From staff and wire reports

• f all had gone according to plan, Juan Ramirez Tijerina's conjugal visit with his wife would have rocked his world.

With a rolling suitcase in tow, Tijerina's wife Maria del Mar Arjona walked into a prison in Chetumal, Mexico and stuffed her husband inside her luggage before trying to leave.

Police foiled the couple's plot when officers noticed the bulky bag and stopped Arjona before she could leave the premises.

CORRECTION

Due to a reporting error, June 30's front page story "New leader of Reese Felts begins tomorrow" incorrectly stated that Reese Felts was an alumnus of the UNC School of Journalism and Mass Communication. He was in the department of radio, television and motion pictures, which later was incorporated into the journalism school. The Daily Tar Heel apologizes for the error.
