

CONSENT TO RELEASE PHOTO/IMAGE

Dear Parent/Guardian:

During the next few weeks, UNC Chapel Hill's student-led organization, CIVICS in the Triangle, will be visiting 4th and 5th grade classrooms. Trained UNC undergraduate student teachers will conduct lessons in Northside elementary school to inspire students to become active citizens in our democracy. As a part of the organization's social media campaign, your child's image/photograph or work could be used in one of the following ways:

- Used on social media outlets (Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, etc.) to showcase UNC undergraduate student teachers interacting in classrooms with Northside students
- Posted on CIVICS in the Triangle's blog
- Appear on videotape for promotional videos about CIVICS in the Triangle
- Used in a printed publication such as The Daily Tar Heel

Your child's first or last name will not be included with your child's picture when published on social media.

There is no monetary compensation for the use of the work. Please sign the release form below and return this sheet to your child's teacher. Your permission grants us approval to publicize without prior notification and remains in effect until revoked. Please contact lucyrussell@unc.edu if you have any further questions. Thanks!
