expand capabilities through stronger offerings in technology;
- advance legislative agenda around elders' issues.

One of the most significant achievements of 2018 was the achievement of becoming a Platinum SAGE Certified community. This designation took a joint effort between Aldersgate's Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer and the entire management team to get over 500 employees trained. The positive impact of this certification means that Aldersgate can now serve the LGBT Elder population. Additional diversity and inclusion achievements include a wide-reaching service project focused around Martin Luther King Jr and the implementation of a series called Faith and Friends where residents learn about faiths different from their own. In Mission Advancement, the Urban Farm at Aldersgate spanning 6.7 acres that addresses food access concerns for neighboring immigrant and lower income communities is fully underway. Also, a partnership was formed with Camino Community Center to bring Charlotte's second free clinic and mental health services to East Charlotte and the Aldersgate site. Lastly, the after-school immigrant program called Our Bridge for Kids remains successfully integrated into the campus along with strong inter-generational programming. There is continued progress of the Gateway Expansion, including opening a new addition called the Commons that created a centralized meeting and gathering location for residents and guests. Also, three new Independent Living apartment villas are underway, giving Aldersgate the ability to serve 100 additional residents. Aldersgate at Home has continued to serve clients who live off-campus in Mecklenburg County. Finally, the most exciting expansion is underway: Aldersgate has signed a letter of intent in partnership with Shalom Park and the Jewish Community Center to construct and manage a life plan community set to open in 2022.

2. ARBOR ACRES UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, INC.

Through excellence, innovation, caring and beauty, Arbor Acres cultivates community, comfort and well-being for Senior Adults.

The Board of Directors, the residents, and staff of Arbor Acres are pleased to submit this annual report of this ministry's activities to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. It is a pleasure to be joined through a common mission and ministry of extending the gospel of Jesus Christ to those we serve.

After over a year of time dedicated to thoughtful learning which focused on the changes and trends within the senior living market, Arbor Acres' Board of Directors approved a strategic road map to guide the organization over the coming years. The plan focuses on six main areas:

- Enhancing Customer Service: Improve Arbor Acres' ability to competently and consistently deliver care and services that embody the organization's culture and meets the expanding expectations of current and future residents.
- Strengthening Community Engagement: Enhance Arbor Acres' reputation not only as a high quality, person-centered provider, but also as a recognized leader in aging services.
- Workforce: Attract, train and retain a workforce that is committed to the organization's mission and consumers through effective instruction, recognition and assurance that the workforce's individual and team contributions are valued.
- Technology: Deploy effective technologies and up-to-date research in order to provide higher quality of life for those served.
- Financial Strength: Preserve and enhance the financial strength of Arbor Acres through efficient and effective operations while extending the mission in creative ways to ensure the continuation of the mission.

The organization's leadership is excited about rising to the challenge of turning these broad goals into concrete actions that will support the continuation of the mission of Arbor Acres and meet the needs of those served.

In 2018, Arbor Acres received its off-campus residency license through the North Carolina Department of Insurance. This program, known as Arbor Acres Advantage, allows individuals who wish to remain in their private home in the larger community access to many of Arbor Acres' services and benefits.

Arbor Acres had an extraordinary year in 2018. All philanthropic goals were surpassed and fund-raising efforts for the Resident Assistance Fund resulted in an all-time high of $452,861. During the year, two separate $1 million gifts were received – one to be used in promoting Arbor Acres' wellness program in perpetuity and the other designated to offset debt. Both gifts were unexpected. In 2018, the residents chose to work with Crossnore School and Children's Home to raise funds to repair roofs on three barns housing animals used for therapeutic healing. Over $119,000 was raised, surpassing the goal of $109,000. In 2018 Arbor Acres provided $1,774,913 of community benefit, an amount equal to 5.5% of resident revenue.

Arbor Acres is grateful for the continued relationship in the active ministry in the name of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

3. CHRYSALIS COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION CENTER

Chrysalis is the Methodist counseling and consultation resource serving all the Districts of the Eastern part of the conference. It is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3), fee-based center providing mental health services for individuals, couples, families, and children who are experiencing emotional and spiritual issues.

It believes that healing and wholeness is a fundamental part of serving God in all its relationships. It provides quality confidential counseling for ministers and their families at an affordable cost. It also serves clergy as a referral source for congregants experiencing a range of emotional problems including anxiety disorders, addiction, depression, marital conflict, and relationship issues.

2018 was a year of transitions. In May 2018, the beloved and longtime Board President, the Rev. Brian C. Allen, was reassigned to Fair View UMC in Mooresville, N.C. In July, its founder, the Rev. Harry H. Long, LMFT, Emeritus, passed away. In August, the newly elected Board President Billy Crumley moved away from the Piedmont area. At year end, Chrysalis received notice that its landlord, Cone Hospital, had plans to demolish the building it has resided in for over 40 years. Spring 2019 will be the search and transition to a new home base. Its satellite location at Covenant UMC in High Point will remain in place with its steady growth under Chrysalis counselor Cathy Cole, LPC.

Despite the adversity, Chrysalis continues to serve as an invaluable resource for those seeking affordable, professional counseling and consultation services. In 2018, Chrysalis reduced total fees by $32,565 for its clients. It also maintains the Chrysalis Samaritan Fund for those who have limited income and are without mental health insurance coverage. It is proud of this figure and the spirit of our mission that it represents.

Chrysalis appreciates its Board members.

Since 1980, Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center has provided services to individuals and families in its faith communities. It thanks you for your trust in its efforts over the years to make a difference in the lives of people. It appreciates all financial support as it moves forward to meet the growing demands of the future! Please visit its website at chrysaliscenters.org to learn more about the Chrysalis ministry.

4. CROSSNORE SCHOOL & CHILDREN'S HOME

Crossnore School & Children's Home has a 212-acre campus opened in 1909 in the heart of Winston-Salem, NC, an 86-acre campus opened in 1913 in Crossnore, NC, and a satellite office opened in 2018 in Hendersonville, NC. The mission of Crossnore School & Children's Home is to grow healthy futures for children and families by providing a Christian sanctuary of hope and healing. Crossnore's programs include residential foster care, community-based foster care and adoptions, outpatient clinical services, educational services, and transitional living services for children aging out of foster care. Today, the organization is serving more than 1,200 children across all locations.

Brett A. Loftis, J.D., Chief Executive Officer of Crossnore School & Children's Home, directs an executive team of six chief officers: based on the Winston-Salem campus, Jenny Taylor, Chief People Officer; and, Meribeth Robinson, Chief Clinical Officer. Based on the Crossnore campus, Caroline Hart, Chief Advancement Officer; Teresa Huffman, Chief Financial Officer; Angelina Giampocaro Spencer, Chief Program Officer; and, Kenny Cook, Chief Facilities Officer. Each officer leads a team of talented directors and staff who are committed to the mission of Crossnore School & Children's Home. The board of trustees is led by Katheryn Northington, Board Chairperson; Bick Cardwell, Jr., Vice-Chairperson; Marilyn Williams, Secretary; and Ted Laporte, Treasurer.

Crossnore utilizes The Sanctuary Model®, a trauma-informed model of care, in all locations and was re-certified in the model for 2018. Crossnore is one of only six organizations nationwide that have been certified three times by The Sanctuary Institute. By utilizing the most current science about brain development and decades of research about the impact of trauma on the brain, Sanctuary transforms organizations into healing communities. Sanctuary is implemented worldwide in more than 300 organizations, and it is the only organizational model that is recognized by the National Child Traumatic Stress Network. Put simply, Sanctuary changes an organization's essential question from, "What's wrong with you?" to, "What happened to you?" When implemented with fidelity in an organization, research shows that children and adult clients make better and faster progress, and the staff members serving clients are protected from the dangerous impacts of vicarious trauma and toxic stress. Crossnore currently has 40 employees who are trained as Sanctuary trainers providing ongoing training for staff and community-based foster families.

Crossnore opened the Center for Trauma Resilient Communities in 2018 to provide training in trauma and building resiliency to communities across the United States. Faculty of the center offer customized training to meet the needs of groups, teams, churches, businesses, or organizations. These sessions range from half-day workshops in the basics of trauma-informed care to three-day intensives that delve deeper into effectively responding to those who have experienced trauma. Two of Crossnore's trainers provided training on trauma-informed Christian ethics at the 2018 Western North Carolina Conference Clergy Ethics Training. As part of a five-year, five-million-dollar grant awarded to the city of Louisville, Kentucky, the Center for Trauma Resilient Communities will provide training to caregivers in Louisville as they seek to build resiliency in the entire community.

Crossnore School & Children's Home's residential program is growing on the Winston-Salem campus. Six cottages have been refurbished or renovated and are now home for up to 54 children. Hanes Cottage is undergoing renovation with a completion date of Summer 2019, which will become home for an additional nine children. Hanes Cottage will also house a new cafeteria for group meals and a commissary where cottage parents pick up their weekly groceries. Combined with the 14 cottages on the Crossnore campus, 125 children are living safely on campuses and are cared for by Crossnore's professional cottage parents. Many of the children live with their siblings and all receive the therapeutic, medical, and educational support services they need. Spiritual life has grown on both the Winston-Salem and Crossnore campuses to include 20 cottages whose residents attend churches in their local communities, a community garden on the Crossnore campus, weekly chapel services, monthly Young Life and Jungle Life clubs for the children, and small group studies for staff.

Crossnore's Clinical Services is providing outpatient therapy to approximately 372 children in Winston-Salem, Crossnore, and Hendersonville. In Winston-Salem, Crossnore's day treatment program has grown to accommodate the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools expansion of Kingswood School to include Kindergarten through 12th grade in 2018. The day treatment program at Kingswood is currently serving 48 children. Crossnore's Clinical Services is also a provider in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and Henderson County Public Schools and are currently serving 129 children in 21 elementary, middle, and high schools in these districts.

Foster care and adoption services have expanded to Crossnore's three locations. Foster children are living safely in one of Crossnore's 63 licensed traditional family foster and/or therapeutic foster homes. Another 20 families are currently in the foster care licensing process. Additional staff has been hired in Crossnore and Hendersonville to facilitate recruitment and support of these families.

To support the expansion of community-based foster care and adoptions, Crossnore has received a three-year $817,000 grant from The Duke Endowment. With this funding, Crossnore has created Fostering Communities, an initiative designed to educate, guide, and support local churches as they answer God's call to serve foster children and families in their own communities. Crossnore partners with local churches to create a Fostering Community and provides a dedicated point of contact, education on the impact of trauma and how to build resiliency, development of a sustainable support structure to meet the needs of foster children and parents, training and licensure for families who are interested in becoming trauma resilient foster families, support with ongoing coaching and consultations, and overseeing a smooth process for any foster placement that may become a forever home for a child through adoption. For more information about the Fostering Communities initiative, please email fosteringcommunities@crossnore.org.

For more than a century, Crossnore School & Children's Home has worked to transform the lives of thousands of children in need of hope and healing. With two campuses, professional and dedicated staff, and the support of many donors and volunteers, Crossnore School & Children's Home will become the premier provider of children's services in Western North Carolina.

5. GIVENS COMMUNITIES

Construction of the final phase of Givens Gerber Park was completed in July 2018, and the 262 apartments in this wonderful community are fully occupied with healthy waiting lists, which is a testimony to the need and demand for quality affordable housing in western North Carolina. There was significant interest in this project prior to and during construction. Residents moved in ahead of projections, and early indication is they are adjusting well to their new homes and neighbors. The attention and focus has shifted to making this a vibrant and lively campus, providing wonderful quality of life as well as support services to enable residents to gracefully age in their new homes. Socialization is the cornerstone of resident life with a particular emphasis on nutritious meals, food insecurities, navigating a complex and complicated health system, accessing community-based services, and mental, physical and spiritual wellness. Residents are collaborating with staff and taking responsibility for making Gerber their home. Two meals are available each day in the GO Café. The café is a partnership between Givens and Green Opportunities to provide at-risk young adults a kitchen-ready experience that will translate into permanent and meaningful employment. A partnership with Western Carolina University provides nursing students experience in a residential setting. The medical clinic is a partnership with Blue Ridge Health and will provide residents on-site access to primary care at the lowest cost to the residents.

Gerber Park is an example of partnerships and collaborations by many who believe in providing quality residential living with support services. The goal is to empower residents to age in the community regardless of income and assets. This is especially true of The Duke Endowment, who provided $750,000 for phase one and $4,000,000 for phase two. There are 180 HUD and tax credit apartments for persons with incomes less than $25,800 per year. Thanks to the endowment, there are 82 apartments for those who have one dollar too much income to qualify for HUD and tax credit housing but not enough income to qualify for market-rate senior housing. Because of the endowment's support, Givens was able to adjust the rents for the residents according to their income with no HUD and tax credit limitations.

The Givens Board of Directors approved comprehensive master plans for Givens Estates and Givens Highland Farms. The plans will be phased in over ten years and will be flexible, with the opportunity to adapt to market demand, the environment and the economy. For Estates, the first phase includes renovations of Oxford Commons and 81 new apartments in Friendship Park. Future phases include renovating the nursing care, new state of the art assisted living, renovations of Asbury Commons, and new Oxford Commons apartments. For Highland Farms the first phase includes The Cottages, which will be 16 new cottage homes nestled on a beautiful seven-acre site on campus. Future phases include an apartment building with kitchen, dining and activity areas, apartments tethered to the dining, state of the art nursing care, and an apartment building with apartments designed with a Black Mountain vernacular. The comprehensive master plans are significant investments in the residents and communities.

Givens Estates went through re-accreditation successfully for the fifth time and Highland Farms went through accreditation successfully for the first time. Therefore, both of these Life Plan Communities are accredited by CARF. Givens Estates has two five-star rated health care facilities, which is the highest rating for nursing homes, and two four-star rated assisted living facilities, the highest rating for assisted living facilities. Their Fitch Ratings was upgraded to a BBB+ with a Positive Outlook.

Givens LifeMinistries, their faith and community-based outreach program is thriving and continues to impact the local churches and communities. LifeMinistries enables congregations to share their gifts and talents in addressing health and wholeness needs with those who are hurting, the frail, and the un-churched. LifeMinistries areas of focus include Welcome Tables (meal sites), BEAR Closets (baby equipment and resources), medical equipment loan closets, MY Meds (medication assistance), wellness education, and a community nurse program addressing the needs of lower-income seniors.

Givens Communities continues to be an exciting organization with an abundance of opportunities serving seniors in Western North Carolina. Givens remains enthusiastic about their Life Plan Communities and their emphasis on keeping residents independent for as long as possible. Givens continues to be enthusiastic about affordable housing with supportive services and partnerships designed to enable residents to age in community. Givens remains enthusiastic about outreach programs designed to work collaboratively with local churches in an effort to promote socialization, health and wellness. Givens also remains enthusiastic about being a responsible employer in which team members are welcomed, respected and appreciated.

6. SANCTUARY COUNSELING GROUP (SCG)

Sanctuary Counseling Group (SCG) is an agency that offers counseling and psychotherapy, consultation to individuals, clergy, congregations, and districts on a variety of issues, clergy assessments and testing, and educational programs for church groups as well as congregations and districts. SCG is a specialized ministry extending the ministry of local congregations to persons who seek hope in the midst of their despair, light in their darkness, and God's healing grace. SCG provides certified pastoral counselors who meet persons where they are on their journey through life. In a high-tech society, its pastoral counselors bring a personal touch. While psychiatrists offer pills to treat life's problems, and psychologists offer limited sessions due to managed-care restrictions, SCG pastoral counselors offer a relationship that will last as long as the process of healing takes and at considerably less cost.

SCG serves as an important referral source for pastors, who often do not have the time or the specialized training to work with persons in local congregations who are hurting. Having qualified, respected pastoral counselors makes referral for parishioners much easier. With an awareness that cost is sometimes a barrier to obtaining help, SCG has a Client Assistance Fund that allows its clinicians to adjust the fee of those with limited means, so that they can get the help that they need. Over $42,000 was raised in Client Assistance Funds and over $42,000 was disbursed to persons in need.

The SCG area of service now encompasses the Catawba Valley, Metro, Northern Piedmont, and Uwharrie districts that cover a 13-county area. Two new sites have been added, one in Charlotte at St. Francis UMC and the other in High Point at Wesley Memorial UMC. In the past year, SCG provided 10,443 hours of individual, marital, family, and group therapy. It provided 256 hours of consultation with congregations and individuals, conducted 83 hours of workshops and educational events for congregations, and conducted 192 hours of psychological assessments. SCG donated over $165,000 back to the various communities where there are satellites in dollars of service provided at either a reduced or no cost basis. SCG has a website that is updated monthly, and which can be accessed at www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org. SCG is a service center that is accredited by both the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) and the Samaritan Institute.

SCG wishes to thank Martha Rick, who has helped steer this organization as it charts its path into the future. She stepped down as chairperson of the board in late 2018 but left a legacy of forward-thinking leadership; Heidi Starnes takes over as chairperson of the board. Referring to licensed pastoral counselors who are able to provide caring, compassionate, and quality ministry provides a sound basis for helping and healing others through this arm of the annual conference.

To learn more about the clinical services and sites, workshops, and consultations, as well as to make contributions to the Samaritan Client Assistance Fund to aid persons without the financial means who seek professional pastoral counseling, visit the SCG website at www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org.

7. UMAR SERVICES, INC.

UMAR is grateful for the partnership in ministry to adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities from members across the Western North Carolina Conference. Districts, churches, and individuals welcomed UMAR into their hearts and sanctuaries. They provided inclusive opportunities for spiritual development, worship, volunteerism, needed items, and social interaction. 100 percent of UMAR residents participated in a worship service or sponsored activity in the past year.

Within the Western NC Conference, 96 churches modeled the inclusion that all would hope to see in the larger society, living out the Social Creed of the United Methodist Church to be committed to the rights of people with disabilities. Without the advocacy and support of these faithful members, UMAR would be unable to provide the quality services families rely upon.

As a mission and ministry, UMAR promotes community inclusion, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, employment, and cultural enrichment opportunities. UMAR provides vital services for adults with a wide range of physical, mental, and emotional disabilities. The mission easily translates into “live, work, and thrive” as lives are transformed through the following services:

- Live (Residential Services) – UMAR operates 22 homes, nine apartments and one duplex. Dedicated, trained staff provide residents with 24/7 support, meals, transportation, activities, and other quality of life enhancements – all while fostering independence and responsibility in a family-like setting.
- Work (Vocational Services) – UMAR helps adults with disabilities secure and maintain competitive employment with skills assessment, job coaching, placement, training, and support for as long as the individual is employed.
- Thrive (Day Programs/Arts) – UMAR Day Programs focus on art, social, and independent living skills. Because vocational services may not be appropriate for everyone, day services ensure meaningful activities that foster learning and growth. With Art Centers located in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville, community partnerships inspire a variety of art forms such as painting, pottery, culinary, horticulture, and more. Artists earn a 40 percent commission for every piece sold.

As an outreach ministry, congregations can be engaged in the work of UMAR through hands-on mission, donations, and volunteering with participants. For more information on programs or to get involved visit UMARinfo.com.

Celebrations from 2018:

- 391 people were supported in their own community, with 907,022 miles driven in service to participants.
- Assisted residents with 3,255 medical appointments, showing a commitment to preventative care and resident health.
- UMAR Arts in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville continued to increase community partnerships and class offerings, which allowed artists to increase their skills, involvement, income, and artistic expression.
- The Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) awarded another three-year accreditation for excellence in community housing, supported living, community integration, job development, job supports, and job-site training.
- Launched the ALL IN Campaign to raise awareness of adults with IDD, the financial challenges facing UMAR, and the opportunities for growth while bridging the gap in cost of quality care.
- Expanded community/periodic services to provide support to individuals not living in a UMAR home.

Goals for 2019:

- Continue the ALL IN campaign to reach goals for financial stability and capacity building projects.
- Train personnel in geriatrics and disease management to better assist our aging population.
- Invest in a nurse and nutritionist to oversee complex medical issues, dietary restrictions and health of residents.
- Transition to an electronic medication administration records program and enhance human resources technology.

G. BOARD OF LAITY

There are 30 members of the WNCC Board of Laity (BOL), whose positions include elected WNC conference leader, eight district lay leaders, UMW, UMM, lay servant ministries, prayer advocates, and at-large members. The mission of the board is to "model, assess, and advocate for lay leadership and engagement so that laity assume their role as active partners in fulfilling the WNC Conference's mission to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

The Board continues to report to you on the progress toward its 2016–2020 quadrennial focus to increase the opportunities for growth and training for lay engagement across the conference. The BOL has implemented its plan in the following way:

- In 2017, the board began an intensive focus on Accountability Groups. Understanding that there cannot be engagement in and beyond the local church without fully equipped disciples, the Wesleyan principle of holding each other graciously accountable as we move together into deeper relationship with God formed the foundation of the BOL's work. Led by a task force, this project established a baseline number and type of accountability or covenant groups then existing in WNCC. Through education, resources, and mentors strategically located across the conference, the BOL continues to progress toward its quadrennial goal to have 80% of its churches with one or more active accountability groups. Since the project began, the BOL has seen a 28% increase in the number of groups and an increase of 1,800 people in 2018 alone.
- In 2018, the BOL answered the Bishop's challenge to develop a Certified Lay Minister program as part of the training offered for the WNCC. The interest has been overwhelming and, after overcoming the challenges to incorporate the new certification smoothly into the lay servant ministry and leadership development processes of the conference, in 2019 the BOL is pleased to transition this initiative to its sister conference committee, Lay Servant Ministry Committee, for oversight.
- The final year's focus is on establishing a Continuum of Lay Engagement and Leadership Training. The BOL has begun to explore ways first to document the amazing variety of training, mission, and affinity group experiences available to the lay members of the WNCC, and then to create a conference-wide repository of resources for you to easily access and participate. Next steps will include discerning and filling gaps in the current offerings with new innovative resources to move toward a more fully equipped, engaged, and impactful laity—disciples of Jesus Christ inviting new disciples to join them as together we transform our churches, communities, and the world

Finally, this is a transition year when the next WNCC Board of Laity is appointed by the conference Nominating Committee to lead the WNCC laity in the 2020–2024 quadrennium. If you discern a call to service, please let the BOL know by emailing jane.boatwright.wood@gmail.com.

Your Board of Laity asks that you pray for us as we pray for you.

Jane Boatwright Wood, Conference Lay Leader and Chairperson

H. UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men goal is "Help Men to Grow in Christ so that Others May Know Christ". Their vision is to support the ministry of all men in all the local churches in the WNCC.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are committed to building relationships and encouraging one another. The 2019 year will have the Conference UMM holding a presentation in each of the eight districts of the WNCC to more effectively connect and fellowship with local and district members. They will present information about their emphases such as scouting in which the United Methodist Church is one of the largest supporters of scouting in the United States, Upper Room Ministries and Prayer Line for which the WNCC UMM gave $2200 and received an award as the number one contributor in the United States for 2018, Ministerial Scholarships for Second Career Pastors for which the UMM give on average $5000 every year, Disaster and Building Team Support.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are very strong advocates against Domestic Violence and the week of August 4 – 9 they will ask everyone to observe a Week of Prayer against Domestic Violence and also Pray for Strong Loving Family Relationships.

The United Methodist Men are closely working with Kingdom Man Ministries of the Catawba Valley District to present on October 12th 2019 an event called "Kingdom Man" to be held at the Hickory Convention Center in Hickory, NC which will be a spirit filled and enlightening day.

The WNCC UMM are proud of the faithfulness and hard work of the local UMM units in each district that sponsor projects to build relationships and encourage members of their communities by, for example, supplying food for pantries to feed the hungry and building accessibility ramps for individuals in need of them.

The United Methodist Men of the WNCC are leaders among the General Commission of United Methodist Men with their continuing to have the highest number of life members of UMM, the second highest percent of churches with a charter and second highest number of charters. Their focus is not inward, concentrating only on those who attend a set meeting, but outward to all men, assisting them to engage the process of spiritual growth.

I. UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The highlight of the year was Assembly 2018 in Columbus, Ohio. More than 6,000 members and supporters from 10 countries around the globe gathered at the site of the first Assembly in 1942. The theme, "The Power of BOLD," was woven throughout the scriptural enactment of Mary, consecration of new deaconesses and home missioners, the experience hall, and sessions on quadrennial priorities. The reenactment of the wedding at Cana and communion closed the meeting.

Conference events began 2018 with a Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska. The Rev. Dr. Suzanne Michael was the keynote speaker with the theme of "Glory Gifts," and the Lake Junaluska Singers treated the group with a performance. The 547 in attendance included 24 first-timers.

Mission U studies on the Pfeiffer University Misenheimer campus included spiritual growth study "Embracing Wholeness-An Earth Perspective for Covenantal Living"; issue study "What About Our Money—A Faith Response"; and geographic study "Missionary Conferences of the UMC in the US." Again, a full-time youth camp was held, studying "Is It Just Money? Our Dollars, God's Economy." Participants ranged from full-time on-campus and commuters to one-day overviewers. Additional activities included chair aerobics, a workshop for leaders of children's study, and "A Way Forward—UMW Responds" session.

For the safety of the participants, Hurricane Florence forced Annual Celebration to be rescheduled; then, Hurricane Michael took its toll on October attendance. Estella Wallace, National United Methodist Women Chairperson of Finance, led the sessions with the theme "The Power of BOLD."

In October, conference officers gathered to offer training to district officers that would be shared with counterparts on the local unit level. Much information was available and the hands-on project benefited the J. Iverson Riddle Developmental Center.

Young Adult United Methodist Women (YAUMW), led by Molly Welch, continued to explore meeting styles, programs, and projects that appeal to the 18–35 age group. These women are the future of the organization.

The 20,784 WNCC members, in 661 units, sponsored mission projects in their churches and communities, around the USA, and in over 100 countries around the world. Focus continued to be on quadrennial priorities of maternal and child health, economic equality, mass incarceration and criminalization of communities of color, and climate justice, but education is still a major mission focus as it has been since the beginning. Scholarships totaling $20,850 were awarded to five students attending Bennett College, Brevard College, High Point University, and Pfeiffer University.

As the 150th anniversary approached on March 23, 2019, WNCC UMW led the nation in Legacy Fund donations. This is an endowment, with a $60M goal, that will supplement members' regular Mission Giving to ensure UMW exists for another 150 years and beyond, providing projects, support, opportunity, and resources for women and children who have no voice. The Legacy Fund is now at $24M; $251,745 is from WNCC UMW.

Eight districts are actively promoting mission projects. Member pledges and Mission Giving channels totaled $689,797. An additional $71,920 was received for designated projects such as UMCOR, UMAR, and scholarships. Hands-on UMCOR kits and Project AGAPE Shoe Boxes for the Mission Resource Center had a value of $100,881.50. Even though the reports are in dollars, the importance is what those dollars can do for so many around the world to develop programs and partner with agencies to make a real difference. United Methodist Women are compassionate, giving, daring, courageous, and BOLD, ever since the beginning 150 years ago on that rainy day in Boston.

J. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES (CCYM)

The 2018–2019 Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) is composed of approximately 32 youth and 10 adults from various districts in the conference. They are high school freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors that are leaders in their schools, faithful servants in their churches, and engaged partners in their communities. The goal of CCYM is to build leadership experience, grow in faith, and encourage youth of the conference to follow Jesus. The CCYM also seeks to fulfill the conference vision to "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World" in all its activities. This year's theme of the CCYM was transformation. The CCYM believes transformation needs to be embraced around the conference, whether that transformation has religious, racial, ethnic, education, age, gender identity, or cultural origins. Transformation allows a group of people to work together to serve others and make the world a better place in which to live. Because of this need for transformation, the CCYM found it to be an important focus for the year. To guide the CCYM in celebrating transformation, it embraced Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." This passage guided the CCYM through planning events and making decisions throughout the year.

The CCYM strives to be a representation of all eight districts in the Western North Carolina Conference. Each district is responsible for executing a mission project during the year. The goal of the mission projects is to make disciples and promote discipleship in the youth across the conference. This past year, the projects included collecting bibles for homeless individuals, creating homeless outreach kits, collecting necessary clothing items for the underprivileged, and promoting district-wide youth programs. These projects had a positive effect on the youth within the CCYM and served those in need.

Throughout the year, the CCYM helped to plan and execute two retreats: SpiritUs and IgniteUs. In August 2018, 800 students attended SpiritUs, a weekend retreat at Fort Caswell in Oak Island, NC. The students and staff in attendance grew closer to God through the theme "Spiritus: Keeping the Streak Alive" and the service project of packing medical bags for Sole Hope. IgniteUs occurred in May 2019 at Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville, NC. The theme, "Mountain Movers," promoted faith and strength for the middle school students who attended. Joey Yokeley was the speaker for the weekend. He promoted "Mountain Movers" by focusing on the selected scripture Matthew 17:20: "He replied, 'because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, "Move from here to there," and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.'"

On behalf of the CCYM, thank you for your continued support of youth ministry. The CCYM is growing leaders of today and the next generation to transform the church and the world into a community that accepts and loves all of God's children. This is its hope for The United Methodist Church. Join the CCYM and rise to the challenge to transform your church, your community, and the world. If it is true and if you believe that we can do ALL things through Christ who strengthens us — then let's do it!

Ashlee A. Hand, President

K. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry supports the mission of the Western North Carolina Conference by developing, implementing, overseeing, and evaluating programs that focus on recruiting, training, certifying, examining, recommending, and supporting clergy leadership for the conference and denomination. The board is a diverse group of 70 persons that are clergy and lay from across the conference. The Director of Ministerial Services and the Associate Director of Ministerial Services serve as staff to the board along with two district superintendents who serve as cabinet representatives.

The members of the board volunteer many hours. In January they began reading papers submitted by persons who had applied for ordination as full connection deacons or elders. Board members were discerning effectiveness in ministry. They were discerning how these applicants had integrated the fundamentals of the faith and United Methodist doctrine and polity with the daily practice of ministry. Board members spent two days together in February interviewing these candidates. The board is recommending 16 persons to be ordained in 2019.

This same process was repeated for interviews in March for persons who had applied for commissioning as provisional deacons or elders. In these interviews, the focus was discerning readiness for ministry. The board is recommending nine persons for commissioning in 2019.

The board studied the book Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Unchartered Territory. The culture is changing and with that change the board is looking at leadership characteristics and skills needed to lead the churches through these changing times. In the October meeting the Rev. Kim Ingram led a morning discussion on leadership characteristics and skills. Bishop William Willimon shared some thoughts in the afternoon on some practical ways a Board of Ordained Ministry might organize to discern and prepare future leaders. That work is ongoing.

A good relationship with the bishop and cabinet is important to the work of the board. The responsibilities of the board and the bishop and cabinet remain distinct but cooperation and respect are evident. The executive committee of the board meets with the bishop and cabinet to maintain and enhance this relationship.

Recognizing that the work is kingdom work, the board is guided by prayer, a deep dependence on the Holy Spirit, a love for Christ's Church and a commitment to a vital United Methodist Church.

Donald Jenkins, Chairperson

L. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Pension Program and Policies

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, acting as an auxiliary to Wespath Benefits|Investments, is charged with caring for the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 2020, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send invoices monthly to the churches for clergy appointed in accordance with the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) adopted by The United Methodist Church. Through December 31, 2016, CRSP covers all US United Methodist Church clergy, including elders, local pastors and deacons, appointed within the annual conference, subject to the time designations described below with the effective date of January 1, 2014.

Since the implementation of direct billing for pension and health benefits in 2007, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has been investing the net proceeds from these billings in various investment vehicles with the United Methodist Foundation. Over these last eight years, these investments have provided better than projected earnings for the conference. As a result, the board has approved the sharing of these resources with the local church by reducing the cost of pension benefits (without reducing any pension benefits to the pastors) by $2,358 per full-time pastor in 2020, invoicing $3,093 to the local church. The actual cost invoiced to the conference for the CRSP DB full-time benefit will be $5,451. This is the eighth year of reductions in the CRSP defined benefit pension billings to each local church for each full-time pastor as shown in the table below:

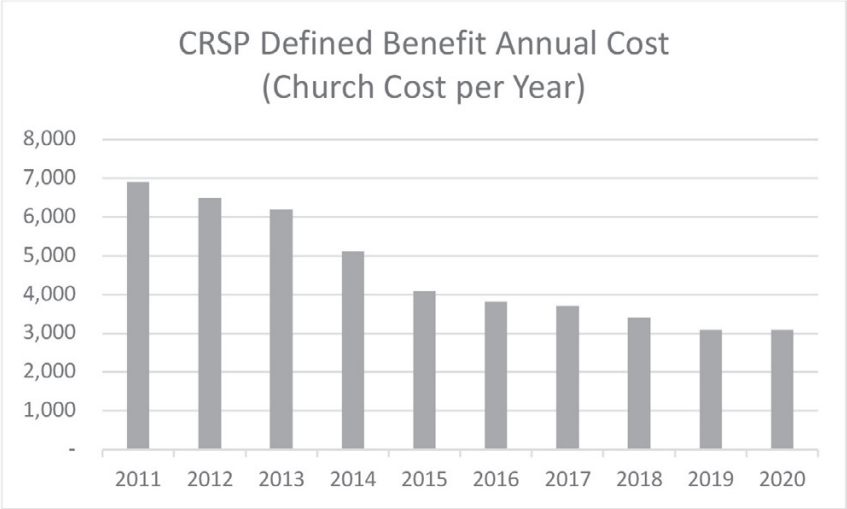
2013	$ 6,200
2014	$ 5,118
2015	$ 4,092
2016	$ 3,824
2017	$ 3,713
2018	$ 3,402
2019	$ 3,093
2020	$ 3,093



The Board rejoices in the ability to share these resources with the local church so that more of their resources may be used for ministry within their communities.

