| | Author last name, author first name. "Article Title." Date published. Note: Dates are written da Note: Dates are written da Note: Dates are written da Note: Dates are written da Note: Dates are written da Month year (e.g., 7 October 200 Author last name, author first name. "Article Title." Name of magazine or newspaper Date published: pages(s). | |
|---|---|--|
| (1) Correct bibliographic citation for article: | | |

(2) Circle the level of news this article is about: local

al state

national international

Name _____ Hour ____

(3) Summary of Article: Include a topic sentence, body and concluding sentence. Within the context of your story, answer WHO (no names unless familiar; use title instead), WHAT, WHERE (include continent if country some students may not be able to mentally locate), WHEN and WHY (or HOW). Use your own words. Tell a compelling story.

(4) Make any type of thoughtful connection with the article. (e.g., How does this article relate to your life? How does it relate to something you already know? How is it interesting to you?)