

The Vagina Monologues 2014

V-Day is a global activist movement to end violence against women and girls. V-Day is a catalyst that promotes creative events to increase awareness, raise money, and revitalize the spirit of existing anti-violence organizations. V-Day generates broader attention for the fight to stop violence against women and girls, including rape, battery, incest, female genital mutilation (FGM), and sex slavery.

Through V-Day campaigns, local volunteers and college students produce annual benefit performances of The Vagina Monologues and other works to raise awareness and funds for anti-violence groups within their own communities. In 2012, over 5,800 V-Day benefit events took place produced by volunteer activists in the U.S. and around the world, educating millions of people about the reality of violence against women and girls.

For organizations interested in sponsoring an event

The Vagina Monologues was performed in Spanish (Los Monólogos de la Vagina) for the first time in North Carolina this past spring at UNC-Chapel Hill. The show sold out and evoked a passionate and positive response in the Spanish-speaking Triangle community. In order to continue and expand on this success, a host organization is needed for the 2014 show. One or more organizations could collaborate as sponsors.

The show is put on entirely by volunteers. The sponsoring organization can keep up to 90% of the benefits from ticket sales if it is doing work or providing services to end violence against women and girls.