As published in the report in 2013, new provisions of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), enacted at General Conference 2012, became effective January 1, 2014, as follows:

- Eligibility: Full-time clergy are eligible to participate and earn benefits. Annual Conferences may elect to cover clergy who are appointed as three-quarters or one-half time. Clergy who are appointed one-quarter time are no longer eligible to earn CRSP benefits. Any benefits already earned through December 31, 2013, remain in place.
- Benefit Formulas: The formula for determining the defined benefit (DB) component was reduced for the multiplier from 1.25% to 1% to be applied to Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) per year of service beginning January 1, 2014. Additionally, for the defined contribution (DC) component, the local church will contribute 2% of the clergy's compensation, reduced from 3% in 2013. If the clergyperson contributes up to 1% of his/her plan compensation, the local church will also contribute an additional 1% amount as a dollar-for-dollar match of the UMPIP contributions, up to 1%.
- Surviving Spouse Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.
- Disabled Adult Child Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, in consensus with the Cabinet of the Western North Carolina Conference, recommends that the annual conference approve the continuation of eligibility of those clergy who are appointed to three-quarter or half-time designations.

Based on the above, invoices will be prepared using the following criteria:

A. Pension Plan Compensation (PPC) is the total annual compensation reported by the charge conference for 2019; included in the PPC is the housing component. The housing is either 25% of the aforementioned annual compensation, if a parsonage is provided, or the cash paid in lieu of a parsonage.

B. Clergy Retirement Security Program – In 2020, the Core Defined Contribution Part (CRSP-DC) is 3% of PPC. Continuing from 2014 (the effective date of this change) CRSP-DC will continue to be invoiced at 3% of PPC, with 2% being an employer contribution and 1% as a matching contribution to the pastor's United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP).
C. Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) is an actuarially determined normal cost provided by Wespath. For 2020, the cost is $3,093 for each full-time clergy. For those clergy appointed ¾ and ½ time (based on the eligibility approved by this session of the annual conference), the cost is that percentage times $3,093. Wespath has provided that the conference's actuarially determined normal cost contribution due December 31, 2020 will be $4,074,313. Effective January 1, 2014, as approved by General Conference 2012, clergy appointed to ¼ time positions will not be eligible to earn benefits under the CRSP – DC plan and will not accrue benefits in the CRSP – DB plan after that date (all previously earned benefits will remain in place). The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits of Western North Carolina highly recommends that any local church which is served by a clergyperson appointed to a ¼ time position sponsor the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and provide an employer contribution on behalf of the clergyperson under appointment.
D. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is the death and disability program administered through Wespath. In 2013 and prior years, premiums of 3% of PPC have been required to be paid for full time clergy. The premium is 3% of PPC to a maximum amount of 200% of Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). General Conference 2016 approved a change that would permit Annual Conference Boards of Pension to enroll clergy appointed to ¾ time and full-time positions in the CPP. GC 2016 also changed the minimum compensation to 25% of DAC. For the year 2020, the CPP premium will be invoiced to the churches with full-time and ¾ time clergy at the rate of 2.50% of PPC, and the remaining 0.50% will be funded from conference board reserves.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) provides that the Past Service Annuity Rate (PSR) for service years prior to 1982 will increase 2% per annum. The conference board is proposing that the 2020 PSR be set at $806.00 (2020) per service year, which represents the aforementioned 2% increase and is greater than 1% of Conference Average Compensation as provided by Wespath for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1506.6 of The Book of Discipline, 2016, requires each annual conference to develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan or plans for funding all of its benefit obligations. Such funding plan must be submitted to Wespath Benefits|Investments for review in order to obtain a favorable written opinion from Wespath. Under this requirement, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has developed, adopted, and implemented such formal comprehensive funding plan upon obtaining a favorable written opinion from Wespath. By approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and inclusion of a summary of the Comprehensive Funding Plan, with the favorable written opinion received, this plan is deemed to be approved by the Annual Conference of Western North Carolina.

Proposals Related to Pension Programs and Policies

(Petition 2a) Approved June 22, 2019

The conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits proposes:

1. That the basic cost of pastor's pension be invoiced to churches in 2020 as pension responsibility to support the Clergy Retirement Security Program.
2. That supplemental funds for the cost of the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) for clergy appointed on medical leave be included in the 2020 conference budget at Fund 507, named "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits." The 2020 budget request for the CRSP – DB pension component for clergy on medical leave is $125,000.
3. That the Past Service Annuity Rate for service years prior to 1982 be set at $806.00 per service year, effective January 1, 2020, and that the eligibility for the Clergy Retirement Security Program be determined to include clergy appointed for full, ¾ and ½ time positions. That the eligibility for the Comprehensive Protection Plan be determined to include clergy appointed for full and ¾ time positions earning a minimum of 25% of the DAC in pension plan compensation (PPC).
4. That the following resolution be adopted for calendar year 2020:

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Western North Carolina Conference

The Western North Carolina Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated or disabled clergypersons of the conference:

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

Whereas, The Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved:

THAT an amount equal to 100 percent of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath, the Western North Carolina Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, and The Duke Endowment during the period January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020 by each active, retired, terminated or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund, for such an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolution) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year, or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Retired Clergy are encouraged to consult their tax advisor concerning this resolution.

Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is working in partnership with the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) on a Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program. The program is sponsored and funded by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and administered by the Foundation. The impact the program is having already on participants is exciting, with many possibilities for improving general welfare and well-being of clergy. As of December 31, 2018, loans outstanding for clergy debt reduction and refinancing totaled $2,216,473.

Balances Due from Churches

Beginning in 2007, direct clergy benefit costs were invoiced to each local church. According to conference action, recorded in the 2004 journal, page 234, "Non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs (pension and health benefits) result in a default recorded against the church (see ¶639.4, The Book of Discipline 2016). While individual clergy will not lose benefits, the church will incur a liability to the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The default will be reported by the conference benefits officer to the district superintendents, and the church will be led to correct this situation.

The following is the 2018 list of churches with balances as of May 14, 2019, resulting from non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs:

District	Church	2018 Balance	District	Church	2018 Balance
Appalachian	Wesley Chapel (Elkin)	$431.34	Metro, Cont'd	North Davidson (Charlotte)	1,000.00
Blue Ridge	Addie's Chapel (Marion)	16,545.00		Plaza (Charlotte)	1,542.75
Catawba Valley	Bollinger's Chapel	993.24	N. Piedmont	FaithWalk	3,302.00
	Clover Hill	6,099.00		Mt. Tabor (Greensboro)	1,580.07
	Mount Pleasant (Morganton)	270.83		Proximity (Greensboro)	109.33
	Mundy's Chapel	1,299.00	Uwharrie	Marshville	1,528.50
	Tucker's Grove (Iron Station)	21,660.11		Prospect	3,744.32
Metro	Epworth (Concord)	1,954.25	Yadkin Valley	Stanford	105.75
	Hunter's Chapel (Cornelius)	8,512.00			Total $ 70,677.49

Health Benefits Committee

The Health Benefits Committee serves as a sub-committee of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (BOPHB), with responsibility in two specific areas: health benefits and group term life insurance.

The committee is composed of at least 12 members appointed by the board to quadrennial terms, as follows: three from BOPHB, one serving as chairperson of the committee, one being an officer of BOPHB, and one being the cabinet representative to BOPHB; one from the conference Board of Ordained Ministry; one from the conference Council on Finance and Administration; two retired clergypersons; and five professional persons involved in the insurance industry. Typically, there are six lay members and six clergy members. The various agencies represented nominate their representatives to BOPHB for appointment.

Group Life Insurance

Wespath, through the Comprehensive Protection Plan, provides a death and disability benefit for eligible clergy, along with death benefits for members of clergy families. In addition to this coverage, the conference offers basic life insurance coverage of $10,000 for active clergy enrolled in the conference group health plan, with premiums for this coverage collected through the insurance apportionment. Clergy members may elect to increase their coverage by enrolling in additional coverage in the amounts of $25,000, $50,000, or $75,000. As an added benefit, a clergy member may elect to enroll his/her spouse and dependent children. This additional coverage is available from a group policy secured by the committee for a quarterly premium to be collected by the insuring company. The continuation of this optional benefit is dependent on normal participation of those eligible. Newly eligible clergy will receive information about this coverage from the Treasury Services Office. To obtain coverage without evidence of insurability, enrollment must be made within 30 days of eligibility.

Enrollment Deadlines for Health and Life Insurance
Responsibility rests with the individual to make application in writing for the group health insurance and the group life insurance. In addition, any changes in dependents' status must also be submitted in writing. The effective date of coverage for new applicants is July 1 following the session of annual conference. Applications must be made within 30 days of appointment at annual conference. Anyone seeking to apply following the 30-day grace period will have a 12-month waiting period for all pre-existing conditions.

Health Benefits Continuation Policy
The conference benefits plan provides for group members and eligible beneficiaries to continue coverage if they become ineligible for the plan. The policy is available from the plan administrator.

Premium Collection Policy
Payment of the medical/health insurance premiums for pastors is the responsibility of the local church(es). This premium payment is invoiced monthly. For churches with more than one pastor on the staff, the church is responsible for the payment of the insurance premium for each eligible pastor. It is the responsibility of the pastor to pay the premium costs for dependents.

The Health Benefits Committee requires the conference treasurer to notify dependent accounts which are delinquent by sixty (60) days or more that their coverage is immediately subject to termination. If full payment is not made by thirty (30) days after the delinquency, coverage will be terminated.

Conclusion

The fine spirit in which subscribers and local churches are supporting the work of the Health Benefits Committee is appreciated. The committee seeks continuing support as it makes every effort to provide a health benefits program that meets particular needs. Members of the committee are: Frank A. Stith III (chairperson), Sandra McNiel, Lori Wilson, Al Jones, Marvin Melton, Rey Rodriguez, J. Zachery Christy, Phillip B. Cole, W. Greg Light, Winifred Helton, Andrea Conder, Ken Poe, and Beverly Coppley, Cabinet Representative, R. Mark King, Conference Treasurer, Dale C. Bryant, Benefits Administrator, and M. Lynne Gilbert, CBOPHB Treasurer.

Proposal: Health Benefits Program and Policies

(Petition 2b) Approved June 22, 2019

The Health Benefits Committee proposes:

1. That the Board of Pension and Health Benefits be authorized to secure a hospital/medical insurance contract for 2020 that will be advantageous in terms of coverage, premium rates, and administrative costs.
2. That the hospital/medical insurance program be continued for all eligible persons working 30 hours or more per standard workweek.
3. That each local charge and eligible pastor be expected to participate in the conference program of hospital/medical insurance by contributing an amount equal to the pastor's coverage premium for each eligible pastor appointed to that charge and that these premium payments be remitted to the conference Treasury Services Office rather than to the pastor or other insurance carrier. The participant participation schedule should be used to calculate the eligible pastor's portion.
4. That premium cost information is made available to local churches and pastors immediately after the 2020 plan has been determined and rates established.
5. That a pastor may exclude himself/herself from coverage by signing a written waiver, releasing the conference and any local church from legal or moral responsibility for medical or accident claims.
6. That, in the discussion of salaries and benefits for 2020 and all succeeding years, local church committees on staff-parish relations consider designating a portion of compensation for dependents' health care coverage.
7. That medical/hospital coverage be provided for persons terminated from the plan for not more than a 12-month period, with the premium costs to be paid by the person terminated.
8. That continued endorsement be given to the optional life insurance program provided by a top-quality life insurance company as supplemental coverage for active clergy.
9. That the following Retired Clergy Medical Plan, which became effective on January 1, 2003, and was amended at the special session of the conference on February 2, 2008, be continued:
    a. Benefit Design: The basic benefit design for all participants has benefits similar to Medi-gap Plan E, as approved by the Medicare Administration (complete benefit description available from the conference Treasury Services Office). This plan does not include prescription drugs.
    b. Funding Design:
        (1) Creation of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund, which was created December 31, 2008. This Restricted Fund shall be vested with a minimum of $5,000,000. Subsequently, additional contributions to this Fund (corpus or principal) shall be made of all free reserve available at year-end. Free reserve is defined as the fund balance in excess of the Claims Reserve required by the Plan. The Claims Reserve is 25% of the prior year's claims paid.
        (2) The purpose of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund is to secure the retiree medical benefit by contributing 4% of the fund balance (which consists of corpus or principal and earnings from dividends, interest and appreciation) each year to the Retired Clergy Medical Plan. The Fund's contribution will reduce the Net Estimated Claims Cost of the Retired Clergy Medical Plan to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
        (3) Net Estimated Claims Cost is defined as Total Estimated Claims Costs (including administration, stop-loss insurance and other operating expenses), less all contributions from other charitable trusts, foundations or individuals, such as The Cole Foundation.
    c. Premium Design:
        (1) Participants enrolled prior to January 1, 2003 will contribute the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
        (2) Participants enrolled in the retiree plan on or after January 1, 2003, will contribute based on "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan." The contribution will be based on a percentage of the plan year's Net Estimated Claims Cost, as follows:
            (a) 1-10 Years: 100% of the Net Estimated Claims Cost.
            (b) Beginning in the 11th year, the contribution will decline approximately 1% per year to an amount equal to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
            (c) All of the years prior to 2003 that a clergyperson has been appointed to a local church or conference position will be considered "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan"
            (d) Participants must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B to be eligible for the Retired Clergy Medical Plan.
10. That each participant electing dependent coverage be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and that dependent coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current.
11. That each participating participant be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and approved by the 2009 Annual Conference and coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current. The current participating participant method is a progressive scale percent of premium based on salary.
12. That sufficient funds for hospital/medical coverage be included in the appropriate 2020 apportioned funds to pay premiums for district superintendents and administrative, program, and support staff members of the conference headquarters.

13. That supplemental funds for insurance for clergy on medical leave be included in the 2020 conference budget at Fund 507, "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits". The 2020 budget request for the health benefit component for clergy on medical leave is $300,000.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits expresses its gratitude and that of the conference to Dale C. Bryant, benefits administrator since October 1998.

Questions dealing with pension, health insurance or group life insurance should be directed to Bryant at 704-535-2260 or 800-562-7929; e-mail dbryant@wnccumc.org.

M. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, INC.

The Board of Trustees, Western North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., is a chartered nonprofit corporation under North Carolina law, in accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and is subject to the instructions of the annual conference and its officers.

Investments

A. The Jesse Spencer Bell Fund, under trustee management, is invested through The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.
B. Earnings during 2018 were distributed to the following designated beneficiaries:

Western North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions	$3,882.86
Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women	$2,190.89
Brevard College	$4,772.23
Total Distribution	$10,845.98

Conference Memorial Center

The conference vacated the memorial center upon completion of the new conference center in late July of 2018. The building was emptied of all contents and turned over to Aldersgate Retirement Community at that time.

New Conference Center

- Construction
  Thanks to the hard and persistent work of Wesley Community Development, the project manager for the new conference center, it was completed in July 2018, and the conference moved in at the end of that month. A ribbon-cutting and building consecration service was held on February 16, 2019.
- Sustainability
  In January 2019, the trustees were informed that the building had received LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) gold certification. In addition, solar panels on the roof of the building were installed to generate power that will feed the WNCC offices resulting in a direct impact to operating costs.
- Property Management
  The trustees have utilized the services of A. Anthony Corp., a global facilities management company, to assist with property inspection, management, and preservation, including repairs, maintenance, emergency services, and special projects. In conjunction with A. Anthony, the religious and educational real estate group of Foundry Commercial provided real estate broker services such as appraisals, sales, marketing, on-site tours, and broker's price opinions. Foundry also brokered the sales of Camp Elk Shoals in West Jefferson, Camp McCall in Bostic, and the Northern Piedmont district parsonage.
  On May 1, 2019, the board of trustees will transfer all conference property management and broker services from A. Anthony and Foundry Commercial to Wesley Community Development, a nonprofit that helps North Carolina churches develop or repurpose real estate to best meet church and community needs.
- Leasing
  Wesley Community Development is assisting the conference in negotiations with interested lessees. The trustees continue to be committed to passing along neither the costs of the new building nor the debt service to the conference through apportionments. Potential rental income from spaces on the first floor would more than offset the debt service requirement.

Episcopal Residence

The Episcopal Residence Committee cares for the conference-owned Episcopal Residence, constituted according to the provisions of The Discipline. The trustees send a representative to this committee. Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland live in the Episcopal Residence located at 3416 Maryhurst Lane, Charlotte, NC 28226.

Duke Endowment Grant for the Church Legacy Initiative

Among other duties, the trustees look after discontinued and abandoned churches. The Church Legacy Initiative, with a staff of four persons, is continuing to assist local churches with discerning possible paths forward. This project has completed the third of a five-year grant from the Duke Endowment. The trustees affirm the benefits of this transition team, and gratefully thank the cabinet, The Duke Endowment, and The United Methodist Foundation for their endeavors in this area.

Discontinued Churches
Please note that ¶2548.4 of The Book of Discipline specifies that all deeds, records, and official and legal papers of a discontinued church shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Commission of Archives and History of the Annual Conference. The central repository is currently housed at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, NC. The following churches have been discontinued: Big Spring UMC in Charlotte, Clarksbury UMC in Thomasville, Cole Memorial UMC in Charlotte, Dana UMC in Dana, Fairview Sharon UMC in Fairview, Mount Carmel UMC in Concord, Mountain Valley UMC in Barnardsville, New Hope UMC in Iron Station, Piney Grove UMC in Ronda, Purcell UMC in Charlotte, Trinity UMC in Lansing, Warlick's Chapel UMC in Connelly Springs, Wesley's Chapel UMC in Elkin, Zion UMC in Gold Hill

Vehicle Leasing
The current lease of 11 vehicles for many of the conference staff expired in March 2019. Because of the cost effectiveness of this practice, the trustees worked again with Vann York Auto Mall in High Point, N.C., to secure new 39-month leases of 11 vehicles (eight Honda CRVs, two Honda HRVs, and one Accord). These vehicles are used by the district superintendents, bishop, bishop's assistant, and director of church development.

Insurance Matters
The Book of Discipline requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks." In an effort to assist local church trustees with this requirement, GCFA guidelines for minimum insurance policies and coverage limits are available on the conference administrative website (www.wnccadmin.org) under "Publications" and are recommended for comparison with existing local church policies.

Liability coverage for sexual misconduct has been eliminated, altered, or only provided under separate policies by many insurance companies. The trustees continue to admonish all churches to confirm that required Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures are in place, and to reevaluate all insurance programs with their insurance agents.

The board of trustees works with the conference insurance provider, Church Mutual Insurance Company, a nationally recognized and specialized provider of property and casualty insurance to churches and religious organizations, to provide a new cost-effective program for Worker's Compensation for WNCC churches. WNCC congregations now have the option to participate in the Church Mutual program at a reduced rate as well as to save on the expense constant fee.

N. CHURCH LEGACY INITIATIVE

The Church Legacy Initiative (CLI) is a ministry of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, supported by a grant from The Duke Endowment. The purpose of the CLI is to assist churches in assessing their current and future potential for ministry and leading them through next steps so that they may provide a legacy that will help to make disciples in this and future generations. CLI team members and the districts they serve are:

- The Rev. Charlotte Brendel – Appalachian, Blue Ridge, and Smoky Mountain districts
- The Rev. Renee Easter – Northern Piedmont, Yadkin Valley, and upper Uwharrie districts
- The Rev. Angela Hollar – Catawba Valley, Metro, and lower Uwharrie districts

The Western North Carolina Conference has a large number of churches that have declined significantly in vitality and worship attendance during the previous decade. Congregations faced with declining membership and diminishing resources have significant challenges in fulfilling their call both to develop faithful followers of Jesus within the church and to make new disciples and provide meaningful ministry to those outside the walls of the church. These churches struggle to sustain even the most essential work of the church, and often are focused more on survival than making disciples.

The ministry of the Church Legacy Initiative is to work with the pastor and congregants of struggling churches and provide support as they follow a faithful path. This journey includes important conversations and commitments by churches, but they can know they will be supported by CLI personnel each step of the way.

CLI works collaboratively with district superintendents to determine the churches with which CLI will work and to discern next steps. CLI plays an important role in the vitality efforts of the Western North Carolina Conference as churches purposefully discern the faithful path God is calling them to follow, either for intentional revitalization of their own church or to provide a legacy that will assist with the renewal of other churches and the creation of new faith communities. Through loving faithfulness in this ministry, the Church Legacy Initiative will provide the WNCC with greater opportunities to fulfill its mission of following Jesus and making disciples who will transform our communities and the world.

O. COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission on Archives and History continues its work of collecting, recording and preserving the story of the people called Methodists in The Western North Carolina Conference. The commission agrees with the Rev. Fred Day, General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History, that the commission is a "Ministry of Memory so the conference may continue to learn from the past and anticipate the future."

The commission continues to oversee the work of the conference archives, which has been relocated to the G. A. Pfeiffer Library at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, NC. Highlights this year include:

- The Rev. James Pyatt became the part-time Conference Archivist and oversaw the successful move from the former Conference Center in Charlotte. The conference also plans to hire an archival assistant to work on a part time basis.
- In light of Dr. Nancy Andersen's 19 years of dedicated service as conference archivist, the commission voted to bestow on her the title of Archivist Emerita.
- The archives houses documents and information available to those wishing to conduct research. Research requests increased during 2018, indicating that people are aware of the archives and are making use of the resources. The commission encourages this growth and is working to make the archives more visible and accessible.
- Working with librarians at Duke Divinity School, the commission is planning for the digitization of some resources to make them available and searchable in electronic format.
- Currently the archives are open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only, and by appointment. Those who wish to do research are encouraged to make contact in advance to ensure that someone will be there to help them.

Another function of the commission is to provide a clergy grave marker upon the passing of any clergy member of the conference. Between July 1, 2017 and February 1, 2018, markers were presented to nine of 12 affected families. Continuing this service on behalf of the conference is anticipated.

In 2016 the annual conference approved a recommendation that each district offer training opportunities for local church historians during this quadrennium.

- Since the 2018 annual conference, commission members have led training sessions for local church historians (and other interested persons) for the Catawba Valley, Northern Piedmont, Uwharrie and Yadkin Valley Districts.
- The Metro District held two sessions in early 2018.
- Members of the commission are ready and willing to facilitate training events, and other districts are encouraged to host similar sessions before the end of this quadrennium. The Appalachian, Blue Ridge and Smoky Mountain Districts are now the commission's top priority in this effort.
- The commission is also asking for assistance in identifying significant sites in the conference which can then nominate for designation as historic sites of The United Methodist Church.

The Commission on Archives and History continues its tradition of recognizing those churches within the conference who are celebrating significant anniversaries this year. A special display highlighting the life and ministry of these congregations can be seen at the commission's display and in a video presentation to be shown between sessions of the annual conference.

- Those identified as celebrating sesquicentennial anniversaries this year (at the time of this writing) include Shiloh (Catawba County), Brooks Chapel (Cleveland County), Philadelphia (Cleveland County), Bethesda (Davidson County), Morris Chapel (Forsyth County), St. Luke (Randolph County) and Mitchell's Chapel (Yadkin County).
- Churches celebrating their centennial anniversaries are Midway (Cabarrus County), Trinity (Gaston County), Cross (McDowell County), Alexander (Rutherford County), Avondale (Rutherford County), and Spindale (Rutherford County).
- A more complete list of churches celebrating significant anniversaries will appear in the 2019 Conference Journal.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ) Commission on Archives and History met at Lake Junaluska in November of 2018.

- The Rev. Pyatt serves as chairperson, and Sandrea Williamson, chairperson of the conference commission, serves as an at-large member.
- The SEJ Commission will host a heritage preservation workshop at Lake Junaluska November 8 and 9, 2019.
- The SEJ Historical Society will meet at Emory University, July 9-12, 2019. Registration information and a full calendar are available through the SEJ Heritage Center or by contacting Nancy Watkins, Director of the Heritage Center, at nhwatkins@sejcah.org.
- The General Commission on Archives and History will meet in Delaware, Ohio, in September of 2019.

God is at work in and through the people called United Methodist in western North Carolina. This commission pledges to continue to collect the documents, preserve the materials, equip local historians, and tell the story.

Sandrea Williamson, Chairperson
Charles Curtis, Vice Chairperson
James Pyatt, Archivist

P. CHRISTIANS ENGAGED IN FAITH FORMATION

Christians Engaged in Faith Formation (CEF) is an association of leaders connected to one another and to God, energized for the work of faith formation, guided by Acts 2:42, and exists to promote and strengthen faith formation and Christian education in local churches, districts, and the Western North Carolina Conference.

The WNCC CEF continues to go through some transformation and is re-envisioning its purpose to serve both tenured and new leaders within the church. CEF is investigating and encouraging new ways for continuing education opportunities. Webinars, podcasts, seminars, day apart, and retreat opportunities will be communicated throughout the year and into next year.

The WNCC CEF had a presence at the National CEF Conference in Des Moines, Iowa, October 9-12, 2018. "Curious Church: Don't you want to know". The conference focused on connections, learning, worship, and discovering new ways to engage church members and others.

In addition, CEF continues to partner with the Conference Discipleship Ministries Office to update and strengthen Safe Sanctuary policies and offer educational and training opportunities for local churches within the conference.

WNCC CEF is for lay and clergy, full-time and part-time, professionals and volunteers, and anyone who participates in any form of Christian Education, Youth Ministry, Children's Ministry, Adult Education, and areas of faith formation. CEF members enjoy the additional benefits of connections within CEF and the church, receiving discounted registration to CEF events, Facebook connections, frequent e-news updates, and scholarship opportunities for seminars and conferences. CEF also provides a support system of and for those who have unique experiences in Christian Education ministries. Learn more about the CEF community and what it can offer for Christian Education and disciple formation at www.wnccumc.org/CEF.

Q. COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The primary work of the commission is to support and communicate the annual conference's mission of "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World." The commission strives to do this by "Building relationships through communication, the commission will help create space for people to interact and have conversation in safe spaces. It will share the stories of how God is at work among United Methodists in Western North Carolina, that in turn shares the Good News of Jesus Christ."

Traditionally, the Commission on Communications provides leadership for the Western North Carolina Conference in communications, public relations, social media, and promotional awareness of the funds and programs of the conference. The commission assists with managing the image of the conference, as well as working to provide resources for the districts and local churches. Whether in the form of training, sharing news, or crisis management, the commission exists to equip and encourage the ministry efforts of local churches, districts, and the annual conference to achieve identified goals.

In the past year, the communications and IT departments have been involved in several projects and collaborations. They have worked to make the move of the annual conference's offices to its new location in Huntersville smooth from an IT perspective. Under the guidance of the Director of Web and Database Administration, Chris Hampton, the clergy and church databases have been transitioned to BrickRiver, a website company that specializes in websites and databases for United Methodist annual conferences. This has allowed for better integration of the collection of data and reports for better access, as well as to combine the various websites that are maintained.

Director of Communications Melissa McGill has led the conference in developing a Crisis Communications Plan, provided media training for the cabinet and workshops for crisis communications to local church communicators, in partnership with United Methodist Communications. Melissa has also provided media and social media relations coaching for local churches. The commission has added a conference Instagram account (@WNCCUMC) to its social media offerings. It continues to strive to innovate and find new ways to reach constituents with the Good News of what Christ is doing among United Methodists in Western North Carolina.

The commission will be assisting with the communications efforts at the annual conference gathering as it has in past years with photography and story writing.

The officers for the quadrennium 2016-2020 are Burt Williams, chairperson, Walter Vaughan, vice-chairperson, and Juston Smith, secretary.

J. Burton Williams, Chairperson

R. CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Conference Staff Relations Committee is part of the support system for the conference office staff and the staff of the district offices. The committee assists staff members by providing needed resources that enable them to fulfill their mission of developing and supporting vital congregations.

The committee met at the conference center in Huntersville on December 6, 2018. Newest committee member Nancy Dozier was welcomed to the group.

Gloria Hughes and Robert Parsons, Church Vitality Strategists, made presentations to the committee. Gloria indicated that she worked closely with Superintendent Carl Arrington to provide services to churches in the Appalachian District that need her assistance. Two of the services rendered are assistance with mergers and working with churches that have participated in the Church Legacy initiative.

Robert works closely with Superintendent Elizabeth Crissman of the Blue Ridge District on the implementation of a district strategy involving lay and clergy members. The strategy is to discern how the Spirit is working in churches in the district. Robert also works with the missional networks, encouraging cooperative endeavors.

Bishop Paul Leland met with the committee, to provide information on how he is positioning the district superintendents to work with the church vitality strategists to create a disciple-making system that would include fresh expressions, new leadership, and new places of worship.

Conference staff members have completed their annual performance evaluations, and salary increases have been approved, well within the budget set by annual conference. The conference IT has been outsourced to Acumen. Acumen will be placing an on-site employee in the conference office at the beginning of January.

Robert D. Upchurch, Chairperson

S. COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

"Visioning Forward"

The Committee on Episcopacy (COE) continues to fulfill its role of serving, supporting, and upholding the work of Bishop Leeland for the Western North Carolina Conference. This committee is made up of 17 servant leaders: clergy and laity who work together and abide by the disciplines of its covenant, "Prayer, Participation, Faithfulness, Accountability, Confidentiality, and Spiritual Discernment." The members of the committee continue to give their unwavering support and service to each other and to Bishop Leeland.

Since the last Western North Carolina Annual Conference, the committee celebrated the opening and full operation of its new Western North Carolina Conference offices in Huntersville, N.C. It is a wonderful state-of-the-art facility for the staff and all who serve in the Conference.

Bishop Leeland continues to immerse himself in the work of the Conference. His work is guided by transparency, consistency, trust, and encouragement. These principles help guide members of the Conference in their work to make disciples for the transformation of the world.

The Bishop continues to build alignment around mission, vision, and values with conference staff and district superintendents to be always making disciples and creating disciple-making systems. The Western North Carolina Annual Conference set a goal to start 50 new "Fresh Expressions" for this conference year. As of this date, the COE has started 79. In addition, the "Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness" is coming together; the Rev. Dr. Otto Harris is the coordinator for this initiative.

The "Bishop's Emerging Leadership Initiative," created for the ongoing development of Christ-centered leaders that move the church into the ever-changing future, is doing well. There were 72 clergy leaders in the first cohort and 80 more clergy entered this year into the program beginning January 2019. The Bishop is also working closely with The United Methodist Foundation, which is investing in Lay Leadership Development.

In March and April of this year, Bishop Leeland and his staff gathered with the districts for a time of worship, communion, and holy conferencing following the decisions made at the called session of the General Conference in February 2019. Many of the decisions and issues that came out of this will continue to be examined and discussed moving toward General Conference 2020.

The COE continues to work on the evaluation process outlined by the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy as it prepares to enter the last year of Bishop Leeland's appointment with the Western North Carolina Conference.

Bishop Leeland continues to have a healthy balance in his work and personal life as he leads the Conference in the work of Christ for Western North Carolina. As he reminds the Conference, in the words of The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, we are building the Church for generations to come.

Please be in prayer with the committee on Friday mornings to continue holding Bishop Leeland, his family, his work, the Conference, and the Church in prayer.

Wanda Musgrave, Chairperson
Sandy Giles, Vice-chairperson
Sarah McKinney, Secretary

T. EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE

The Episcopal Residence Committee is pleased to report that Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland have been comfortably using and enjoying the residence at 3416 Maryhurst Lane in Charlotte. The residence endowment reserve now stands at $42,983.80 (as of December 31, 2018). For 2020, the amount of $4,000 will be included in the apportioned Conference budget. The committee, in consultation with Bishop and Mrs. Leeland, will continue to monitor expenses and request funding as is appropriate and necessary.

Phillip B. Cole, Chairperson

U. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Policies and Guidelines for Administering the Equitable Compensation Fund (Calendar Year 2020)

1. Policies Pertaining to the Commission on Equitable Compensation:
   ¶¶ 342 and 625 of The Book of Discipline 2016, direct the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) to recommend a minimum level of pastoral compensation for clergy serving as local church pastors under episcopal appointment and to administer the Equitable Compensation Fund (ECF) as a source of funding of last resort for pastors-in-charge in order to maintain a living, equitable level of compensation for these itinerant ministers.
   a. Executive Committee:
      During each quadrennium, at its organizational meeting, the CEC shall elect an executive committee consisting of a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a secretary, and additional members from the full commission as needed, so that the executive committee consists of an equal number of clergy and lay persons. The assistant to the bishop and a cabinet representative will serve as ex-officio members of the executive committee.
   b. Definition of Compensation:
      As used by the CEC, the term "compensation" includes the annual amount designated as cash salary for service rendered, additional insurance premiums over and above the conference-approved program of individual medical insurance for clergy, accountable professional expenses, household expenses paid by the local charge, and other fringe benefits. Compensation does not include housing allowance in lieu of parsonage to the extent of actual housing , fair market value of supplied parsonages, reimbursement for parish-related travel expenses paid by the local charge to the extent of actual travel expenses or use of an automobile for parish travel purposes, funds provided for continuing education to the extent they are used for that purpose, bona fide gifts or honoraria for special services, allowances for moving expenses paid by the annual conference or local church, or individual medical insurance premiums in the amount of the conference-approved program of insurance for clergy.

