

UNC
CAROLINA
WOMEN'S CENTER

February 22, 2016

Dr. Michele Rivkin-Fish
Department of Anthropology
305A Alumni Building
Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3115

Dear Dr. Rivkin-Fish:

I am pleased to inform you that you have been selected as the Carolina Women's Center Faculty Scholar. The Selection Committee was very impressed with your proposal, and we are excited to have an opportunity to offer funding for you to further your work on "Unmaking Russia's Abortion Culture: Family Planning, Family Values, and the Search for a Liberal Biopolitics."

Faculty Scholars are expected to offer a public presentation related to their project at some point during 2016-2017. This presentation can be organized in many ways: a formal lecture, a workshop, an interactive discussion, or something else. Since you budgeted a large portion of your funds to bring two scholars to campus for a colloquium, we can discuss whether you would prefer to consider that event your public presentation or if you would make another, more general presentation. We will contact you during the Fall semester to arrange for you to meet with your cohort, as well as to discuss the presentation. And, of course, we look forward to your involvement in the Center's work in all other ways that interest you as well.

Congratulations on your selection as a Carolina Women's Center Faculty Scholar! Funding will be transferred to your department at the beginning of AY 2016-2017. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions as we move forward.

Sincerely,

Clare Counihan
Program Coordinator, Faculty and Staff

cc: Dr. Carol Tresolini, Vice-Chancellor, Academic Initiatives
Dr. Rudi Colloredo-Mansfeld, Chair, Anthropology