CITY BRIEF

La Residence signed an offer of compromise with the N.C. ABC Commission and will either lose its permit for 50 days or pay a $5,000 fine. The offer will be ratified at an ABC Commission meeting today.
La Residence was one of two bars where police say former UNC student Chandler Kania purchased alcohol underage before killing three people in a car accident in July. The other bar, He's Not Here, has not yet submitted a signed offer of compromise to the ABC Commission.

UNIVERSITY BRIEF

Student Government is no longer considering having trained monitors at social events, according to the October report released Tuesday. In the report, the Summers administration cites lack of feasibility due to the frequency of events on campus.

Chapel Hill Transit

This might be a little self-explanatory, but the app can be confusing.
For clarity, when you open the app, tap Chapel Hill Transit. It will give you a list of buses that go through and around Chapel Hill to various places from Student Stores to Franklin Street.