2. Types of Grants

Two categories of support are available from the ECF: emergency sustentation grants and regular grants.

a. Emergency sustentation grants are available under the provisions of ¶ 626, which states that each church or charge has an obligation to pay in full compensation, as approved by the charge conference, to its pastor(s). If it becomes apparent that a church or charge will be unable to so provide the compensation approved by the charge conference, the church or charge shall immediately notify the district superintendent and may request consideration for a short-term emergency grant from the Equitable Compensation Fund (cf. also ¶ 625).

b. Regular grants are available for those churches or charges which, at their annual charge conferences, determine that they will be unable to provide compensation at the minimum level set by the annual conference. In cooperation with the bishop and cabinet, the CEC offers grants, on a declining schedule, totaling no more than 30 percent of the appropriate minimum pastoral compensation for a period of three or fewer years. In the first year, a church or charge may receive up to 100 percent of the maximum available grant; in the second year, up to 70 percent; in the third year, up to 40 percent. During this period, the church or charge must adopt and follow a plan, approved by the district superintendent, that eliminates the need for this assistance. After the third year, a church or charge will not automatically be eligible for a regular grant. Representatives of the CEC shall consult with the district superintendents about any clergy person or church that has received equitable-compensation grants for five consecutive years.

3. Definitions and Classifications of Pastors

a. Full-Time Pastors: Subject to these policies and guidelines, pastors appointed to full-time service under ¶ 338.1 or ¶ 318.1 shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule (¶ 342).

b. Pastors Serving Less Than Full-Time: Subject to these policies and guidelines, elders and provisional members serving as pastors appointed to less than full-time service under the provisions of ¶ 338.2 shall have a claim upon the ECF in one-quarter-time increments of either ¾, ½, or ¼ time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, receiving not less than this percentage of the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule.

c. Pastors Attending School: Subject to these policies and guidelines, a pastor appointed to a church or charge who is enrolled in good standing in a college or seminary for a minimum of nine hours per semester or equivalent in fulfillment of the requirements for conference affiliation and who is not otherwise gainfully employed shall have a claim upon the ECF in an amount based upon the one-quarter-time increments as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, which shall not exceed ¾ time. In determining the compensation for a pastor attending school, grants received for educational expenses shall not be considered as part of compensation. Pastors who discontinue or complete their studies and intend to be considered as serving full-time shall be compensated at that level only after certification by the CEC.

d. Part-Time Local Pastors and Retired Supply Pastors: Since the ECF is designed to support those in full-time services as pastors of local churches, those charges utilizing part-time local pastors or retired supply pastors shall not have a claim upon the ECF.

e. Pastors Engaged in Continuing Education: Inasmuch as continuing education is required of all ordained clergy, no pastor engaged in a program of continuing education under ¶ 351 shall by reason of such study leave be denied the minimum compensation support as specified in the current schedule, except that in cases of educational leave in excess of one month, the supplement shall be adjusted as negotiated by the district superintendent and the CEC.

f. Deacons in Full Connection: As provided in ¶ 331.10b, deacons in full connection serving within the local church "shall receive a salary from the local church, charge, or cooperative parish not less than the minimum salary established by the equitable compensation policy of the annual conference for full-time and part-time pastors," although these entities should be reminded that they are fully responsible for the compensation of these individuals. If the bishop and cabinet appoint a deacon in full connection to a position as pastor-in-charge of a local church or charge, that individual shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule for elders in full connection..

4. Request Procedures

Regular grants from the CEC must be requested by a formal action of the charge conference, supported by a written grant application, using the CEC form available through the conference web page, and signed by the district superintendent, the pastor, and the secretary of the charge conference. Requests must be completed in full and be accompanied by all required documentation in order to be processed by the CEC. Required documentation must include, but is not limited to: written plan for decreasing reliance on equitable compensation, letters of support from pastor, church leadership, and district superintendent. The more information the CEC has about a local church situation the better equipped the CEC is to provide support. Requests must be made at least 30 days prior to the month when the assistance is to commence. In these cases, the local church or charge must pay at least 70 percent of the minimum applicable to its pastor.

For emergency sustentation grants, the district superintendent is responsible for submitting documentation to the cabinet and CEC executive committee for immediate processing, approval, and payment authorization.

5. Guidelines for Recommending Minimum Compensation
The CEC desires to recommend minimum pastoral compensation that is equitable for both churches and pastors. It is acknowledged that economic conditions vary across the annual conference. To be equitable, therefore, there must be awareness of the financial impact of these recommendations upon the local churches in order to not make pastoral support an excessive burden, while providing clergy with fair, living, and equitable compensation.

In making these recommendations, the CEC refers to changes in the North Carolina per capita Income (NCPCI), as maintained by the United States Bureau of Economic Analysis, on a two-year-lag basis (the earliest time for which data are obtainable). The NCPCI offers a true measure of the underlying economy in which congregations exist and is independent of Western North Carolina Conference actions. Additional consideration is given to the two-year-lag Conference Average Compensation (CAC) and other measures of the health of churches and the economy as deemed necessary, segmenting the minimum compensation levels into the following categories:

- Elders and Deacons in Full Connection;
- Provisional/Associate Members;
- Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study/M.Div.;
- Local Pastors who have not completed the Course of Study.

W. DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

In America, there are 2.2 million people in prison. In North Carolina alone, more than 37,000 inmates live in state prison facilities. When including those on probation and post-release parole this number climbs to more than 133,000. This does not include federal inmates and juvenile offenders. It is said that the NC criminal justice system affects one out of every four persons in the state, and that number continues to grow.

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc. (DBOM) was founded in 1999 to minister to those in prison and provide a Christian response to need. DBOM recruits, trains, and sends local church volunteers to prisons, jails, and youth development centers to teach God's word. Thousands of NC inmates participate annually. DBOM's model of ministry has gone national with affiliates operational in Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana, Illinois, and Texas.

None of this would be possible without assistance. A primary source of DBOM's funding comes from the annual special offering taken in August. In 2019, the offering will be received on August 25. Offering envelopes are being provided to each charge. DBOM is always seeking new volunteers and new ways to minister. Those interested in joining the DBOM prison leadership team may contact the office.

DBOM appreciates the support and prayers for its ministry in both prison and pew.

Members from the WNCC are: Alvin Battle, Ed Campbell, David Christy, Randy Harry, Diane Ezzell, William Waddell, Jeoff Williams

X. THE EUGENE M. COLE FOUNDATION

The Cole Foundation was established by the Will of Eugene M. Cole in 1944 to provide benefits for retired ministers and surviving spouses of the Western North Carolina Conference. In 2015, the foundation directed monthly payments to the conference treasurer to supplement the cost of health care benefits to retired ministers and spouses. The Trustees also sponsor a breakfast for retired clergy and spouses at annual conference.

The foundation is governed by three trustees elected by the annual conference: James C. Windham Jr., chairperson; Anthony Orsbon, vice-chairperson; and Rebecca Douglas, secretary.

James C. Windham Jr., Chairperson

Proposal: Trustee of Cole Foundation

(Petition 16) Approved June 22, 2019

The Trustees of the Eugene M. Cole Foundation propose that James C. Windham, Jr., whose term as trustee expires in 2018, be re-elected for another three (3) year term, expiring in 2021.

Y. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc., continued to live into its mission of building the church for generations to come as it entered its 33rd year of active ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference on July 1, 2018. Although volatile markets brought about challenges in the fourth quarter, the foundation's investment options, which adhere to The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church, performed well relative to their benchmarks. By year end, total assets surpassed the $200 million mark as reported on the year-end balance sheet, placing it as one of the top United Methodist Foundations in the United Methodist Connection. Total assets of this magnitude enable the foundation to offer ministries that strengthen the church. The foundation gives thanks for the faith that has been placed in it and is committed to continue the work it set out to do so long ago.

As is often the case, the foundation experienced changes in its ministry team during the year. In July Chief Operating Officer Reverend Dr. Elizabeth Coppedge-Henley departed to accept an appointment to Harrison United Methodist Church in Pineville, North Carolina as the senior pastor. The foundation is thankful for the fruitful ministry Elizabeth provided while on staff and celebrates the ways God is using her gifts for ministry in new and exciting ways beyond the foundation. Former Director of Client Relations Susan Cothern assumed Elizabeth's position with the new title of Director of Ministry Services. Tammy Lehman, Chief Financial Officer, also assumed a new position with a secular investment institution. Brad Crossley, the former controller, assumed the newly titled position of Director of Financial Services. The foundation also welcomed Reverend Amy Burton, an ordained deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference, as the Director of Client Relations. In addition, two new staff members joined the team: Donna Johnson as senior accountant and Susanne Matthews as Senior Administrative Assistant. In July, Caroline Cox became the Director of Reynolds Ministries. With these changes and additions, the team is complete and well positioned to serve its partners in ministry throughout and beyond the conference.

Several ministries of special note beyond that of the investment ministry include:

- UMHEF Quadruple Your Dollars for Scholars Program provided $20K in scholarship monies for United Methodist students attending United Methodist colleges and universities.
- Excellence in Clergy Leadership Scholarships totaling $22K were distributed to Western North Carolina students pursuing ordination in the conference.
- Reynolds Ministry Fund grants, through the generosity of Royce and Jane Reynolds, provided monies in excess of $400K to fund ministries throughout the world that make disciples of Jesus Christ.
- Clergy Debt Reduction Loan Program, in partnership with the Western North Carolina Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits and The Duke Endowment, surpassed $2.7MM in low-interest loans to Western North Carolina clergy to help relieve educational and consumer debt.
- UMF Development Fund & Loan Program deposits surpassed the $24MM mark with $15MM in loans outstanding.
- CheckPoint, a program partially funded in partnership with the Lilly Endowment, was created and will be offered in 2019 to clergy nearing retirement.

The ministries noted above provide a snapshot of the ministries the foundation provides. To learn more about these ministries as well as other ways the foundation is available in partnership, visit the website at www.umfwnc.org or stop by the ministry tent located on the grounds between Harrell Center and Stuart Auditorium. The foundation prayer is in keeping with The United Methodist Church's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world as it helps build the church for generations to come.

Z. RFD CDC

RFD CDC seeks to serve communities, congregations, and individuals. The focus is rural, but the service extends to include both suburban and urban areas. In the Metro district, RFD celebrates with Mt. Zion UMC for their $30 million senior housing development for the greater Cornelius community, and with Light of Christ for their nearly $2 million expansion as Phase 2. RFD is available for consultation for senior, transitional, and veterans housing, community facilities (such as commercial kitchens) and congregational facility expansion. Contact information is available at the website: www.rfdcdc.org.

Individuals are served through NETworX® in many counties in North Carolina and five other states as well. Over the past year, 420 persons reported outcomes of significant progress in terms of wellbeing, financial stability, and major decrease in reliance upon public assistance. With gratitude, NETworX individuals in North Carolina and each of the sites celebrate the support received from the WNCC. More information about NETworX is available at the website www.networxusa.org.

Members of the RFD CDC board are as follows:

Lucy Robbins, President, Pastor Biltmore UMC
Carol Goehring, Vice President, Corridor District Superintendent, NCC
Gil Wise, Secretary/ Treasurer, Beacon District Superintendent, NCC
Amy Coles, Assistant to the WNCC Bishop
Laura Early, Senior Minister All God's Children UMC

AA. WESLEY COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

It has been a year of growth and change for Wesley Community Development. A highlight of 2018 was the completion of the new conference center, only the second building in the state to accomplish LEED Gold under the new LEED version four. As developer, Wesley oversaw the installation of a rooftop 85KW solar array that generates renewable energy for the center and sells excess power back to the grid, reducing the demand for fossil fuel energy production. With the first tenant now in lease negotiations, the conference center will be self-sufficient financially. Wesley is appreciative of the confidence the trustees placed in its ability to deliver this new project.

In January 2019, Wesley broke ground on two new housing developments representing nearly $19M investment in safe and affordable housing in Western North Carolina. These two new projects represent Wesley's seventh and eighth housing communities, bringing the total value of Wesley's development work since its inception to over $75M in housing, church, and office development.

Seeds of Change, the Wesley program that walks churches through thinking about how they can best use their facilities and land to serve their mission, continues to expand. This program introduces real estate options that can support churches as they change and grow in new directions.

In 2019, Wesley Community Development has transitioned into a fully licensed real estate firm. This allows the organization to handle all real estate issues including brokerage, asset management, development, and project management. This new licensing and a newly expanded staff will allow Wesley to serve churches fully in working through their real estate usage and needs. In addition, Wesley is excited to collaborate in the reposition and disposition of assets with the Conference Board of Trustees. This new chapter in the evolution of Wesley Community Development is made possible by a $2.5M grant from The Duke Endowment, continuing a long-standing relationship of between the two organizations. This grant will allow Wesley to take a much harder look at how properties can be repurposed to have a lasting impact on the communities in which they are located. Wesley is grateful for the support and encouragement of The Duke Endowment as it moves forward in these new areas.

BB. BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

The Brotherhood/Sisterhood is an affiliate ministry of the WNCC in which clergy and laity members honor our connection by mutually sharing our love and compassion for the families of clergy members when they die. When the BH/SH receives the news of a clergy member's death, their family members receive a pastoral visit and a financial gift that is available for their immediate use. A call notice providing pertinent information about the death is issued to our members.

Beneficiary membership in the BH/SH is open to all clergy members of the Annual Conference, including full and provisional members and local pastors. Older clergy who join are expected to compensate the BH/SH for all assessments issued from the time of their 35th birthday. A non-interest-bearing promissory note may be signed for this purpose.

The election of the members of our Board of Directors and its officers, the approval of our annual budget and our proposals to the Annual Conference, and all other official business of the BH/SH is conducted at our Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting is held on the site of the Annual Conference and is open to all members.

The following proposals were approved at the Annual Meeting at 1:30pm on Friday, June 21, in Room 213 of the Terrace Hotel, Lake Junaluska:

1. That, effective July 1, 2019, the clergy assessment rate increases to $15 per call, that laity are encouraged to contribute $6 or more per call, that the registration fee for new clergy members remains at $10, and that the basic amount of the death benefit increases to $10,000.
2. That each local church will be asked to observe Brotherhood/Sisterhood Sunday on February 16, 2020 or on another Sunday more conveniently available.

CC. CONVOCATION & PASTORS' SCHOOL AT DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The 2018 Convocation & Pastors' School, "Neighboring in a Post-Christendom World," considered the question: What does it mean for Christians to be a neighbor in a culture that is rapidly changing, where many have little knowledge or interest in religion? Attendees explored how one can practice and communicate Christian faith, spirituality and hospitality with missional imagination, connecting with the steadfast mission of God. The two-day conference helped pastors and church leaders gain insight and energy to build and strengthen Christian community with renewed integrity.

Held October 8-10, 2018, at Duke Divinity School, the event featured the following presenters:

- L. Gregory Jones, dean of Duke Divinity School;
- Christine Pohl, professor emeritus of Christian Ethics, Asbury Theological Seminary;
- Ian Douglas, bishop diocesan of The Episcopal Church in Connecticut;
- David Goatley, research professor of Theology and Black Church Studies, Duke Divinity School;
- Barbara Brown Taylor, author, teacher, and Episcopal priest; and,
- Cynthia Hale, founder and senior pastor, Ray of Hope Christian Church served as the preacher.

Attendees also participated in worship and their choice of 13 seminars led by faculty, church leaders, and practitioners on topics ranging from "Bible Study for Christian Neighbors" to "Making Room for One More" to "Preaching to Save the Soul of a Nation."

The next Convocation & Pastors' School, "Life That Really Is Life: Cultivating Thriving Communities," will take place October 7-8, 2019. Christian congregations, led by gifted clergy, are crucial to the vitality of thriving communities. When congregations and pastors are faithful and focused on God's dreams, they can be exceptional catalysts, conveners, and curators, drawing people together across diverse sectors, generations, and neighborhoods. They are integral to the formation of thriving communities that are marked by an acknowledgment of the fragility of human life, rooted in issues of suffering and sin, finitude and brokenness, yet that simultaneously nurture hope and wisdom to pursue what 1 Timothy 6:19 calls "the life that really is life." Through this way of living, people of character nurture trust and a vision for the common good, bearing witness to a holistic understanding of human beings and the fullness of the Reign of God.

Confirmed featured presenters include:

- David Brooks, author, op-ed columnist for The New York Times and commentator;
- Anne Snyder Brooks, director of The Character Initiative at The Philanthropy Roundtable;
- Kate Bowler, associate professor of the History of Christianity in North America at Duke Divinity School; and,
- Ralph West, pastor, The Church Without Walls.

Pastors serving churches eligible for grants from The Duke Endowment, current divinity school students, and 2019 graduates of Duke Divinity School may attend at a discounted rate.

The Convocation & Pastors' School Board of Managers is comprised of representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, and it advises and works with Duke Divinity School to offer a quality continuing education event annually.

The Western North Carolina Conference representatives on the Board of Managers are:

2016-2020	2017-2021	2018-2022	2019-2023
Terry L. Matthews	Lauren Anderson	Heidi Campbell-Robinson	Darryl Dayson
Joshua Sherfey*	Kelley Groce	Avery White	Sue Anne Morris

DD. THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

The Duke Endowment was formed in December of 1924 by the industrialist and philanthropist James B. Duke, who famously said that if it were not for his father and the Methodist Church he would not have amounted to anything. When forming his Endowment, Duke named four areas of focus: higher education, health care, child welfare, and rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. For 94 years, the Endowment has engaged with rural churches to strengthen their ministries across the conference and state. Formed by the grace and love of God, and led by the Spirit, rural churches understand what it means to "love their neighbors." Theirs are powerful and faithful stories, which you may experience at the Rural Church Development website: http://dukeendowment.org/program-areas/rural-church. In 2018, the Rural Church program area of the Endowment made 42 new grants totaling over $20.5 million. Grants were made in three work areas: Clergy Leadership, Rural Church Development, and Congregational Outreach.

The vision of the Clergy Leadership work area is to strengthen United Methodist churches by improving the quality and effectiveness of congregational leaders. Much of this is done through three major efforts:

1. The Clergy Health Initiative (CHI), based at Duke Divinity School, advises and informs the conferences, the denomination, and others on issues of clergy well-being. From 2010–2014, the CHI offered Spirited Life, a holistic wellness program, to over 1,000 United Methodist pastors in North Carolina. As a result, significant physical health gains were achieved. CHI has recently rolled out a new effort called Spirited Life: Selah aimed at bolstering pastors' ability to thrive in the midst of stressful circumstances.
2. The Thriving Rural Communities Initiative (TRCI) is a collaborative effort among the Endowment, the two conferences in North Carolina, and Duke Divinity School. The program forms and networks strong pastors, dubbed "Rural Fellows," for service to rural congregations. This year, Joel Bartz and Nina Miller will graduate from Duke Divinity School as a Rural Fellow and begin their ministry under appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Hispanic House of Studies at Duke Divinity School develops pastoral and congregational capacity for engagement with Latino populations, one of the fastest-growing demographic groups in our state. Interested pastors should contact the Rev. Ruiz-Millan at irmillan@div.duke.edu.

Through the Rural Church Development area of work, the Endowment builds the capacity of United Methodist churches to help address community-wide issues at their roots. This happens primarily through system-level grants to the conferences and other entities who aid congregations in enhancing ministry and mission. With an intentional move away from making building grants, the Endowment now seeks to create the conditions for congregations to thrive and to impact their communities in new and vital ways through grants that support multiple churches engaging in creative ministry.

With the Congregational Outreach area, the Endowment engages already-thriving congregations in programs that serve their communities through specific, outcomes-based food ministries and summer literacy programs. The program is currently seeking highly functional rural (TDE-eligible) congregations to consider implementing six-week summer reading camps that follow a set of Guiding Principles identified as essential for the effort. Churches that are interested in joining this pilot program may reach out Kristen Richardson-Frick, Associate Director of the Rural Church program area.

If you are interested in applying for a grant for a ministry that fits within any of the above work areas, please begin by exploring the website at http://dukeendowment.org/rural-church-apply-for-a-grant. There, you will find information about the application process. Please check this website frequently, as grant application and award cycles may shift from year-to-year.

Finally, in August, the Endowment will once again host the Convocation on the Rural Church. With a theme of healing, the Convocation will be led by Dr. Warren Kinghorn and Dr. Melanie Dobson, as well as formative worship leaders and powerful workshop leaders. If you can't be present August 5–7 for Convocation, consider exploring Study Leave, which is available throughout the year at Duke Divinity School and is offered at a significant cost reduction for Endowment pastors. Study Leave allows you to design your own week of learning and gives you access to faculty. If you're interested in learning more, please visit the Endowment's website.

EE. THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

With 18 denominations representing over 6,200 congregations in N.C., the Council provides incarnational evidence of Christian Unity. By creating unity without expecting uniformity, member bodies collaborate on matters that contribute to the flourishing of God's creation. The Council is grateful to WNCC for their support and for the leadership on its Governing Board provided by Renee Hayes, Trinity, N.C., and Robb Webb, Charlotte, N.C.

Currently the staffed program areas are:

- Ecumenical Immigrant Alliance (EIA), which includes the N.C. Sanctuary Coalition, a collection of faith communities across N.C. who offer public sanctuary sites or collaborating support for immigrants at risk of deportation. Additionally, EIA provides education and advocacy for immigrants in the state through webinars, teach-ins, and online resources. It continues its long-standing work with farmworkers. If your congregation is interested in becoming a sanctuary site or learning more about this work with immigrants or farmworkers, please contact rachel@ncchurches.org.
- N.C. Interfaith Power and Light (NCIPL), which is the only N.C.-based statewide organization that works on addressing the ecological and justice issues of climate change as a faith-based initiative. Efforts include energy efficiency and conservation, increased renewable energy use, and collective low-carbon lifestyle changes. NCIPL programs encourage congregations, clergy, and denominations to know about and speak to the moral dimensions of climate change and environmental justice from a faith perspective. For more information, contact susannah@ncipl.org.
- Partners in Health and Wholeness, which provides tools to help faith communities form healthy habits including exercise, healthy eating, mental health awareness, and smoking cessation. Staff members in Asheville and Charlotte are available to help your congregation. The Council also has a staff member dedicated to education and advocacy around the opioid epidemic. For more information, contact michelle@ncchurches.org.
- Legislative advocacy and interfaith outreach, which helps faith communities connect the needs of their local communities with state policies and laws and, when necessary, empower communities to advocate for positive change. To become engaged with this work, contact lindsay@ncchurches.org.

Over the course of this year, the Governing Board approved the following policy statements, which can be found on our website:

- Statement of Opposition to Constitutional Amendments (September 18, 2018)
- Statement Affirming the Ministry of Sanctuary by Congregations (March 8, 2018)

The Council crafts these statements in keeping with its interpretation of the prophetic witness of the Old Testament and the gospel message of the New Testament.

Currently, other areas of emphasis include public education, gun violence prevention, living wage promotion, criminal justice reform, Medicaid expansion, and redistricting reform. Resources are available online and dedicated staff are available to help your congregation address any of the myriad concerns that arise in this contemporary setting.

FF. THE GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

As the leadership development agency of The United Methodist Church, the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's (GBHEM) mission is to build capacity for United Methodist lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in Christ's calling in their lives. GBHEM creates connections and provides resources to aid in recruitment, education, professional development and spiritual formation. Every elder, deacon, and licensed local pastor benefits from its training and candidacy programs. Many young adults find help in clarifying their vocation and God's call in their lives through its leadership and discernment programs.

GBHEM helps the Western North Carolina Conference by providing scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students, consultation and training for Boards of Ordained Ministry as they credential clergy, orientation training for new district superintendents, special events and resources to help young adults discern a call to clergy ministry, developmental consultation and gatherings for campus ministry, and much more.

Accomplishments in 2018: GBHEM solidified plans to establish a center for leadership development and spiritual formation, as affirmed by its board of directors in March. The Rev. Dr. Kim Cape, GBHEM's general secretary, observed that the agency's work is "to be the balcony view for the denomination's leadership formation and development, and then resource our denominational leadership process with the end in mind. I see our role as being on the balcony for the whole denomination, keeping the church connected in its diversity, as we hold the tension between connectional and contextual." GBHEM is actively determining the competencies that leaders of today and tomorrow will need, based on extensive research. It is exploring ways of providing these services through a range of means, such as face-to-face training, online conferencing, consulting, and recommending resources and experts.

The Office of Loans and Scholarships announced an increase in the maximum amount of money United Methodist students can borrow to pursue their education. Students can now borrow up to $10,000 per calendar year (January through December) with a lifetime maximum of $40,000. On average, the agency distributes $5.5 million in scholarships annually. The scholarships shape today's and tomorrow's leaders.

GBHEM's primary goals for 2019: Following up on its decision to establish a leadership development and spiritual formation center, GBHEM's focus in 2019 will be to enhance its capacity to serve as the denomination's primary resource for the development and spiritual formation of leaders. Research on United Methodists' needs and on future trends will inform the new ways that the agency will prepare leaders for the church and the world in 2019 and beyond. A significant initiative will be "The Awakened Life," a book and practices for collegiate ministers as they help students tend to their emotional well-being (one of the greatest health issues for students). For conferences as they identify and form new clergy and identify district superintendents, the agency developed EM360, a process for evaluating clergy and helping pastors and churches shape and follow a mission and ministry plan.

Watch for a redesign of GBHEM's web site to appear this summer: www.gbhem.org. The design aims to make the site easier to navigate.

GG. HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Hinton Center in Hayesville, N.C., is a retreat and missions outreach agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ), with the mission statement "Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach."

"Don't just go to church. Be the Church." Like a church, Hinton Center's campus is a physical place where people come to worship, learn, and serve, as well as to retreat, reflect, and renew. But Hinton is more than just a place. Through its ministries and missions outreach opportunities, Hinton engages individuals, groups, churches, and organizations—both local and from across the jurisdiction—in ways that impact its rural Appalachian community, improve quality of life, and give hope. Hinton focuses on loving God and loving neighbor, in the hope that everyone who connects with Hinton—guest, volunteer, workshop participant, local homeowner, or business owner—experiences God's transforming love.

Guided by its 2016 Quality of Life Study, Hinton Center has made homes safer and healthier, encouraged understanding of mental health and substance use, and promoted community-wide volunteer opportunities. Hinton has been awarded numerous grants and has continued to strengthen its ministries both on and off campus. Hinton's 2018 ministry highlights include:

- Received over $575,000 in grants, including funding for:
  - Youth and adult leadership programs, funded by a grant from the The Duke Endowment.
  - Mental Health First Aid training, through the Evergreen Foundation; Hinton staff have trained educators in the Clay County and Cherokee County school systems, as well as community members in the three-county area served.
  - Young Clergy Initiative funding, from the United Methodist General Board of Higher Education and Ministry; this funding supported a leadership training event for high school youth interested in serving as future summer mission outreach staff.
- Served 334 families through its Firewood, Christmas Cares, and Safe and Healthy Home Repair ministries.
- Completed 237 home repair projects for 29 homes.
- Hosted 51 church mission teams, with 46 from the SEJ.
- Completed its Lakeside Worship Center, with significant help from the NOMADS team led by Jim and Mary Jo Reeves; began hosting an annual Easter Sunrise Service there.
- Launched a regional Volunteer Center promoting ministry through service in the community, with over 25,000 volunteer hours in 2018.
- Produced 785 pounds of food from the Hinton garden, used in its dining services and distributed to food programs in the community.

In 2019 Hinton Center launched two initiatives to promote, throughout the SEJ, its resources and missions opportunities:

- The Hinton Ambassadors Ministry equips 10 clergy from different annual conferences in the jurisdiction to represent Hinton and serve as an information resource in their annual conferences. They include: David Fuquay (Fla.); Laura Plaster (Holston); Ed Trimmer (Tenn.); Adlene Kufarimai (N Ala.); Shannon Boaz (Ky.); Joshua Goocey (N.C.); Rebekah Ralph (W N.C.); Ed Archer (N Ga.); Bill Culpepper (S Ga.); Jonathan Tompkins (S.C.).
- Hinton is helping to sponsor FCF Confirm confirmation retreats at Lake Junaluska. Hinton's presence at these retreats is introducing a new generation of United Methodists to Hinton Rural Life Center as a place where they can go to retreat and serve . . . and BE the Church!

HH. LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

The leadership at Lake Junaluska is happy to report that it continues to live into its mission "to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body."

During the past year, it has developed a vision "to become known as the most welcoming and inviting place for personal renewal in the United States." Great strides have been made by improving infrastructure that positions the Conference Center to continue meeting the needs of all guests, accomplishing its mission and building a sustainable model for the future to improve guest satisfaction and overall excellence.

Under the leadership of the Director of Programming, the Rev. Mitzi Johnson, Lake Junaluska has seen a revitalization of its youth ministry as it continues to strive to be a place that connects more youth to Christ through meaningful ministry, recreation, and education programs. In the past year, almost $1.5 million in charitable giving has been dedicated to youth ministry, allowing for improvements to youth housing and Shackford Hall, a more modern worship environment, new technology, increased staffing, access to a consultant, and improved outreach to youth groups. Lake Junaluska is also excited to announce that it will soon begin a major renovation of the youth dining facilities.

Lake Junaluska continues to experience transformation through reinvestment back into its facilities and grounds. Its commitment to transformation manifested in 2018 with more than $5 million in improvements, including a $3.2 million interior renovation to Lambuth Inn, the historic inn perched high over Lake Junaluska near Inspiration Point. Other improvements included the completion of restoration to the bridge over the dam, the installation of beautiful Tennessee flagstone on the Labyrinth path, renovation of the boat pier, and construction of a new meditation and fishing pier along the Walking Trail at the south end of the Memorial Chapel parking lot.

The leadership and staff invite you to visit Lake Junaluska for a conference, a retreat, or a vacation. The lake and surrounding mountains will provide the perfect setting for you to be transformed and renewed.

II. UNITED METHODIST SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY AND UNIVERSITIES

1. BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Greetings from Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) to the Western North Carolina Conference.

Breaking News:

- Students: The school continues to increase and celebrate diversity in the student body, creating remarkable opportunities for in-depth exchanges and fruitful collaboration.
- Faculty: Two amazing new faculty members started this year: Shively Smith as Assistant Professor of New Testament, and Nicolette Manglos-Weber as Assistant Professor of Religion and Society.
- Online Lifelong Learning: A new Online Lifelong Learning Program will soon launch at the school, offering webinars, workshops, and reading groups for professional enrichment.
- Scholarships: Free tuition to UMC registered candidates for ordained ministry continue to be offered, and building student scholarships and housing remains a central campaign priority. New scholarships include the Korean Student and African Student Scholarships, and leadership fellowships for promising leaders: Raíces Latinas for Latinx leaders, Sacred Worth for leaders in the LGBTQIA+ community, Howard Thurman for African-American leadership, and Indigenous Studies Fellowships.
- Faith and Ecological Justice Program: This new student program undertakes initiatives to increase ecological awareness, education, and activism in ecological justice.
- Theology and the Arts Initiatives: Recent exhibits and events include "Moments in Time" and "Transcending Conflict."
- Grants: Henry Luce Foundation has awarded a three-year grant to support the Educating Effective Chaplains Project. The grant supports work with other seminaries to develop models that can better prepare chaplains for effective ministry.
- Website: After several years of planning, a new school website will launch fall semester 2019.

Partnering for Ministry and Transformation:

Preparing students for ministry means meaningful partnerships with the local spiritual community.

- Creative Callings: This vocational project is an exciting partnership with local churches, seeking to create "a culture of call." It is sponsored through a grant from the Lilly Endowment.
- Engagement with the UMC: Many of the school's students were delegates, project leaders and assistants, and class participants in General Conference 2019.
- Congregational courses: The Continuing Scholar program offers current BUSTH courses to alums and local clergy as continuing education credit for a small fee per course.
- Doctor of Ministry: The D.Min. in Transformational Leadership is soaring, with lively student cohorts that are broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensives, online courses, and faculty mentoring.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation Clinic: The clinic provides internships and workshops that foster justice and peace-building.
- Travel seminars: These courses engage students with immersion journeys to the Arizona-Mexican border, Israel and Palestine, Argentina, and other sites of learning and ministry. Attendees from the recent Serbia and Croatia Seminar presented to the 2018 Parliament of the World's Religions in Toronto, Canada.
- Ecumenical partnerships: The school continues to build robust Communities of Learning with the Episcopal Church and United Church of Christ, and will develop new communities with the Unitarian Universalist and Baptist Churches.
- Partnership with Hebrew College: The school is enriching interreligious learning through joint courses and public events, and also co-sponsor The Journal of Interreligious Studies and State of Formation cohort of emerging leaders.

Taking Action Globally and Locally:

- Campus action: Work to improve accessibility and sustainability. BUSTH is the first certified Green School in BU, and participates actively in the Green Seminary Initiative. It has also been named as one of the "Seminaries that Change the World" for the second consecutive year.
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Internships that support students who engage in ministry with churches and service organizations across the world are provided.

