Center for Jewish Studies, UNC

unc.edu/ccjs
100 Pettigrew Hall, Campus
962-1509

Established in 2003, the Carolina Center for Jewish Studies, an interdisciplinary academic program in the College of Arts and Sciences, promotes a deeper understanding of Jewish history, culture and thought through its teaching, research and community outreach initiatives. In 2011, UNC approved a new undergraduate degree program in Jewish Studies. The degree program will be offered through the Department of Religious Studies, where students will earn a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies with a Concentration in Jewish Studies. The Center's global focus and comprehensive scope of study, coupled with Carolina's national reputation as a student-focused research university, make the program truly unique among its peers. Future plans promise to establish Carolina as the leading institution for Jewish Studies in the American south and as a prominent source of research with an international reputation.

Department of Nutrition

sph.unc.edu/nutr
2200 McGavran-Greenberg Hall, CB #7461, Chapel Hill
966-7211

The Department of Nutrition was established in 1946 with the aid of a grant from the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation. With greater public interest in nutrition, increasing numbers of graduates from diverse baccalaureate programs started to seek careers in public health nutrition, and the Department began to recruit into the program persons with a broad educational base in the arts, humanities and behavioral sciences. Current research includes the role of nutrition in cancer prevention, inflammation of white blood cells and the relation to obesity and cancer, and how different foods affect the way the brain functions as we age. The department supports a student group, the Nutrition Coalition, whose activities are open to all students and dedicated to promoting healthy lifestyles on both the UNC campus and in the surrounding community through volunteer, social and educational activities. Find out more at studentorgs.unc.edu.

DPS is an accredited agency dedicated to the welfare of the University community with a commitment to the University's core teaching, research and public service mission. DPS police are qualified sworn officers, commissioned and holding the same responsibility and authority as city police officers or sheriff's deputies. They protect campus 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and offer a strong crime prevention program, providing information and classes to help UNC's students and employees.

DPS also coordinates the distribution of parking on campus and local transportation services with the towns including UNC's own Point-to-Point night-time shuttle. The Commuter Alternatives Program provides a menu of sustainable alternatives to single-occupancy vehicle use. Examples include the innovative Zipcar and Zimride programs, local and regional transit, park-and-ride options and bicycling. DPS addresses safety and transportation needs with professionalism and integrity, while protecting North Carolina's future.

Breadmen’s
breadmens.com
324 W. Rosemary St., Chapel Hill
967-7110

Just down the little hill on Rosemary Street, a block behind Franklin Street next to Warehouse apartments, lies one of the most visited full-service, American-Southern café anywhere around. Breadmen’s has been a local tradition since 1974, with a menu catering to every taste including breakfast all day, and classic meat-and-two veggies lunch and dinner fare, plus terrific burgers and sandwiches. The soups and casseroles specials change daily, based on the best local ingredients available. Did you know Breadmen’s caters any meal for any size group? The catering service is the most reliable and reasonably priced around. Come by for a bite to eat.

Brixx Wood-Fired Pizza
brixxpizza.com
501 Meadowmont Village Circle, Chapel Hill
929-1942

Brixx Wood-Fired Pizza is a fun, friendly neighborhood restaurant that serves the best brick-oven pizzas around! Brixx also offers a fine selection of signature sandwiches, pastas, salads and desserts – there’s something for everyone. The brick ovens enhance the natural flavors of the quality ingredients at Brixx and give their pizza great wood-fired taste unlike anywhere else. It is located in the center of beautiful Meadowmont Village, surrounded by interesting shops and restaurants in a setting reminiscent of a small European village. Sit on the patio and enjoy the beautiful fountain and busy sidewalk activity. There is plenty of free parking, and Brixx is convenient to UNC’s campus and stadiums.

Carrburritos Taquiera

carrburritos.com
711 W. Rosemary St., Carrboro
933-8226

Come to Carrburritos to enjoy the best in casual, fresh Tex-Mex dining. Our portions are generous, our flavors sophisticated and our prices reasonable. Everything is made in-house every day. We have the best burritos in town and six addictive salsas – one will surely become your favorite! All of Carrburritos’ dishes are made from scratch, including the salsas that feature tasty fresh fruit and veggie blends. We have indoor and outdoor seating in a cozy atmosphere on the border of Chapel Hill and Carrboro.

