Hi everyone,

There has been an article floating around about Emilio's platform manager issuing a statement supporting me. I just wanted to let you all know that I don't have any inside scoop on what happened there - I don't even know the guy who wrote the post. I certainly appreciate his vote but I was as surprised as anyone by the statement.

While I completely trust all of you to use discretion, I think it would be wise to be tactful in sharing the article (if you choose to share it at all). I personally am not planning on making any posts or references to it at all. We just want to be sure that we maintain a very positive campaign, focused on us and our strengths, and not focused on negative things going on with our opponent.

See you at the debate!
Andrew