Commitment to Justice:

Celebrating differences while joining in action.

- Faculty and students: Both have led and participated in UMCOR; support efforts with victims of hurricanes and fires; protests on behalf of Puerto Rico, Texas, and Florida; protests of white supremacist movements; services with immigrants and DACA young people; and ecumenical and interreligious witnesses for justice in the city of Boston.
- Student-led Town Hall meetings: The community has had deep conversations on issues that divide (including theological differences). The school seeks to foster respectful listening that builds community life and communal action.

Other Notable News:

- 2019 marks the 180th year of the School of Theology, originally founded as the Newbury Bible Institute in 1839.
- Major development campaign for BUSTH will end in September 2019, and the school continues working toward grand success for the future and the vitality of ministries.

As BUSTH looks to the future, it celebrates transformational leaders of The United Methodist Church, who keep the word of Jesus Christ alive.

2. CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since the founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current uncertainty in the Methodist denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to the community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and the mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As Candler moves forward from the Special Session of General Conference, the school will continue to invite and welcome wholeheartedly those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition and continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

Candler is also privileged to be one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University in Atlanta. With the resources of a top-tier research institution and the reach of a global city, our students benefit from a rich academic and hands-on learning environment: The General Board of Global Ministries is in Atlanta, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Candler's intentional involvement with the surrounding community has contributed to the inclusion on a list of "Seminaries that Change the World" for six years running. In short, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. The Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. The Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they are enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 453, reflecting 51 percent women, 39 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among M.Div.s. Students represent 44 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $5.8 million in Candler scholarships, with 100 percent of M.Div. students receiving aid. Plus, our comprehensive "Faith & Finance" program teaches money management skills that serve students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill the mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of the denomination. Visit the school in person or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

3. DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

In August of 2018, L. Gregory Jones, the Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Jr. Distinguished Professor of Theology and Christian Ministry, began serving as dean following Elaine Heath's departure. Jones, who earned M.Div. and Ph.D. degrees from Duke, was previously dean of Duke Divinity from 1997–2010. Jones was asked to lead the school in enhancing its ties with church constituencies, strengthening its academic credibility, attending to cultural challenges, and addressing financial challenges. As he assumed the role of dean, Jones noted, "We need to build bridges across various divides in the church, the academy, and across society. Christian faith can play a significant role in this bridge building." This academic year Duke Divinity School has been working steadily on these tasks.

Admissions: Duke Divinity School welcomed an entering class of approximately 200 new students from 30 different states and several countries, including China, South Korea, the UK, and Zimbabwe. The Master of Divinity program remains central to the school's identity, enrolling 112 students. The Master of Theological Studies and Master of Arts in Christian Practice programs received enrollments of 24 students and 14 students, respectively. The Master of Theology (nine students), Doctor of Ministry (22 students), and Doctor of Theology (four students) programs all had strong enrollment. The new Certificate in Theology and Health Care saw enrollment double this year to eight students. The ages of students enrolled in the M.Div. program range from 21 to 69, with a median age of 23, and students from minority groups comprised more than 22 percent of incoming M.Div. students, with Black students making up 15 percent. Across all degree programs at the Divinity School, 32 percent of the incoming class identified as a race/ethnicity other than White (an increase from 26 percent last year). Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Hispanic students, two percent; Asian students, seven percent; and Native American students, one percent. For the first time, the majority of students entering the Doctor of Ministry program identify as an ethnic group other than White. Female students made up 51 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 49 percent. It was only the second time in school history that the incoming cohort of M.Div. students had a female majority (2005 being the other year). Across the degree programs, 42 percent of students in the incoming class were female, and 58 percent were male. There were 23 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 55 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church (up from 41 percent last year). Nondenominational students made up 17 percent of the new M.Div. students; Baptists, eight percent; and Anglican-Episcopal, three percent.

New Faculty: Several new faculty members joined the Divinity School community in July 2018, demonstrating Duke Divinity School's ongoing commitment to the church, the academy, and the church's witness in the world.

- Christopher Beeley, the Jack and Barbara Bovender Professor of Theology, Anglican Studies, and Ministry and director of the Anglican-Episcopal House of Studies, is an Anglican priest and a founding member of the Episcopal Gathering of Leaders. He has ministered in parishes in Texas, Indiana, Virginia, and Connecticut. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Beeley taught for 16 years at Yale Divinity School.
- David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and Black church studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies, is ordained in the National Baptist Convention, USA, and serves in leadership capacities with the NAACP, Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and the Baptist World Alliance and the World Council of Churches. He was the executive director of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society for 23 years.
- Jan Holton, associate professor of the practice of pastoral theology and care, is an ordained elder in the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Holton most recently served in an extension ministry with Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services (IRIS) in New Haven, Conn., and was a member of the faculty at Yale Divinity School from 2006 to 2015.
- Patrick T. Smith, associate research professor of theological ethics and bioethics and a senior fellow at the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University, is also associate faculty with Trent Center for Bioethics, Humanities, and the History of Medicine. Smith is licensed and ordain ed with the National Baptist Convention, USA, and comes to Duke from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and Harvard Medical School.

United Methodists: Professor Kate Bowler's memoir, Everything Happens for a Reason: And Other Lies I've Loved, made The New York Times' hardcover nonfiction bestseller list and received significant national recognition in mainstream and Christian media. The related podcast, "Everything Happens with Kate Bowler," returns for a second season with new episodes on how people have faced dark times in their lives. Bowler, Sujin Pak, and Edgardo Colon-Emeric, all United Methodist faculty members, received tenure and promotion to the rank of associate professor in recent months. On July 1, 2018, Pak began serving as vice dean of academic affairs and Colon-Emeric started as director of the Center for Reconciliation. Jeff Conklin-Miller began serving as director of the Methodist House of Studies at the same time. Beginning February 1, 2019, Laceye Warner fills the new role of associate dean for Wesleyan engagement.

Looking to the Future: The Divinity School continues to discern fresh strategies to respond faithfully and wisely to the changing dynamics of the church, the academy, and the world. An example of its strategic work is a new focus throughout the school on Thriving Communities. Through this focus it is concentrating on the centrality of healthy congregations and gifted pastors in cultivating thriving communities. This approach offers opportunities to build on Duke Divinity School's traditional strengths, but in a new key. The school looks forward to cultivating even stronger synergies among its work with the Clergy Health Initiative, Thriving Rural Communities, Hispanic House of Studies, and a revised Field Education program (all generously supported by The Duke Endowment), alongside longstanding commitments to the Office of Black Church Studies, the Anglican-Episcopal and Baptist Houses of Study, and initiatives in Leadership Education, Theology and the Arts, and Theology, Medicine, and Culture.

Duke Divinity School is grateful for the strong ties that bind "the people called Methodist," and it looks forward to serving together to bear witness to God's future with hope.

4. GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, Ga., is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a coeducational professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for Black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socioeconomic challenges confronting the African-American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of The United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African-American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Education, and Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of The United Methodist Church.

The support of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support, and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

5. METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Full-tuition pledge extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy
MTSO has announced a groundbreaking full-tuition pledge to every prospective student who is pursuing United Methodist candidacy as an elder or deacon. The school's financial-aid experts will assist the prospective student in locating and applying for scholarships from numerous sources. If scholarships from those sources don't cover the full tuition, MTSO and its donors will make up the difference, leaving the student with no out-of-pocket tuition expense. This pledge is extended to qualified prospective students who apply by July 1 for the 2019-20 academic year. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

Master of Arts in Social Justice program launched
In August of 2019, MTSO will welcome the first students pursuing the school's new Master of Arts in Social Justice degree. This 39-hour, two-year professional master's degree takes full advantage of MTSO's unique ethos. The MASJ offers an interdisciplinary core curriculum combining ethics, theology, public leadership, sacred texts and spirituality. Students also will choose from among social justice-oriented elective courses to sharpen their focus in areas of interest such as race, immigration, human sexuality, climate, disability and labor exploitation. MASJ core classes include on-campus and online learning. All on-campus core classes will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Coursework includes a cross-cultural immersion trip and a customizable 280-hour internship.

Ohio Northern and MTSO announce 3+3 M.Div. program
Ohio Northern University and MTSO have teamed up to offer incoming college students a unique 3+3 program leading to a Master of Divinity degree. The program is the only one of its kind in Ohio and one of only a few in the country. The typical path to an M.Div. requires seven years of undergrad and graduate study. Through the 3+3 program, students will save time and money by completing the degree in six years. Starting the program at ONU in Ada, they may choose one of three majors: religion, youth ministry, or religion and ecology. The next step is three years of study at MTSO. After the first year at MTSO, 3+3 students will complete a Bachelor of Arts degree from ONU. After completion of seminary coursework, each will earn an MTSO M.Div

6. UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

459 men and women are being equipped as faithful, fruitful pastors and Christian leaders for the Church:[1]
292 Masters Students
167 Doctoral Students

Third largest United Methodist seminary in the United States[2]

Founded nearly 150 years ago by Bishop Milton Wright, father of famed aviators Wilbur and Orville Wright, United has continued that spirit of innovation through:

Online degrees:
- 98% of master's students have taken one or more course online while studying at United.
- United students live in 39 different states.
- Week-long intensives fulfill UMC residency requirements.

Live Interactive Virtual Education (LIVE):
- New grant brings the latest technology in virtual education.
- Participate in on-campus courses via webcam and enjoy live lectures and real-time discussion with faculty and peers.

Doctor of Ministry Degree:
- Become a doctor for the Church, addressing a real problem or challenge in your church or community.
- Study under a mentor who is an expert in their field and learn alongside a small group of dedicated peers.
- 3-year program that allows you to complete project as you go, leading to a 78% program graduation rate in 2017 (vs. 54% average among other seminaries)[3]

Practical education designed to resource the Church:
- The majority of United faculty have pastored churches.
- 91% of entering United students are already serving in ministry, bringing that context to the classroom.

A focus on Church Renewal:
- 165 Course of Study students[4]
- 42 students in the Hispanic Christian Academy (3-year Spanish online course of ministry program for Hispanic lay pastors and leaders)[iv]
- Certificates in Church Planting, Disability Ministry, and Supervision

Academic and Spiritual Growth:
- 95% of students say the United community supports both the academic and spiritual growth.[5]

Diverse Christian Views:
- Over 30 different denominations
- 19 international students from 15 different countries
- 96% of students feel their views are respected in the classroom/seminary community and say they have been taught to respect the views of others.
- 47% of students who reported are African-American, 43% Caucasian and 10% represent other ethnicities

The seminary thanks God for the men and women coming to United because God has called them to serve the least and the lost. The seminary also prays as the Lord Jesus instructed his disciples saying, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest" (Luke 10:2).

7. WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Celebrating its 60th year in Washington, D.C., Wesley Theological Seminary has equipped Christian leadership for nearly 150 years. Wesley prepares students to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in biblical and theological traditions. President David McAllister-Wilson writes in his new book, A New Church and a New Seminary, "Leadership requires a seminary to foster both wisdom and courage."

Wesley's faculty is chosen to prepare these kinds of leaders. In the past year, the seminary welcomed Academic Dean Phil Wingeier-Rayo, Ph.D., plus two new faculty, the Rev. Lorena Parrish, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Urban Ministries and Director of the Community Engagement Institute, and the Rev. Anna Petrin, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Worship and Chapel Elder. Learn more about all the remarkable scholars on Wesley's faculty at https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/faculty-2/.

Whether one is clergy or laity, an alumnus or a prospective student, looking for master's or doctoral work, continuing education or simply deeper knowledge, Wesley stands ready with support for a current or future call to ministry. Here are a few ways Wesley can help grow the wisdom of the faith and the courage to lead.

Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies. Wesley equips all those called to serve for ordained Elder and Deacon ministries, or to other ministries beyond the pulpit.

Some are able to take advantage of Wesley's modern and affordable on-campus housing and food service as full-time residential students, living in an exciting international capital. But the seminary understands the struggle to balance life, family, ministry, and finances. So Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in five years, designed for those with busy ministry, work, and family lives. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for Summer and Fall 2019 at http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3/.

In partnership with Shenandoah University, Wesley's 3+3 Fast Track B.A./M.Div. program lets students enter ministry with less debt after earning their degrees in six years. Learn more at www.wesleyseminary.edu/3+3degrees.

Wesley provides more than $2 million annually in scholarships thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends. The new Generación Latinx Scholarship joins the many merit-based scholarships that enable students to afford seminary education. The Community Engagement Institute at Wesley embraces a vibrant vision to be the premier learning center for churches and faith-based organization who seek to innovatively engage their communities. Wesley's Community Engagement Fellows program prepares students to engage in entrepreneurial ministry. Generous stipends are available for each Fellow while they complete their M.Div. degree. Students can focus their fellowship on Public Theology, Urban Ministry or Missional Church. Meet Wesley's current Fellows at https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/community-engagement-fellows/.

Wesley is a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs in specialized tracks that can include international study. Their 2020 tracks will include Church Leadership Excellence, offered in conjunction with Wesley's internationally respected Lewis Center for Church Leadership and Life Together: Spirituality for Transforming Community, and a track designed for military chaplains. Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life.

Wesley also offers opportunities for individual study without pursuing a degree. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/.

A Certificate in Wesleyan Studies is available online via the Wesley Theological Seminary Lay Academy. Topics include United Methodist identity, early church history, Christian ethics, interfaith relations, and the intersection of faith and science. The courses can also be taken for personal education and enrichment. More information can be found at www.beadisciple.com/wesley/.

The Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be on the leading edge of research for the local church. The Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter is now the go-to source for over 20,000 people in ministry each week. This resource also launched a new podcast – Leading Ideas Talk. Sign up or listen at www.churchleadership.com/. Be sure to look for new practical online courses at lewisonlinelearning.org.

From their new location at The Methodist Building on Capitol Hill, the Center for Public Theology, under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology Mike McCurry, equips pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. In its second year, the Center's Faith and Public Life Immersion for undergraduates offers a week-long experience of study and encounters with public theologians and those advocating for justice in Washington. For more information, visit http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/.

The Luce Center for the Arts and Religion is the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The Luce Center offers regular classes and workshops with visiting artists. For information on past and upcoming opportunities visit www.luceartsandreligion.org.

The innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program prepares congregations for public health work in their parishes. Contact Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

The African American Church Studies Master of Divinity specialization gives contextual preparation for the opportunities and challenges future leaders may encounter in African American churches, while the Public Theology specialization allows master's degree students to gain community leadership and advocacy skills. 8. AFRICA UNIVERSITY Africa University thrives in ministry because of the steadfast support of local congregations of The United Methodist Church. Africa University is grateful to the leaders and members of the Western North Carolina Conference for prioritizing its ministry with the contribution of 89.15 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2018. The students, faculty, and staff value every gift and thank the conference for its generosity in opening doors and equipping young people to be difference-makers. The Africa University community is especially humbled by the sacrifices that are being made as the Western North Carolina Conference strives to establish a tradition of 100 percent support for the AUF.

Through its investment in the Africa University Fund, the Western North Carolina Conference continues to affirm the university's core mission of nurturing leaders who help communities to know Jesus Christ, and to experience peace, sustainable livelihoods, food security, and abundant health. Thank you, Western North Carolina United Methodists, for the steadfast commitment and strong support.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University remains a top choice for African young people who are seeking a relevant and life-changing educational experience. In 2018, Africa University enrolled more than 700 new students and maintained an overall enrollment of around 2,000 students. Students from 25 African countries comprised the student body. Women made up 53 percent of the student population, which is almost twice the average for African higher education institutions.
- Throughout 2018, Africa University weathered the challenges of Zimbabwe's depressed and uncertain socio-economic environment with creativity and prudence. The university delivered teaching, learning, and community service activities of high-quality without interruption, while also renewing and expanding its infrastructure. Key enhancements in 2018 included the refurbishment of three residence halls for women students and the full implementation of an ERP software system to integrate and manage all facets of the university's operations.
- For the first time in five years, there is new construction on the Africa University campus thanks to a 25th anniversary gift from Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, TX. In December 2018, work began on the foundation for a new residence hall. The university subsequently broke ground for the construction of phase two of its Student Union and Cafeteria building. Both projects are progressing well and are expected to be fully in use by August 2020.
- With conflict, poverty, and the impact of climate change persisting as the key drivers of food insecurity and the rise in internal displacement, migration, and refugee-hood in Africa, the university consolidated its position as a trailblazer by offering new graduate training and research opportunities. Africa University has also continued to provide scholarships for refugee women so that their experiences, talents, and ideas are integrated into the search for sustainable solutions.
- Africa University delivered critical data for reducing malaria deaths in southern Africa and controlling the spread of insect-borne diseases world-wide. AU's insectary—a laboratory for rearing and studying live insects, such as mosquitos—shares its findings through the Southern Africa Centers of Excellence for Malaria Research. This data informs regional policies, practices, and malaria control efforts.

The students, faculty, administrators and trustees of Africa University thank the members of the Western North Carolina Conference for their prayers and support, which continue to grow and sustain this ministry. Thank you for all that the conference has sown into Africa University over the past 27 years. As Africa University and the Western North Carolina Conference move forward together in missional engagement, trust in God's unending grace for the increase.

Text:

Whereas, we believe that all of humanity is created in God's image and likeness. "So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them." (Genesis 1:27 NRSV); and,

Whereas, we believe that God calls women into leadership like Deborah and Esther (Judges 4 and 5; Esther). We acknowledge that women were part of Christ's ministry including Mary, Joanna, and Susanna (Luke 8:2-3). We affirm the many female leaders in the early church including Phoebe, a deacon of the church at Cenchreae (Romans 16:1-2); and,

Whereas, we know that God calls women to ordained ministry; and,

Whereas, ¶ 162F of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church states: "We affirm women and men to be equal in every aspect of their common life. [...And we] affirm the right of women to equal treatment in employment, responsibility, promotion, and compensation." (The 2016 Book of Discipline); and,

Whereas, The Book of Discipline ¶ 425.1 states that "Open itinerancy means appointments are made without regard to race, ethnic origin, gender, color, disability, marital status, or age, except for the provisions of mandatory retirement." and,

Whereas, there are still local churches and Staff Parish Relations Committees that refuse to consider female clergy for appointments; and,

Whereas, we know that gender discrimination thrives in our silence; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church recommends our bishop and Cabinet to:

1. respond to requests concerning the non-consideration of female clergy by affirming our position of open itinerancy.
2. educate Staff Parish Relations Committees on why discrimination is harmful to the mission of the church.
3. communicate our position of non-discrimination with Staff Parish Relations Committees through the consultation process.

PETITION 18 Subject: Child Advocacy Coalition
Submitted by: WNCC Mission Engagement Team
WNCC Justice and Reconciliation Team
Congregations for Children (C4C) Team (Camille Roddy, Susan Pennock, Randy Harry, Sandi Lee, Kris Mares, Rob Parsons, Linda Dills)
Child Advocacy Task Team (Camille Roddy, Janet Leeland, Jay Bissett, Wade Hampton, Susan Johnson, Susan Pennock, Rob Parsons, Caroline Wood)

Text:

Whereas, children are among the most precious and fragile members of our society. As we follow in the footsteps of Jesus, we are led to gather and care for children. As we follow in the footsteps of John Wesley, they take us into the poorest and most disadvantaged areas to educate, equip, and advocate for children and families; and,

Whereas, we call on the Western North Carolina Conference UMC to continue this legacy through response and advocacy for all children in North Carolina. In forming the WNCC UMC Child Advocacy Coalition, we will educate, resource, and equip the conference in response and advocacy for the challenges facing the children and families of this state. This is our Scriptural, historical, and moral responsibility and our connectional system, comprised of 1100 churches, is well-positioned to answer the call; and,

Whereas, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (2016) calls United Methodists to be advocates for all children as in The Social Principles ¶ 162C: "Rights of Children--Once considered the property of their parents, children are now acknowledged to be full human beings in their own right, but beings to whom adults and society in general have special obligations. Moreover, children have the rights to adequate education, food, shelter, clothing, health care, and emotional well-being as do adults, and these rights we affirm as theirs regardless of actions or inactions of their parents or guardians. In particular, children must be protected from economic, physical, emotional, and sexual exploitation and abuse." and,

Whereas, there is currently no formally existing coalition or entity within the WNCC UMC with a committed emphasis on the broad spectrum of challenges faced by the children of this state, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. Advocating and response for quality public education as a basic human right. Every child deserves an education that challenges and develops the gifts and talents with which they were created so they might become contributing members of society; equal access to quality education is crucial to further understanding, acceptance, and cooperation between people of all races, socioeconomic levels, national origin, abilities, and gender.
2. Advocating and response for the development of quality childcare/daycare programs. Research reveals that the care infants receive has significant long-term effects on cognitive development. High-quality care and early learning for young children affects how they will learn later in life. Child care is a significant financial challenge for families and affordable services are limited.
3. Advocating for quality afterschool care. According to the North Carolina After School Alliance there are 234,908 children being served in afterschool programs in North Carolina, with 523,140 children awaiting enrollment in an afterschool program. The number of children left unsupervised after school is estimated to be 295,984.
4. Advocating for universal, early, and quality preschool education for all children. Children entering kindergarten have widely varying knowledge levels, making it difficult to provide appropriate instruction for all children in the early grades; quality preschool education significantly improves a child's academic performance and chance for overall social and economic success.
5. Advocating and response for disconnected teenagers and young adults ages of 16-24. When children grow up in an unstable environment, with few positive role models it often paves the way for a difficult transition to adulthood. One in nine young people in the United States between the ages of 16-24 are neither working nor attending school. Others suffer from poor health conditions that hinder their ability to develop physically or socially. They are more at risk for early pregnancy and violence, physical and mental health conditions, illegal drug and heavy alcohol use, poverty and homelessness, and increased incarceration rates.
6. Advocating and response for appropriate support of children in foster care. According to Crossnore School and Children's Home more than 11,000 children in North Carolina are in foster care. The Children's Home Society of North Carolina says the number has been steadily rising since 2012 and is at its highest rate in the last 10 years; about 600 children age out of the system without being adopted by a permanent family.
7. Advocating and response for children with disabilities. Every child with a disability has a right to a free appropriate public education. Congress passed the Individuals with Disabilities Act in 1975 (IDEA) which guarantees a free appropriate education to each child and promised federal funding for 40 percent of this cost. However, funding levels to the states have never reached this target and help for students has persistently fallen short at federal, state, and local levels.
8. Advocating and response for enhancing and building family resources. Children thrive in environments where connections to assets both outside and inside the family structures are strengthened as building blocks for age appropriate growth and development.
9. Advocating and response for post high school educational opportunities for all. Affordable post-high school education and career readiness should equip young adults to fully participate in the well-being of our communities; and,

Whereas, the Mission Engagement Team provides oversight and funding for Congregations for Children (C4C); C4C is well positioned and prepared to develop and provide oversight of the WNCC UMC Child Advocacy Coalition through the C4C Conference Team and support through the Mission Engagement Team. C4C is changing the lives of children and families impacted by poverty through collaboration with public schools. C4C is comprised of four areas of focus: Poverty and Advocacy, K-3 Literacy, Basic Needs, and Family Engagement; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference Mission Engagement Team establish a Child Advocacy Coalition, with oversight from Congregations for Children, to promote equity, opportunities, and well-being for all children in Western North Carolina and to educate, resource, and equip the church in response and advocacy for the many challenges faced by the children of Western North Carolina.

PETITION 19 Subject: Election of Clergy Delegates to General Conference
Submitted by: Jonathan Gaylord, Yadkinville UMC, Yadkin Valley District; and Rennie Salata, Acton UMC, Blue Ridge District
Text:

Whereas, the Western North Carolina Conference is a large conference, with over 1000 Clergy in Full Connection eligible to be elected as 1 of 10 Delegates to General Conference 2020; and,

Whereas, the Western North Carolina Conference's current electoral process favors name recognition that is only common among clergy serving on conference and district staff, in cardinal appointments, and/or in executive positions on district and conference boards; and,

Whereas, the Western North Carolina Conference's current electoral process provides no additional information relevant to serving as a delegate to General Conference; and,

Whereas, willingness to serve as a delegate should be considered while electing General Conference delegates; and,

Whereas, an analogous process exists for the election of lay delegates from the Western North Carolina Conference; therefore, be it

Resolved, the Committee on Rules and Organization for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference shall provide a process for the 2023 election of clergy delegates to the 2024 General Conference that allows for clergy to self-nominate; and, be it further

Resolved, that such a process produce individual profiles with demographic and other information relevant to serving as a General Conference delegate to voting members of the annual conference for review at least 4-6 weeks prior to the meeting of the annual conference; and, be it further

Resolved, that such a process not disqualify from nomination or election any clergy in full connection who chose not to self-submit a nomination and profile, but who otherwise meet the requirements of eligibility laid out in The Book of Discipline.

Conference Action: Adopted Petition June 22, 2019

PETITION 20 Subject: The Jurisdictional Conference Plan
Submitted by: Jeremy Troxler, Spruce Pine UMC, Blue Ridge District
Text:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church is now truly a global body, with a significant percentage of its membership from countries outside the United States; and,

Whereas, the United Methodist central conferences in these global regions are currently granted the constitutional and disciplinary authority to make such changes and adaptations to The Book of Discipline as are necessary for more fruitful mission; and,

Whereas, jurisdictional conferences within the United States, although parallel bodies to global central conferences, are not currently granted the same constitutional and disciplinary authority to make such changes and adaptations to The Book of Discipline as are necessary for more fruitful mission; and,

Whereas, legislation passed by General Conference, and having been voted upon by delegates from the United States and delegates from outside the United States, will thus be applied differently to each; and,

Whereas, the current United Methodist Constitution and its Book of Discipline thus enshrines an unequal double standard for jurisdictional conferences in the United States and central conferences outside the United States, in which one part of the Church can adapt the Discipline, and other parts cannot; and,

Whereas, The United Methodist Church is experiencing the greatest growth in the central conferences where regional church bodies are granted the authority to adapt The Book of Discipline for the sake of more fruitful mission; and,

Whereas, the jurisdictional conferences in the United States, lacking such power for regional determination, are growing at a slower rate than those conferences which are granted the authority to adapt the Discipline to their context; and,

Whereas, the current profound divisions within The United Methodist Church over theology and scriptural interpretation often coincide with regional differences in geographic location both within and outside the United States; and,

Whereas, applying the same disciplinary language to jurisdictional conferences as to central conferences would foster greater equality among different regions of The United Methodist Church, establish a more uniform practice of connectionalism around the world, and lead to a more even application of General Conference legislation; and,

Whereas, applying the same disciplinary language to jurisdictional conferences as to central conferences might allow The United Methodist Church to remain one connection despite our theological and geographic and cultural differences, while also retaining our existing polity structure; and,

Whereas, adding the same disciplinary language for jurisdictional conferences as currently exists for central conferences would allow greater regional discernment or "binding and loosing" (Matthew 18) of The Book of Discipline, would invest greater trust and authority in more regional gatherings of living disciples of Christ and in the Holy Spirit rather than in abstract policies and distant legislation, and may thus allow the Church to better make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church petitions the General Conference meeting in the year 2020 to approve the following changes to the United Methodist Constitution and to the United Methodist Book of Discipline:

Part I: The Constitution

Division Two – Organization: § IV. Jurisdictional Conferences

¶ 27, Article V. The jurisdictional conferences shall have the following powers and duties and privileges, and such others as may be conferred by the General Conferences:

1. To promote the evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent interests of the Church and to provide for interests and institutions within their boundaries…

5. To make rules and regulations for the administration of the work of the Church within the jurisdiction, including such changes and adaptations of the General Discipline as the conditions in their respective areas may require, subject to such powers as have been or shall be vested in the General Conference."

Part II: General Book of Discipline

¶ 101. The General Book of Discipline reflects our Wesleyan way of serving Christ through doctrine and disciplined Christian life. We are a worldwide denomination united by doctrine, discipline, and mission through our connectional covenant. The General Book of Discipline expresses that unity. Each jurisdictional and central conference may make changes and adaptations to the General Book of Discipline to more fruitfully accomplish our mission in various contexts. However, some portions of the General Book of Discipline are not subject to adaptation. The following parts and paragraphs are not subject to change or adaptation except by action of the General Conference. The Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters has primary responsibility for proposing to General Conference revisions to this paragraph.

Parts I - V

I. Constitution ¶¶ 1-61

II. General Book of Discipline ¶ 101

III. Doctrinal Standards and Our Theological Task ¶¶ 102-105

IV. The Ministry of All Christians ¶¶ 120-143

V. Social Principles Preface, Preamble, and ¶¶ 160-166

The Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters, in consultation with the Committee on Faith and Order, will bring legislation to the 2020 General Conference to change the structure of the General Book of Discipline to include a Part IV, General Organization and Administration not subject to change or adaptation by central and jurisdictional conferences, and a Part VII, Additional Organization and Administration, adaptable by central and jurisdictional conferences according to ¶ 31.5. The content of Part VI of the 2016 Book of Discipline will be included in either part VI or Part VII of the General Book of Discipline. For the work on Part VI, Chapter 2 (The Ministry of the Ordained) and Chapter 3 (The Superintendency) of the 2016 Book of Discipline, the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters will work in consultation with the Commission for the Study of Ministry, and for Part VI, Chapter 5 (Administrative Order) of the 2016 Book of Discipline, the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters will work in consultation with the Connectional Table…"

Part VI: Organization and Administration

Chapter Four – The Conferences: § II. The Jurisdictional Conference

¶ 525. Powers and Duties of Jurisdictional Conference -

1. The jurisdictional conference shall have powers and duties as described in the Constitution. It shall also have such other powers and duties as may be conferred by the General Conference. It shall act in all respects in harmony with the policy of The United Methodist Church with respect to elimination of discrimination based upon race.

(Insert new # 2, #3, and #4 to ¶ 525 as follows, which represent the same language used in ¶¶ 543.7, 543.12, and 543.14 to enumerate the powers of central conferences:)

2. A jurisdictional conference shall have power to make such changes and adaptations of The Book of Discipline as the special conditions and mission of the Church in the area require, especially concerning the organization and administration of the work on local church, district, and annual conference levels, provided that no action shall be taken that is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The United Methodist Church, and provided that the spirit of connectional relationship is kept between the local and general church. Subject to this restriction, a jurisdictional conference may delegate to an annual conference within its boundaries the power to make one or the other of the changes and adaptations referred to in this paragraph, upon the request of such annual conference.

3. A jurisdictional conference shall have authority to adopt rules of procedure governing the investigation and trial of its clergy, including bishops, and lay members of the church and to provide the necessary means and methods of implementing the said rules; provided, however, that the ordained ministers shall not be deprived of the right of trial by a clergy committee, and lay members of the Church of the right of trial by a duly constituted committee of lay members; and provided also, that the rights of appeal shall be adequately safeguarded.

4. A jurisdictional conference shall have the power to conform the detailed rules, rites, and ceremonies for the solemnization of marriage to the statute laws of the country or countries within its jurisdiction.

PETITION 21 Subject: Remove Incompatibility Language
Submitted by: Green Street UMC (Winston-Salem), Yadkin Valley District
Text:

Whereas, ¶ 161G of the United Methodist Book of Discipline (2016) which states that the practice of homosexuality is "incompatible with Christian teaching" never refers to any specific Christian teaching that concludes such incompatibility; and,

Whereas, there is Christian teaching that concludes that the practice of homosexuality is not incompatible; and,

Whereas, since its adoption, the incompatibility statement found in ¶ 161G of the United Methodist Book of Discipline has been argued by biblical scholars and theologians as inaccurate and in conflict with what many Christian educators teach; and,

Whereas, the wording in ¶ 161G of the United Methodist Book of Discipline directly contradicts ¶ 162 of The Book of Discipline which states: "We affirm all persons as equally valuable in the sight of God. We therefore work toward societies in which each person's value is recognized, maintained, and strengthened." and,

Whereas, the incompatibility statement found in ¶ 161G of the United Methodist Book of Discipline has never fully represented all United Methodists and has been rejected by a growing number of United Methodists every year since its adoption; and,

Whereas, the incompatibility statement found in ¶ 161G of the United Methodist Book of Discipline has been the source of tremendous harm to countless people within The United Methodist Church and beyond; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference petition the 2020 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to remove the sentence found in ¶ 161G of The 2016 Book of Discipline that states: "The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching."

PETITION 22 SUBSTITUTION: Endorsing the Commitments of UMC Next and Supporting Full Inclusion of All People

Lynette Whitaker, laity, Winston Salem, NC
Carter Ellis, clergy, Greensboro, NC
Kasey Kelly, laity, Waynesville, NC
Darryl Dayson, clergy, Asheville, NC
Uiyeon Kim, clergy, Charlotte, NC
Joy Moss, clergy, Asheville, NC
Mary Brown, clergy, Andrews, NC
Keith Turman, clergy, Waynesville, NC
Josh Noblitt, clergy, Atlanta, GA.
Lory Beth Huffman, clergy, Boone, NC
Ashley Crowder Stanley, clergy, Asheville, NC

Text:

Whereas, more then 600 laity and clergy leaders from every Annual Conference in the United States met May 20-22, 2019 at the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas for an event entitled UMC Next. The event's purpose was to explore faithful responses to the Traditional Plan that was adopted by the 2019 special session of General Conference; and

Whereas, John Wesley's first rule for early Methodists was to do no harm and the enactment of the Traditional Plan continues and amplifies harm already done by the church to LBGTQIA+ United Methodists and their families; and

Whereas, in our baptismal vows we promise to "resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves."