Cinco de Mayo

cincodemayorestaurants.net
1502 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
929-6566

Cinco de Mayo provides a traditional Mexican menu with choices for every palate with a festive, south-of-the-border attitude. The Franklin Street location is just past Estes Drive with an entrance just past the Meathouse butcher store. A little tougher to get to, yes, but well worth it just for the drink specials, including $6 buckets of 6 Cornoitas every day and $1.99 16 oz. Margarita on Mondays. Build your own combos for lunch or choose from beef, chicken, shrimp and vegetarian specials. Kids eat free from the kids menu until 5 p.m. on the weekends, and UNC students always get 10 percent off with a valid One Card.

Crook’s Corner Restaurant

crookscorner.com
610 W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
929-7643

In 1982, Bill Neal and Gene Hamer thought this the perfect venue to pursue Southern cuisine. The menu posted daily on the web site consistently offers some of Bill Neal’s classic recipes: Shrimp and Grits, Mount Airy Chocolate Souffle Cake, Princess Pamela’s Buttermilk Pie, Hoppin’ John and Jalapeno Hushpuppies. Season and market permitting, other Neal recipes such as Persimmon Pudding come and go. The Crook’s menu is now also well known for such Bill Smith’s seasonal dishes such as Soft Shell Crabs, Fried Oysters, and Aunt Hi’s Oyster Stew. The James Beard Foundation awarded Crook’s a 2011 America’s Classic Award for “Timeless appeal, beloved for quality of food that reflects the character of their community.” We are very proud of the recognition.

Dickey’s Barbecue Pit

dickeys.com
5318 New Hope Commons Drive #210, Durham
419-1101

Since 1941, we’ve been offering eight juicy hickory smoked meats (southern pulled pork, beef brisket, St. Louis ribs, turkey breast, ham, Italian marinated chicken breast, polish sausage, hot links), 16 fresh sides, and yes, we have hushpuppies! Vegetarians love our three-vegetable plate. And kids eat free on Sunday! (See dickeys.com for details.) Enjoy free ice cream with any purchase. Open daily 11 a.m.-9 p.m.

Domino’s Pizza

express.dominos.com
412 E. Main St., Carrboro
929-0246

While the store in Carrboro serves a lot of pizza to campus and the surrounding community, there are five more locations serving the UNC community and southwest Durham – but all you really need to know is that phone number or Website for online ordering, and hot, tasty pizza will be delivered to your door fast. Domino’s now features Artisan Pizzas for $7.99 each, and super carry-out deals if you do want to visit the stores.

Foster’s Market

fostersmarket.com
750 MLK Blvd., Chapel Hill
967-3663

Foster’s in Chapel Hill serves up great seasonal prepared foods to eat in or take out. From scratch-made soups and salads to casseroles, sandwiches and pizzas, Foster’s delivers deliciousness in every bite. Need a morning pick-me-up? Our café baristas can stir up a caffeine concoction to keep you going. No time to cook? Foster’s made-from-scratch “Family Dinners” offers a packaged plan of five delicious heat-and-eat meals, including vegetarian options. Looking for a special gift? We have everything you need to please the finicky foodie, including North Carolina-made BBQ sauces, salsa, crackers, cookies, and jams. Foster’s also delivers all of your tasty favorites straight to your door! Foster’s Market Catering is available for: Breakfast meetings, Lunches/Brunches, Business Conferences, Parents’ Weekend Events, Graduation Parties, Cocktail Parties, Tailgating Parties and Receptions of all kinds. Come home to Foster’s!

Guru India Restaurant

guruindianc.com
508-A W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
942-8201

Open just about a year now, Guru India has become a local hit with a reputation as serving the most authentic Indian food in the area. Chef-owner Narinder Singh operated two restaurants in Greensboro before taking over this location, formerly India Palace. Guru India features Tandoori specialties, Northern Indian Chana Batura and a variety of dinners for two for one low price. Lunch is served from 11:30 a.m.-3 p.m. daily, with dinner service beginning at 5 p.m. seven days a week.

