

Pauper Players is a completely student-run organization that is celebrating 18 years of bringing musical theater to the UNC campus! We are always looking for enthusiastic and dedicated people to join our organization and we welcome both students and community members with open arms.

We provide opportunities for performing, designing, and managing a theater organization. If you would like more information please visit our website located at <http://www.unc.edu/pauper> or email uncchpp@hotmail.com.

Thank you for your support!