Whereas, there was a clear consensus from those in attendance at the UMC Next event about the four commitments essential to the future of the United Methodist Church; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference (WNCC) formally aspires to the statement and four commitments of UMC Next:

"We believe these commitments are essential to a hope-filled future for the global Methodist movement as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world:"

1. We long to be passionate followers of Jesus Christ, committed to a Wesleyan vision of Christianity, anchored in scripture and informed by tradition, experience and reason as we live a life of personal piety and social holiness.
2. We commit to resist evil, injustice and oppression in all forms and toward all people and build a church which affirms the full participation of all ages, nations, races, classes, cultures, gender identities, sexual orientations, and abilities.
3. We reject the Traditional Plan approved at General Conference 2019 as inconsistent with the gospel of Jesus Christ and will resist its implementation.
4. We will work to eliminate discriminatory language and the restriction and penalties in The Book of Discipline regarding LGBTQ persons. We affirm the sacred worth of LGBTQ persons, celebrate their gifts, and commit to being in ministry together.

Be it further

Resolved, that we urge local United Methodist congregations of the Western North Carolina Conference to ensure that LGBTQIA+ persons are welcomed and included in the membership and leadership of the local churches, to encourage members of the local congregations to be inclusive of all people and to have an open dialogue about the actions of the 2019 General Conference, the Traditional Plan, and these four commitments.

Conference Action: Petition not considered by the body, because of adjournment

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

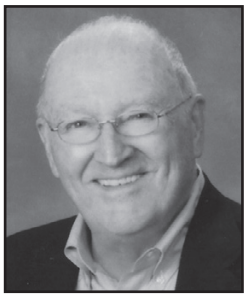
MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS RECOGNIZED AT THE 2019 SESSION



Douglas Roach Beard Jr.

June 12, 1932 – November 17, 2018

Douglas Roach Beard Jr. entered the Church triumphant on November 17, 2018, having lived his final days at a Methodist institution, Asbury Care Center at Aldersgate in Charlotte, the city where the majority of his stellar ministry as a Methodist pastor unfolded.

Doug was born in Wadesboro on June 12, 1932, to Douglas Roach Beard Sr. and Evelyn Lucy Nichols. After high school, he spent two years studying at Pfeiffer College before moving on to Duke University, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1955. He stayed on at Duke, a school he adored and supported all his life, for seminary, and he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1959. By that time, he had already been licensed to preach for eight years. He was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on September 23, 1956, ordained deacon that same year, and then ordained as an elder in 1961.

Faithfully and with great compassion, Doug pastored nine congregations before his retirement in 1994: Tuckaseegee Road (Charlotte), 1959-1963; Swannanoa, 1963-1967; New Hope (Winston-Salem), 1967-1970; Oak View (High Point), 1970-1974; Boone, 1974-1977; Myers Memorial (Gastonia), 1977-1981; Plaza (Charlotte), 1981-1986; Commonwealth (Charlotte), 1986-1991; and Cole Memorial (Charlotte), 1991-1994. After retirement, he was active at Davidson United Methodist Church and then at Belin United Methodist Church in Murrells Inlet, S.C., near his home in Pawleys Island.

Doug is survived by his wife, Doris, whom he married on June 6, 1981, and also by his brother, Nick Beard, and sister Sybil Tyler, along with his children, Victoria Beard, Evelyn Patrice Wiley, Billie Nichols Peterson, Kelly Bunn, and Steve Bunn; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren at the time of his death.

For many years, Doug led workshops and retreats for marriage enrichment. He knew a lot about relationships and love, and he guided many others into healthier and more sustainable lives. Valuing marriage so highly, he served as president of our conference's Brotherhood/Sisterhood for four years, and on its executive committee for 27 years. Early in ministry, he was involved in leadership with the conference's Scandinavian Caravan, and the Nordic countries held a special place in his heart. Doug was a fantastic, consistent encourager of many people, especially clergy. He saw the light shining in others, and he could name that light and foster a sense of self-confidence and joy in others.

A service of death and resurrection to remember and celebrate Doug's life and ministry was held on November 26, 2018, at Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte, conducted by Doug's longtime friend, the Rev. James Howell. Interment followed at Sharon Memorial Park Cemetery. Doug will always be remembered for his deep love for the Church, for Duke, for other clergy and friends, and for his family, and the mercy and delight he brought them.

Harold Wendell Brittain

April 2, 1931 – November 16, 2018

My cousin, Harold Wendell Brittain, was born in Buncombe County, N.C., on April 2, 1931 to the late Verona and Lula Cole Brittain. His parents were devoted followers of Jesus Christ who raised Wendell and his younger brother, Robert, in the Christian faith. (Both the sons became ordained clergy in The United Methodist Church, Bob in the Florida Conference). After graduation from Weaverville High School, Wendell served in the U.S. Army, 1954-1955. He was stationed in Germany, where he trained service dogs for the Army. He attended Asbury University and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in music in 1956. Heeding God's call into ordained ministry, he attended Candler School of Theology and graduated with a Master of Theology degree in 1961. He was ordained deacon that year and entered the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church as a full-connection elder in 1963.

Wendell knew from an early age that he was called to preach. As a child, he would play "church," he being the preacher, and Bob and another relative as the congregation. Once after Wendell preached, Bob came forward, weeping. At first, it was assumed that he was playing his part, but in reality he was moved by Wendell's preaching and gave his young life to Christ.

His service began as an associate minister at Trinity in Asheville, 1961-1964. From there, he pastored: Bethesda, 1964-1967; Leicester, 1967-1969; Grace-Dix Creek, 1969-1971; West Jefferson, 1971-1976; Montmorenci, 1976-1980; Roberta, 1980-1984; Pleasant Grove-Alexander (Forest City), 1984-1986; Morning Star, 1986-1993; Acton, 1993-1995; and West End (Thomasville), 1995-1996. He retired in 1996 but continued to serve as a pastor, first at Barnardsville, 1996-2002, then at Leicester, 2002-2008.

His love for preaching and ministry was infectious. He was instrumental in helping two young people make decisions to enter ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church. One was the Rev. Dr. Charles Teague, who served as a United Methodist minister and eventually became president of Brevard College.

In his later years, he attended Salem United Methodist Church in Weaverville, the church he attended as a child. He served there several years as Minister of Music, playing the piano for hymns, directing the vocal choir and handbell choir, and preaching occasionally. He sang in 35 productions of Handel's Messiah in Weaverville over many Christmas seasons. He was very talented musically, playing several instruments, writing hymns, arranging music, and singing in glee clubs and choirs. He made four compact discs of Christian music, one of them an album of Christmas songs, his favorite time of the year. Wendell and I often sat together at worship services during the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at Lake Junaluska. I loved to hear him sing. He would sing melody on the first verse, tenor on the second, alto on the third, and bass on the fourth.

He loved drama, acting in both his high school and college senior plays. As an adult, he also appeared in productions of The Ashe County Community Theater. He wrote several church plays for the churches he pastored. He was a gifted artist, particularly in oil painting. He wrote poetry, was an excellent cook, and loved the outdoors. He adored his family -- daughters Wendy Brittain Spainhour and Cara Brittain Furr; his brother, the Rev. Dr. Robert Brittain; his five grandchildren; and one great grandson.

As his health declined, he finally entered the VA hospital in Asheville, N.C. My wife, Becky, and I visited him to talk and pray. His last words to us were, "God bless you." He died on November 16, 2018. On November 27, I assisted his pastor, the Rev. Kent Smith, at the memorial service at Salem United Methodist Church. Burial was at the cemetery of Clark's Chapel United Methodist Church in Weaverville. He was a faithful servant of the Lord and will be greatly missed. But we have hope and assurance through Jesus Christ that we will see him again in the kingdom of heaven.

Tim B. Brittain

Jody Boone Campbell

August 4, 1961 – March 10, 2019

Jody Boone Campbell was born August 4, 1961, to the late Russell Franklin Campbell and Audrey Jean Campbell in Parkersburg, W.Va. Jody attended school in Parkersburg, graduating from Parkersburg High School in 1979. He was one of five children, and he faced many physical challenges from the start of his life because he was born three months premature. As a result of these challenges, Jody developed a strong compassion for others, especially those going through hardships.

After graduating high school, Jody held several jobs. He was a correction officer in Wood County, W.Va., for a time. Jody also worked as a counselor for an organization helping troubled youth. He became an alcoholic during his younger years. It was his childhood friend who encouraged Jody to attend Alcoholics Anonymous where he turned his life over to God and completed more than 30 years of sobriety. Jody was proud of his sobriety and helped others along the way to becoming sober as well.

He married his wife, Suellyn Rush Campbell, in 1989. After marrying, Jody and Suellyn moved to Statesville, N.C., where Jody met his mentor, the Rev. Dr. Abe Cox III. It was with Cox's guidance that Jody became a United Methodist pastor. Jody and Suellyn went to the Blackfeet Indian Reservation in Montana on a mission trip. They both felt such empathy with the Blackfeet Indians that they moved there in 2001 for Jody to serve as pastor at The BUMP Mission on the Blackfeet Indian Reservation. He continued his studies at Claremont School of Theology in Claremont, Calif., from 2004-2008 and the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., in 2011.

During their move back to North Carolina in 2009, Suellyn was involved in a car accident that eventually took her life. Jody went on to serve at Grace-Dix Creek (Leicester), 2009-2010. Other appointments were: Mitchell-Yancey, 2010-2013; New Hope (Rutherfordton), 2013-2016; Bethlehem-New Hope; July to November, 2016; and Lilesville (Forestville, Lilesville, Olivet), November 2016-2019. In early 2019, Jody's health forced him to retire. Jody served his life as he wanted -- preaching up to the week before he moved back home to West Virginia for his final two weeks.

A private celebration of Jody's life was held at his brother's home in West Virginia on March 16, the same day a memorial service was held at Lilesville United Methodist Church in Lilesville, N.C. As Jody requested, his body was cremated, and his ashes are being spread in the hills of West Virginia, in Montana, and at the beach. Jody leaves to those who knew him the example of faithfully following God, overcoming great hardships, and showing kindness to all.

Kelly Anthony Creekmur

July 16, 1951 – February 10, 2019

Kelly Anthony Creekmur was born July 16, 1951, to the late George H. and Barbara Toth Creekmur in New Brunswick, N.J. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. After his military service, he completed special studies and training in business and computers at Rutgers and Seton Hall universities as he pursued a career in the corporate world which led him to a position in executive management with Hayward Pool Corporation over a span of more than 20 years. After moving to North Carolina, he received the call to ministry and began his theological studies at Duke University.

He became a member of Hillsdale United Methodist Church in Advance, N.C., while completing studies at Duke. Creekmur was licensed as a local pastor in 2009. His first appointment as a minister was the South Davidson Charge from November 1, 2009 to June 30, 2015. In July 2015, he was appointed to Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Lenoir. Creekmur officially retired in 2017, though he continued to serve at Mt. Zion UMC. He planned to fully retire from ministry in June 2019. He passed away and continued his eternal life with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on February 10, 2019.

Creekmur was actively involved in local and global outreach and missions. One particular organization which he was extremely passionate about serving was Samaritan's Feet. The organization's mission is buying shoes for children around the world who have never owned or been able to afford shoes. He completed a mission trip to South Africa with Samaritan's Feet where he humbly expressed the love of Jesus by placing shoes on the feet of children.

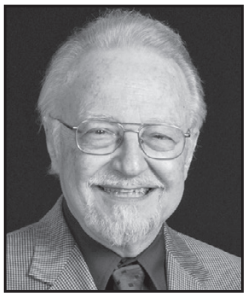
Pastor Kelly, more lovingly known as "PK" to the youth of Mt. Zion, met Diane Vines Scott during his appointment in Lenoir. They were married on March 11, 2017. He is survived by his wife and sons, Scott Kelly Creekmur and wife Amanda Jo of Minnesota, Ryan William Creekmur and Mindy of Advance, and Jonathan George Creekmur and wife Samantha of Roanoke, Va. Grandchildren include Kaleb, Isabella, and Mason. His sisters are Susan May Riemschneider and husband Peter of Toms River, N.J., and Lynne Paula Reid and husband William of Jackson, N.J. He is also survived by two nieces and their husbands, three nephews and their wives, four great-nephews, and four great-nieces. When he wasn't with his family, he was with his "church family." He opened hearts and minds to the love of Jesus, led spirited discussions in weekly Bible studies, and danced and sang praises with the youth during vacation Bible school. He loved each and every one of the children as if they were his own, sharing stories of their sports and school accomplishments like a proud grandparent.

A celebration of Creekmur's life was held on Saturday, February 16, 2019, in the Chapel of Evans Funeral and Crematory Service with the Revs. Allen Boliek, Sandy Young, and Benny Clodfelter presiding over the service.

Kelly Bryant



Robert Vess Dodd

November 12, 1945 – June 1, 2018

Robert Vess Dodd was born on November 12, 1945, in Shelby, N.C., to the late Waudell Barnett and Alice Opal Vess Dodd. He had one sister, the late Rebecca Dodd McClure.

Dodd's mother died when he was 12, and he made his first profession of faith on her grave at the time. His aunt, Zella Vess Smith, who had raised his mother from age 12 after her own parents' deaths, stepped in to provide maternal care. At age 17, he felt the call to become a minister, and in 1966, at age 21, he was licensed to preach.

Dodd began his college studies at Gardner-Webb University and graduated from High Point College in 1968. After studying at Candler School of Theology, he received a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1971. He was ordained as a deacon and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1969. In 1972, he was ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection.

Dodd was a pastor for 31 years, serving nine churches before multiple health issues too soon curtailed his active ministry. Even then, he continued to teach Sunday school at the Western North Carolina Annual Conference – a ministry he would continue for 21 years. In addition, he wrote the Sunday school column in the Christian Advocate, taught Sunday school classes at Hawthorne Lane United Methodist Church, preached on occasion, and published regularly through the Methodist Publishing House.

His service record is as follows: Cashiers, 1971-1973; Littlejohn-Gamewell, 1973-1977; Gibsonville, 1977-1983; Stanley, 1983-1987; Hawthorne Lane, 1987-1993; Centenary (Greensboro), 1993-1994; incapacity leave, 1994-1995; Trinity (Kannapolis), 1995-1998; Park Street (Belmont), 1998-2002; and incapacity leave, 2002-2011. He retired in 2011.

Dodd was a gifted preacher and teacher, and a beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend, as well as a prolific writer. His name and wisdom appeared regularly and in multiple publications: The North Carolina Christian Advocate, Circuit Rider, Family Bible Studies, Daily Bible Studies, Adult Bible Studies and Mature Years, The Sanctuary for Lent, The Advent Calendar of Devotions, and the Upper Room Disciplines.

In addition to lessons and devotionals, Dodd published books and booklets. Among his many titles were: Helping Children Cope with Death (for which he won the Angel Award of Excellence at the eighth Annual Religion in Media Conference, 1985), Faith is for Sharing, The Work of the Holy Spirit, Speck of Sawdust in My Eye: Loving Your Enemies, Your Church's Ministry of Prayer, Praying the Name of Jesus, When Someone You Love Dies: An Explanation of Death for Children, Out of the Depths: A Christian Understanding of Grief, When They All Go Home: What To Do After the Funeral, and When You Are Terminally Ill: Preparing to Face Death.

Dodd wrote as he talked, in an easy-to-understand way that linked Biblical scholarship and everyday life. He responded to hundreds of e-mails and letters from his readers, answering their questions and respecting their points of view. When he left us, hundreds of unpublished and unfinished manuscripts remained behind, including You Can Talk to God, a book for children.

If Dodd was an accomplished writer, he was a more accomplished, avid, and proactive "pray-er." He kept a prayer list of hundreds of people – and managed it by assigning people to different days of the week. He believed in the power of prayer, and he often followed up with the persons for whom he prayed. His e-mail address was "Prayingfriend."

In his active ministry, he was always interested in the people he served, their contexts, and circumstances. And he was always on the lookout for ways to minister beyond the walls of the church. In 1999, while serving at Park Street in Belmont, he facilitated the sponsorship of three Kosovo refugee families through the Belmont Ministerial Association – and in the process became a life-long father figure and mentor to a family of five teenagers and young adults, who continue to call him Dad. At a time when the world was caving in to xenophobic fears, Dodd chose active love and acceptance.

Even as he weakened physically, he continued to smile, to pray, to write "out of the depths." One of his sons asked him, "How do you do it, Dad?" And he responded, "Through the power and the glory of Christ, son. Through the power and glory of Christ."

A service to celebrate the power and glory of Christ, and to honor Dodd's life and ministry, was held on June 9, 2018, with the Rev. Dr. Tom Steagald, the Rev. Noel Sweezy, and the Rev. Carrie Wright presiding.

It is easy, now, to imagine that Bob remains our "praying friend," and even more beautifully and powerfully than ever before, now that he is fully in the presence of his Praying Friend – who is Jesus, of course. And as he wrote in his poem "The Lost Road" while a senior in high school, "I've hewn a lane through the universe, Up to the home of God."

Dodd married Ann Armstrong Dodd on August 7, 1971. She and their sons, Aaron and Justin, and his wife, Katie, survive him, as do his "honorary children and grandchildren" -- Luma Osmani and her husband, Arsim Marke; Drita Osmani, Burim and Nimete Osmani, Aferdita and Bujar Rama, Sara Osmani; Dior and Donick Rama, Ari Osmani; and his three nieces, Wanda McClure Granger and her husband, Richard, Debra McClure Heise and her husband, Joe, and Robyn McClure Hoppe and her husband Allan, and their families.

William Richard Doser

September 29, 1931 – November 25, 2018

Bill Doser was born September 29, 1931, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late William Earl Doser and Mollie Buxton Doser. He died on Sunday, November 25, 2018, at age 87 at Aldersgate Retirement Community in Charlotte. He and his wife, Mabel Sigmon Doser, formerly resided in Lincolnton.

Bill was first licensed to preach in 1951. In 1955, Bill received his bachelor's degree from Baldwin Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, and then graduated from Duke University's Divinity School. He married Mabel Ethel Sigmon on May 14, 1960.

Bill's service record in WNCC began in 1958 at Salem in Gastonia. Other appointments were: New-Field-Salem, 1959-1960; St. Marks (Belmont), 1960-1961; Clover Hill, 1961-1964; Providence-Bethel, 1964-1968; Central (Concord) Associate, 1968-1969; Memorial-Sutton Park, 1969-1972; Lilesville, 1972-1976; Advance-Mocks, 1976-1977; and sabbatical leave, 1977-1978. He retired in 1979. In retirement, he served as an associate pastor at First (Lincolnton), 1979-1985. He attended several churches after retirement including First in Lincolnton, where he and Mabel purchased their last home.

Bill was a highly skilled craftsman of fine liturgical garb and paraments. He created Doser Designs, making beautiful stoles and chasubles. He did fine cross stitch and needlepoint, making altar clothes and pew cushions and various paraments. Bill published two books, Clergy Stoles for Needlepoint or Cross Stitch and Church Paraments in Needlepoint. Some of his fine work can be seen at First UMC in Lincolnton.

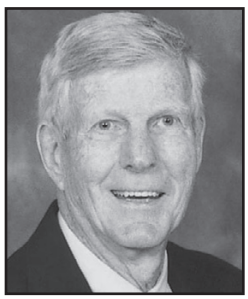
Bill was proudly and faithfully a member of the Order of Saint Luke. He highly valued the church liturgy and the spiritual discipline of prayer, devotion, and the sacrament of Holy Communion. He was eager to meet in fellowship and fondly loved to discuss issues of worship.

He was loved by neighbors and friends and former members. His wife, Mabel Sigmon, passed away on November 30, 2015, in Lincolnton. After her death, he lived at Aldersgate, where his life was abundant and fulfilling to him. Bill and Mabel had no children, but they are survived by many cousins and numerous nieces and nephews.

Bill died on Sunday, November 25, 2018. A graveside service was held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, November 29, 2018, at Hollybrook Cemetery in Lincolnton with the Rev. David Wyant officiating. A memorial service was held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, December 4, 2018, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Charlotte.

Well done, good and faithful servant.

David A. Wyant



Joe Lane Ervin

September 18, 1929 – August 29, 2018

Joe Lane Ervin was born September 18, 1929, in a Methodist parsonage to devout parents when his father was a circuit preacher in Buncombe County. His mother was one of the first female directors of education in The Methodist Church. He graduated from High Point College in 1950 and Duke Divinity School in 1954. He served a three-church charge in Rockingham County while completing divinity school. His next three appointments, covering a span of 28 years, included Mt. Pleasant (Greensboro), 1955-1962; Spruce Pine, 1962-1967; and Boger City (Lincolnton), 1967-1983. He was instrumental in building new facilities at each of these churches.

While serving in Lincolnton, Ervin became very active in overseas missions through work with UMCOR. He was involved in 46 projects in eight countries, building churches, schools, and medical facilities and shepherding the men who accompanied him to grow in their faith and compassion. One of his favorite stories involved a bridge. He was first to arrive to make sure everything was in place for his team of brick masons and carpenters who were coming to Roatan Island in Honduras. He immediately found that the building site was not level. Ervin discovered that there was a bulldozer on the island, but it required crossing a rickety, old bridge. Speaking through a young translator, Ervin approached the bulldozer operator by saying, "I've always wanted to build a bridge!" He explained he had come to build a church and a school, but without the help of a bulldozer, his men could not do their work. He promised if the bulldozer did not make it across the bridge, he would build the finest bridge ever. If the bulldozer made it across the bridge, the community would have the finest church and school to be had! The bulldozer operator told Ervin and his men to meet him at the bridge at 6 o'clock the next morning. It was already dark, but Ervin and other volunteers spent the night shoring the bridge with timbers they pulled from wreckage caused by a hurricane. Lucky for Ervin and his crew, the bulldozer made it across the bridge and then back across after the ground was leveled. When the bulldozer crossed, he heard about 50 people behind him who had gathered to watch the bulldozer fall in the body of water.

In 1984, Ervin was asked to create a new position, Conference Director of Extension Services, Ethnic Ministry in Rural Churches. Ervin seemed to have a special gift for bringing people together for a common cause and was able to call on volunteers to use their talents to complete the building project. In doing so, many volunteers discovered that their character and faith were also "built up" in the process.

Ervin formally retired in 1996, but he never stopped working. He was passionate about the mission of Hinton Rural Life, and he is credited with more than doubling the facilities from the first cabin he built in 1987. In 2013, he was honored to have the Joe L. Ervin Retreat Center named after him. Ervin and his volunteers built this retreat.

In 2015 at age 85, Ervin received a prestigious honor, The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, in recognition of his exemplary service and exceptional contributions to his community.

In 2007, Ervin returned to Lincolnton to live, where he was serving as pastor emeritus at his beloved Boger City UMC. He was surrounded by a community of dear friends who fondly called him "Preacher." Ervin was a humble man, well known for his sense of humor, love for Duke University basketball, and his passion for serving God in any capacity. He died at his home on August 29, 2018. Funeral services were held at Boger City UMC on September 1, 2018, with private burial to be held September 2019 at The Columbarium at Boger City UMC.

James Walter Ferree Sr.

June 14, 1927 – March 26, 2019

The Rev. Dr. James Walter Ferree Sr. was a "drum major" for racial justice and equity in The United Methodist Church. Having survived the era of "Jim Crow" and segregation in all areas of our society, including The Methodist Church, he worked diligently to ensure that all Christians would have equal opportunities to worship, fellowship, and serve God in all capacities of church life.

Rev. Ferree was born in Randleman, N.C., on June 14, 1927, to the late Jesse Walter and Gertrude Glover Ferree. He was nurtured in the Lord and a member of Ferree's Chapel Methodist Church. He attended grade school in Randleman and graduated from Central High School in Asheboro, N.C. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Livingstone College in Salisbury, N.C., and a Master of Divinity degree from Hood Theological Seminary, also in Salisbury. Further study was done at Union Seminary in Richmond, Va. In 1987, High Point College conferred upon him an honorary Doctorate.

In 1945, he was licensed to preach. He was ordained as a deacon in 1949 and ordained as an elder in 1955. He was admitted on trial in 1950 and admitted to full connection in 1954 in the North Carolina Conference of the Central Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church. He was a member of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the Central Jurisdiction, 1964-1968, and became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference in the 1968 merger that created The United Methodist Church. The Rev. Ferree served the following appointments: Statesville-Philadelphia, 1949-1955; Maxton-Beauty Spot, 1955-1957; Lumberton-Beauty Spot, 1957-1959; Lumberton, 1959-1963; St. Andrews-Walnut Cove (Winston-Salem), 1963-1965; Eastern District superintendent, 1965-1968; Union Memorial-Celia Phelps (Greensboro), 1968-1969; associate program director of the Conference Council on Ministries, 1969-1974; St. Matthews (Greensboro), 1974-1979; district superintendent (Gastonia District), 1979-1984; director of Conference Council on Ministries, 1984-1988; and district superintendent (Winston-Salem District), 1988-1995. Rev. Ferree retired from active ministry in 1995. In retirement, he served as pastor at Simpson-Gillespie (Charlotte), 1999-2000, and also as director of Ethnic Church Development for the Western North Carolina Conference, 1997-1998. He served as a member of the General Board of Church and Society, the Lake Junaluska Board of Trustees, and the Pfeiffer College Board of Trustees. He has also served as president of the Western North Carolina Caucus of Black Methodists for Church Renewal. He has also served on the Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community Board of Directors for 20 years. While on the board, he was chairman of the Admissions Committee. In February 2012, the board at Arbor Acres named one of the wings in the newest assisted living facility, Asbury Place, the Rev. Dr. James W. Ferree Wing.

After serving The Methodist Church for 46 years, he moved into full retirement. Rev. Ferree's long and distinguished career has included a deep commitment and involvement in the cause of Christian unity, social justice, and peace. He gave generously of his time and talents to the North Carolina Council of Churches, serving as president, treasurer, and chairperson of the Finance Committee. Rev. Ferree served the wider community as: chairman of Leaders for Reconciliation of Winston-Salem, N.C.; member of the Board of Directors for the Downtown Church Center in Winston-Salem, N.C.; member of the Board of Directors for the Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina; volunteer for Senior Services Meal on Wheels; and chaplain at Forsyth Hospital.

He received numerous honors and awards during his impressive career including: The Bishop James Walker Hood Donor Recognition, awarded by Hood Theological Seminary, 2012; the Human Rights Award from Church Women United for Leadership, 2013; 2018 HBCU Living Legends Award; and the Hood Theological Seminary National Alumni Award, 2018. He was a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., and was named "Man of the Year" by the Charlotte and Winston-Salem chapters. In 2013, he received the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Pan-Hellenic Community Service Award in appreciation for his commitment, dedication, and loyal service to Phi Beta Sigma.

Rev. Ferree transitioned from this life to glory on March 26, 2019, at Arbor Acres. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Nancy Moore Ferree, who died in 1992, and by his second wife, Doris Humphrey Davenport Ferree, who died in 2017. He is survived by son James W. Ferree Jr., daughter Jaffee Ferree White (Dr. Darrell K. White), stepdaughter Kimberly Jackson, four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Rev. Ferree has reached that ultimate kingdom of God in which there is no form of segregation or injustice. He is now part of that great assembly in which all of God's children are worshipping God together in the spirit of unity.

Elizabeth Lorraine Graves

April 27, 1960 – November 27, 2018

After a long and valiant fight against ovarian cancer, the Rev. Elizabeth Lorraine Graves claimed the promise of Resurrection on November 27, 2018 at her beloved home in Lake Junaluska, N.C., after a 16-month battle with ovarian cancer. Graves was born on April 27, 1960 to the late Lowell G. Graves and Mary Elizabeth Lamb Graves in Colorado Springs, Colo. Her family moved frequently due to the employment opportunities of her father. This rhythm of family life would prepare her for the itinerant ministry later in life and life in a parsonage. Graves earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Birmingham-Southern College in 1982. She graduated with Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School at Duke University in 1986.

While in seminary, she met the love of her life, James McCoy Armstrong Jr. He pursued her, and she fell in love at the same time she was accepting her call to ordained ministry. They were married on December 28, 1985. They enjoyed a strong, loving relationship in marriage for 33 years until her death parted them. Their life together included the birth of their two children, always a source of great joy and pride. They are Matthew (Matt) Graves Armstrong and Margarethe Elizabeth (Maggie) Graves Armstrong.

Graves had the distinction of having a mother and grandmother who were both pastors. She chose The United Methodist Church as her ecclesial home, and throughout her ministry, she served in the Western North Carolina Conference. Her ministry included serving with her husband and as pastor in charge in her appointments. She was licensed to preach in 1986. She was ordained as a deacon in 1987 and ordained as an elder and received into full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1989. Her appointments included: Broad Street Associate (Statesville), 1986-1989; Myrtle-Bethea (Gastonia), 1989-1992; Myrtle-Southwest (Gastonia), 1992-1993; Whittier, 1993-1996; Hawthorne Lane Associate (Charlotte), 1996-2003; Centenary Associate (Greensboro), 2003-2008; Littlejohn, 2008-2011; Highlands (Hickory), 2011-2015; Burkhead (Winston-Salem), 2015-2017; and Epworth (Concord), 2017-2018. After 32 years of faithful service, Graves was granted medical leave on March 1, 2018 to continue treatments for her cancer.

Graves loved being a Pastor. She was exceptionally gifted in preaching, Bible study, and pastoral care. She took seriously her path as part of the "First Wave" of clergywomen to be ordained in The United Methodist Church. She encouraged and mentored her sister clergy who served alongside her and followed after her. One of her most fulfilling leadership responsibilities was to serve as a member of the Board of Ordained Ministry, where she listened, guided, and encouraged other women and men to embrace their own callings and to serve with authenticity and integrity.

At her death, Graves was surrounded by a family who will love her forever, and the prayers and hearts of friends she collected in this life. A Celebration of Life service was held at Hawthorne Lane United Methodist Church in Charlotte on December 8, 2018. Bishop Charlene P. Kammerer officiated the service. A reception was hosted by the family in Evans Hall, where women clergy wore red shoes to honor and celebrate the life of their beloved sister in ministry. Graves' ashes were interred in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska on December 9, 2018.

Rest in Peace, dear Elizabeth. Her good deeds and fiercely loving spirit will live on forever.

Ellen West Sears Harkey

December 13, 1944 – November 25, 2018

The Rev. Ellen S. Harkey slipped into the arms of God at her home in Salisbury, N.C., on November 25, 2018.

Born December 13, 1944 in Portsmouth, Va., she was the daughter of the late Charlie L. Sears and Thelma Leonard Sears. She and her brother, Dan, grew up in various children's homes, where her parents served as house parents. Her elementary years were spent at Grandfather Mountain Children's Home. The family moved to Rowan County where Harkey's parents served at the Nazareth Children's Home. These formative years in children's homes may be where she learned to embrace all people with a sense of humor and warmth.

Harkey graduated from East Rowan High School and King's College. She married Charlie "Luther" Harkey on September 20, 1964. They were blessed with two children, Jeffrey Charles and Elizabeth Ann. The joy in her life became her grandchildren, Ashley and Syndy Harkey and Charlie and Will Klingler, and her great-grandchildren, Ariana and Xander McCrary.

Harkey's life was lived with exuberance. She brought excitement and enthusiasm to any job she was doing, from being a loan officer in a bank to being the administrative assistant for the Rev. Dr. Orion Hutchingson, district superintendent of the Salisbury District. Her call to ministry began as a dedicated officer of United Methodist Women at The Arbor United Methodist Church (formerly Gay's Chapel) in Woodleaf, N.C. It was in UMW that she excelled in leadership by serving as president of the Salisbury District. Under the wise mentorship of Hutchingson, she answered the call to ordained ministry.

Harkey entered Pfeiffer College, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1993. As a local pastor, she served Gold Hill-Bethlehem, 1989-1993. She served Central (Asheboro) as an associate while attending Duke Divinity School at Duke University from 1993 until 1997. She received her Master of Divinity degree from Duke in 1997. Harkey was ordained as a deacon in 1996 and as an elder in 2000. She faithfully served the following churches: Spring Hill (High Point), 1997-2000; Rockwell, 2000-2004; Oak Grove-Palm Tree (Lincolnton), 2004-2006; and Pisgah (Winston-Salem), 2006-2008. Harkey was placed on incapacity leave in 2008 until her retirement in 2013.

While on leave, Harkey's health declined. She slipped into the mysterious realm of dementia. Although her memory dimmed, she held on to a contagious smile that could melt a heart and a glimmer of fun that bubbled from within her spirit. Harkey's friends and family remember her joy for living life to the fullest. One can imagine her dancing with abandon before the God she served just as King David danced when he brought the Ark of God to Jerusalem.

A memorial service was held at Rockwell UMC on November 28, 2018 with the Rev. Charlie Curtis officiating. Harkey's spirit of overflowing love was a gift of grace to all who knew her.

April 18, 1944 – March 24, 2019

Samuel R. Hinton was born on April 18, 1944, in Rowan County, Ky., to the late Rev. Ivan L. Hinton and Letha McKee Hinton. He was a 1962 graduate of Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va. He pastored his first church in Vinton, Va., when he was only 19 years old. He entered the U.S. Air Force in 1966, and his first duty station was in Homestead, Fla. He then served in Vietnam, Korea, Japan, and Warner Robins, Ga.