Il Palio Ristorante at the Siena Hotel

ilpalio.com
1505 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
929-4000

This Four-Diamond AAA-rated Italian masterpiece nestled in the luxury Siena Hotel has been a local foodie and visitor staple since it first opened in 1989. This independent, locally-owned restaurant is inspired with a relentless commitment to detail and quality. Executive Chef Adam Rose’s creative Italian-inspired cuisine showcases the freshness, excellence and diversity of North Carolina’s local farmers and artisan producers. Our menus change frequently, and sometimes change just prior to service. Open for breakfast, brunch, lunch and dinner, with recently added outdoor patio seating featuring lounge chairs and bistro tables. Reservations are recommended.

Mama Dip’s Country Cooking Restaurant

mamadips.com
408 W. Rosemary St., Chapel Hill
942-5837

Mildred Edna Cotton Council (aka Mama Dip) was born in Chatham County, North Carolina. She was raised in Balwin Township where she started cooking at an early age. Mildred was the youngest of seven, and was dubbed “Dip” by her siblings because she was so tall and had such long arms that she could reach way down in the rain barrel to scoop up a big dipper full of water when the level was low. Mama Dip first learned to cook watching family members make meals by using the “dump cooking” method. Dump cooking means no recipes, just measure by eye, feel, taste and testing. Mama Dip’s first job was as a family cook in Chapel Hill. She then moved on to work at Carolina Coffee Shop, Kappa Sigma fraternity and St. Andrews Hall. In 1957 she worked with her mother-in-law in a tiny take-out restaurant where she began to hone her business skills. On a Sunday in November 1976 Mama Dip opened her own restaurant with $64 -- $40 dollars went toward food and $24 was used to make change. The morning’s take was used to fund the lunch meal and lunch to fund the dinner. At the end of the day Mama Dip took home $135, and the rest is history.

Tomato Jake’s Pizzeria

Tomatojakes.com
163 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
933-5277

Tomato Jake’s is the newest pizza place on downtown Franklin Street, boasting more variety of pizza-by-the-slice than any other store. Campus fundraisers and benefit nights are part of the Jake’s community service approach, with sponsoring groups netting 20 percent of the profits from events held there. Everything at Jake’s is made from scratch, including the gluten-free pizza, and half the menu features vegan or vegetarian items. Come grab a slice and watch the Tar Heels play on one of the five big-screen TVs. And if you’re road-tripping to Southpoint, visit the store on Renaissance Parkway.

Torero’s Mexican Restaurants

torerosmexicanrestaurants.com
11520 US 15-501, Suite 211, Chapel Hill
929.8012

At Torero’s, we have been serving customers in the Triangle for more than a decade. If you have yet to visit, you are invited to discover our unique family restaurant, including locations in downtown Durham on West Main Street and near South Square on the boulevard. Our authentic menu features pollos, carnes, fajitas and mariscos dishes. We have American favorites for the less adventurous and a full kids menu. Our famous lunch combinations are known Triangle-wide, and most are under $6. Join us on your birthday and receive a free dessert plus a photo of your happy day.

Vespa Ristorante

vespanc.com
306 W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill 969-6600

Ciao e benevenuti! Here at Vespa Ristorante we pride ourselves in serving the best Italian and Mediterranean food in Chapel Hill. Our beautiful menu, easily accessible downtown location, charming atmosphere and friendly staff make us the ideal spot for a romantic dinner, a family celebration or a night on the town with friends. Dishes like the Apricot Stuffed Pork Loin wrapped with Prosciutto and our perfectly cooked Lamb Shank served over Tumeric Risotto demonstrate that our Chef’s creativity and love of experimentation are married perfectly to his knowledge of traditional Italian cooking. The Pasta at Vespa is delicious, made in-house and cooked to order. Join us for our Early Bird Special every day from 4-6 p.m. We offer an appetizer, entree, and dessert for just $19.50. We can’t wait to see you soon and share a beautiful experience. Verderla presto, gli amici!

Yogurt Pump

yogurtpump.com
106 W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
942-(PUMP)7867

THE place to Chill on the Hill is tucked away in a cozy alcove where locals have enjoyed cool treats since 1982. Frozen yogurt is an art here, with truly remarkable flavors, updated daily. Not just chocolate; San Francisco’s Ghirardelli chocolate. Not coffee flavor, but Espresso Bean. Or try Thin Mint, Oreo Cookie, Cake Batter, Old Style Vanilla, tart berry flavors, and more. It also features great selections with no sugar added, low fat, and no fat, so you can enjoy guilt-free treats. While many others have come and gone, YoPo® is a true Franklin Street institution, voted “Carolina’s Finest” in its class for eight consecutive years, Mon-Thurs 11:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday ‘til midnight and Sunday Noon-11:30 p.m

