

Join us to commemorate the ongoing struggle for justice at Carolina!

6:00pm Friday, March 31st Union 2518

In honor of her role as Strike Leader in the UNC-CH 1969 food worker's strike, which advanced civil rights and won raises for 5,000 state workers

CHAT presents
the Mary Smith-Elizabeth Brooks Human Rights Award to Mrs. Mary Smith

Keynote Address by Rev. Nelson Johnson, pastor of Faith Community Church in Greensboro, NC organizer of Black Monday in 1969.

Exhibit of photography and video footage including statements by Howard Fuller and Preston Dobbins and Joan Baez's concert to support Carolina's striking food workers

Refreshments provided by Mama Dip's

Updates on the continuing campus and community organizing efforts of UE-150, Student Action with Workers, and the Campaign for Historical Accuracy and Truth

Staff Photo by Tom Schnabel
Howard Fuller And Preston Dobbins
... Outside Lenoir At The Rally Wednesday

UNC Faculty On Parade

Sponsored by the Campaign for Historical Accuracy and Truth