Good Morning!

Here are some updates for today:

Signatures

As you know, we are trying to get signatures to get Andrew on the ballot for SBP. Andrew will be in the Pit today, so stop by to see him and get some petition forms. You can also text him at (615) 512-9837. We need all the help we can get, so definitely come to the Pit today!

Rules

While collecting signatures, there are some regulations as to when/where you can collect signatures:

- Do not collect signatures in any campus building. This includes academic halls, dining halls, athletic facilities, and the Union. All signatures must be gathered outside or on private property.
- Do not collect signatures in the depression area of the Pit.

Remember these points!

- Affordability through innovation: Andrew is focused on pushing administrators to involve students in the conversation about changing the classroom experience at UNC, better using our resources through technology and new teaching methods.
- Tackling tough social issues head-on: Andrew is driven to actively and creatively address poignant social issues, such as sexual violence prevention, LGBTQ retention, and gender-neutral housing.
- Effectiveness through experience: Andrew has already worked with the administration in pushing it to champion innovative teaching methods, and he has a history of getting administrators and professors to actually listen to him.

The bottom line is that Andrew has great vision to solve complex issues at UNC, and he will make sure that students, professors, and administrators will collaborate to create lasting, effective change

If this is your first campaign listserv email, please read the following:

Website/Social Media

The campaign website (www.PowellforSBP.com), Instagram (@powellforsbp), and Twitter (@powellforsbp) will all be up and running by 11:59pm tonight! Be sure to follow and repost as much as you can!

Signups

Petition signing is underway! You (and your friends!) can actually sign the petition online via the link on the Campaign website: www.PowellforSBP.com.

We will also be on the ground canvassing for signatures. Please sign up for the time slots you will be available. If you know people who would love to get involved, by all means let them sign up as well. This is a collaborative effort, and we will need all the help we can get.

Petition Gathering

Starting at 9am (Wednesday the 22nd), we will be in the Pit and at Rams Head. Please sign up for a few one-hour or mealtime slots for each location:

Rams Head

Dorm Storming

We will also need a large number of people to head to dorms across campus to dorm storm. Dorm storming can only be done on Wednesday, Thursday, Sunday, and Monday from 7pm-9pm. Attached are the rules for dorm storming, and below is a signup link:

Petition Sheets

We will be on campus in the Pit and at Rams Head, so you can pick up the petition sheets from us directly starting at 9am.

After you have filled a petition sheet (each one holds 25 signatures), please hold on to them (guard with your life!) until you can give them to one of us! We will need to enter names and PIDs onto a spreadsheet to hand in to the Board of Elections. If you want to help with that, just let me know!

What is Andrew about?

Below are a few main points if you are asked for more information about Andrew. This is the cheat sheet to the main guiding points for the campaign, but you should also speak to your personal relationship to Andrew as well!

- Affordability through innovation: Andrew is focused on pushing administrators to involve students in the conversation about changing the classroom experience at UNC, better using our resources through technology and new teaching methods.
- Tackling tough social issues head-on: Andrew is driven to actively and creatively address poignant social issues, such as sexual violence prevention, LGBTQ retention, and gender-neutral housing.

- Effectiveness through experience: Andrew has already worked with the administration in pushing it to champion innovative teaching methods, and he has a history of getting administrators and professors to actually listen to him.

The bottom line is that Andrew has great vision to solve complex issues at UNC, and he will make sure that students, professors, and administrators will collaborate to create lasting, effective change.

As always, let me know if you need anything at \(919\) 259-3621

Best,

Neel