While in Homestead, he met and married his wife, Gail L. Jerman Hinton, on October 1, 1966. They were the parents of two sons, Samuel Ray Hinton Jr. and Stephen Randall Hinton.

Samuel continued his education after getting out of the Air Force in 1970. He graduated from Warner Southern College in Lake Wales, Fla., in June 1977 with a bachelor's degree in pastoral ministries and sociology, with a minor in psychology. He continued his education while pastoring a church in Rimersburg, Pa., receiving a master's degree in communication from Clarion University of Pennsylvania in 1982. After being licensed to preach by the Western North Carolina Conference in 1993, he completed the Course of Study at Duke University.

Prior to serving The United Methodist Church, he served Church of God congregations in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, and North Carolina. He also taught at Mid America Bible College in Oklahoma City, Okla., and the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Miss.

While serving in the Western North Carolina Conference, Samuel served in these appointments: Bethany (Franklinville), 1993-1999; Stoneville, 1999-2000; and First (Liberty) and Liberty Grove, 2000-2001. He was ordained as a deacon in 1999. He took a leave of absence in 2001 and later retired in 2006 due to health reasons.

Memorial services were held in Lake Wales, Fla., on March 26, 2019, at the South Lake Wales Church of God and in Summerfield, N.C., on March 30, 2019, at Liberty Wesleyan Church. Interment was in the Liberty Wesleyan Church cemetery.

Richard Bailey Jarrett

May 17, 1933 – March 29, 2019

Richard "Dick" Bailey Jarrett was born May 17, 1933, to Pauline Julia (Bailey) Jarrett and Larry Jarrett in Beckley, W.Va. An only child, Dick spent a great deal of time working with his beloved grandfather on his plant farm. This activity led him to have a deep love and respect for the outdoors, plants, and animals.

Dick graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School, where he was the quarterback of the football team. While he was there, he also met and began dating Barbara (Bobbie) Palmer, who was the homecoming queen -- Miss Flying Eagle. Dick and Bobbie married in 1954. Upon graduation, Dick enrolled at Marshall University and considered becoming a forest ranger. At this time, however, he sensed a call to ministry. Answering the call, Dick began serving in a local church and received his preaching license in 1952.

Upon graduation from Marshall in 1955, Dick enrolled at Duke University's Divinity School. While at Duke, Dick served several student appointments, and he and Bobbie celebrated the birth of their first daughter, Robin. Dick was slated to become a military chaplain, but upon graduation from Duke in 1958, he decided to return home to the West Virginia Conference. There he served two churches. One was in Clarksburg and the other was in Durbin, where Dick said, "they needed a teacher more than a preacher." As a result, Dick and Bobbie, along with their friends, a Mennonite physician and his wife, organized a kindergarten where they believed children's lives could be transformed by receiving a good education. During this time, Dick and Bobbie also welcomed their daughter, Cindy, into their lives.

In 1961, with the help of Bishop Lackey, Dick returned to North Carolina. He became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference and began his service at Oak Hill Methodist Church in Asheville. While there, Dick and Bobbie's "best loved son," Dru Richard, was born. Over the next 36 years Dick served the following full-time appointments: Oak Hill, 1961-1965; Moore's Chapel, 1965-1969; Concord-Sharon, 1969-1974; First (Liberty), 1974-1979; Mount Olivet, 1979-1983; Pleasant Garden, 1983-1986; Madison, 1986-1993; and First (North Wilkesboro), 1993-1997. His service spanned more than 45 years in ministry.

Through the years, Dick was known as a dedicated, caring, responsive pastor and a great preacher. He was also known as a social activist and champion of inclusion who often took unpopular and brave stands around issues of civil rights and education. As his daughter, Robin, said, "From the pulpit my father preached a message of peace and grace, a message that assured people that the church universal and The United Methodist Church in particular, spread an open table for communion where 'all' really does mean 'no exceptions'."

After retirement, Dick served as a part-time associate pastor at Grace UMC in Greensboro. There, he was an excellent mentor and friend to the Rev. Morris Brown, reminding him that to remain effective in ministry he must make solitude and silence part of his daily rhythm, be a life-long learner, and encourage his congregations to see all people (especially those on the margins) as beloved children of God.

In addition to playing golf, Dick loved spending time at "Manna" – his house in the foothills where he kept bees, gardened, did amazing carpentry work, and enjoyed the beauty of God's creation. He loved Duke basketball. He loved his wife, Bobbie, his children, grandchildren and great-granddaughter, Palmer. Most of all, however, Dick loved the Lord.

After a short time at Friends Home Guilford, Dick Jarrett quietly passed from this life to the next where he was greeted by the Lord, his beloved son, Dru, and all the saints who have gone before him.

Jackie Robinson, who broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball, said, "The importance of a person's life is measured not by its length, but by the positive impact it has on others." Dick Jarrett's life was incredibly important. It was important because it had a positive impact on thousands of lives for more than 85 years!

Ralph Earl "Jack" Kayler

June 2, 1927 – October 22, 2018

On June 2, 1927, twin boys were born prematurely in New Orleans, La. One died after three days. As the mother was trying to nurse the surviving twin to health, his older brother got an idea. Not knowing the baby's name, he blurted out, "Give 'Jack' a cookie!" Ever since then, Ralph Kayler has been known to everyone as "Jack."

Jack was the middle of nine children (eight boys, one girl) born to Nevette and Nona (Allen) Kayler. Of these, only his sister, Jane, survives him. When Jack was 8 years old, the family moved back to Gastonia where they became active in West End Methodist Church (now Covenant United Methodist Church). The Kaylers lived beside the church and their house became a popular gathering place for the youth. It was at West End where Jack felt the presence of God in sermons, youth meetings, and revival services. It was at West End where he stood up one Sunday evening in 1947 and announced, "If I continue to feel like I do tonight, I will study for the Methodist ministry."

It was also at West End where Jack met his wife of 65 years, Claudette Stacy Taylor. They married on December 31, 1953, and were blessed with three children – Claude Jackson, George Dayton, and Jacqueline Kayler Debrew. To these children and their spouses, Lorie, Mary Katherine, and Clint, were born Jack and Claudette's six grandchildren.

Jack graduated from Brevard College in 1949 with an associate's degree and Duke University in 1952 with a bachelor's degree. In 1955, he graduated from Duke Divinity School, where he earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree. Licensed to preach in 1948, Jack was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1952, ordained as a deacon in 1953, granted full conference membership in 1954, and ordained as an elder in 1955. His appointments include: Lowell, West End, Polkville, and Park Street (Belmont), 1950-1953; Student, 1952-1954; Level Cross, 1954-1956; Student, 1956-1957; Stokesburg-Pine Hall, 1957-1961; Mills River, 1961-1963; Cokesbury (Charlotte), 1963-1967; Ward Street (High Point), 1967-1970; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 1970-1972; First (Norwood), 1972-1976; St. John's (Greensboro), 1976-1983; Boger City (Lincolnton), 1983-1987; and St. James (Charlotte), 1987-1993. Although Jack officially retired from appointment in 1993, he continued to serve as interim pastor of Bradley Memorial, 1995; as minister of visitation at First (Stanley), 1996-2000; as minister of visitation at First (Gastonia), 2000-2005; as interim pastor of First (Stanley), 2005; and as minister of visitation at Guilford College, 2005-2008.

Passionate about missions, Jack traveled to Chile, Haiti, Puerto Rico, and Cambodia. He and Claudette led the 1981 Scandinavian Caravan and then returned to Scandinavia in 1985. On this trip, Jack had the adventure of preaching behind the Iron Curtain in Estonia, part of the former Soviet Union. In 1992, Jack and Claudette had another overseas adventure as they participated in a six-week pulpit exchange with a British Methodist pastor in Wallasey, England.

Passionate about making a difference, Jack was an award-winning leader in Rotary International, serving as president of the Denver-Lake Norman chapter. Passionate about surviving cancer, he was president of the Lincoln County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and a top fundraiser for the East Lincoln Relay for Life.

Passionate about marriage, Jack became a certified marriage and family therapist and a leader in the marriage enrichment movement. Passionate about Duke basketball, he was a member of the Iron Dukes and traveled with the Blue Devils to Alaska and Hawaii. His photo of Mike Krzyzewski is signed, "To Jack, my biggest supporter."

Jack was involved in one church building program (St. John's), but primarily he invested in building relationships and changing lives. At least eight young men and women followed him into full-time Christian service. He was a caring pastor with an amazing ability to remember people's names, family members, and pastoral concerns. Even in his later years when he was confined to the home, he continued to provide pastoral care over the phone.

Known for his quick wit and his lively sense of humor, Jack brought joy to people by making them laugh. It wasn't just about being funny. It was about being warm, friendly, and approachable, and setting people at ease.

In 2012, he wrote a book, titled Jack Kayler: A Nobody Who Became Somebody. The publisher did not like this title, arguing that in God's eyes everybody is "somebody." Jack persisted, however, pointing out that while it is true that everyone is someone, "[t]he gift of being somebody is like a gift under the Christmas tree. You have to unwrap it before you can use it, enjoy it, and benefit from it." Perhaps this is the theme of Jack's entire ministry. Through powerful sermons, creative programs, sensitive pastoral care, and impactful missions, his goal all along was to help "nobodies" open the gift of being "Somebody" in Jesus Christ.

Jack died peacefully at his home in Greensboro on October 22, 2018. He was 91 years old. At his memorial service on November 3, four current pastors bore witness to how God had used him to make them who they are today. A fifth pastor, his son, Claude, shared Jack's last-ever sermon. It was a sermon Jack had preached in 2012, sitting in a wheelchair with Claudette turning the pages. In this sermon, Jack tells story after story of key moments in his life when God touched him in a powerful way. The title of the sermon: "He Touched Me."

It was a fitting tribute. Not many people get to preach their own funeral! But more importantly, it was a reminder of the hundreds, maybe thousands of lives who were touched by God through the life and ministry of Jack Kayler.

Theodore Abraham Kirk

October 24, 1931 – April 2, 2019

Theodore "Ted" Abraham Kirk was born October 24, 1931, to the late George Thomas Kirk and Belva Roudebush in Meadville, Pa. Ted received his high school diploma in 1949 in Townville, Pa., with honors in the Future Farmers of America Organization. He declined to accept a scholarship gained on agricultural merit due to uncertainty of a career path. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in January 1950, was based in Wichita, Texas, and completed a mechanic and technical instructor course. On May 5, 1952, while studying aircraft propeller mechanics in Champaign-Urbana, Ill., he became a Christian. Upon leaving the Air Force in 1954, he served as an apprentice tool and die maker with Talon, Inc. in Meadville, Pa. During this time, he received a lay speaker license. Ted also served as a patrolman for the Meadville Police Department and acted as a deck hand for the U.S. Steel Pittsburgh Steamship Co.

Ted was married to his first wife, Kathryn Ann Sanford, on August 19, 1960 until her death on July 22, 2001. Ted received the call to preach in 1956, but he did not pursue that call until June 22, 1972. After almost 12 years of marriage and with four children – daughters Kristie Rachel (Whitside) and Lori Ann (Scander) and sons Jeffrey Brian and Keith Theodore – he enrolled at Wofford College to pursue ministry. Ted received his bachelor's degree in 1974 and his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University's Divinity School in 1978.

Preacher Ted served in these appointments: Seagrove, 1975-1978; Arcadia, 1978-1980; Pleasant Grove and Alexander (Forest City), 1980-1984; Morning Star (Canton), 1984-1986; Oakley (Asheville), 1986-1990; Westview (Hickory), 1990-December 31, 1991; and St. Matthews (Morganton), January 1, 1992-1995. He retired in 1995.

Upon retirement, Ted resided at the Givens Estate Community in Asheville, N.C., and continued his ministry to the greater Asheville community. During his time at Givens Estate, he met his second wife, Ruth Elizabeth DePuyt Durrant, and they were married on December 23, 2001. The two enjoyed many years of national and international travel. Ruth passed away February 7, 2019, a few months before Ted, who passed away April 2, 2019, due to Parkinson's disease. He is buried with his first wife, Kathryn, in Meadville, Pa.

Luther Harold "Bud" Lawing Jr.

February 18, 1934 – April 9, 2019

Luther Harold "Bud" Lawing Jr. was born on February 18, 1934, to the late L.H. Lawing Sr. and Mildred Gribble Lawing in Charlotte, N.C. He graduated from Central High School in Charlotte in 1952 and went on to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, completing his undergraduate degree in 1956. In the summer of 1954, Lawing worked as a camp counselor at Camp Gay Valley (now Gwynn Valley) in Transylvania County. There, he met another camp counselor, Billie Sue West, of Griffin, Ga., who would become his future wife. They were married on August 24, 1957; they were married for 61 years, and after Billie passed away in December 2018, Lawing lived less than four more months.

Licensed to preach in 1954, Lawing went on to seminary at Duke Divinity School, where he graduated in 1959. Although he remained a Tar Heel fan, as he had been throughout his life, he managed the rare feat of also becoming a true Blue Devil. He later went deeper into theological studies, again at Duke, completing a Master of Theology degree in 1966. Lawing's first appointment was Ansonville, 1959 to 1963; he had been ordained a deacon in 1957 and was ordained as an elder in full connection in 1961. From 1962 to 1965, he served Salem (Albemarle). During these early years of ministry, his young family grew with the addition of four children, Erin, Harold Scott, Kim, and Susan.

After a break from full-time ministry to return to school, Lawing and his family moved to Brevard, and in 1966, after some time as a hospital chaplain, he joined the faculty of Brevard College. At Brevard, Lawing served as the Dean of Men (1966-1969) and Dean of Student Affairs (1969-1973), as well as teaching courses in religion and holding various other administrative positions. He was an avid fan of the Brevard Tornadoes basketball team, and he sometimes called the games on local radio station WPNF. Lawing later served in administrative roles with Blue Ridge Community College. He served as minister of Cummings Memorial United Methodist Church in Horse Shoe, N.C., 1975 to 1990, and as associate minister of First United Methodist Church in Hendersonville, 1990 until his retirement in 1996.

As a preacher, Lawing is remembered for his use of humor and his keen interest in astronomy; his sermons often included detailed descriptions of astronomical phenomena to illustrate the vastness and wonder of God's creation. Lawing's love of sports included tennis, which he played regularly in retirement. In the final years of his and Billie's lives, the Lawing family expressed gratitude for the elite team of caregivers who surrounded Bud and Billie with support and care, fulfilling not just their job duties but a true ministry and calling.

Lawing died on Tuesday, April 9, 2019, in Brevard after a period of declining health. A celebration of life was held at First United Methodist Church, Brevard, on Sunday, April 28. He is survived by his four children, Erin Lawing of Asheville, Scott Lawing and wife Nancy of Brevard, Kim Lawing of Brevard, and Susan Barnes and husband Steve of Asheville; and two grandchildren, Rachel Lawing of Jersey City, N.J., and Alex Lawing of Charlotte.

In a memorable sermon called "The Stewardship of Joy," Bud asked his congregation to consider how they would respond if, upon arrival in the next life, when asked to account for their time on Earth, they were asked an unexpected question: did you have a good time? Lawing will be missed by his family, friends, and brothers and sisters in Christ. We trust he is now answering that question – "Did you have a good time?" – with a resounding "YES!" We also trust that good time has not ended but is continuing anew in light of God's grace.

David Wilcox Lee

September 18, 1937 – April 18, 2019

The Rev. David Wilcox Lee of Rutherfordton died peacefully on Thursday, April 18, 2019, at Hospice of the Carolina Foothills in Forest City, N.C., with his loving wife, Sibyl, by his side. David was born on September 18, 1937 in Kearny, Neb., to the late Rev. Samuel R.G. Lee and Byrdine Wilcox Lee. He graduated from Kearny (Neb.) High School in 1955 and attended Isothermal Community College, Hastings College, and Duke University.

In the early 1970s as an executive with the Currier Piano Company in Marion, N.C., David began to struggle with a call to the ministry. During that same time, he began his formal ministry as a lay speaker, serving primarily in the Marion District. In 1978, David obtained his license to preach and was appointed as an associate pastor to the Asbury Parish in Rutherford County. From 1981 to 1983, David served as pastor of the Bethel-Shiloh Charge in the Greensboro district. In 1983, David was appointed to the Mitchell-Yancy Parish (Bethlehem, Bakersville, Deyton Bend, Red Hill, and Tipton Hill). In 1987, David was ordained as a deacon and continued to serve as an associate member of the Western North Carolina Conference. He officially retired in 2002, but he continued to faithfully serve the folks of the mountains until 2006. His tenure at Mitchell-Yancey could be considered one of the longest appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference history. David's ministry spanned more than 40 years and yielded several innovative ministries. He established a Hispanic church in Mitchell County more than 20 years ago, specifically for migrant workers. In addition, he founded a food bank in Mitchell County that served the rural areas of the county for many years. After his retirement, David was honored as pastor emeritus at Spindale United Methodist Church, where he attended and served as a trusted advisor and mentor.

David married his soul mate, Sibyl Ensley McDaniel, in 1983. Together, they ministered to the congregations of the Mitchell-Yancey parish until retirement. In addition to Sibyl, David is survived daughters Deborah Lee Lybarger and husband Jeff of San Diego, Calif., Julia Lee Jackson, also of San Diego, Calif., and Carolyn Lee Carter and husband Gary of Grand Island, Neb. David is also survived by two step-sons, Bill McDaniel and wife Marcia of Forest City, N.C., and Benjamin McDaniel and wife Anna of Boiling Springs, N.C. Grandchildren include Will McDaniel, Andrew McDaniel, Kara Powell, Zack Lee, Austin Lybarger, Elizabeth Ortmann, Colton Langer, and Gavin Langer.

A celebration of life was held at Spindale UMC on Monday, April 22, 2019. A private graveside service was held later in the day at Pisgah United Methodist Church, where Sibyl grew up and David faithfully served as pastor from 1978-1981.

Harry Glenn Long Jr.

July 21, 1933 – June 16, 2018

Harry Glenn Long Jr. was born in Greensboro, N.C., on July 21, 1933, to Catherine Liles Long and Harry Glenn Long Sr. He spent his childhood and youth in Charlotte, Mount Airy, and Gastonia, N.C. Harry graduated from high school in Gastonia in 1951 and from High Point College (now High Point University) in 1956.

On August 30, 1958, he married Sandra Smith. His children are Harry Glenn Long III, William Allen Long, Catherine Annelle Long Howard, and Smith McAllister Long. Harry later married Jane Agsten Black on September 6, 1986. Her children are Joel Edward Black and Julie McLeod Black Lindsay. Harry's love for all the children and his nine grandchildren, and their love for him, fostered a happy blended family who enjoyed many memorable times together.

Harry received his bachelor's degree (upgraded to a Master of Divinity degree in 1972) from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1959. He served churches in West Palm Beach, Fla., from September 1958 to June 1961 when he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference. He was ordained as a deacon in 1957 and ordained as an elder in 1960.

Early appointments include: Bethesda (Gastonia), 1961-1965; First (Randleman), 1965-1970; First (Hickory) Associate, 1970-1973; First (Maiden), 1973-1975; Calvary (Greensboro), 1975-December 31, 1978. During these appointments, he served in several local organizations related to Christian social concerns, religion and race, and family and mental health. In Hickory, he founded Youth Enabling Services, a drug abuse prevention and treatment program, which was part of the United Way of Hickory. During his years in Greensboro, Harry was director of pastoral care for the then-Greensboro District. He served as chairman of the Council on Family Life Ministries for the Western North Carolina Conference and as director of drug and alcohol concerns for the Western North Carolina Conference. He was chairman of the pastoral advisory council on drug and alcohol abuse of the N.C. Department of Human Resources.

During Harry's experiences as a pastor, he began to sense a possible calling into some form of family ministry. He enrolled as a part-time student in the child development and family relations masters' program at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, which he completed in 1978.

In 1979, he opened a solo practice as a part-time family therapist. He was joined by another therapist, and the practice became the Methodist Counseling Center, sponsored by the then-Greensboro, High Point, and Lexington districts. It is now the Chrysalis Counseling Center and has a full-time director and several part-time therapists. Also in January 1979, Harry began a sabbatical from local church ministry and entered the Ph.D. program in child development and family relations at UNCG.

In March 1980, Harry took a part-time position as a chaplain at Moses Cone Hospital to provide income for his sabbatical year. He also served as part-time pastor at Friendship and Brown Summit. He soon realized the relevance of his family therapy training and experience to the work of hospital chaplaincy. His sense of calling deepened, and his position as a chaplain became full-time. Harry served as staff chaplain at Moses Cone Hospital in Greensboro from 1979 to 1997. As associate director of chaplaincy services, he started an adjunct chaplaincy program which still exists. He recruited, trained, and supervised more than 200 pastors and qualified lay leaders to serve as volunteer chaplains. They served during evenings and weekends, providing continuing pastoral care to patients and staff. He also started a support group for prostate cancer patients. During Harry's tenure at Cone Hospital, his compassion, his ability to listen to people's deep needs, and his gentle sense of humor brought hope and comfort to patients and staff alike.

Harry continued his education, completing the course work for his doctoral degree in child development and family relations in 1984. He received his Doctor of Ministry degree in pastoral counseling in 1991 from the Graduate Theological Foundation in South Bend, Ind. He retired from the Western North Carolina Conference in 1997. For several years, Harry was active in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. He was on the board of the North Carolina chapter from 2001 to 2005 and served as president in 2003 and 2004. He was active at Grace United Methodist Church in Greensboro for more than 30 years and served as an associate pastor for congregational care from July 2001 to December 2003.

In the summer of 2016, he and Jane moved to a retirement community, Friends Homes Guilford, in Greensboro, N.C., where he served on the Vespers Committee and frequently presided at the Sunday evening worship services. He also started a men's fellowship for the residents.

Harry's earthly life ended suddenly. On June 15, 2018, he suffered a terrible fall and died the next evening, June 16, from a subdural hematoma. During his last few hours, many of his family members were with him, surrounding him with love. The memorial service on July 7 was held at Friends Homes Guilford. On July 21, at the annual family week at the beach, the family gathered at dusk to bury his ashes. They had often celebrated Harry's birthday during this same week of family time at this place he loved. This time, the celebration was for his life and was on the day that would have been his 85th birthday.

A wonderful man, a humble servant, a strong witness for Christ -- he was a loving presence for so many. Thanks be to God for this great blessing of his life among us!

Carl Edward McArn Sr.

August 14, 1936 – February 8, 2019

The Rev. Carl E. McArn transferred his membership to the Church Triumphant on February 8, 2019, in Cowpens, S.C. He was the son of the late Clyde and Rosa McArn.

Carl received his associate's degree from Clark Memorial in 1962, his Bachelor of Arts degree from Livingston University (now the University of West Alabama) in 1965, and his Master of Theology degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 1973. McArn was licensed to preach in 1961; ordained as a deacon in 1971, and ordained as an elder in 1974. He was received into full connection in 1974 in the Holston Conference, and he transferred from the Holston Conference into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1981.

Carl proudly served his country in the U.S. Air Force and was a veteran of the Korean War. In 1961, Carl married the love of his life, Vida Katherine Price McArn, who passed on May 29, 2018. They were the parents of five wonderful children, and they both enjoyed being grandparents.

Carl proudly and faithfully served in the following appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference: East Flat Rock (Asheville), 1981-1983; Bethany (High Point), 1983-1987; Fairview, 1987-1989; Crouse, 1989-1992; Crouse-Pleasant Grove, 1992-1993; Bethel-Piney Grove, 1993-1995; Albemarle Circuit, 1995-1997; Franklin Heights-Maple Grove (Mt. Airy), 1997-2001; and New Home-Shady Grove, 2001-2003. Carl retired in June 2003.

He is survived by two sons, Carl E. McArn II of Cowpens, S.C., and John McArn (Barbara) of Tacoma, Wash.; three daughters, Noor Kahn (Nadeem) of Manassas, Va., Amanda McArn of Cowpens, S.C., and Dora Bowman (Mitchell), also of Cowpens; 11 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by two brothers, Stanley McArn and Henry "Bud" McArn.

A memorial service celebrating Carl's life and ministry was held on March 16, 2019, at Salem United Methodist Church in Cowpens.

Kind, gentle, sincere, soft-spoken and dedicated may be used to describe this servant of God. Carl enjoyed ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was interested in the lives and spiritual vitality of each man, woman, boy, and girl in his congregations and worked diligently to remind them of who they were and whose they were. Listening to his stories, one soon realized that Carl had a deep and abiding faith in God and did all he could to make disciples of Jesus Christ. His smile and easy laugh went a long way in making those around him feel welcome and part of the family of faith.

Rest from your labors, My Brother, and hear the Lord say, "Well Done."

Talmage Steven McLain

October 27, 1945 – October 10, 2018

The Rev. Talmage Steven "Steve" McLain was born on October 27, 1945, in Hiddenite, N.C., to Talmage J. and Cecil Warren McLain. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from High Point College in 1968 and married his first wife, Shirley Martin, in August of that same year. McLain was licensed to preach on November 17, 1970, while he attended Emory University for seminary; he graduated with his Master of Divinity degree from Emory's Candler School of Theology in 1971. Also in 1971, McLain became a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference.

McLain's first appointment was Helton United Methodist Church in Ashe County; he served as Helton's pastor for two years, 1971-1973, before moving to Spring Hill UMC in High Point for one year. In 1974, McLain was ordained as an elder in full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference and began a four-year tenure of service at Rockwell UMC, 1974-1978. During the Rockwell years, the McLain family welcomed a daughter, Shelley Alicia McLain (now Shelley Lawter of Raleigh). After a fruitful ministry at Rockwell, McLain moved to Myrtle-Mt. Olivet (Gastonia), 1978-1982. Other appointments were: Jordan Memorial (Ramseur), 1982-1986; Fairview, 1986-1988; Mt. Lebanon, 1988-1989; Meadowview-Wentworth, 1989-1990; Norwood Circuit, 1990-1992; Ebenezer-Glenwood, 1992-1996; Arbor Grove-Union, 1996-2002; Polkton, 2002-2006; South Davidson, 2006-2009; and Bethel-St. John's (Hickory), 2009-2013.

During his time at Ebenezer-Glenwood, McLain married his second wife, Connie, on August 29, 1998, adding two step-sons, Roger and Larry Speer, to his family. McLain retired in 2013. McLain's final years were spent in Elkin in the beautiful North Carolina foothills.

McLain passed away on October 10, 2018, just shy of his 74th birthday, at Mountain Valley Hospice in Yadkinville. McLain is survived by his wife, Connie Franklin McLain; his daughter, Shelly, and her children, Sarah, Westley, and Benjamin Lawter; and four step-grandchildren, Michael, Tyler, Ragan, and Solomon Speer. McLain's celebration of life was held at First United Methodist Church in Elkin on Friday, October 12, 2018, with leadership from the Rev. Michael Shuford and the Rev. Zachary King. McLain was laid to rest in Hiddenite Cemetery in his hometown later that day.

Friends and family remember McLain as a good neighbor with a helping heart, willing to lend a hand at any time of the day or night. They recall, too, McLain's curious mind, conversant as he was in subjects like science and geology, and how knowledge of the natural world fit into and informed faith and ministry. Surely, "All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life" (John 1) – the eternal life in which McLain now lives forever.

Jean Marie Morgan

May 24, 1927 – September 26, 2016

Jean Marie Morgan was born on May 24, 1927, in Karns City, Pa., to Miles W. Morgan and Bertha B. Sherwin Morgan. She graduated from Karns City (Pa.) High School and attended Taylor University in Upland, Ind., where she graduated with her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1952, and Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn., from which she received a Master of Arts degree in 1956.

Morgan was first certified in 1956 in Western Pennsylvania Conference and was consecrated to the diaconal ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. She served as a deaconess in California, Alaska, Minnesota, and North Carolina. Morgan became the executive housekeeper at Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville, N.C., in 1977 and served there in various capacities until her retirement in 1992.

She passed away on Monday, September 26, 2016, at the Brooks-Howell Home. Morgan is survived by her sister-in-law, Doris Morgan of Butler, Pa.; her nephews, Robert Morgan and wife Zenah of Running Springs, Calif., and David Morgan and wife Irene of Butler, Pa.; and her grandniece, Brady Lynn Morgan of Butler, Pa. A memorial service was held in North Carolina, and Morgan was interred at Mount Pleasant Lutheran Cemetery in Chicora, Pa. Western North Carolina is grateful to have had her among us for the latter years of her diaconal ministry and retirement.

William Homer Osborne Jr.

April 22, 1942 – September 19, 2018

William Homer "Bill" Osborne Jr. was born in Asheboro, N.C., on April 22, 1942, to Kathleen Ledwell Osborne and the late William H. Osborne Sr. A lifelong Methodist, Bill was baptized and confirmed at Central Methodist Church in Asheboro. Bill discerned a call to the ordained ministry during high school and was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1959. While a student at then-Pfeiffer College, Bill served his first pastoral appointment at Shiloh in the then-Salisbury District, 1963-1964.

Also as a Pfeiffer student, Bill married Rebecca Jane Yarborough, the love of his life, on August 26, 1962. Jane had her own ministry as a registered nurse, and throughout their 56 years of marriage, Jane was Bill's most faithful supporter.

Bill received his bachelor's degree from Pfeiffer in 1964 and his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke University's Divinity School in 1967. He was ordained as a deacon in the WNCC in 1965 and was ordained as an elder in 1967. Bill and Jane's son, Matthew Edward Osborne, was born a year later.

Upon graduation from Duke, Bill was appointed associate pastor of First UMC in Salisbury, 1967-1970, with primary responsibility for youth ministry. Under Bill's leadership, the youth group grew in size and vitality and provided lifelong friendships. Bill was passionate about welcoming many youth in the community to the United Methodist Youth Fellowship. During Salisbury's days of desegregation, Bill's inclusive spirit ensured that every young person was welcome at First UMC. Other appointments were: Harrison-Marvin (Charlotte District), 1970-1972; Huntersville (Charlotte District), 1972-1978; Epworth (Salisbury District), 1978-1986; Clemmons (Winston-Salem District), 1986-September 1, 1989; and Christ (High Point District), September 1, 1989-1992. Each of those congregations counted Bill as one of their most effective pastors.

Bill served beyond the local church as district superintendent of both the Marion District, September 1, 1992 -1996, and the Salisbury District, 1996-1998. From 1998-2007, Bill served as the administrative assistant to the bishop, serving first Bishop Charlene P. Kammerer and then Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey.

While a local church pastor, Bill was elected president of the Board of Ordained Ministry. As a district superintendent, Bill served as the Dean of the Cabinet. Each office was a tribute to Bill's wisdom and leadership skills.

In every one of his appointments, Bill was a strong pastoral leader, with excellent gifts for mentoring and organizing. In his service as a district superintendent and the administrative assistant to the bishop, these gifts were especially appreciated by both clergy and laity. Bill led charge conferences, oversaw building programs, handled complaints, and managed conflict with firmness and compassion.

Bill had a special knack for helping individuals discern God's call on their lives. He found purpose in encouraging a struggling congregation, supporting a grieving pastor, and interpreting paragraphs in The United Methodist Book of Discipline for a successful outcome. Bill was always eager to make room at the table for individuals sometimes left out, including women and African Americans. As a district superintendent and assistant to the bishop, Bill was an advocate for diverse appointments to local churches and the cabinet.

One of Bill's favorite scriptures was Luke's story of the Prodigal Son. Bill knew God firsthand as a loving father. Just as the loving father in the parable welcomed both the wayward son and the self-righteous older son to the banquet table, so too had God welcomed Bill with open arms. Bill gave his life to extending that same extravagant welcome to others.

Bill retired in 2007, but he remained active in ministry at First UMC in Salisbury, where he served as an usher and Sunday school teacher. Bill was also devoted to his alma mater, Duke University, enjoying all sports there, especially Duke basketball.

Bill appreciated dinners out with family and friends, travel, NASCAR races, Willie Nelson and Bob Dylan concerts, golf games with friends, face jugs, history and politics, and the latest movies. Although he made every effort to avoid germs, Bill embraced life with gusto and humor.

Bill was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in February 2018. In spite of his brave efforts to overcome the cancer, Bill died at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice House in Winston-Salem on September 19, 2018. A worship service to celebrate Bill's life was held on September 26, 2018, at First UMC in Salisbury.

Bill is survived by wife Jane; son Matthew Osborne and his wife, Mary Beth, of Durham; his beloved granddaughters, Isabel Osborne and Eloise Osborne; his brother, the Rev. Barry Osborne and wife Judi of High Point; and his mother, Kathleen L. Osborne of Winston-Salem.

Frank Laprade Padgett

September 5, 1944 – November 20, 2018

The Rev. Dr. Frank LaPrade Padgett was born in Atlanta, Ga., to the Rev. Dr. Robert T. Padgett and Samie Bowman Padgett. He was survived by his wife of 24 years, Allison Hancock Padgett; three children, William Robert Padgett (April), Justin Satterfield Padgett (Mairi) and Heather Barkley Padgett Futch; one stepson, Steven Gentile (Solvig); five grandchildren; and a sister, Therese Padgett.

