

A black and white photograph of Fannie Lou Hamer, a prominent leader in the American Civil Rights Movement. She is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark, short-sleeved shirt with a small, light-colored circular pin on the left side. Her mouth is open as if she is speaking or shouting, and her right hand is raised in a fist. The background is slightly blurred, showing other people at what appears to be a public gathering or rally. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and shadows.
