DAILY DOSE

Just use your noodle?

ext time you're at the beach, think twice before you throw anything away — especially watermelons. Sixty eight-year-old Karl Ludwig Eichner, from East Naples, Fla., is accused of attacking a woman on the beach for throwing his rotting watermelon rind, carved into the shape of a face, into the ocean. According to the police report, after the woman dumped the watermelon into the ocean, Eichner retrieved the rind and returned it to the beach. The woman then Eichner reportedly dumped his swim noodle full of water on her and then punched her in the face.

disposed of it into the water for a second time.

NOTED. An Ohio couple was sentenced to hand out water safety brochures while standing in a small swimming pool after the pair was found rafting on the Grand River without life vests. The couple chose to serve time in a pool over 60 days in jail.

QUOTED. "I would die for him." Justin Lawther, whose parrot Angus was taken into custody after an online video showed Angus clinging to the windshield wipers of Lawther's moving car. Lawther said he is considering a hunger strike to get Angus back.