117 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill
967-2037

Creative Metalsmiths has specialized in one-of-a-kind designs since 1978 when it began as one of the only all-metal galleries in the Southeast. Our local and nationally-showing artists have won numerous awards for their silversmithing and jewelry work. Our goal is to promote unique art metalwork with the artists who create it in a fashion that encourages collectors and a clientele who are interested in original pieces. We focus on artists using hand fabrication rather than casting. Creative Metalsmiths works both with stones and all-metal designs; with a large variety of wedding and engagement rings including Mokume-Gane styles. Great Outdoor Provision Co.

greatoutdoorprovision.com
1800 E. Franklin St., Eastgate, Chapel Hill
933-6148

Customers of Great Outdoor Provision Co. can get more than a great deal on outdoor gear this month — they can help provide a coat to a neighbor in need. In late October, the locally-owned store will reach out to community missions and deliver coats for the homeless during the 8th Annual Great Outdoor Coat Swap. Customers who donate a clean, lightly-used jacket will receive a 20 percent discount off the regular price of a new jacket. This is one of several philanthropic efforts that the Great Outdoor Provision Co. and its customers help support. Founded in 1972, the Great Outdoor Provision Co. is a family-owned retailer of clothing and gear for outdoor recreation enthusiasts with nine stores in eight North Carolina cities. Open 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Monday-Friday, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday, 1-6 p.m. Sunday.

Bring your own bottle of wine (or beverage of choice) and enjoy an unforgettable evening filled with friends, fun and fabulous art! You supply your cocktails, and we'll supply the rest. At WINE AND DESIGN, all you have to do is sign up, show up, sip up. Your canvas, paints, paintbrushes, and corkscrew will be waiting as a local artist helps you create that night's featured painting. You go home with new friends, great memories, and a newly-created masterpiece that shows off your "inner artist."

No experience in painting? NO problem, our local artists will guide you step-by-step! Our paintings are suitable for the first-time painter or for more experienced artists. We have an entire division called ART BUZZ KIDS® that is all about... KIDS! Sign up today at the website or call for more info.

We enjoy what we do and like working with our customers to give them exactly what they are looking for. We can print and embroider on a variety of clothing and materials. We provide our services to please the customer, and are always willing to take on small and unique projects. We offer discounts for volume and some non-profit organizations, and gladly accept unique jobs of any size to please our customers. Whether you need 20 shirts printed or 1,000 shirts, The Printery is your number one choice.

Red Bull Graduate Program

redbullgraduateprogram.com

The Red Bull Graduate Program is an intense, challenging 18 month deep-dive into the business, cultivating the next generation of brand and sales experts at Red Bull. The Program includes roll-up-your-sleeves, get-your-hands-dirty work, as well as formal education at leading universities, and the opportunity for international business assignments. The top candidates will be hired into our Sales, Marketing, or Finance Organizations, and will experience an intensive cycle of learning, succeeding, falling down, getting up and going back for more. Think you’ve got what it takes? Applications for the 2013 Red Bull Graduate Program are open now, and the Program begins next August. Have questions? Shoot us an email at <mailto:graduate.program@us.redbull.com>.

97.9 FM WCHL Radio

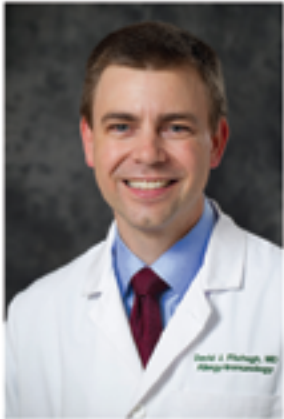

chapelboro.com
88 Vilcom Center Drive, Suite 130, Chapel Hill • 933-4165

The flagship station of the Tar Heels, WCHL launched on the FM dial in August after many years only on AM 1360. The new frequency recognizes that that Chapel Hill-Carrboro is a unique community, and our programming and evolution as a station is designed to cater to the area’s unique needs and desires. Our news department covers the stories that matter to the people who live here. Whether it’s our local government, our schools, our crime and safety, or our university, you can count on WCHL to be on the story. Our progressive talk format would not work in most places in the state, but it works here. News, talk and Tar Heels.
