Homecoming Queens, 1962

As every guy photographer knows, being a shooter is a great way to meet girls. As a geeky, overweight, dorky-glassed high school kid, imagine my surprise when I became the school's newspaper photographer and GIRLS WOULD LOOK AT ME AND SMILE. Of course it was for the camera (a Kodak Brownie Flashmite 20), but what did I care? I had crushes