Frank was born into a loving Methodist parsonage and named for his father's first two district superintendents. It can be no wonder that he grew to love the heritage of the Methodist traditions of worship, discipline, and service. He joined the church at age 10 at First Hinesville Methodist Church, South Georgia Annual Conference, and by his teens he committed to going into the ministry.

After receiving a bachelor's degree at Georgia Southern University in 1966, Frank earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree at Candler School of Theology at Emory University, receiving the degree in 1969, and earned a Doctor of Ministry at Drew University, receiving the degree in 1982. He also studied at Edinburgh University in Scotland, where William Barclay became one of many mentors. He was ordained as a deacon in 1967 and ordained as an elder in 1969 in the South Georgia Conference. In 1972, he transferred membership to the Western North Carolina Conference.

Appointments that Frank served include the following: United Methodist/Presbyterian Campus Ministry and Director of Wesley Foundation (Georgia State University), 1969-1971; Centenary (Winston-Salem) Minister to Youth, 1972-1977; Providence (Charlotte) Minister of Education, 1977-1983; Oakview (High Point), 1983-1985; St. Paul (Charlotte), 1985-1988; South Mecklenburg Mission (later Saint Francis in Charlotte), 1988-1993; Stallings, 1993-1995; Cullowhee, 1995-2003; and First (Stanley), 2003-2005. He retired in January 2005.

Leadership in civic activities beyond the local church were so numerous that at one point his young children, whom he was raising as a single parent, asked him to resign those roles so he could have more time with them. While Frank did comply, it would not last. He was drawn to the welfare of the people of God above personal desires, ego, or career. In 2003, the city of Sylva named Frank as one of the grand marshals in the Catch the Spirit of Appalachia's Parade of Many Colors in recognition of his many services to the community.

The entire outdoors was the retreat Frank sought for relaxation and reflection. He would go hiking, camping, or fishing and return home to write an article for the church newsletter where his words would flow onto paper like an artist painting on canvas.

When asked what he would do if he couldn't be a pastor, Frank replied, "Find a way to help people understand themselves as God's beloved. Many of our problems, personally and socially, stem from our tendency to self-rejection. We change when we truly understand that God loves us unconditionally because we are God's children."

A lifelong friend, John McCormack, describes Frank as follows: "Frank was a singularly intelligent, unique and passionate man who affected my life early on as a person who cared about justice and was not afraid to take strong stands for what was right. I remember him leading the anti-Vietnam war moratorium march at GSU (November 1969) and receiving threats for his stand. I would say he was the first of my peers to present a model of how to live a principled life. Reading later about his work on the Internet and reviewing his obituary, it is very obvious he never gave up in his quest for a better world."

A celebration of the wonderful life of Frank L. Padgett was held on April 20, 2019 at Cullowhee UMC in Cullowhee.

The Rev. Charles Elbert Page was born on March 24, 1928, in the Wilson County town of Sims, N.C. Page was the eldest of three children born to the late Charles Ross Page and Elizabeth Davies. The Page family was actively involved in Sims Methodist Church, where young Charles served as a Sunday school teacher and superintendent. After graduating from Rock Ridge High School in 1946, and committing himself to a call to ordained ministry at age 17, Page attended Atlantic Christian College, where he received his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1949, shortly after being licensed to preach in 1948. Page attended Candler School of Theology at Emory University, graduating with a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1955. He later studied at the University of London and Geneva, receiving his Doctor of Theology from Geneva Theological College in 1974.

Page married Catherine Powell Harrison on April 5, 1952, while serving as associate pastor for Children and Youth Ministry at Central Methodist Church in Albemarle. Together, they had two children, Rebecca Anne and Susan Catherine. As he and his wife were building a family, Page was also beginning his formal ministry. In 1953, the same year their first daughter was born, Page was ordained as a deacon. When ordained an elder in 1955, Page also took his first appointment, Shiloh-Granite Quarry, 1955-1960. Other appointments were: Cold Springs, 1960-1962; St. Paul (Greensboro), 1962-1966; First (Salisbury) Associate, 1966-1967; Stokesdale, 1967-1969; Stokesdale-Mt. Carmel, 1969-1973; Gibsonville, 1973-1977; Commonwealth (Charlotte), 1977-1983; First (Cherryville), 1983-1988; and Mouzon (Charlotte), 1988-1989, for a total of 41 years of service to God's church.

After retiring in 1989, Page remained in active service to his community. Page continued his ministry by serving as Protestant chaplain on several Holland America cruises, and by volunteering at Front Street UMC in Burlington and West Market Street UMC in Greensboro. Following his active interest in patriotic organizations and American history, Page was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR), served as president of the North Carolina Society from 1997 to 1999, and was a Rotarian and past president of the Gibsonville Club. Page was also a former trustee of the Alamance County Historical Museum and the North Carolina Capitol Society.

After 59 years of marriage, Page's wife, Catherine, passed away on June 19, 2011. Page died on March 19, 2019, at Arbor Acres Retirement Community in Winston-Salem, less than a week before his 91st birthday. Surviving Charles and Catherine are their daughters, Rebecca and husband E.W. "Bill" Buchanan Jr. of Greensboro, and Susan and husband Richard D. Kane of Raleigh; two grandchildren, Charles William (Chad) Buchanan and wife Jennifer, and Catherine Kane Kaminski and husband, Brian, and their children, great-granddaughter Jaqueline and great-grandson Caleb. Page is also survived by a brother, Marshall Peele Page of Wendell. He was preceded in death by another brother, John Daniel Page of Kenly. A memorial service was held on Sunday, March 24, at West Market Street UMC with the Rev. Bill Ellison and the Rev. Pam Strader presiding.

Page is remembered for a contagious joy and zest for life and for being a positive influence on the young people to whom he ministered. He was beloved by the congregations he served for his engaging smile and heart for God's people. Page will be missed here on earth but is blessed to be reunited with his bride in the light of God's promises fulfilled.

George Lee Pollock

January 28, 1941 – November 20, 2018

In the mysterious birthing of creation, the Spirit of the Eternal breathed on the earth and made it good. In one, the Rev. Lee Pollock, this breath of God filled him with an elixir of joyful liveliness, and through Lee, clarified God's assurance of light over darkness, even life over death.

Lee was born in Davidson County and lived with his parents, Sim Lee Pollock and Kathryn Eanes Pollock, in Thomasville, N.C. He attended Guilford College, 1959-1963, earning an Artium Baccalaureus degree; and Duke University's Divinity School, 1963-1966, earning his Bachelor of Divinity degree.. Lee chose ministry as a career after an International Scandinavian Caravan Tour with youth from the Western North Carolina Conference. His choice was nurtured during his formative teenage years by the Rev. Frank Jordan, minister at Memorial United Methodist Church in Thomasville.

Lee was ordained as a deacon in 1964 and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1964. He was ordained as an elder and admitted into full connection in 1968. Over more than 40 years, Lee served the following appointments: Grace (Greensboro) Associate, 1966-1969; Center (Concord), 1969-1974; Calvary (Asheboro), 1974-1980; Midway (Midway), 1980-1986 (beginning March 1, 1980); leave of absence, 1986-1988; Taylorsville (Taylorsville), 1988-1995; and Rankin Memorial (High Point), 1995-2003. After retiring, Lee served in retirement at Bethlehem UMC in Advance and Canaan UMC in Winston-Salem.

Lee considered being a pastor one his highest privileges, eclipsed only by his love for his family. His love for the people in his congregations and their love for him were great honors to both. His ministry was filled with radical hospitality. He never looked on anyone as a stranger.

He accepted people as he found them: young, old, rich, and poor. Once a handshake, forever a friend. He spent many hours at the side of congregants in need. His faith drew him to their sides.

Surviving Lee is his wife, Mary Alexis Hinkle Pollock; his daughters, Melanie Pollock Murray (Joe) of Summerfield, N.C., and Kristy Pollock Priest (Archie) of Asheboro, N.C.; two stepsons, Jeremy Ammons of Salisbury, N.C., and David Ammons of Welcome, N.C.; three grandchildren, Megan Davis (Austin), Meredith Priest, Madison Priest; and three step-grandchildren, Kaleb Ammons, Kameron Shoaf, Alee Ammons. Although Lee was not known for his public singing, his daughter's and grandchildren's favorite memories are of being awakened by Lee singing to them a song.

Along with Lee's love for family and faith, Lee loved chocolate chip cookies, his pet dogs, Georgie and Sissy, and Duke basketball and football. When possible, he played a respectable round of golf. His language was filled with folksy expressions. When he had no reason not to do something, he would respond with something like, "Might as well, I can't dance," or "Might as well, it's too windy to throw rocks." When someone told him something hard to believe, he had a number of exclamatory expressions, like "Get outta Dodge."

In the final five years of his life, he struggled through numerous chemotherapy agents seeking relief from metastasized cancer. He would describe his suffering, and no matter how difficult his daily experiences, he always ended by saying something about how much he loved life, adding "I thank God for one more day." When it appeared that all human efforts were failing and his suffering was becoming unendurable, he placed himself into the hands of God. He believed that God was good and that he could never drift beyond God's love and care. He lived in God joyfully as an open, friendly, generous, and faithful person until his end.

His memorial service was held on Saturday, November 24, 2018, at Bethesda UMC near his home on Sink Road, in Welcome.

Gaylen Arlis "G.A." Presley

October 4, 1950 – October 19, 2018

G.A. Presley was a man who was dependent upon and empowered by the Holy Spirit, his Advocate and Counselor. He loved the Lord, his God, with all his heart, soul, mind, and strength, and so, he was ready to greet his Lord and Savior when he died in his home on October 19, 2018.

G.A. was born in Somerset, Ky., on February 4, 1950, to John Gilbert Presley and Ruth Absher Presley. John Gilbert Presley was a pastor who died preaching a revival. G.A. would say that he went with both of his Father's businesses, the work of his earthly and heavenly Father. G.A. was the fifth of six children, with an older sister, Angeline King, and four brothers, Kenneth, Darrell, Mike, and Lyndon Presley. He was raised in a Christian home and attended Sunday school and church on a regular basis. He was a graduate of Somerset (Ky.) High School in June 1968. He served in the U.S. Air Force for two tours of duty, starting in 1969. He worked in the Crypto Department in installations of top-secret communication equipment. It was in the Air Force that G.A. gave his heart and soul to Jesus Christ. Staying up all night, G.A. said that he giggled and laughed with the Holy Spirit. He became active in a Southern Baptist church, teaching Sunday school, serving as the Children's Church leader and youth pastor, and deacon. He was later stationed in Cape Lisborn, Alaska, 300 miles north of the Arctic Circle. He asked his commanding officer for permission to hold Bible studies in an on-site chapel. G.A. was granted permission to hold Bible studies and Sunday morning services, administer Communion and baptism. He received the Meritorious Service Award from the U.S. Air Force Chief of Chaplains for his voluntary services to the fellow site inhabitants. G.A. was assigned duty with the U.S. Army as a forward air controller in Louisiana. At the end of his tour of duty, he attended and graduated from Rhema Bible Training Center in Broken Arrow, Okla.

For several years, G.A. filled in for pastor friends at Pactolis United Methodist Church in Grayson, Ky., prior to moving to North Carolina. At Hopewell United Methodist Church, G.A. sang in the choir, participated in the United Methodist Men, completed the Lay Speaker's Advanced Course of Study, taught and trained for Hopewell's Greeter Ministry, and Safety and Security Ministry. G.A. was instrumental in starting a prayer ministry at Hopewell UMC, praying for the salvation of friends, strangers, and families. In fact, G.A. would say that his initials stood for "God Answers Prayer." At that time and for several years, G.A. worked as a terminal manager for Wilson Trucking. He had a study Bible that his mother had given him. There was a fire at Wilson Trucking, and the only thing that survived the fire was that Bible. Not one page was harmed in that Bible. That gave great inspiration to G.A. He underlined this verse in his Bible: "I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service" (1 Timothy 1:12). His call to ministry became stronger while he served at Hopewell UMC. He began the candidacy process.

In 2010, G.A. was licensed as a local pastor. He served Yadkin, 2010-2012; New Hope (Iron Station), 2012-2017; and Covenant (Gastonia), 2017 until his death in 2018. G.A. had a passion for mission and would go on mission trips with his churches to The Red Bird Mission in Kentucky.

G.A. met his wife, Kimberly Williams Presley, at work. Their friendship started on the phone. For their first date, he took her to see the movie, The Passion of Christ. He wanted her to know how he felt about Jesus Christ. They married on September 10, 2004. Their daughter is Katie Anne Presley. Katie was always an advocate and cheerleader for her Daddy's preaching. She asked the district superintendent when he was going to give her Dad his own church. G.A. had such a deep love for Kim and Katie. They were a "threesome" in ministry.

G.A. had complications from his knee surgery, and he died in his home. His Celebration of Life was held on Wednesday, October 24, 2018, at Covenant UMC. His graveside service was held on Friday, October 26, at Eubank Cemetery in Eubank, Ky. G.A. lived his life fully for God and always said, "Nothing is impossible with God! Amen?"

Paul Arthur Sears

April 13, 1956 – December 24, 2018

With unwavering faith and a joyous spirit in spite of the cancer that ended his life on earth, Paul Arthur Sears entered his eternal home on December 24, 2018, at age 62.

Sears was born in Los Angeles, Calif., on April 13, 1956, to the late Gordon Arthur Sears and Ena Mae Stauts Sears. When Sears was 11 years old, his family moved from California to Missouri, due to his father's employment with the Department of Defense, which included electrical engineering work with NASA and the military. Just before beginning high school, Sears met his future wife, Elizabeth Arden Callaghan Sears, at a church-league volleyball tournament. They were on opposing teams. The following year, they met again when they both entered Raytown South High School, and by the spring they were "teammates," of sorts, as they began dating. After graduation from high school in 1974, Paul and Beth were married in Independence, Mo., on February 28, 1975. They would be blessed with three wonderful children in their marriage – Meghan Ruth Sears, Ian Arthur-Reed Sears, and Wesley Allen Sears.

Over the years, Sears would work as a journeyman plumber, a wholesale plumbing supply salesman, a milkman, a window salesman, and the proprietor of a local functional art store. He attended the University of Missouri-Kansas City and graduated in 1984 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in European history. He later felt called to the ministry as a member of the Community of Christ denomination and enrolled at Iliff School of Theology, earning a Master of Divinity degree in 1992. While at Iliff, Sears was a student assistant to the president, Dr. Donald E. Messer. In the Community of Christ, he would be, in succession, a regional youth minister, a campus minister for seven years (during which time he traveled to Honduras to build Habitat for Humanity houses and to Africa and western Europe to help develop campus ministries), and a district superintendent in the southeastern United States mentoring lay pastors in Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. As a campus minister, he was responsible for the Community of Christ's leadership program, including for the military. He joined the Army National Guard to glean how the military developed young leaders to adapt such techniques in the ministry.

Paul and Beth Sears moved to Franklin, N.C., in 2003. They joined First United Methodist Church, where Paul was a lay servant, taught a class called "Still Searching," and participated in a local ministry to the homeless. He eventually became a local pastor in The United Methodist Church and, beginning in 2008, served Hickory Knoll UMC. In 2014, he became the pastor of the newly formed Hickory Knoll-Maiden's Chapel two-church charge, which he served actively until March 2017, when he went on medical leave. Up to that point, he also served as a member of the Smoky Mountain District Church Vitality Team and the Conference Church Vitality Team. Additionally, he obtained certification as a Jungian spiritual director from the Haden Institute in Asheville.

Sears brightened the lives of others with his delightful sense of humor. He lived each day with two philosophies – "So What" and "No Whining." As to the former, he became known in seminary for his thoughtful, sincere, and sometimes provocative questions, but his aim was always to encourage critical thinking. His other guiding principle – "No Whining" – manifested itself throughout his life, including when he was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer and given only three weeks to live. He faced that dire prognosis with uncommon courage and dignity and, by God's grace, lived more than three years beyond that date. In the midst of the shadow of death, he was fully alive, radiating Christ's love and the peace and joy of eternal life. A celebration of his life was held on January 19, 2019, at First UMC of Franklin, with the Rev. David Beam officiating.

Paul Sears had a deep faith in Jesus Christ and a genuine love for all persons as children of God. He was filled with and, thus, exuded joy, curiosity, compassion, and gentleness. Henri Nouwen writes that "… a gentle person treads lightly, listens carefully, looks tenderly, and touches with reverence." Paul Sears embodied these words.

Thomas Ralph Sigmon

April 4, 1939 – April 5, 2019

The Rev. Dr. Thomas R. Sigmon was born April 4, 1939, to Ralph Manson Sigmon and Gladys Radar Sigmon in Newton, N.C. He died April 5, 2019, in Charlotte, N.C., after a courageous battle with pulmonary fibrosis and lung cancer. A Celebration of Life service was held at Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte on April 26, 2019. This service recognized and celebrated 80 years of a life that was lived with compassion, grace, and faithfulness.

Tom is survived by his wife of 59 years, LaVon; their children, Mary Beth Smart and husband Mike of Gastonia, and William Thomas Sigmon and wife Elizabeth of Charlotte; his brothers, Jerry Manson Sigmon and wife Jean of Newton, and Donald Eugene Sigmon and wife Becky of Newton; their grandchildren, Matthew Alan Klingaman and wife Lacey of Mt. Holly, Jennifer Elizabeth Thrift and husband Charlie of Stanley, Marshall William Sigmon of Charlotte, and Jordan Elizabeth Sigmon of Charlotte; their great-grandchildren, Kamryn Elizabeth Thrift of Stanley and Ryder James Klingaman of Mt. Holly; nieces Lynn Sigmon Laws of Newton, Kim Sigmon Gulzar of Mt. Holly, and Donna Sigmon Wellmon of St. Louis; and nephews Marcus Todd McCurry of Greensboro and David Eugene Sigmon of Newton. Tom was predeceased by another nephew, the late Jeffrey Manson Sigmon of Newton.

Tom attended Catawba County's public schools and graduated from Fred T. Ford High School in 1957. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Lenoir Rhyne University in 1960 and a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1964. He received a Doctor of Divinity degree from Drew University in 1986.

Prior to his retirement in 2005, Tom served in various capacities throughout 46 years of ministry. He received his license to preach in 1958, when he was only 19, was ordained as a deacon in 1962, and was ordained as an elder in 1964. Tom's love of the church and passion for its ministry influenced many agencies and boards beyond the local church. He frequently focused on ecumenical coalitions, assisting in the linkage of churches, especially in local missions. In the late 1960s, he was one of the key organizers of a multi-denominational Cooperative Christian Ministry in Hickory that continues to this day. In the early 1970s, he was one of the organizers of the original Mecklenburg County Council on Aging. Late in his career, he was also instrumental in partnering with the Duke Endowment to establish rural affordable housing ministries across western North Carolina.

Tom was effective in multiple administrative roles throughout his ministry, but his first love was serving the local church. He served rural, small town, mountain, suburban, and urban churches throughout western North Carolina. His appointments included: Wesley Chapel (Statesville), 1959-1960; Wesley Chapel-Shiloh (Statesville), 1960-1961; Concord-Orange Chapel-Clover Garden (Burlington) as a student, 1961-1964; Williamson's Chapel, 1964-1967; Kool Park (renamed St. John's in 1968), 1967-1971; Newland-Elk Park, 1971-1972; Duncan Memorial-Charlotte Special Ministries, 1972-1974; Cole Memorial (Charlotte), 1974-1979; Mount Zion, 1979-1981; conference staff, Conference Council on Ministries (Charlotte), 1981-1985; Sharon (Charlotte), 1985-1991; district superintendent (Gastonia District), 1991-1998; and conference director of Connectional Ministries (Charlotte), 1998-2005. He continued his ministry after retirement serving as interim minister for churches in transition through 2012.

Tom loved to travel and turned that passion into a second career in 1998 when he became a travel director for Educational Opportunities, a role he continued until his death. During his 20-plus years of service to Educational Opportunities, he led trips all over the world, including to the Holy Land, Paul's Second Missionary Journey, the Russian Baltics, Oberammergau Passion Play in Austria, and the Wesley heritage tours in England. Known as a "people person," during his travels it was not the landmarks, but the people who interested him the most.

Tom was a man of impact, but always unassuming and humble. A positive impact was instinctive to him – so instinctive it seemed effortless, and often, he may not have even realized he had an impact until someone told him. Tom believed that Christianity is not a "spectator sport," but requires active witness based on justice, mercy, compassion, and respect for all. Though loyal to his denomination, he still believed very strongly that the name of one's denomination was meant to be used as an adjective, not a noun. All who knew him have been blessed to have his example.

Panzie Merilyn Miller Stevens

October 4, 1934 – July 11, 2018

Panzie Merilyn Miller Stevens was born on October 4, 1934, as the youngest child and only daughter of the late Charles Joseph and Edna Mae Sparks Miller in Paint Lick, Ky. Stevens graduated from the Foundation School at Berea and attended Berea College, where she studied voice and piano performance; she later transferred to Georgetown (Ky.) College and completed her Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology in 1956.

Soon after, she received a teaching certificate and began a 40-year career, focusing primarily on serving grade-school special needs children. During this time, her only child, Joseph, was born. Stevens continued her education by returning to the University of Toledo for a master's degree in special education, completing her Master of Education in 1968. Throughout her career, Stevens was active in local churches and often volunteered to serve as minister of music, singing in the choir, or playing piano and organ for worship services.

After a full career as a teacher, Stevens retired from that vocation and began pursuing theological studies at Duke University. She was licensed to preach in 1991 and received an appointment as a local pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1995, serving Mill Spring until her retirement in October 2000.

In retirement, Stevens found joy in helping raise two granddaughters, continuing to support church music ministries, quilting, crocheting, and needlepointing. Her final years were spent enjoying a quiet life in Charlotte, N.C., where she was involved at Central United Methodist Church. She passed away on July 11, 2018. Stevens is survived by her son, Joseph Cleveland and wife Nella Summey Stevens of Charlotte; granddaughters Elizabeth Merilyn Stevens and Katherine Rebecca Stevens of Greenville, S.C.; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and by brothers Jimmy, Kenneth, and Wayne Miller.

Stevens' celebration of life was held at Bumgardner Chapel of McLean Funeral home in Belmont, N.C., on July 18, 2018, with the Rev. Holly Evensen presiding. May her voice, so often used to teach and to praise, now be joined with the heavenly choir.

Edward Sidney Tapper

September 21, 1937 – April 27, 2019

Edward Sidney Tapper was passionate about evangelism and pastoral care for he understood the Gospel of Jesus Christ must be shared in both word and deed. Moreover, Tapper knew the Gospel is most effective when the deepest needs of the human heart are met in the compassionate service of Jesus' followers. Edward "ET" Tapper was a modern-day Apostle Paul for his life was shaped by being raised in a Jewish home and his faith was shaped by trusting in Jesus Christ as his risen Lord and Savior. Ed often shared his personal testimony by saying, "I am a completed Jew. I did not convert to Christianity; I am completed by it."

Ed was born in Newark, N.J., on September 21, 1937, the son of Simpson and Rose Maher Tapper. Ed and his two brothers, Clyde and Franklin, grew up in Hillside, N.J., proudly knowing that their family was from the tribe of Benjamin. Ed served in the Army National Guard and was an expert web pressman and cameraman who earned a two-year degree. Tapper later attended High Point University, John Wesley College, and in 1995, completed the Course of Study at Duke University's Divinity School. In 1980, Ed answered the call to serve Christ as an ordained minister in The Nazarene Church. Bill Thompson and Walter McKelvey's passion for The United Methodist Church lit a fire in Ed's heart to pursue pastoral ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was licensed to preach in 1988, and became an associate member of the WNCC in 1996.

Ed married Nancy Jane Brown on February 14, 1965, and raised six children from their union: Richard Tapper (deceased), Douglas Tapper, Jodi Tapper Berlant, Heide Tapper Andrews, Tami Tapper Sykes, and Penny Tapper Garner. Nancy and Ed were true partners in ministry through music and preaching in the churches they served. Tapper was appointed to Farmer (High Point District), 1988-1991; Union Chapel-Chestnut Grove (Lexington), 1991-1996; and Calvary-Legend Park (Asheboro), 1996-2002. He retired in 2002. After his retirement, he served: Mt. Shepherd-West Chapel (High Point District), July 1-December 31, 2002; White's Chapel (Greensboro District), 2007-2011; and Mizpah (Reidsville), 2012-2013. Throughout his ministry, Ed also served as a volunteer chaplain at Randolph, Davie County, Forsyth Medical Center, Wake Forest University Baptist, Moses Cone, and Wesley Long hospitals.

Ed and Nancy mentored many young clergy and laity by setting an example: "… the mission field is not where you are going but where you are right now, with the people you are with right now." The Tappers traveled extensively to churches, large and small, leading congregations in the Seder service and helping worshipers to see Jesus Christ in the Passover meal. Edward was passionate about the Lord's Supper for it was rooted deeply in the Jewish faith and pilgrimage. God delivered the Hebrews from slavery. Jesus Christ came to set us free from the bondage of sin, addiction, bitterness, and suffering. Christ came to make all things new. This was the theme and message of the Celebration of Tapper's life, which occurred May 4, 2019, at Burnett's Chapel UMC in Greensboro. Later at the graveside at White's Chapel UMC in Liberty, the body of this servant of Christ was committed back to the Heavenly Father who gave him to us in witness and service.

Mother Teresa was once asked why she continued to serve and love the dying and destitute in her community, and she said, "When I serve the broken and those who are suffering I am drawn closer to Christ who suffered and died for me." There is little doubt that Ed Tapper was drawn to the broken and wounded, so that he might share the transforming love of the Wounded Healer with those whom he served.

Earl Wilson Jr.

September 16, 1946 – July 3, 2018

Earl Wilson Jr. was born in Bolton, N.C., to Earl Wilson Sr. and Louise Bland Wilson. A sister, Linda, was also born into this family. Since their father was a career military non-commissioned officer, Earl and his sister's horizons were broadened because of their experiences living in a variety of settings.

Earl Jr. graduated from Berry O'Kelly High School in Raleigh, N.C., received his Radio Broadcasting License from Ohio State University while he was a student at Shaw University and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Shaw in 1969. Proverbs 18:22 (KJV) says, "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing and obtaineth favour of the Lord." Both were achieved when Earl took Doris Kinlaw as his bride on December 25, 1969. Two children were born to this union of kindred spirits.

In 1973, Earl earned a Master of Divinity degree from Duke University's Divinity School after an internship at Union Theological School in Richmond, Va. Having already been ordained as a deacon in The AME Church in 1969 and as an elder in 1971, he was received, by transfer, into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1973. In 1996, he was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree from Pfeiffer University.

His appointments were: Wesley Foundation (North Carolina A&T State University) and St. Paul (Kernersville), 1973-1975, and Wesley Foundation (A&T State) and Laughlin Memorial, 1975-1977. In June 1977, he transferred to the Tennessee Conference, where he served on the conference staff. During the next decade, Earl also served on the staffs of the General Board of Discipleship and the Memphis Conference. In late 1988, at the urging of Dr. James Ferree, Earl returned to the Western North Carolina Conference to join the conference program staff, where he served as Conference Director of Age-Level Ministries. Other appointments were First Brevard, 1991-1995; Charlotte District superintendent, 1995-2003; and Mt. Tabor (Winston-Salem), 2003-2012. Earl was elected to serve as a Western North Carolina Conference delegate to the 1996, 2000, and 2004 General and Jurisdictional conferences. He attended the World Methodist Conferences in Nairobi, Kenya, and Brighton, England. After a varied 39-year ministry of dedicated, faithful service, he retired in 2012, affording him more time for his hobbies: photography and playing the Gibson guitar he received as a gift from Mt. Tabor.

The immediate survivors of this beloved one are his wife, Doris Kinlaw Wilson of the home; a sister, Linda Wilson Richardson of Newark, N.J.; a son, Navy Chaplain Earl (Camilla) Wilson III of Iwakuni, Japan; a daughter, Lindy Wilson Overstreet of Monroe, N.C.; and grandchildren Harrison, Emery, Austin, and Cara.

Earl had a winsome personality, and he endeared himself with his acquaintances and congregants. Of special note, worshippers came to expect two sermons when he came to the pulpit. He lifted his melodious voice in praise and delivered a message in song before the spoken word on Sunday mornings. Therefore, it was fitting for his family to surround him with songs of faith, as a means of comfort, in his final hours. Maybe Earl's last request was, "Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home." Surely, he knew all was well and found the peace that endureth.

A Celebration of Life service was held on July 14, 2018, at Mount Tabor with Dr. Hurley Thomas as eulogist. In a lovely edifice, where Earl had served his last nine years, it was also fitting that voices and instruments filled the sacred space. One might say the progression of the hymns, "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," "Be Thou My Vision," "Amazing Grace," "Great is The Faithfulness," and "Precious Lord, Take My Hand," was a testament to Earl's pilgrimage on this earth. After the service, family and friends gathered for an internment in the Garden of Memory.

"O may I join the choir invisible of the immortal dead
Who live again in minds made better by their presence…"

William Brian Wombough

April 10, 1943 – December 8, 2018

As I begin this labor of love, I can hear Bill saying, "Keep it simple." Bill would say this as we worked on Sunday sermons together at the library.

The Rev. William "Bill" Brian Wombough was born on April 10, 1943 in Elimara, N.Y.

Bill's educational qualifications for the ministry included a bachelor's degree from Greensboro College, received in 1966, and a Master of Divinity degree from Wesley Seminary in Washington, D.C., received in 1972. Rev. Wombough also took advantage of many continuing educational opportunities throughout the Western North Carolina Conference but most especially at Lake Junaluska.

He was licensed to preach in the Central New York Conference in June 1963. He was ordained as a deacon in 1970 and as an elder in 1976. He transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in June 1970.

He served the WNCC for 40 years. His service record includes the following: Student (Gastonia), 1970-1972; First Waynesville Associate, 1972-1973; Shooting Creek and Clay County Parish Associate, 1973-1977; Hiddenite, 1977-1978; Salem-Clark's Chapel, 1978-1981; Pleasant Hill, 1981-1985; Grace-Dix Creek, 1985-1989; North Kannapolis, 1989-1995; Antioch-Oak Grove, 1995-1997; Davie, 1997-2001; West Lincoln, 2001-2002; leave, 2003-2004; and Polkville, 2004-2006. Wombough retired in 2006. In retirement, he served Double Shoals, 2009-2010, and Little Sandy, 2010-2018. Bill enjoyed his service to the WNCC and also volunteered for conference responsibilities.

Bill was married to Mary "Janice" Spencer Wombough, who preceded him in death. They were married in 1971 at Bradley Memorial United Methodist Church in Gastonia, N.C. Janice was a registered nurse employed by the State of North Carolina. She went to meet the Lord on November 16, 2018. Bill went to meet his Lord on December 8, 2018. Their deaths were 23 days apart.

Bill also was preceded in death by a son, Jack Spencer Wombough. He is survived by daughter Jacquelyn Wombough Sharpe (TJ), son Ron Wombough (Kim), and grandchildren Matthew and Autumn Wombough and Jackson Sharpe.

Bill is our loss but Heaven's gain.

Wade Edward Wright

March 7, 1930 – November 22, 2018

On Thanksgiving morning, November 22, 2018, the Rev. Wade Edward Wright was placed in the loving arms of God and celebrated Thanksgiving around the throne of God.

Rev. Wright was born March 7, 1930, to the late John Henry Wright and Minnie Lunsford Wright in Forsyth County, N.C. Later, the family moved to Davie County, N.C., and Wade graduated from Farmington High School in 1948. It was in Davie County where Wade met the love of his life, Anna Mae Reeves. The two were joined in marriage on June 23, 1951. God blessed their union with 68 wonderful years of marriage. Wade and Anna had two daughters, Kathy Wright Durmire and Carol Wright. They and their spouses provided two grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Wade was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and servant of God. He was a living example of a Christ-centered life. He was the same, whether behind the pulpit preaching, standing in line at the store, walking down the street, working in his garden, or spending time with his family. He not only loved and cared for the needs of his family, but loved and cared for all those whom he came in contact with. It was not uncommon when his family would sit down for a meal to find a hungry stranger at the table. Wade loved to witness to others and show kindness.

Wade served two years in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and received an honorable discharge. Before going into the ministry, Wade was active in his home church, New Union Methodist Church, where he served as a Sunday school teacher, Sunday school superintendent, choir member, and grounds attendant. He also physically helped build the congregation's new church.

In 1961, Wade's 5-year-old daughter received third degree burns over 30 percent of her body. Wade prayed day and night, along with his church family and community, for his daughter's recovery. Wade prayed, "God, if you will spare her life, I will do anything you want me to do." Ninety-one days later, she was able to go home. It was after this Wade felt like the Lord was calling him into the ministry with each sermon he heard. He fought this feeling at first, thinking he could not be a minister, but when he answered the call, he felt like a burden had been lifted.

He enrolled in Mitchell Community College, where he earned a degree. He also attended Pfeiffer College and Appalachian State University. He was licensed to preach in 1965. He received a Certificate of Attainment from The United Methodist Church Ministerial Board for completion of the Fourth-Year Course of Study through Duke University's Divinity School on August 1, 1969. He was accepted into the Western North Carolina Conference as a deacon in 1968. He served as a registrar for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, each June, until he retired.

Wade was always knowledgeable in finances. He was a good steward in the work of the Lord and motivated the churches he served to meet their financial needs. His first appointment was Jones Memorial (Mooresville), 1966-1969. Members voiced their desire for a new church but were not sure if they were financially able. Wade helped them set a goal, and with prayer and self-denial, they built a new church during his three years there. Other appointments were: Deerfield, 1969-1971; Hiddenite, 1971-1977; Pelham-Hickory Grove, 1977-1981; Harmony-North Iredell, 1981-1983; Reeds, 1983-1989; Whitnel (Lenior), 1989-1991; and Bethel-Rhodhiss, 1991-1995. He retired in 1995.

He enjoyed mission trips. He went to Costa Rica on a building team. His most memorable trip was to the Holy Land, where he was baptized in the Jordan River on his 45th birthday, March 7, 1975.

Rev. Wright was honored in several ways throughout his ministry. On June 3, 1995, the U.S. flag was flown over the U.S. Capitol in recognition of the Rev. and Mrs. Wade Wright's contributions to their community and church. A certificate of recognition, along with the actual flag that was flown, was later sent to them, acknowledging this honor.

Wade was not just a church pastor; he was often referred to as a community pastor. He filled in as a substitute school bus driver, was a lieutenant in the local fire department, and preached at neighboring church revival services, which included other denominations. Wade's mind was always active, thinking of ways he could help others and spread the gospel of Christ.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the General Council on Finance and Administration Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Report on the Financial Statements
We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the related consolidated statements of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended, the related consolidated statement of functional expenses for the year ended December 31, 2018 and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility
Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion
In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of organization: The Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference) is a not-for-profit organization representing approximately 1,100 member churches and is comprised of eight districts. The Conference provides various services for its member churches including administration of health benefits and retirement plans available to member clergy and Conference lay employees and collection of funds for remittance to various regional, national and global benevolences.

A portion of the funds collected from its member churches is remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church, which provides funds to national and global benevolences. The amounts remitted have been included in the consolidated statements of activities as general church expenses.

Principles of consolidation: The Conference's consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church (Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits), as the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits' Board of Directors is appointed by the Conference. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The consolidated financial statements of the Conference also include the funds of the Charlotte Area Episcopal Office.

During the year ended December 31, 2017, Building Teams was merged into the Conference. This entity was a previously unconsolidated constituent ministries prior to being merged into the Conference. As this organization was affiliated with the Conference, the net assets of the organization were transferred to the Conference at net book value. This transfer was immaterial to the Conference's consolidated financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. As the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent, which is described in Note 14.

The Conference has not recognized any asset in its accounts that represents an interest in the net assets of the unconsolidated entities in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958-605-30, Transfers of Assets to a Not-for-Profit Entity or Charitable Trust that raises or holds contributions for others.

A summary of the significant accounting policies follows:

Accrual basis: The consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with GAAP.

Basis of presentation: Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations. The Conference may designate net assets without donor restrictions for working capital at its discretion.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time.

Revenues are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law.

Revenue and support: The principal source of revenue and support is apportionments received from the local churches. Apportionments are the approved levels of allocated support from the local churches. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year. Although the church discipline requires local churches to satisfy their apportionment allocation as their first benevolent response, local churches do not have any financial commitment for the underpayment of their apportionments.

Insurance premiums: The Conference administers a self-funded insurance program under which health benefits are provided for clergy and select lay employees of the Conference. Insurance premiums and related expenses are recorded in the period to which the premium and claims relate.

Contributions: Contributions are recognized as restricted support if they are pledged or received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donation. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as net assets released from donor restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as net asses without donor restrictions. Conditional promises are not included as support until such time as conditions are substantially met.

Grants: Grant awards are evaluated by management and determined to be either unconditional contributions or exchange transactions. If considered to be a contribution, revenue from grants is recorded upon notification of the award. If considered to be an exchange transaction, revenue from grants is recorded as expenditures are made under the terms of the respective grant agreement.

Cash: At various times throughout the year, cash balances in financial institutions exceed the amounts which are federally insured. The Conference periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes that the risk of any loss is minimal.

Assets held for others: The Conference is due apportionments and holds funds in various operating accounts related to payments to be made on behalf of other affiliated related ministries. These funds are directed by the third parties and are not available for Conference operations.

Accounts receivable: As a significant dollar amount of member church apportionments are received close to year end, member churches are provided a cut-off date subsequent to year end in order for churches to fulfill their annual apportionments. Thus, accounts receivable are recognized at the dollar amount of apportionments received by the cut-off date. As such, no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Notes receivable: The Conference has notes receivable outstanding relating to the sale of land and funds loaned to member churches. The Conference believes the amounts to be fully collectable and does not believe an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary. Of the amount receivable as of December 31, 2018, $194,783 is due within one year and the remaining $352,949 is due through 2036. Interest of 2% to 6.4% annually is paid on the long-term balance. Interest income was approximately $14,000 and $16,000 for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and is recorded within investment income on the consolidated statements of activities.

Investments: Purchased investments are initially recorded at cost. Investments received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. The Conference's investments are assets invested by the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) and Wespath, the investment agency of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, under investment agreements wherein the investments are either directly invested or pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's pooled investments are valued at fair value based upon the net asset value (NAV) of each fund as provided by the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's direct investments, which consist primarily of cash and money market funds, are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Board-designated investments: The Conference has designated certain investments to function as endowments to fund the Conference's pension and postretirement health benefits. These investments follow the investment policy noted above (see Note 11).

Building, improvements and equipment: Building, improvements and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Building, improvements and equipment received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. Minor renewals and replacements are expensed when incurred.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic lives of the respective assets held, which are as follows:

	Years
Building and improvements	10-40
Furniture and equipment	3-10

Agency liabilities: The Conference is an agent for various affiliates and constituents. Amounts received and not yet expended on behalf of beneficiaries have been reported as a liability for amounts held for others in accordance with ASC 958-605-30.

Accrued health benefits: The Conference records a liability for their healthcare claims incurred but not reported, which is estimated using actual claims expense and the expected lag in days the claims are outstanding.

Operating and Nonoperating activities: The consolidated statements of activities report the change in net assets from operating and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues consist of substantially all of the activity of the Conference except for certain items specifically considered to be of a nonoperating nature. Nonoperating activities include contributions restricted for capital expenditures and permanently restricted endowment contributions, net gain (loss) on investments, postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs and significant items of an unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Functional allocation of expenses: The cost of providing program activities is included in the consolidated statement of activities and certain costs have been allocated, based on management's judgment, between the program and supporting services benefited.

Use of estimates: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Reclassifications: Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation with no effect on total net assets or change in net assets as previously reported.

Income taxes: The Conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Management evaluated the Conference's tax positions and concluded that the Conference had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the provisions of the Income Taxes Topic of the FASB ASC.

Subsequent events: The Conference has evaluated its subsequent events (events occurring after December 31, 2018) through July 26, 2019, which represents the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

Recent accounting pronouncements: In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), to supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under GAAP. The core principle of ASU 2014-09 is to recognize revenues when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity is expected to be entitled for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 defines a five-step process to achieve this core principle and, in doing so, more judgment and estimates may be required within the revenue recognition process than required under existing GAAP, including identifying performance obligations in the contract, estimating the amount of variable consideration to include in the transaction price and allocating the transaction price to each performance obligation. ASU 2014-09, as deferred one year by ASU 2015-14, will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, using either of two methods: (a) retrospective to each prior reporting period presented with the option to elect certain practical expedients as defined within ASU 2014-09; or (b) retrospective with the cumulative effect of initially applying ASU 2014-09 recognized at the date of initial application and providing certain additional disclosures as defined in ASU 2014-09. The Conference is currently in the process of evaluating the effect this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both parties to a contract (i.e., lessees and lessors). The new standard requires lessees to apply a dual approach, classifying leases as either finance or operating leases based on the principle of whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase by the lessee. This classification will determine whether lease expense is recognized based on an effective interest method or on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, respectively. A lessee is also required to record a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for all leases with a term of greater than 12 months regardless of their classification. Leases with a term of 12 months or less will be accounted for similar to existing guidance for operating leases today. The new standard requires lessors to account for leases using an approach that is substantially equivalent to existing guidance for sales-type leases, direct financing leases and operating leases. The Conference is in the process of evaluating the impact of this new guidance and does not expect any material impacts on the consolidated financial statements.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities, which simplifies and improves how a not-for-profit organization classifies its net assets, as well as the information it presents in financial statements and notes about its liquidity, financial performance and cash flows. Among other changes, the ASU replaces the three current classes of net assets with two new classes, net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions, and expands disclosures about the nature and amount of any donor restrictions. ASU 2016-14 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted. The Conference adopted the provisions of ASU 2016-04 for fiscal 2018 and has retrospectively applied the changes to fiscal 2017. Implementation of this guidance resulted in a change in presentation of net assets and additional statements and disclosures surrounding the Conference's expenses and liquidity.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-07, Compensation—Retirement Benefits (Topic 715): Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost. ASU 2017-07 requires that an entity report the service cost component of net periodic pension and postretirement cost in the same line item or items as other compensation costs arising from services rendered by the pertinent employees during the period. The remaining components of net benefit costs are required to be presented in the income statement separately from the service component and outside a subtotal of income from operations, if one is presented. The amendment further allows only the service cost component of net periodic pension and postretirement costs to be eligible for capitalization. ASU 2017-07 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and the interim periods included within those annual periods, with early adoption permitted. ASU 2017-07 must be applied retrospectively for the presentation of the service cost component and the other components of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost in the income statement, and prospectively, on and after the effective date, for the capitalization of the service cost component of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit in assets. Management is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-08, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. ASU 2018-08 clarifies the guidance for evaluating whether a transaction is reciprocal (i.e., an exchange transaction) or nonreciprocal (i.e., a contribution) and for distinguishing between conditional and unconditional contributions. The ASU also clarifies the guidance used by entities other than not-for-profits to identify and account for contributions made. The ASU has different effective dates for resource recipients and resource providers. As the Conference is a resource recipient, the ASU is applicable to contributions received for annual periods beginning after June 15, 2018, including interim periods. Where the Conference is the resource recipient, the ASU is applicable to contributions received for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. Early adoption is permitted. The Conference is in the process of evaluating the impact of this new guidance.

Note 2. Liquidity and Availability of Financial Assets

The Conference's financial assets available for general expenditures within one year after December 31, 2018, are as follows:

Financial assets:
Cash	$ 6,472,783
Accounts receivable	3,284,571
Investments	75,015,760
Notes receivable (due within one year)	194,783
	84,967,897
Less amounts not available to be used within one year:
Liabilities held in trust	167,363
Net assets in endowments subject to donor restrictions	1,925,780
Net assets subject to purpose restrictions	1,855,303
Board designated net assets	32,772,171
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 48,247,280

The Conference receives contributions and premium income from constituent churches to provide benefits support to the various clergy for pension contributions and health claims. Over the years, the Conference has placed unrestricted excess cash into investment vehicles, as both retained funds and investment gains, in order to generate income as needed for cash demands. The Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A) monitors the Conference fund accounts while the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Inc. (CBOPHB) manages the pension fund accounts. In addition, the Conference receives support without donor restrictions from its constituent base which represents 88% of the budgetary requirements with the remainder controlled through spending management and appropriated earnings from gifts without donor restrictions.

Western North Carolina Conference

Note 2. Liquidity and Availability of Financial Assets (Continued)

Other income without donor restrictions, earnings appropriated from fees, program recaptures, contributions without donor restrictions and contributions with donor restrictions for use in current activities and programs are considered to be available to meet cash needs for general expenditures. General expenditures include primarily administrative and general expenses. Annual operations are defined as activities occurring during, and included in the fiscal year budget.

The Conference manages its cash available to meet general expenditures following three guiding principles: 1) operating within a prudent range of financial soundness and stability, 2) maintaining a sufficient level of asset liquidity, and 3) monitoring and maintaining reserves to provide reasonable assurance that the Conference's obligations will continue to be met.

The Conference CF&A and CBOPHB meets three to four times annually to review and make any necessary adjustments for spending.

Although the Conference does not intend to spend from board designated net assets (other than amounts appropriated for general expenditure as part of the annual budget approval and appropriation), these amounts could be made available if necessary.

Note 3. Investments

The Conference has an agreement with the Foundation in which the Foundation acts as agent and investment manager of the Conference's investments. These investments are either directly invested or pooled by the Foundation into larger investment funds. The Foundation adheres to the Statement of Investment Guidelines adopted by the General Council of Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference also maintains investments with Wespath, which are invested by Wespath in pooled investment funds. Wespath investments are comprised of approved investment instruments in accordance with the funds' objectives.

The Conference's investments at December 31, 2018 and 2017, are as follows:

Assets invested by the Foundation:
Direct investments	$ 4,527,906	$ 8,471,288
Pooled investments	70,204,341	83,394,810
	74,732,247	91,866,098
Assets invested by Wespath:
Pooled investments	283,513	440,546
	$ 75,015,760	$ 92,306,644

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

The Conference's investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

Total investment return is comprised of the following for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017:

Investment income, net of investment fees (2018 – $468,745; 2017 – $390,372)	$ 2,150,012	$ 1,439,189
Net (loss) gain on investments	(7,169,852)	9,156,584

Note 4. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value measurements apply to all financial assets and liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. GAAP establishes a framework for measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities and requires fair value measurements be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Financial instruments with unadjusted, quoted prices listed on active market exchanges. The Conference's Level 1 financial instruments are comprised of cash and money market funds and certificates of deposit.

Level 2: Financial instruments determined using pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable at the reporting date. Level 2 investments relate to a Clergy Debt Program administered by the Foundation. Interest rates utilized for loans made by the Foundation, under this program, were determined to approximate market rates.

Level 3: Financial instruments that are not actively traded on a market exchange and require using significant unobservable inputs for determining fair value. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant judgment or estimation.

There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2018 and 2017.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Level 1 instruments carried at fair value, and Level 2 and Level 3 instruments carried at estimated fair value, are comprised of the following at December 31, 2018 and 2017:

		Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using
	December 31, 2018	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Financial assets:
Direct investments:
Cash and money market funds	$ 2,315,824	$ 2,315,824	$ -	$ -
Clergy Debt Program	2,212,082	-	2,212,082	-
	4,527,906	$ 2,315,824	$ 2,212,082	$ -
Investments measured at NAV (a)	70,487,854
	$ 75,015,760

		Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using
	December 31, 2017	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Financial assets:
Direct investments:
Cash and money market funds	$ 6,385,496	$ 6,385,496	$ -	$ -
Clergy Debt Program	2,085,792	-	2,085,792	-
	8,471,288	$ 6,385,496	$ 2,085,792	$ -
	$ 92,306,644

(a) In accordance with Subtopic 820-10, certain investments that were measured at NAV per share (or its equivalent) as a practical expedient (see Note 5) have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the line items presented in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Changes in fair value levels: To assess the appropriate classification of investments within the fair value hierarchy, the availability of market data is monitored. Changes in economic conditions or valuation techniques may require the transfer of investments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period.

Management evaluates the significance of transfers between levels based upon the nature of the investment and size of the transfer relative to total net assets available for benefits. For the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, there were no significant transfers in or out of Levels 1, 2 or 3.

Note 5. Net Asset Value (NAV)

The Conference's assets measured at NAV are held with the Foundation and Wespath under investment agreements wherein the investments are pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. The following table sets forth additional disclosures of the Plan's investments whose fair value is estimated using the NAV per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient as of December 31, 2018 and 2017:

Investment	Fair Value December 31 2018	Fair Value December 31 2017	Unfunded Commitment	Redemption Frequency	Other Redemption Restrictions	Redemption Notice Period
Commingled pool of assets:
Assets invested by the Foundation:
Balanced fund (a)	$14,093,953	$17,777,478	None	Daily	None	Daily
Conservative fund (b)	3,783,530	6,418,334	None	Daily	None	Daily
Diversified fund (c)	51,141,721	57,781,430	None	Daily	None	Daily
Development fund (d)	624,743	793,620	None	Daily	None	Daily
All-equity fund (e)	560,394	623,948	None	Daily	None	Daily
Assets invested by Wespath:
Short-term investment fund (f)	155,802	304,485	None	Daily	None	Daily
Multiple asset fund (g)	127,711	136,061	None	Daily	None	Daily
Total	$70,487,854	$83,835,356

(a) Seeks to provide investment income while growing principal over the long-term by investing in a balanced portfolio of both stocks and bonds.

(b) Seeks to preserve both invested principal and earned interest while minimizing the risk of loss of principal.

(c) Seeks to attain current income and capital appreciation by investing in a broad mix of different types of investments with a long-term horizon. Investors should be willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.

(d) Seeks to provide an investment alternative for those who are seeking the security of a fixed-type vehicle at competitive rates. The offering is made to individuals serving the United Methodist Church and church institutions that reside in North Carolina or South Carolina to finance Methodist institutions for building programs and other capital investments.

(e) Seeks to attain long-term capital appreciation from a broadly diversified portfolio that includes both domestic and foreign common stocks. It is designed for investors who seek long-term investment growth through exposure to the broad domestic stock market as well as regulated foreign stock exchanges and who are willing to accept the risk of possible wide fluctuations in the unit price of the fund.

(f) Seeks to maximize current income consistent with preservation of capital. This type of fund usually ranks low on the risk-return spectrum and is designed for low risk-tolerant institutional investors who are reluctant to risk the loss of any capital contributions or accumulated interest.

of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

(g) Seeks long-term investment growth and income from exposure to a broadly diversified portfolio. Balanced funds generally rank moderate to high on the risk-return spectrum. The fund is designed for investors with a relatively long-term horizon who are willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.

Note 6. Land, Building, Improvements and Equipment

The composition of land, building, improvements and equipment at December 31, 2018 and 2017, is as follows:

	2018	2017
Building and improvements	$ 8,454,072	$ 4,420,130
Furniture and equipment	421,341	1,322,169
Construction in progress	-	342,232
Land	1,541,785	1,416,785
	10,417,198	7,501,316
Less accumulated depreciation	1,316,641	3,571,360
	$ 9,100,557	$ 3,929,956

Depreciation expense was $265,022 and $114,374 for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Note 7. Retirement Plans

Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (MRPF): The Conference participates in the MRPF, which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. For service subsequent to 1981, clergy members of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multi-employer retirement plans offered by The United Methodist Church as described below.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits acts as trustee responsible for deposits with Wespath. All assets of the plan are available to pay all benefits of the plan, regardless of the conference from which the contributions came or under which benefits were accrued. However, each conference controls certain benefit provisions of the plan and may choose to fund this plan using different funding methodologies. In the past, the Conference has chosen to fund the plan using the full actuarial allocation and is overfunded. Therefore, no contributions were made to this plan in 2018 and 2017, and the Conference's excess funding in this plan has been used to fund the benefits for the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) shown below. An actuarial report is available from Wespath that shows the funding requirements and funded status of all the conferences for the MRPF.

Because employers that contribute to multi-employer plans are responsible only to make the contributions called for and they do not have a directly identified or separate interest in investment gains or losses or administrative costs, nor do the employers have a directly identified or separate obligation for benefit payments, separate assets and liabilities for their portion of the plan are not recognized and the contributions are recognized as expense in the period in which they are paid.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): U.S. bishops, Conference members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the MPP. The MPP is a multi-employer defined contribution plan which required the Conference to contribute 12% of each participant's compensation, subject to a limit on total compensation. This plan was frozen effective December 31, 2006; however, the Conference is required to make payments to the plan as needed. In 2010, the Conference established an investment account to fund the required payments to the MPP. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the investment account has a balance of $4,955,020 and $4,805,942, respectively. Payment to the MPP was not required during 2018 or 2017, although future payments toward the plan are possible. This plan was replaced by the CRSP described below.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP): In addition to the MRPF described above, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the CPP. The CPP is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. A contribution of $0 and $1,479,308 was made for the plan years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. These amounts are included in program disbursements in the consolidated statements of activities.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP): Effective January 1, 2006, the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan were merged to form the UMPIP. Conference clergy members, lay employees and local church personnel are eligible to participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath, which currently allows an employer contribution of up to 12%. The Conference contributes 9% of all eligible lay participants' compensation and 3% of clergy participants' plan compensation. Total contributions to the plan for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, was $270,652 and $285,807, respectively. These amounts are included in management and general expense in the consolidated statements of activities.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): Effective January 1, 2007, the Conference established the CRSP, which is a multi-employer defined benefit plan and a multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath. Clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment to a conference, church, charge, district or conference-controlled entity or unit are eligible to participate. Effective January 1, 2014, clergy members and local pastors serving less than half-time are no longer eligible to participate, but will receive benefits accrued through December 31, 2013.

For the defined benefit plan, the contribution is based on a formula using the denominational average compensation and the year of credited service beginning January 1, 2007. For the defined contribution plan, contributions are 2% of each eligible participant's compensation, with an additional match of up to 1% based on each participant's personal contributions.

During 2017, the Conference was permitted to direct a portion of the overfunding in the MRPF plan to offset the required costs of the CRSP plan. The transfer from the MRPF $4,486,153 in 2017 has been reflected as nonoperating income on the consolidated statements of activities. No transfer was made during 2018. The contributions to the CRSP plan are reflected in program disbursements in the consolidated statements of activities. Redirection of funds is not expected to take place for the year ending December 31, 2019.

Total contributions to the CRSP for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, were as follows:

	2018	2017
Defined contribution plan, funded from the Conference	$ 1,466,782	$ 1,522,158
Defined benefit plan, funded from the Conference	4,362,849	-
Defined benefit plan, amounts allocated from the MRPF	-	4,486,153
	$ 5,829,631	$ 6,008,311

The Conference expects the annual contributions for all of the plans above to be approximately $8,000,000 a year. The total costs for the above benefit plans are generally billed to the churches of the Conference; however, any shortfalls are obligations of the Conference.

Note 8. Postretirement Health Benefit Plan

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributory, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care. The plan is unfunded.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the changes in the plan's accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation and fair value of plan assets for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, and a statement of funded status at December 31, 2018 and 2017:

Reconciliation of accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation:
Accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation, beginning	$ 10,078,446	$ 14,629,723
Service cost for benefits earned during the year	230,644	591,029
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	374,202	576,289
Actuarial gain	(943,027)	(5,560,748)
Contributions by plan participants	993,611	956,184
Benefit payments	(1,041,780)	(1,114,031)
Accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation, ending	9,692,096	10,078,446
Reconciliation of fair value of plan assets:
Fair value of plan assets, beginning	-	-
Employer contributions	48,169	157,847
Contributions by plan participants	993,611	956,184
Benefit payments	(1,041,780)	(1,114,031)
Fair value of plan assets, ending	-	-
Funded status, accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation in excess of plan assets	$ (9,692,096)	$ (10,078,446)

Note 8. Postretirement Health Benefit Plan (Continued)

The components of the net periodic postretirement health benefit net value (added) cost charged to expense for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, consisted of the following:

	2018	2017
Service cost for benefits earned during the year	$ 230,644	$ 591,029
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	374,202	576,289
Amortization of net gain	(1,145,277)	(697,477)
Total net value (added) cost	$ (540,431)	$ 469,841
Amounts recognized in postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs:
Actuarial gain for current year	$ 943,027	$ 5,560,748
Amortization of actuarial gain	(1,145,277)	(697,477)
Postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs	$ (202,250)	$ 4,863,271
Amounts recognized in net assets without donor restrictions but not yet recognized as components of net periodic postretirement health benefit costs:
Unamortized actuarial gain	$ (14,354,225)	$ (14,556,475)
Amount in net assets without donor restrictions expected to be recognized in net periodic postretirement health benefit costs in 2019:
Net actuarial gain	$ (1,125,737)

The actuarial gain in 2018 is due primarily to favorable demographic and claims experience during 2018 along with per-capita cost updates to reflect actual historical experience. The discount rate has been updated from 3.75% to 4.25%, and the mortality table has been updated to the RP-2014, modified with Scale MP-2018, projected generationally.

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, are expected to be paid by the Conference in future years:

Years ending December 31:
2019	$ 251,288
2020	234,458
2021	215,810
2022	195,482
2023	181,080
2024-2028	801,261

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Note 8. Postretirement Health Benefit Plan (Continued)

The accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 4.25% and 3.75% for 2018 and 2017, respectively. The actuarial assumptions relating to health care trend rates are evaluated for participants over 65 years of age and under 65 years of age separately. The under 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 10% for 2018 and is assumed to decline by 0.50% beginning in 2019 until reaching 5% in 2028, and remaining level thereafter. The over 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 5.00% for 2018 and is assumed to remain level going forward.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A 1% change in assumed health care cost trend rates would have the following effect:

	1% Decrease	1% Increase
Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ (168,754)	$ 242,625
Effect on the accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	(1,922,160)	2,586,724

As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Conference has approximately $7,648,000 and $9,162,000, respectively, designated by the Board to be used for payment of future net periodic postretirement health benefit costs. Any changes in the plan or revisions to assumptions that affect the amount of expected future benefits may have a significant effect on the amount of the reported obligation and future annual expense.

Note 10. Net Assets Released From Restrictions

During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, net assets were released from donor restrictions by incurring expenses satisfying the restricted purposes or by occurrence of other events specified by donors.

Property maintenance	2,250	200

Note 11. Endowment

The Conference's endowment consists of seven individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of relevant law: The Conference has interpreted the North Carolina enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (NC UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the corpus of the original gift. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulations are added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by NC UPMIFA. In accordance with NC UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund.
3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effects of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the Conference.
7. The investment policies of the Conference.

During 2017, the Conference reviewed and determined, in connection with legal counsel, that a previously recorded gift from a donor was incorrectly classified. The original amount of the gift and the accumulated earnings were transferred from endowed net assets to non-endowed net assets per the Conference's interpretation of the donor's intent based on review of the gift instrument.

Return objectives and risk parameters: The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Conference must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Conference, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Conference expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies employed for achieving objectives: To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending policy and how the investment objectives relate to spending policy: The Conference has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the calendar year end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Conference considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the Conference expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 1% annually. This is consistent with the Conference's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

Funds with deficiencies: From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor requires the Conference to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. Deficiencies of this nature that are reported in net assets with donor restrictions were $0 as of both December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Note 12. Lease Commitments

The Conference leases equipment and office space under noncancelable operating leases, which expire through November 2022. Minimum annual rentals range from approximately $900 to $55,000. Total rent expense was $216,636 and $111,725 for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Future minimum rental commitments for all noncancelable leases at December 31, 2018, are as follows:

Years ending December 31:
2019	$ 115,008
2020	97,839
2021	85,762
2022	51,050

Note 13. Abandoned or Discontinued Property

When a member church is abandoned or discontinued, the deed is transferred from the church's Board of Trustees to the Conference's Board of Trustees. The properties are recorded by the Conference at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value. As there is generally no carrying value and the fair market value of the properties is not easily estimated when abandoned, the properties are recorded by the Conference at a value of $0. When sold, the Conference will normally utilize 75% of the net proceeds for church vitality and utilize the remaining amount for church vitality in the applicable district in the area where the church was sold.

Note 14. Unconsolidated Constituent Ministry

GAAP requires the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. Because the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted, but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent as described below.

The non-consolidated constituent is the Foundation, a not-for-profit organization providing various investment management services for its clients, which consist of the Conference and United Methodist churches, institutions and agencies in Western North Carolina. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to act as an agent to provide professional investment management services to its clients. According to the statement of relationship between the Conference and the Foundation, the organizations have similar purposes and interests but are separate, self-governing associations.

The Foundation has assets of approximately $205,731,028 and $227,935,000 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. Of those assets, approximately $181,923,882 and $203,568,000, respectively, are investments. See Note 2 for the Conference's portions of those investments.

The summary financial information does not eliminate the transactions between the Conference and the constituent, such as investment activity with the Foundation and contributions from the Conference to the Foundation, if any.

The Conference is also affiliated with a significant number of related ministries through its connection with the United Methodist Church. The Conference has signed a statement of relationship with other entities that defines this connectional relationship and states that neither entity may require the other entity to assume any contractual, financial or other obligation. The Conference does not have control of or a financial interest in these affiliated entities. Grants and operating support provided to these entities totaled approximately $622,000 and $602,000 for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. These entities provided contributions to the Conference totaling approximately $100,000 and $222,000 for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

B. 2020 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶ requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from Wespath. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2020 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre 82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2018, is 1,740,019,798, while total plan assets are $1,904,387,237, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 109%. The Western North Carolina Conference portion of the liability is 3.9580% and the 2020 contribution is $4,074,313. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by CRSP DB Fund. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three quarter and/or half time clergy. The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2020.

Effective January 1, 2014, the CRSP DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non matching contribution. Clergy can earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3% to CRSP DC. The 2020 CRSP DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,513,000 and will be funded by Direct Billing.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan overview:

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or it may be paid in a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2018 is $3,606,807,509, while total plan assets are $3,885,277,143, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 108%. The required contribution for 2020 is zero. The Western North Carolina Conference's percentage of the total liability is 2.9275%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $3,803,548,721 and the Western North Carolina Conference's portion of that balance is $155,422,750 or 4.09% of the total.

PRE 82 PLAN

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre 82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre 82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

1) Years of service with pension credit approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
2) The conference pension rate (past service rate) the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre 82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre 82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre 82 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:
The 2020 PSR recommended to the Western North Carolina Conference will be $806.00, representing a 2% increase from the 2019 rate. The conference expects future annual increases to be approximately 2.00%.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Program Overview
The Western North Carolina Conference offers the following active health benefit to its active eligible participants: Self Funded - Non HealthFlex.

Current funding plan information:
The total cost of the program for 2020 is anticipated to be $14,382,000 and will be funded by Benefits Fund, Clergy Pension Protection Fund, Direct Billing. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 2.00%.

The rationale for these changes is that the actual costs continue to increase over time. The anticipated increase of 2% is realistic given the decline in number of active clergy serving.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported (if applicable)
The Western North Carolina Conference provides the following health plan to its eligible participants: Self Funded - Non HealthFlex. As of 12/31/2020, the estimated IBNR claims total is $1,006,740. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 2.00%. It is anticipated that the IBNR claims, if applicable, will be funded by billed premiums and premium reserves, if applicable.

Additional Conference-Sponsored Coverage (if applicable)
The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to provide health benefits coverage to the following groups during periods where without plan sponsor funded premiums the participants would not be provided coverage or benefits (all figures as of 12/31/2018):

1. Clergy or lay on disability (including pending disability): 17 participants at an estimated cost of $193,800.

The projected annual cost as of 12/31/2020 for additional plan sponsor funded coverage is $201,630.

POST RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFIT PROGRAM (PRM)

Program Overview:
The Western North Carolina Conference currently offers Self-funded for Post-Retirement Medical coverage.

Current funding plan information:
The plan sponsor's intention for 2020 is to Retain current plan benefit. PRM benefits provided are as follows: The PRM for WNCC is a Medicare Supplemental plan that is self-funded with premiums charged to retired clergy and spouses based on a range of years of service.

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 01/01/2018, the following is the funded position of the PRM benefits:

1. Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) net plan sponsor cost $9,877,127
2. Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) net plan sponsor cost $10,078,446
3. Assets (in plan and outside) designated for PRM $0
4. Service cost (SC) net plan sponsor cost $591,029
5. Unfunded APBO, [3. - 2.] ..... $(10,078,446)
6. Number of annual payments 20
7. Portion of unfunded APBO, [5. / 6.] $503,922
8. Ongoing funding contribution, [4. + 7.] $1,094,951

Future increases/decreases to the assets or APBO will be funded over the duration of the program as calculated in the PRM valuation report, or five years if not available.

These values are based on a 3.75% long-term discount rate, a 4.00% long term expected rate of return on assets, and a valuation year medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00% with an ultimate medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00%, beginning in 2028.

In addition to the PRM funding contribution listed above, the projected annual plan benefit cost for 2020 (subsidies, HRAs, claims or premiums) is $1,198,141.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

Plan Overview:
The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full-time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three-quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

The CPP adoption agreement executed by the Western North Carolina Conference contains its elections to cover or not to cover categories mentioned above.

Current funding plan information:
For 2020, the Western North Carolina Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $1,485,000, which is anticipated to be funded by: Direct Billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 1.00% per year due to the adjusted percentage is based on June 2019 invoicing amount as more accurate for 2019.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

Plan Overview:
The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax, Roth and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:
Conference office lay employees working an average of 20 hours per week or more are eligible after 12 months for a plan sponsor-funded pension contribution of 9% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The conference's estimated contribution for 2020 is $210,945 and will be funded by conference apportionments.

OTHER DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) OBLIGATIONS

Plan Overview:
The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Supplemental Life Insurance for Clergy and Conference. The estimated contribution for 2020 is $45,800 with the funding sources to be direct billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to the number of active clergy is declining. There could be a small decrease; however, we have received no word on any anticipated increases in premiums for these supplement life policies.

Plan Overview:
The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Ministers Moving Allowance provides moving expense. The estimated contribution for 2020 is $130,000 with the funding sources to be conference apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to Less funds requested in previous years due to lessor clergy moving.

CONCLUSION
The 2020 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and this summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Western North Carolina's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Western North Carolina Conference.
